

LOCALS

Born, Friday, May 11th, to the wife of Grant Nash, a daughter.

Frank Kohl, of Logan, was among the Oregon City visitors on Wednesday.

Anton Byron, of Jennings Lodge, was among the Oregon City visitors Tuesday.

M. A. Deaton, prominent resident of Sandy, was among the Oregon City visitors on Tuesday.

Harry Bradley, farmer of Eagle Creek, was transacting business in this city on Tuesday.

George J. Case, of Molalla, was among those to transact business in this city on Tuesday and Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Clayton, of Seattle, who have been in this city for several days, left for their home on Wednesday.

Paul Dunn, of Boring, was in this city Tuesday and Wednesday, and while here made his headquarters at the Electric hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Westerfield, of Clackamas county, returned to their home on Wednesday after visiting in this city for several days.

Arthur Illman, one of the well known farmers of Clackamas county, whose farm is located at Hoff station, was here on business Tuesday.

Frank Dodge, a well known builder and contractor of Canby, was in this city on business on Tuesday. While in this city Mr. Dodge visited friends.

Miss Carol Ely is ill at her home. Miss Ely has been engaged in teaching in Clackamas county, and will return to her school as soon as she recovers.

Z. Ellingsen, one of the prominent farmers of Stafford, was in the city during the past week purchasing a five passenger automobile from the Pacific Highway garage.

George Gregory, one of the prominent residents of Molalla, and the well known tenant grower of the state, was in this city on Saturday, and before returning to his home visited in Portland.

Henry Toedtemier, one of the well known and prominent farmers of Sherwood, was in this city on business Saturday. This is the first time that Mr. Toedtemier has visited in this city for some time.

Among the sales at the Pacific Highway garage during the past week were to Otto E. Meindl, of Crescent, a five passenger Ford; A. R. Harrison, of Seattle, Wash., a Ford; Fred Minder, of Logan, five passenger Buick.

Miss Dorothy Byron, who has been visiting for the past week with her parents Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Byron, of Tualatin, returned to Oregon City the first of the week, and resumed her position with the D. C. Ely store.

John Lowthwaite, Sr., and John B. Lowthwaite, Jr., left on Sunday for Ocean Falls, B. C., where they will attend the opening of a new paper mill. This establishment was constructed by the Pacific Mill Limited company of San Francisco at a cost of $2,000,000.

William Moehne, of the Oregon City garage, accompanied County School Superintendent J. E. Calavan on several trips during the week, where Mr. Calavan visited schools among those being the Catholic institution near Oswego, and also to Clackamas. The trip was made in a Dodge automobile.

Mr. and Mrs. Posa Maple, of Marcola, formerly of this city, motored to this city on Wednesday, where they visited the latter's sisters, the Misses Gadke. Miss Augusta Gadke has been ill for the past week, and is still confined to her room. Mr. and Mrs. Maple were accompanied by their little daughters, Beanie and Evelyn.

Mrs. Robert Beattie, who has been spending several days at her home at Beaver Creek, returned to Corvallis on Monday evening. Mrs. Beattie's sons are attending the high school and Oregon Agricultural college at Corvallis, and expect to return in June for the summer. Mr. Beattie accompanied his wife as far as this city.

Frank Thebo, one of the well known farmers of Clackamas county, whose farm is located at Damascus, is among those to plan many interesting trips this summer by automobile. He has purchased a five passenger Chevrolet automobile from the Independent garage through the representative, William Trudell.

Clayton R. Freytag, a former Gladstone boy and son of O. E. Freytag, of that place, is now a member of Company M, Idaho National guard. Mr. Freytag accompanied this company to the Mexican border last June, and has just been promoted to corporal. He is well known in Oregon City, and has many friends here as well as at Gladstone.

Attorney DeVore, of Estacada, motored to this city on Saturday in his King automobile, and when near Redland, the rear axle of his automobile became "out of gear," and it was necessary for him to hire a J. A. Kilmer, well known farmer to tow him to the Independent garage, where the automobile was repaired. Mr. Kilmer is the owner of an Overland.

Mrs. Lawrence Ruonich and young son, Keith, have arrived in Oregon City from Salem, and after visiting in this city with the former's mother, Mrs. May Mills, and also with Mrs. Ruonich's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Ruonich, will visit in Vancouver, Wash. Mrs. Ruonich and son are on their way to Pendleton, where they are to make their future home. Mr. Ruonich is engaged in business in that city.

Maple Lane neighbors of George A. Brown surprised him this week and visited his home ploughing six acres of land, and this is to be planted by the old pioneer of Maple Lane. Mr. Brown has been ill for some time, and the surprise given him by his friends was greatly appreciated. This is to be planted to potatoes and other crops.

FLORENCE DRAPER IS PRETTY WAR BRIDE MARRIES ACTOR-COOK

VANCOUVER, Wash., May 12.—Major William B. Gilbert officiated at the marriage of his tenth war bride Saturday at Vancouver barracks. The couple were Earle N. Oliphant, actor-cook of the machine gun company, and Miss Florence Draper, of Oregon City.

Cook Oliphant and his bride left a once for the home of the bride's parents. Cook Oliphant, who is 24, has been a soldier of fortune. Lately he has been an actor and cowboy. Most of the years before coming to Oregon were spent on the Mexican border.

and there is no doubt but that those assisting in preparing the ground will be given a hand out in the near future by Mr. Brown and his wife. Mr. Brown is well known here.

Charles Porter, formerly of this city, and son of Mrs. R. W. Porter, of Gladstone, was in this city on Sunday, where he visited his mother, and also his sister, Mrs. Elmer Maville. Mr. Porter left for Baker on Monday morning, and he will settle up his business before taking up his residence in Portland, where he will serve as chief grain inspector under the new grain inspection act, which goes into effect May 21. Mr. Porter was appointed to this office by the public service commission. Mr. Porter has many old time friends here and, while a resident of Oregon City he was an active worker in the Methodist church. He was connected with the Portland Flouring mills in this city for many years.

MEMBER OF PIONEER FAMILY DIES AFTER ILLNESS OF 10 YEARS

Mrs. Huelo Griffin, wife of Dan Griffin, well known resident of this city, died at the family home at 307 Klatskan street, Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock, after an illness of ten years.

Mrs. Griffin underwent a surgical operation ten years ago, and never recovered from the effects of the same. She has been confined to her bed for the past five months, but has been a patient sufferer, and was cheerful to the last.

Mrs. Griffin comes from one of the early Oregon pioneer families and settlers of Clackamas county. She was the daughter of the late Jacob Skirvin, and Martha Howk. Mrs. Griffin's mother having married again after the death of her husband. She was born at Marquam, Clackamas county, and twenty-six years ago she was married to Dan Griffin at Stone, Clackamas county. She has resided in Clackamas county all her life, and has been a resident of Oregon City for several years.

Mrs. Griffin had no children of her own, but after the death of her brother, the late William Skirvin, who was accidentally killed, she reared his children Miss Audrey Skirvin, of California and Olin Skirvin, of Oregon City, as her own.

Mrs. Griffin survived by her husband, Dan Griffin, of Oregon City; a sister, Mrs. Mumpower, who was at her bedside at the time of death, and during her illness; two brothers, Harvey Skirvin, of San Francisco; John Skirvin, of Parkplace; two half brothers, Irvin Howk, of Walla Walla, Wash.; Robert Childers, of San Francisco and two half sisters, Mrs. Slatten, of San Francisco; Mrs. Murdoch, of St. Johns.

The interment will be in the Damascus cemetery, and the remains laid beside those of her mother, Mrs. Griffin spent her early childhood days at Damascus, where she is well and favorably known. The arrangements for the funeral are not completed.

The remains are at the Myers & Brady undertaking establishment.

Largest Class to Be Graduated High School Has Fine Record Commencement Week is Near

Graduation exercises for the largest class in the history of the Oregon City high school will be held Friday evening, June 8, in the school auditorium, when 77 students will be given diplomas. L. R. Alderman, superintendent of the Portland public schools, will deliver the address to the class and George A. Harding, chairman of the Oregon City school board will present the diplomas to the graduates. A program of instrumental and vocal music will be given.

The usual custom of planting a tree on the high school campus will be followed this year on Senior Class Day, Thursday June 7. At 2 o'clock Thursday afternoon, members of the senior class will give the valedictory, salutatory, class oration, history, prophecy, will, song and poem. Several musical selections will also be given by members of the graduating class.

The four places of highest honor have been awarded to members of the senior class as follows: Valedictorian, Marjorie Ryan; salutatorian, Robert Barnett, orator, Fred J. Toole, Jr., and historian, Mable Brigham. Honorable mention was given Hazel Kemp and Opal Selby. Audrey Tuor will write the class prophecy; Mildred Huntley will give the class will; Alice Holman, the class song; and Ethel Capies, the class poem.

On Sunday June 3, the baccalaureate sermon will be delivered to the graduates. The members of the senior class are:

Naomi Lee Armstrong; Leota Escholt Armstrong; Ralph George Armstrong; Glenna Claire Andrews; Kenneth Cutler Andrews; Lorena Marguerite Andrews; Lester William Bailey; Robert Archibald Barnett; Gladys Elizabeth Blount; Erna Albena Blum; Naomi Nalden Blanchard; Mable Claire Brigham; Ethel Mary Capies; Hazel May Camp; Grace Burden Davenport; Marvin Robert Ely; Florence Fromong; Amy Ellen Grace; Genevieve Green; Armen Grossenbacher; Alice Naomi Holman; Irene Edith Hughes; Mildred Susanne Huntley; Ervan Lester Howell; Fern Ione Hart; William George Harvey; May Haybert Hinchman; Barnett, orator, Fred J. Toole, Jr., and historian, Mable Brigham. Honorable mention was given Hazel Kemp and Opal Selby. Audrey Tuor will write the class prophecy; Mildred Huntley will give the class will; Alice Holman, the class song; and Ethel Capies, the class poem.

CLACKAMAS RED CROSS ORGANIZATION HOLDS ELECTION OF OFFICERS

The Clackamas Auxiliary of the Portland Chapter of American Red Cross met in the Commercial club parlors Wednesday evening, when an organization was effected. The officers were elected as follows: Chairman, Dr. Hugh S. Mount; first vice-chairman, A. R. Jacobs; second vice-chairman, Mrs. L. E. Jones; secretary, Theodore Oumund; treasurer, E. G. Causfield.

Directors: Mrs. W. A. Dimick, Mrs. J. N. Wisner, James Cary, T. W. Sullivan, A. A. Price.

Publicity committee: H. Leighton Kelly, chairman.

Military Relief committee: Mrs. L. E. Jones, Mrs. J. N. Wisner, Mrs. James Cary, Mrs. Theodore Oumund, Mrs. Dixon, of Gladstone.

A committee of four members of the Clackamas Auxiliary of the Portland Chapter of American Red Cross, composed of Mrs. J. N. Wisner, Mrs. Theodore Oumund, Mrs. James Cary and Mrs. L. E. Jones, has been taking a course in lectures and demonstrations along the line of surgical appliances and dressings in Portland, under the direction of Miss Frazier, of San Francisco, who has been active in her home city, and also in Portland, in Red Cross work. This committee will have charge of the classes of the local organization, and will give the necessary instruction in surgical dressings and bandages. These classes will meet in the Masonic hall from 2 to 5 o'clock on Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday, of each week, and it is requested that all members, and others interested in this work, will attend the meeting on next Monday afternoon for registration, so that classes may be formed without confusion. Those who are not able to attend on that afternoon may communicate with any member of the above committee, and they will be placed in classes to suit their convenience.

Mrs. V. Harris has been appointed instructor of the knitting department, where necessary articles for the soldiers will be made. This line of work will also be taken up on Monday afternoon.

Dr. H. S. Mount urged that all of the suburbs take up this work and organize an auxiliary to work in connection with the local chapter. J. W. Draper was appointed chairman of an organizing committee for West Linn. All members expressed a willingness to assist in the organization of different divisions throughout the county. From the present indication the membership of the local chapter will exceed 1000, as the people are taking great interest in the new organization in this city, feeling that it's their duty to assist in this great patriotic movement. A vote of thanks was extended to all those assisting in securing members of the local chapter on Saturday afternoon and evening, when over 100 names were added to membership. The Honor guards were among those assisting in this movement.

Before the meeting was brought to a close, it was decided to hold the appointment of other committees until the next meeting, which will be held on Wednesday evening, May 23rd, at the Commercial club parlors. The meeting on Wednesday evening of this week was largely attended and much patriotism and interest manifested.

PYTHIAN SISTERS HOLD ANNUAL MEETING WITH 86 DELEGATES PRESENT

With 86 delegates in attendance the annual convention of District No. 2 of Pythian Sisters was held Wednesday in the Woodmen of the World hall, with members of Cataract Temple No. 42 acting as hostesses. Reports from the six temples in the district were read, showing an expenditure for altruistic purposes of over $875 during the past year.

Among the former officers present were Past Supreme Grand Chiefs Mrs. Dunning and Mrs. Gevurtz, Past Grand Chief Mrs. Stinson and Present Grand Chief Mrs. Emma Snyder. Mrs. W. Hull, district deputy, presided.

The next convention will be held in Portland next year. The out-of-town guests were entertained by the local temple with a banquet at noon.

CHICKEN THIEVES ARE AGAIN BUSY AMONG COOPS OF MT. PLEASANT

Chicken thieves have again made their appearance at Mount Pleasant about one mile from this city, and residents of that section are so indignant that every effort is to be made to bring the guilty person or persons to justice. Among those losing chickens are A. A. Pease, who lost 50 chickens, and E. E. Kellogg who lost about 25 pullets. A sharp lookout is being made now each night, and some of the farmers state that the intruders will think that a German submarine is after them if they visit their farm homes. About a year ago one of the farmers, Mr. Kantz, of that place, lost 100 chickens in one evening, while other farmers lost many. There have been about 1000 chickens stolen in that neighborhood within the past two years.

TWO DIVORCES GRANTED BY THE CIRCUIT JUDGE AND ONE IS DISMISSED

Judge J. U. Campbell Wednesday issued a decree granting a divorce to Ernest W. Bailey and Emma J. Bailey, and giving to the wife the custody of their infant son Harold. It was stipulated in the decree that the father might see the child upon occasions but that he must still further notice deposit in a savings bank $10 a month in the name of the child. The Baileys were married in La Grande, Oregon, October 12, 1910.

A divorce was also granted to Man-oah N. Swetnam from Mary Katherine Swetnam.

Suit was filed in circuit court today by J. C. and Thomas Hise to collect on a promissory note from W. H. and Kate Rosenberry and C. W. Berwick for $300, dated February 7, 1913, together with interest and costs. George Kalb also filed suit to collect a $3,700 note from Anna E. Stewart and Willie Melum.

The divorce case of Margaret Harris versus Hubert Harris was dismissed by Judge Campbell Tuesday.

A default of defendant has been entered in the case of Gladys W. Brock who is suing Roy C. Brock for divorce.

Judgement was allowed to G. J. Eberly against C. P. Tallman by Circuit Judge Campbell for the amount of $64 less $17 which was owing to Tallman.

WILLIAM FOLGER MAY SOON BE SENT TO FRANCE

William Folger, a prominent young man of this city, employed by the Jones Drug company, has been notified of his acceptance as a member of one of the nine regiments of engineers to be sent to France by the United States government. He is awaiting call, which he expects at almost any time.

Among other Oregon City men also accepted are Gerald Warner, Blake Bowland, Charles Nichols and Harry G. Smith.

ST. PAUL'S PARISH AND GUILD HOLD ELECTION OF VESTRY AND OFFICERS

At the annual meeting of St. Paul's parish, the following vestrymen were elected: Eber A. Chapman, L. A. Morris, Carl W. Joehake, John R. Humphrys, T. P. Randall, Irving Rau and W. F. Tipton. At the first meeting of the new vestry, Carl W. Joehake was appointed senior warden, L. A. Morris was elected junior warden, Irving T. Rau, clerk of the vestry. The following delegates to the diocesan convention were elected: Lay delegates, George A. Harding, E. A. Chapman, John R. Humphrys; alternate delegates, W. B. Stafford, L. A. Morris, T. P. Randall.

At the annual meeting of St. Paul's Guild, the following officers were elected: President, Mrs. Rosina Evans; vice-president, Mrs. R. J. Goodfellow; secretary, Mrs. Helen Dougherty; treasurer, Mrs. F. T. Barlow.

At the close of the annual parish meeting St. Paul's branch of the Woman's Auxiliary to the Board of Missions was organized with 12 members.

On Sunday morning, May 13, the bishop of the diocese will visit St. Paul's church at 11 a. m. to administer the sacrament of confirmation to seven candidates. The bishop will preach. There will be three baptisms at the 9:30 Eucharist.

REED COLLEGE HONORS FALL TO LOCAL YOUTHS EACH OF THREE YEARS

The office of president of the associated students' body of Reed college, the most coveted position in student affairs in the Portland college, has for three successive years fallen to Oregon City men. For the year 1917, both the president, John Damback and the vice-president of the association, Miss Louise Huntley, are former Oregon City high school students.

The other graduates who have held the office of president of Reed college student body are Harold Smith, who held office during 1915-16 and Ambrose Brownell, during 1916-17. No Oregon City student has been reported adversely in regard to scholarship or other matters since entering the school.

MOTORCYCLE OFFICER LANDS THREE MORE SPEEDING AUTOISTS

Three more speeding autoists were taken into custody Monday afternoon and Tuesday morning by motorcycle officer H. E. Meads on the Clackamas county roads. The offenders were J. A. Cobb, a Portland attorney, R. H. Mills, manager of the C. K. Spaulding Lumber company, of Salem, and attorney E. C. Latourette of this city.

Mr. Cobb and Mr. Mills entered pleas of guilty before Justice John N. Stevers and were each fined $10. Neither Latourette nor G. F. Nickerson, of Gladstone, who was arrested Sunday afternoon, have appeared before the justice.

FIRST STEP TAKEN IN CLACKAMAS TO DIRECT PRODUCTION OF FOOD

Representatives from the various farmers' organizations of Clackamas county will come to Oregon City today and meet at 1 o'clock in the courthouse with E. B. Fitts, of the Oregon Agricultural college, who has been detailed to direct the food preparedness campaign in Clackamas and Washington counties. He will explain the plan of the federal government for increasing the food production and supplying labor, where there is a shortage. Those attending the meeting will be supplied with blanks, calling for a statement of the condition of their own farms. The government is making a systematic effort to secure this information, the method for obtaining information having been worked out by the state council of defense. The publicity department of the Commercial club has offered the use of its assistants, who plan to maintain an office here during the growing season at the expense of the government.

FIRST DEATH OCCURS IN MEASLES EPIDEMIC AMONG THE CHILDREN

The first death to result from the epidemic of measles in this city among the school children occurred on Tuesday night, when little Ruth Bottemiller, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Bottemiller, died from a complication of this disease and pneumonia, which set in a few days ago. The child had been ill for several weeks, and three sons are confined to their beds suffering from measles and pneumonia. The family resides on Linn avenue, but were former residents of Sellwood, coming to this city about a year ago. The little girl was unusually bright, and a general favorite in the neighborhood.

The funeral services are to be conducted from the German Lutheran church Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock, with Rev. William Kraxberger, pastor, officiating. Interment will be in the Mountain View cemetery.

WIDOW DEMANDS THE PAYMENT OF A LIFE POLICY NOT DELIVERED

To recover $1000 on an undelivered life insurance policy Mrs. Elizabeth Busch filed a suit on Thursday with County Clerk Harrington against the Metropolitan Life Insurance company. It appears from the complaint that on November 13, 1916 George Busch, husband of the plaintiff paid an agent of the company $3 on account for a $1000 life policy. Later he was examined and passed by the company's physician and on January 23, 1917 Busch tendered the balance of the first premium, $12, to the agent and demanded the policy in accordance with the receipt and agreement which he held. On January 27, 1917 Busch died and then the company repudiated the agreement to deliver or pay the policy.

SCHOOLS RECEIVE VETERANS WITH FINE PROGRAMS

The members of the Meade Post No. 2, G. A. R., and Women's Relief Corps were given a royal reception at the Canemah and Sunset schools on Wednesday. The Canemah school was visited in the morning, where a patriotic program was given under the supervision of the teachers, and at noon a dinner was served by the women of Canemah.

An excellent program was also given at the Sunset school, and the old soldiers and Relief Corps were given a banquet.

All the schools entertaining the soldiers and the Relief Corps have prepared patriotic programs, and these are being thoroughly enjoyed by the visitors.

Today they will visit the Oregon City high school, and Barclay school. The Oregon City high school is to serve a luncheon with the class in domestic science in charge, and this is to be followed by the afternoon's program.

GERALD WARNER, BLAKE BOWLAND GONE TO WAR

Gerald W. Warner and Blake Bowland, of this city, went to Portland on Saturday, where they made application to join the engineer enlisted reserve corps of construction and railway maintenance for service in France. This regiment will consist of two battalions of three companies each, and will see service as soon as recruited. Bowland has had several years of experience in railroad work before coming to Oregon City, his experience being in the east. He is the son of Professor and Mrs. J. R. Bowland. Gerald Warner is the only child of Mrs. Augusta Warner of this city and has had much experience in railroad and engineering work. He was employed for some time by the Willamette Valley Southern Railway company, Moffatt & Parker and others in this city, and was well supplied with the recommendations from those for whom he has been employed. Warner was a member of Company G when that company was ordered to the Mexican border.

MISS BUCKLES' BIG FISH

Miss Bernice Buckles, who, a few days ago caught one of the largest salmon of the season, weighing 31½ pounds, has caught two more salmon almost in the same locality as this large chinook, this being under the suspension bridge. This is Miss Buckles' second year's experience as a fisherman, as last year she caught chinook salmon, one of which tipped the scales at 23 pounds and the other 16 pounds. She caught two more salmon a few days ago since "landing" the chinook shown in the picture.

Miss Buckles is one of the most enthusiastic young nymphs of this city. She is a well known young musical instructor of this city.

DENNY IS RELEASED AFTER HAVING SERVED 19 DAYS OF SENTENCE

Martin J. Denny, who was sentenced to 30 days in the Clackamas county jail and fined $250 on April 28, was released from custody Wednesday after having served 19 days of his sentence and having paid $75 on his fine. He will be required to report to circuit Judge J. U. Campbell once a month and complete payment of his fine.

Denny was sentenced and fined because of his connections with the Friars' club at Milwaukie, which came into the disfavor of the Clackamas county sheriff's office for alleged infraction of the state liquor laws.

August Erickson, who was arrested one week ago, and charged with violation of the liquor laws at Clackamas tavern, is still held in the county jail without bail, pending his arraignment for trial.

LICENSE ISSUED TO MARRY

A marriage license was issued here Wednesday in the office of County Clerk Iva M. Harrington to Christina Walker, and Henry A. Rivers, both of legal age and both residents of Parkplace.