Solve the Mystery of the Hidden Check

Twenty-six Checks, Aggregating Fifty-two Dollars have been hidden and will be cashed when presented at Courier Office

EXPLANATION

Read the ads on this page carefully. In some of them are extra words and letters, which, when properly arranged, form a sentence which tells exactly where to find the check. Finder should bring check to Courier for endorsement. No papers will be sold from this office on Thursday during the hidden check contest. Check will not be delivered before Saturday noon. This is done to give the country readers an equal chance with the city readers.

Miss Clara Knutson is home from Portland.

Lizzie and Anna Snucker visited with Reta Kauffman Sunday.

M. H. Hostetter has returned from Newport.

Miss Tena Steuwe and Miss Lillie Steuwe visited Sunday with Mrs. Sadie Callister.

The Needy school house is being remodeled.

Noah Kauffman is here from Iowa to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Kauffman, and many friends.

Vern Ransdell who has just finished a new bungalow on his farm has returned to Antelope.

Will Steuwe took his little daughter back to Portland Sunday where she makes her home with her cousin.

Word has been received from Mrs. C. H. Wotton, formerly Mrs. Tena Kramer, of Oroville, Cal., that they have had the misfortune to lose two residences and all their contents, by fire. One house was rented, the other was occupied by themselves.

Mr. and Mrs. Popejoy, of Aurora, who were living with Mr. and Mrs. Wotton temporarily, also lost most of their furniture.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Krueger of Canby, are camped at Jake Ritters.

MULINO

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Maple were visiting relatives at Canby Sunday.

J. J. Mallatt made a business trip to Oregon City Tuesday.

Chas. Stevens, of Mackeburg, was a business visitor here the latter part of last week.

R. P. Wallace had a new kitchen range and hot water tank installed the first of the week.

Mrs. J. L. Daniels and children are visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. John Burns, of Canby, this week.

Dix Bros. have completed their new store building and Albert Erickson is located there now, having gotten his stock of goods moved in last week.

Robert Snodgrass and Lewis Churchill completed the excavating for the new school house last week, and the carpenters are now busy.

MULINO

At last we have a little rain; just enough to lay the dust.

Most of the hop pickers have returned from the hop fields.

The excavation for the new school house has been completed and the lumber is being delivered on the ground.

E. P. Berdine has bought the pool hall from Elmer Erickson and has rented the vacant part of the hall building for a stock of merchandise. He thinks he will put in a stock of hardware and merchandise.

Albert Erickson has moved his store into the new Dix Bros. building at the intersection of Howard avenue with the county road. He is thinking of fitting up the upstairs part as a lodging house.

A boy weighing about six pounds, arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Archie Davis on September 8th.

Albert Woodside of Kings Valley, Ore., is to move back to Mulino in the near future.

VIOLA

School has begun again, with Miss Myrtle Woodlee of Estacada as the teacher. There are five new scholars. Joe Lacrocy and bride are expected home this week. They have been spending their honeymoon at the Panama-Pacific Exposition.

The hop pickers have all returned home again. They report lots of hard work and not much money.

The road work has revived again. We will have good roads in time if money and hard work can do it.

J. Sevier and wife took in the Estacada fair Friday.

Mrs. M. Lacrocy and sister went to Portland Tuesday to see a sick brother. They expect to stay down there for a few days.

Mrs. F. Cummins was an Oregon City shopper Tuesday.

William Hickenbotham and Mr. Sevier were in Portland Tuesday.

William Hickenbotham and family, and Mrs. Eva Craft and family, went to Portland Saturday and took in the park and other sights.

His Rest Was Broken

O. D. Wright, Rosemont, Neb., writes: "For about six months I was bothered with shooting and continual pains in the region of my kidneys. My rest was broken nearly every night by frequent action of my kidneys. I was advised by my doctor to try Foley Kidney Pills and one 50 cent bottle made a well man of me. I can always recommend Foley Kidney Pills, for I know they are good." This splendid remedy for backache, rheu-

EAGLE CREEK

A. L. Dix was a guest at the home of Mrs. Howlett a part of last week. Will Douglass made a trip to Estacada Monday.

Mrs. A. W. Cooke and daughter-in-law, Mrs. W. W. Cooke, of Damascus, were calling on Mrs. Howlett last Friday.

Dick Gibson and wife attended the East Clackamas County Fair at Estacada last Thursday, and was entertained at dinner by Mrs. L. A. Woodlee and daughters.

Mrs. C. Murphy and daughter, Armeta, and son, Perry, were Estacada and Fair visitors last Thursday.

Mr. Burger, who purchased a piece of land of H. G. Huntington, is putting up a small house on his property.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Douglass made a visit Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Benson, of Logan.

School commenced Monday in District No. 50 with Miss Edna Kennedy, of Portland, as teacher. There was an enrollment of twelve pupils.

Mrs. Viola Douglass and her grand daughters, Mildred and Florence Douglass, returned home from Eastern Oregon Saturday evening.

Mr. Beckett was out to the farm the first of the week making his wife and daughter a visit.

Walter Douglass and Mr. and Mrs. George Douglass, returned home on Monday from Eastern Oregon where they have passed five or six weeks threshing.

LOGAN

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Earl Gerber, a son, weight twelve and a half pounds. Mrs. Gerber is at the home of her parents in Southern Oregon.

Two more autos are added to the list in this vicinity, Mrs. A. C. Gerber and son, Oliver, and D. C. Fouts, Jr., being the owners. It does not look as though times are hard and farmers are all renters or debtors and living in hovels when 15 or more autos can be counted in a radius of five miles, and also about a half dozen auto trucks.

F. P. Wilson had a bad fall from a ladder in his barn last Monday, and will be confined to the house for a while as a consequence. Dr. Hugh Mount, who was called, said a blood vessel was ruptured, which caused a dazed condition for a while.

Mr. Dallas, who hauls cream on this route, reports that his father, who lives near Damascus, and is nearly 80 years old, had one leg broken and the other badly injured by being run over with a team and loaded wagon. The old gentleman took it bravely and sat up and rode to Oregon City to have the wounds attended to, though he protested that it was unnecessary.

Some good yields of grain are reported, but there was much that did not yield well, especially wheat. Henry Babler had an excellent yield of mixed wheat and oats. W. E. Cromer had 45 bushels per acre of white Amber wheat and Thomas E. Anderson had 40-fold wheat that made 50 bushels per acre, and upheld its name. Several had good yields of oats though the best we have heard of was Jacob Minder's entire crop, which averaged 72 bushel per acre.

Some potato blight is reported here but it is not very serious.

It is reported that Mr. Murry, who is away at the coast or in the hop yards, had a wagon stolen.

Mr. Muir, the store keeper, had the veterinary out to treat his horse, the animal being badly injured in a fence mixup.

MULINO

Mr. Waldorf, of Oswego, was here last week looking after business interests.

J. J. Mallatt has returned from Tillamook, where he has been visiting for some time.

J. L. Daniels and family are here from Wallace Island and will make their future home on their farm here.

Threshing is finished in this section. The grain yields were good.

Misses Alice and Hattie Bratzel have been visiting at Gresham. Their grandmother Bratzel returned home with them.

Many Mulinoites have gone to the hop fields.

CHERRYVILLE

The first deer of the season was killed by Carl Raithel up above Brightwood. It was a surprisingly big fat buck.

Tramp, tramp, tramp, the boys are marching—to school.

Fine autumn weather, but a little rain would be acceptable.

The fire fighters are coming out of the mountains daily as the fires are pretty much subdued.

A meeting was held lately by the Railroad land "squatters" at the home of T. Korenecke on Beaver Creek, three miles west of this place, for the purpose of selecting a delegate to attend the conference called by Governor Withycombe. The Rev. W. S. Runyan was selected to represent this section. He has been on a "claim" on the land for the past 13 years.

In the opinion of local people Governor Withycombe has badly injured his future political future by his mix-up in the Roseburg soldiers home affair, and also his bad break in the Oregon and California railroad land business. He has completely knocked himself off the Christmas tree and Judge Fenton, the Oregonian and all the old standpatters in Portland are all in the same boat. They are all headed for the toboggan shute. Hail! and farewell! It is a combination that will not be greatly missed!

SCOTTS' MILLS

Mr. and Mrs. Thorneberg and little son left Saturday evening for their old home in Kansas. A telegram called them to the bedside of Mrs. Thorneberg's father, who wasn't expected to live. Mr. Thorneberg and family came here for a visit last February. They hope to sell their property in Kansas and return to Oregon.

Miss Bennie Hammer, of Molalla, is staying with the Misses Estes during hop picking.

The Loyal Boreans will hold their monthly business meeting at the home of Miss Mona Mickox Friday evening. The new Odd Fellows' Hall is nearing completion. The Rebekahs held lodge there last Tuesday night.

Misses Bennie Hammer and Ruth Estes spent Sunday evening at the home of Mr. Ed Lutgen.
