

DO YOU DREAD WINTER?

If every man, woman and child in this vicinity would only take one spoonful of after meals for one month, it would put vigor in their blood to withstand the rigors of winter weather and help prevent colds, gripe and winter sickness. SCOTT'S is a fortifying medicinal food of particular benefit in changing seasons, and every drop yields direct returns in richer blood, stronger lungs, and greater resistive power. No alcohol in SCOTT'S.

BROWNELL FORGETS

Legislator Nominated by Democrats Wants G. O. P. in Full Control

The Honorable George C. Brownell, representing Clackamas county at the state legislative session at Salem, does not appreciate the fact that he was nominated for that honor by the democratic voters of this county as well as the republicans, and that it was in part democratic votes that elected him to his present position. News stories coming from Salem on Tuesday have the following to say: Democracy's control of a republican state was scathingly arraigned by Representative Brownell of Clackamas Monday afternoon in the first spectacular speech of the 29th biennial session, bringing cheers and handclapping from the other members of the house in spite of the tapping of Speaker Stanfield's gavel as the chair sought to maintain order.

Mr. Brownell took the floor in defense of house resolution No. 10, which had to do with the consolidation of various state departments. It was unfavorably reported by the committee on resolutions, headed by Representative Forbes of Deschutes, Jefferson and other eastern Oregon counties. Mr. Brownell declared that it was the duty of the republican members to stand shoulder to shoulder and fight for the common cause. "It is a shame and a disgrace to the republicans of the state," Mr. Brownell declared, "that Oregon, a republican state, should be represented in the United States senate by two democrats. The republican party has had enough of democrats, of non-partisanship, of Oregon Journalism and Westernism. It is for us to put an end to their misrule and to re-establish the credit of the republican party. This we can do by following the dictates of the people and enact legislation that will be a credit and a saving to the state."

The debate brought Representatives Stott, Rittner, Forbes, Lewis, Elmore, Burdick, Seymour Jones and Langer into it before the resolution was returned to the committee for further investigation. As the result of the debate, the committee, headed by President Thompson and Speaker Selling, of the last session, may be subpoenaed before this session to tell what they have learned in regard to consolidation of certain state offices. This committee was appointed in the closing days of the 1915 session, but Thompson and Selling are not members of the present session, and if they have accomplished any work, they may be called to explain the results.

NERVOUS WOMEN!

It's The Same Everywhere in Oregon.

Portland, Oregon.—"I was for six months troubled with nervousness, and the doctor said I had consumption. Through the advice of a friend I took Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and was completely cured. I am now in middle life and am in good health."

Mrs. G. W. MATHIS, 1476 E. 8th St., N. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is and has been for nearly 50 years just the medicine that every woman needs when passing through the changing days. It is not a secret prescription, for its ingredients are printed on the wrapper; it's a temperance medicine. Not only does it build up the entire system and make it strong and vigorous enough to withstand the organic disturbances, but it has a quieting effect upon the feminine organism that reduces the distress to a minimum. For any womanly ailment, disease or complaint, no matter of how long standing, we advise anxious women to get Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, in either liquid or tablet form.

THIS BOOK EXPLAINS. If you will send three dimes or stamps, to pay for wrapping and mailing, and enclose this notice, Doctor Pierce of the Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y., will send you a revised copy of his Common Sense Medical Adviser, in cloth binding, 108 pages, with color plates. Just what you need in case of sickness or accident. Treats of Physiology, Anatomy, Sex problems, Marriage relations, Hygiene, Exercise, Diseases and its prevention.

WOULD STOP PICKETING

C. C. Chapman Writes in Favor of Law Against Strike Activities

Salem, Oregon, Jan. 16, 1917. To the Editor:

Supposedly free American workmen, on their way to shops where they are employed upon terms and conditions which are satisfactory to them, are beset and intimidated by crowds of pickets representing organizations who have called strikes. These crowds gather around the entrances to the shops, and although they perpetrate little violence while police are in sight, they terrorize the workmen by menacing gestures and degrading imprecations. This is the situation today in Portland at the steel ship-building plants.

A slight amendment to Oregon's picketing law would prevent such terrorizing and threatening demonstrations on the public streets adjacent to plants where strikes have been declared; it would also prevent pickets from gathering in front of a store or restaurant in crowds, with banners, doing everything to ruin the shop-keeper's business by intimidating his patrons and proclaiming boycott.

Every community in Oregon is interested in legislation that will help preserve order in the metropolis so that its developing industries may be safeguarded. The success of ship-building is jeopardized, although it means much to every part of the state whose products are marketed; a fruit cannery has been driven out of Portland as a direct result of long-continued, noisy and disorderly picketing in front of its former plant in the heart of the city.

It is to be hoped that every member of the legislature will support such legislation as is necessary to protect workmen and workingwomen from intimidation because they work, and Oregon industries because they cannot be run profitably under union domination.

Yours respectfully,
C. C. CHAPMAN.

TO HAVE SMOKE ROOM

Lesson to be Taught by Decorations in Proposed Club Home

The young men who will be members of the proposed young people's club and gymnasium, a home for which is planned by the Baptist church, will be permitted to smoke in a special room in the new building if they so desire. The club is to be for the pleasure and profit of all the young people in the city and will include a smoking room, according to plans outlined by John W. Loder.

Mr. Loder does not believe that any one will care to smoke in the room, but it will be there for them. The walls will be adorned with statements of the injury done by nicotine, pictures of the result of smoking and a casket containing imitation bones and skulls will be exhibited. The chairs will be uncomfortable, and everything about the room will be designed to make it a discomfort rather than a pleasure to smoke.

SENTIMENT OPTIMISTIC

Bank Resources are Large in Oregon. Agency Reports Improvement

The total resources of Oregon banks, as reported by the state superintendent of banks, were $204,365,342 on November 17, an increase of $39,884,215, compared with a year ago, and $25,803,414 since September 12, the date of the last statement. Total deposits were $164,596,680, an increase of $38,420,677 for the year and $24,547,381 since the previous call. Loans and discounts amounted to $105,025,705, an increase of $17,404,566 for the year and $7,663,030 since September 12.

Dun's commercial agency comments upon business conditions in Oregon for the year and includes this report. What the agency says about business is doubly interesting and valuable because it is gathered by economic and business experts and is furnished to headquarters for the sole purpose of getting reliable, unbiased information. Of the business of the state at the close of the year Dun's says:

Holiday trade surpassed that of last year by a good margin. The improvement in general business is steady and the prospects for the winter and spring months are gratifying. The peace proposals have had a stimulating effect and plans for business expansion in many lines are maturing. Commercial sentiment, on the whole, is more optimistic than at any time since the war began. The rapid decline in wheat prices, amounting to about 40 cents a bushel in this market, has not worked a hardship on this section, as the farmers have disposed of over 90 per cent of their crop, and dealers, anticipating a drop, have been carrying but little stock. Most of the unsold grain will be held until next year, as the Pacific coast requirements may tax the available supply. The large decrease in winter acreage leads the farmers to believe that prices in the coming year will be better than those now prevailing.

The scarcity of cars still works a hardship on shippers, particularly of lumber, but good progress is being made in moving apples and other perishables. While the lumber market is still quiet, the industry is getting in a more healthy condition, as indicated by the growing demand for skilled and unskilled wages at a rising scale of wages. Additional orders for wood-sailing vessels are being placed with Portland shipyards, and another large yard will be established, the promoters having faith in the future of the industry, in spite of the continuance of the war in Europe. Live stock receipts, while large, do not keep pace with the growth of the demand, and the advance in prices of cattle, hogs and sheep is unchecked.

WHY A WEST SIDE ROAD, WE ASK

county alone has more scenic assets to offer the traveler than the three west side counties combined. Other facts are that the east side route is shorter, that more people live along the east side route, that there are more cities and that the road would require less expenditure to put in first class shape.

As the Barrett bill defines the western Oregon road which will receive state and federal aid, the route is west from Portland, through Washington, Yamhill and Polk counties to Salem. The route crosses the river at Salem where there is no bridge and little hope of having one built in the near future.

It looks much like some of the west side legislators had something to do with preparing the Barrett bill, because if it is passed it means that the state and federal governments will have to aid in building a bridge between Polk and Marion counties to replace the one condemned and closed recently. It is a clever attempt to put the burden of cost where it does not belong.

There is no reason on earth for routing the western Oregon state-aid road down the west side and if the Oregon State legislature in session at Salem passes the Barrett bill its members will be directly and criminally violating their oaths of office.

The east side will fight to a finish any attempt at such legislation as the Barrett bill. The only possible compromise will be through a bill which would give both the east and west sides a state-aid road, making a loop through the valley between Portland and Salem, and from Salem go south to the California line.

LEGISLATORS IN WRANGLE

has materially aggravated the breach between the two houses.

During the first week of the session Senator Dimick introduced in the senate four bills and three resolutions. In the house Brownell introduced six bills and one resolution. Representative H. C. Stephens has been active as a member of the ways and means committee and as chairman of the house counties' committee.

Joint Senator Lewis' bill for the secession of 13 square miles of territory near Oswego has not put its head from under the cover of bills in the senate since it was introduced last Wednesday. The proposal of the bill, however, will undergo thorough discussion at the meeting in Salem tonight of the counties' committee and the delegation of Clackamas county citizens which went to Salem today aboard the Commercial club's special train.

4 DIVORCES IN ONE DAY

Cupid's Work Fails, as Complaints of Tired Wives Show

That Dan Cupid's work is oftentimes very frail is evident from the fact that four divorce complaints, in each of which the wife was the complainant, were filed in Judge J. U. Campbell's court here on Friday. Grace A. Cash would end 28 years of married life if Judge Campbell grants the divorce she asks from Charles T. Cash. The couple was married at Duluth, Minn., January 1, 1889, and there are two grown sons. Cruelty is the charge.

Lack of affection on the part of her husband is the cause given by Ruth Hansen for asking a divorce from Frank Hansen, to whom she was married at Portland September 28, 1908. She asks $25 monthly alimony, $40 attorney's fees and the restoration of her maiden name, Ruth Heagney.

Clara A. Carter wants a divorce from Walter F. Carter because her husband forcibly threw her from their home and told her to stay away. They were married at Pottersville, Mo., December 23, 1894, and have two sons aged 14 and 19. They have not lived together for six months. Mrs. Carter asks $20 alimony.

Margaret Stoltz charges Joseph D. Stoltz with cruelty and desertion in the complaint she filed Friday. They were married at Portland on June 22, 1898, and he is charged with leaving her on July 1, 1915. She asks $400 alimony of $35 a month, title to a lot in Portland and the restoration of her maiden name, Margaret Lane. The divorce suit of Leah Henson Schelberg against George Schelberg was dismissed Friday.

Editors Go to Salem Several Clackamas county editors, accompanying the anti-division delegation to Salem today on the special train, will remain until Friday to attend the convention of the state editorial association. Several bills relative to the printing and newspaper business have been presented in the house and senate and some of them are considered inimical to the interests of the members of the association.

A GOOD FRIEND

A good friend stands by you when in need. Oregon City people tell how Doan's Kidney Pills have stood the test. Mrs. Baxter endorsed Doan's over three years ago and again confirms the story. Could you ask for more convincing testimony?

Mrs. Louise Baxter, 115 Seventeenth St., Oregon City, says: "I suffered for quite awhile from kidney weakness. I tried various medicines but nothing helped me like Doan's Kidney Pills did. They proved their worth to me and I certainly recommend them." (Statement given April 5, 1913.)

On April 17, 1916, Mrs. Baxter said: "Doan's Kidney Pills permanently cured me of kidney trouble and my back is as strong as ever."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Baxter has twice publicly recommended. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

Barber Shop Moves

With modern equipment throughout, Frank J. Alldredge, the popular barber, has established himself in his new location in the store room formerly occupied by Chapman & Co.'s drug store in the Electric hotel building. Mr. Alldredge has fitted his fine new shop with the most modern tonorial apparatus and equipment and has provided splendid tub and shower baths for his patrons. The new shop is well lighted and handy. Mr. Alldredge welcomes his friends and patrons to the new establishment. —Adv.

New C. E. Society at Oswego

The young people of the Congregational church at Oswego will hold a business meeting and social Friday night for the purpose of organizing a Christian Endeavor society. A number of Oregon City Endeavorers will attend and assist at giving the new organization a good start. One of these will be Dr. Roy A. Prudden, who has had considerable experience in Endeavor work in this and other states. He will render several vocal numbers during the evening.

Settle Property Title

W. L. and E. C. Chapman and 35 known defendants are losers through a default decree signed by Judge Campbell Tuesday in favor of C. W. Green, who brought suit to settle the title to property in Marshfield, Clackamas county, which is part of the estate of Frank W. Campbell, an insane person. Joseph E. Hedges is guardian ad litem of Mr. Campbell.

Jesse Cox

At the age of 68 years, 9 months and 18 days, Jesse Cox, a rancher of the Elwood district and prominent throughout the county, died at the family home in the presence of his family, Sunday just before midnight. The death of Mr. Cox was not unexpected.

Keeping Yourself Well

DRIVING OUT CATARRH If people knew how the presence of catarrh is a constant menace, they would have none of it. It infests some part of the delicately adjusted body and makes it useless, thus throwing on the other organs more than their share of work. It affords a carefully prepared seed-bed for the germs of colds, grip, tuberculosis and pneumonia. It so disarranges Nature's delicate plans as to make possible asthma, hay fever and other respiratory disorders. It spreads until it becomes systemic, thus involving many organs and debilitating the entire system with serious results. Catarrh is easily recognized, and it rarely gets well of itself. It needs proper medicinal correction. For almost half a century many thousands have found help in Peruna, a valuable tonic with special efficacy in catarrhal conditions. The aim is to clean out waste matter, to dispel the catarrhal inflammation, and tone up the whole system. Its users willingly testify that it has done all this and even more for catarrhal sufferers. What it has done is the best proof of what it will do. You may rely on Peruna.

In tablet form it is pleasant to take and easy to administer. Manalins Tablets are the ideal laxative and liver tonic. They have no unpleasant effects and do not form a habit. 10c, 25c. The Peruna Co. Columbus, O.
