MOUNTAIN VIEW

This beautiful weather ought to be the envy of the snowy and icy regions of the other states.

The Ladies' aid will hold an all-day quilting session today at the little white church. They are a busy crowd.

Mrs. Frank Bullard entertained a number of ladies at her home last Wednesday in honor of her birthday. Sherman Chandler left for Lacrosse, Wash., last Monday, to be absent several days on business.

Mrs. Robert Darnell returned to Oregon City last Wednesday from St. Vincent's hospital in Portland, where she has been a patient for three weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Boomer are both very feeble at the present time.

Mrs. Phillip Dordridge of Aberdeen, Wash., is visiting Mrs. Amanda Hickman.

Friends of Mrs. R. M. C. Brown called on her last Tuesday afternoon to remind her of her birthday. Fifteen ladies were present. Music and singing and a general social time were enjoyed by all. Refreshments were served. Mrs. Brown received many tokens of remembrance and many happy returns of the day.

Mr. Kirk moved his family last Monday out to his farm in the Highland district.

Mrs. Ray Welch and daughter are visiting Mrs. Welch's mother in the country for a week.

The younger set surprised Wilda Singleberry last Tuesday evening and had a social time with games and music. Refreshments were served before their departure.

Quite a commotion seems to be stirred up in regard to the special election on the Foster jitney franchise and over the attempt to recall Councilman Roy Cox. There seems to be a tendency to stir up trouble in the city council. Mr. Cox is an honest, straight man in the opinion of all his friends and if a recall is needed on any one there is plenty of good reason for one or two others, who have a history since they have been elected to the council. Let us have peace and harmony and work for the city's interest, not for personal spite. Having an election to settle the Foster jitney affair will cost the taxpayers a few hundred dollars for what the city council had already settled. Simply to satisfy a certain class of disgruntled politicians, the election is called. Let it be snowed under as hard as the city elevator toll was settled. We believe the P. R. L. & P. will do what it has promised and should the Foster franchise carry, the electric line will probably carry passengers to Portland for 15 cents one way or 25 cents a round trip. Then where will your jitney service make good?

What to Do for Bad Colds

If you want a cough medicine that gives quick and sure action in healing colds, coughs or croup, get Foley's Honey and Tar. It heals inflamed or swollen membranes in throat, chest or bronchial tubes; breaks up tight coughs, loosens the phlegm, makes breathing easier, stops tickling in throat. W. F. Thomas, Summerville, Ga., writes: "Foley's Honey and Tar is a most efficient remedy for coughs, hoarseness, etc. I have used it with excellent results."—Jones Drug Co.

HAZELIA

W. H. and Richard J. Zivney, two of Hazelia's substantial citizens, were in Portland on business Thursday.

Mrs. S. S. Boutz spent a very pleasant day shopping in Portland Monday.

Jerry Fiala, Jr., is suffering with an attack of sore eyes.

Charles Larson, the accommodating phone man of Tualatin Meadows was a pleasant caller at the C. C. Borland home Tuesday.

Mr. Bolds of Portland was a visitor at his farm at Hazelia Wednesday.

W. H. Zivney called on C. C. Borland Tuesday.

Hazelia was well represented at Pomona Grange Wednesday. Those attending from here were: Mrs. Frank Whitten and son, Clifford; Mrs. Fred Lehman and son, Donald; Mrs. S. S. Boutz and sons, Shirley and Jean; Mrs. Frank Childs, Mrs. A. Worthington, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Borland, H. M. and Lloyd Borland.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Thomas were shopping in the county seat Saturday. S. S. Boutz was a visitor in Oswego Wednesday.

George J. Nagl was marketing farm produce in Portland Friday.

Mrs. Joneth Johnson is on the sick list.

Albert P. Mumler of Lents, Ore., was pleasantly entertained at the George J. Nagl home Thursday night.

Mrs. Charles Lortz of Portland was the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joneth Johnson, the fore part of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Zivney motored to the Rose City Friday.

A. R. Boutz was very pleasantly entertained by friends in Portland on Saturday evening.

Mrs. Joseph Zivney was the guest of her son, W. H. Zivney, and family Friday.

Mrs. George Wilson was in Oswego Saturday morning.

Miss Lena Lehmann was very pleasantly entertained by her aunt, Mrs. Frank Childs, Saturday evening.

C. C., H. M. and Lloyd Borland were business visitors in Oregon City Friday.

Richard J. Zivney spent the week-end with his sister, Mrs. Molly, and family of Garden Home.

Albert R. Boutz was a business visitor in Vancouver, Wash., the first of the week.

Theodore Steinhiller has been very busy selling and delivering his large crop of hay.

S. S. Boutz was a visitor in Wilamette Saturday.

Those from this locality who attended Oswego Grange Saturday and helped Mr. Chitwood of Ardenwald to install the officers were: Mrs. Frank Childs, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Davidson, Mrs. S. S. Boutz and sons, Mrs. Frank Whitten and sons, H. M. and Lloyd Borland, Miss Lena Lehmann and Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Borland. This makes the seventh year C. C. Borland was installed Master of Oswego Grange.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Thomas and son, Loring, are house guests of Mr. Thomas' parents near Stafford.

Mrs. Gage of Stafford, her son John and two grandsons of St. Helens, were in the neighborhood Saturday.

A couple of farmers were talking in the Hazelia school building the other day about the recent cold snap, when the mercury went somewhere near 2 below at Oswego, when an old farmer with logan-berry-vine whiskers simply butted in and said, "Wal, 'twas 48 at Oswego." "What on airth are you trying to masticate, anyway?" asked one of the speakers. "You wuz talking about Oswego's cabbage market, wuzn't yer? Its been about $2.00 higher right along at Oregon City than Oswego, but I didn't spose there wuz so much difference between the two towns," remarked the man with the Angola front. There were no shots fired, no sad funeral of the repulsed enemies, no upturned plate or empty seat in the family circle. The episode all happened here at Hazelia and vengeance, by all rights of the unwritten law, could not be tolerated. The old man lit his pipe, buttoned his whiskers under his vest and slowly wended his way among the giant, classic hills of Hazelia.

Mrs. Frank Whitten was shopping in Oswego Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Papoun are the proud parents of a baby girl, born January 10.

There was no preaching at Hazelia Sunday, as the minister failed to appear.

Edgar and William Hendricks of Oswego were visitors here Sunday.

Mrs. Fred Lehmann was a pleasant caller at the home of Mrs. Papoun Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Borland spent Sunday in Tualatin Meadows.

EAST CLACKAMAS

Mrs. L. Rasmussen and daughter, Meta, were Portland visitors last Saturday.

Mrs. A. C. Kelnhofer, who visited her parents near Walla Walla for a month, returned last week. We presume she was very glad to get back to old "web foot," where there is not so much snow.

Mrs. A. Heinrich was brought home last Monday a very sick woman, but at present she is improving. Dr. Meissner of Oregon City is attending her.

A. Daue, who has been indisposed for quite a while, is reported not very much better at present writing.

The nice weather and east wind does not seem to take very well with our people for there is quite a bit of sickness just at present. We scan the horizon for some rain clouds to improve the health of all of us.

Fred Kneeland has moved out with his brother, Will Kneeland, to make his home for a while.

Ralph Boyer, who has been visiting relatives in Moscow, Idaho, returned home last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Boyer and Earl Boyer were invited guests to a six o'clock dinner at Hotel Portland, January 6.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Daue were shopping in Oregon City last Tuesday.

Mrs. W. Kneeland was on the sick list a few days last week.

Franz Keisner of Portland was painting for G. Haberlach last week.

Helen Vietor and daughter, Alice, were week-end visitors with Mrs. Vietor's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Haworth.

There is to be a spelling bee and program at the schoolhouse next Saturday night.

Mrs. John Heinrich, Jr., visited home folks last Tuesday evening.

Several farmers are taking advantage of the fine weather and rushing their plowing.

Mrs. M. Schuren spent the week-end with her daughter, Mrs. H. H. Blake.

Quite a few people from here attended the funeral of W. W. Smith at Clackamas last Wednesday.

Clarence Enghouse was home a few days last week assisting the folks with some work.

"Grandma" Kelnhofer was visiting friends near her old home last week.

Mrs. Enghouse, Mrs. Shearer and Mrs. E. R. Boyer visited Mrs. A. Heinrich last Tuesday.

G. Haberlach, Jr., was a Portland visitor last Tuesday.

Mrs. Franz Haberlach and Mrs. W. P. Mundhenke visited Mrs. A. Heinrich last Thursday.

Earl Boyer journeyed to Oregon City Sunday evening. Some feminine attraction, we presume.

CHERRYVILLE

No rain, nor snow nor a cloud in the sky.

This is surely ideal winter weather, and it will soon be spring.

There is a good attendance at the Lyceum Friday evening of each week and the program is heard with much interest.

W. O. Rugh has rented a house in Woodstock, a suburb in east Portland, to be with his daughters, who are attending trade school.

W. M. Walker, who has a ranch near the Alder creek bridge, two miles east of the postoffice, lately came out from Portland, and says there is strong talk of dividing Clackamas county. The making of another county would mean another bunch of tax-eaters at a new court house to be located at Estacada.

Mrs. Cooper, who lives in this vicinity, received a letter from a friend at Vancouver, B. C., which says that on account of expensive war tax they are anxious to leave that part of the king's dominions. The letter says a residence that cost over $12,000 they offered for $1200 and found no buyer. Their tax amounts to more than half of their income.

J. T. Friel has had John S. St. Clare plowing for a few days.

George Odell has just finished his new house and has moved in. George has one of the finest homes on railroad land. He has it papered. He says he is going to clear up a hay patch. George is one of Cherryville's live men and is a jolly good fellow.

J. T. Friel, Jr., is in California. He traded his 40 acres for city property.

"Dad" Miller has a fine grocery store in Cherryville.

Carl Ault has been building a house on railroad land. Someone says he must be going to be married.

Mrs. McIntyre has gone to visit her niece at Brightwood.

William Odell has entered suit against Mr. King for damages for a valuable horse which came to its death from injuries received on an old wire fence. Mr. King refuses to pay for the horse.

To the voters of Cherryville: Would you like to be in the new Cascade county? "I should say not. We do not want high taxes."—Cherryville voter and taxpayer.

If the county assessor would put in a deputy assessor from Cherryville who knows the country around here and Brightwood and allow him to assess land at its true value the people would be satisfied.

REDLAND

Gus Fischer is installing a 12-horsepower motor gasoline chopper to take the place of the old water wheel and burrs. Owing to a hole in the dam he has more or less trouble on account of the water supply.

A. S. Allen, Mr. Polehn, Mr. Fullam and Mr. Heinbotham are each in line for a Ford.

Mr. Armstrong thinks the cedar rail fence has ornamented the front part of his place long enough and is now putting up a wire fence.

The cream hauler had a narrow escape from an upset on the hill south of Fischer's when the truck wheels dropped into a sink hole in the middle of the road. Old "Peggy" also got stalled there but managed to get out with a whole skin.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hughes of Reedville were visitors at the home of A. T. and J. Hughes. Tom has gone to ranching and has purchased a home from John.

Pretty cold weather to be doing any plowing. Ground is froze too hard.

The young folks have formed a club and are intending to give a series of dances at the Grange hall. The next will be on Saturday. Strictly an invitational affair.

Mrs. A. T. Hughes, who attended the Farmers' course at O. A. C., was very much pleased with the program and believes much good will redound to the farmers throughout the state.

The boys had four coyotes on the run Sunday in the Cutting canyon, with seven hounds after them. What we need is more people with shot guns on the stands.

Mr. Baeson is another cream patron who has quit. He figures when his feed bill is $40 and cream check only $38 its time to make a change. He is now making his own butter.

Mr. Sunday has a brother visiting him.

Mr. Neuffer has sold his potatoes to Mr. Larson. We are told that for extra fancy American Wonder $2.25 per cwt. is being offered at Damascus.

Dimick seems to be right on the job at Salem. Go to it, old boy, we are back of you!

VIOLA

Viola people were happy last week to learn that the Carver line was to be extended through to near Viola and on to Highland. Work is to be started this spring. We have been waiting a long time for this carline to reach us.

Mrs. Jackson sprained her ankle quite badly the other day. Mrs. Smith, a sister of Mrs. Jackson, came out from Portland to help Mrs. Jackson and remained a week.

Mrs. Tom Eaden was sick in bed with a bad cold a few days last week. Also Mrs. M. L. Sevier was quite sick a couple of days. There is quite a number ill with colds at present.

Rev. Pogue has bought a Ford runabout, which he thinks is cheaper than feeding a horse. He will preach at Viola church at 11 o'clock next Sunday morning.

Charles Heinbotham, wife and daughter walked over from River Mill in time for preaching service Sunday.

A potato buyer here last week offered $1.75 a sack right at home. Some of the farmers sold to him, while others are hauling to Estacada and some to Oregon City.

"Grandma" Miller has been sick for the past two weeks with a bad cold. We hope that she will soon recover.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Miller and daughter, Gladys, of Portland, came out on Sunday to see Mr. Miller's mother.

Mrs. C. G. Store from Highland is spending a few days with her mother and helping to take care of her.

Rev. Pogue, who has been holding a series of meetings at Clarkes the past two weeks, brought them to a close on Saturday. He will begin meetings at Redland on Sunday evening.

Mrs. A. O. Hollingsworth from Gladstone was here a few days last week calling on her sister, Mrs. Ray Miller, and her mother, Mrs. A. Tenney, and also her brother, Lauren.

BORING

Well, the sun is shining more for the first time in this vicinity this year.

Frank Irvin has just passed by with his large logging horse. He says he is going to get his hair shingled.

There is a logging camp south of Boring that has 80 men in its payroll. This is the great payroll for Boring. I have been told that $2.25 a day is the least they pay. It is reported that the logging company is going to extend its railroad as far east as Derper's ranch. That will help Boring.

Frank Irvin is going to work for Johnson's at logging.

Mr. Hickey of Boring has so many potatoes in that he hasn't room for those still in the ground. Wood is $4 a cord on board the car at Boring and Bruce Stone says "Bruce" is the busiest man in Boring. He ships wood all the year.

A terrible cyclone passed through Texas Thursday. A schoolhouse was torn to kindling wood; 11 children were killed and some were blown 200 yards and completely crushed. We Oregon people may rejoice in moderate winds, light snow storms and light hail in May. And there are no grasshoppers or chinch bugs to eat gardens as do the Texas pests.

William E. Childs has been hauling stove wood from east of town.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Anderson and C. and Mrs. C. Palmer were guests of O. A. Palmer Saturday night. They had a jolly time.

Boring has a barber shop now. The barber is located in the next room from "Uncle" Morgan's garage.

Clarence Strucken made a business trip to township 2 south, range 6 east, where he wants to be deputy county assessor. Mr. Strucken opposes the division of Clackamas county and says Clackamas county is not too large. Mr. Strucken is aiding in the circulation of petitions against county division.

DAMASCUS

Miss Nellie Elliott has been quite sick the past week with with la grippe.

Mr. Lewis and Mr. Shields are cutting wood for Peter Thompson.

The Parent-Teachers' association met at the schoolhouse and was called to order by Mrs. Elliott, chairman. A short program was enjoyed by all.

Mr. Lewis' family has moved into the Ben Elliott house.

Peter Thompson is moving back to the farm. Mr. Thompson does not like city life.

Mrs. Carlson has been appointed superintendent of the union Sunday school.
