

LOCALS

Mrs. E. T. Mass returned from The Dalles Sunday evening, after a brief visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Silcox, former residents of Oregon City. Mr. and Mrs. Silcox and son, Donald, accompanied by the former son-in-law, Frank Leshar, also formerly of Oregon City, now of The Dalles, were in Oregon City Friday, also in Portland, at the latter place purchasing a new Buick automobile. They made the return trip to The Dalles in their new automobile, the roads being in good condition until Hood River was reached. After that the roads were not in the best of condition, and in some places somewhat dangerous. Mr. and Mrs. Silcox, who have been in the confectionery business in The Dalles since disposing of their restaurant business in Oregon City, have sold their place of business to Mr. Leshar, and they will soon move to a farm they have recently purchased near Newberg. This consists of about 40 acres of land with good buildings thereon, and beautifully located.

Thomas Barker, Jr., who has seen service overseas, and is now suffering from wounds in his left arm received in one of the big battles in France, has arrived at the Letterman General Hospital at the Presidio, San Francisco, Calif., where he will undergo a second operation on his injured arm. Mr. Barker is still in the service, and is stationed at Camp Lewis for a short time, after visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Barker, of this city. The young man is in the best of spirits and is looking forward to the time when he will be able to leave the Letterman institution and return to his home in Oregon. He is with a number of other young men transferred from the hospital at Camp Lewis to San Francisco, for medical treatment. Mr. Barker writes to friends in Oregon City that the boys prefer the Oregon and Washington climate to that of California.

Mrs. A. Lenson and daughter, Miss Blanche, who have been spending several weeks at Hood River, where Mrs. Lenson has been engaged in packing strawberries and Miss Blanche picking berries at the Fuller strawberry ranch, have returned to Oregon City, after a most enjoyable outing. There are three and one-half acres of land planted to strawberries at the Fuller place, and this is the last year of the picking from these vines. More plants will be set out for next year's season, which will see a much lighter crop, owing to the new vines. The yield this year was about 500 crates, and the highest market price was received for the berries.

Coleman Mark, prominent resident of Clackamas county, whose farm is located at Mark's Prairie, was among those to transact business in Oregon City Wednesday afternoon. While here he visited at the home of Judge and Mrs. Grant B. Dimick. Mr. Mark has one of the best farms in that section of the county, and has 40 acres of grain which is rapidly ripening, and will soon be ready for the threshing. He has twelve acres planted to corn. This year has been a most favorable one for corn, and he expects a large yield this year. Much of this is used as silage for his cattle. Although the thermometer registered 100 Monday, it did very little damage to the growing crop, and in fact was a benefit to the corn.

Dudley Boyles, ex-county recorder of Clackamas county, now of Hot Lake Oregon, is superintendent of the Hot Lake Sanatorium, and was among those whom County Clerk Fred Miller saw while on his motoring trip. Mr. Boyles, who is enjoying better health than when in Oregon City, was delighted to see some of his old time friends of Clackamas county, and Mr. and Mrs. Miller had the pleasure of inspecting the sanatorium. Mr. Miller and his wife were much surprised by the complete operating rooms, and equipment. Dr. Fie, formerly on the staff of the Drs. Mayo at Rochester, Minn., is on the medical staff.

Albert Tozier, a retired newspaper man, now operating his ranch at Doe, Oregon, in the Hood River county, in Oregon City Friday. While here Mr. Tozier visited among his friends. He is an old time newspaper man of New York, and organized the Oregon State Editorial Association in 1884. Mr. Tozier is the only Oregon newspaper man who has been president of the National Editorial Association. He is visiting his sister, Mrs. Edythe Tozier Weathered, who is enjoying camp life at the Chautauqua. Mrs. Weathered is to appear on the program during the session.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Shively, of Portland, accompanied by their two daughters, Elizabeth and Margaret, were in Oregon City Tuesday evening, where they visited Mr. Shively's mother and sister, Mrs. W. B. Shively, Sr., and Miss Shively. Mr. and Mrs. Shively left Wednesday for Vancouver, B. C., where they are to attend the National Convention of the Realty Men. They are making the trip in their automobile, and are accompanied on the trip by Mr. Heltkemper, of Portland. The Shively children are to remain here until their parents return from British Columbia.

Elmer G. Seely, of Wilsonville, is among the Clackamas county boys having served their country in the army, and has returned to his home. Seely enlisted at Vancouver, Wash., November 8, 1917, and was a first-class private in Company B, 23rd Engineers. Among the engagements he was in were Toul sector from May 8 to May 25, 1918, and Meuse-Argonne offensive September 26 to October 16, 1918. He served in France, Italy and Belgium. Seely arrived in the United States June 8, 1918, and received his honorable discharge June 24, 1919.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Glass, of Park place, accompanied by their two young sons, Norman and Melvin, left Thursday morning on a motoring trip to California. When leaving here they had not yet decided as to whether they will make the trip by way of the coast route or by way of the Sierras. It is probable they will visit Crater Lake. Mr. and Mrs. Glass and sons are accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Williamson and family, who are also to spend about six weeks on the trip.

Eugene W. Fischer, a first-class private of Company C, 62nd Engineers, has received his discharge from the army and returned to Clackamas county. Fischer enlisted at Fort Benjamin Harrison, Indiana, May 16, 1918, and when entering the service was employed as locomotive fireman, and served with the American Expeditionary Force. Fischer was in Oregon City Saturday afternoon, having received his discharge at Camp Lewis, Wash., June 11, 1919.

Rev. T. B. Ford, who recently returned home from Ohio, is ill at his home at Twelfth and Elm streets. His daughter, Mrs. H. A. Swafford, who has been in Lebanon with her husband, has returned to this city for a few days, but will make her permanent home in that city the latter part of the week. Rev. Ford is improving rapidly, and will be able to resume his duties as district superintendent of the Methodist church within a few days.

Mrs. J. E. Calavan and daughter, Miss Emma, who have been at Seio, Oregon, returned to Oregon City Friday. Miss Emma, while visiting friends at that place, was stricken with appendicitis, and underwent a critical operation at the hospital at that place. She is greatly improved from the effects of the same. Mrs. Calavan was called to the bedside of her daughter, remaining there until she was able to leave the institution.

Mrs. Robert Asher and little daughter, of Sacramento, Calif., who are the guests of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Hollack, of Portland, were in Oregon City Wednesday afternoon, where they visited Mrs. Asher's aunt, the Misses Goldsmith. They also visited her uncle, Julius Goldsmith, and family and friends. Mrs. Asher, formerly Miss Almee Hollack, was at one time a resident of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Richards, of Portland, were in Oregon City Sunday as guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Howell, the latter a sister of Mrs. Richards. In the afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Howell and Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Howell accompanied Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Howell and little daughter in the Howell automobile to Wilhoit, where they spent the afternoon and evening. The trip was made in good time.

Mrs. H. A. Swafford, who has been called to this city by the illness of her father, Rev. T. B. Ford, will return to her new home at Lebanon soon. She moved her household effects from the bungalow they have been occupying at Eleventh and Washington streets to Lebanon Tuesday evening. Rev. Ford will accompany his daughter as far as Salem, and will soon be able to resume his duties.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Elliott, who have been residing in this city, and also former residents of California, will leave next week for Long Beach, Calif., where they are to make their home. Mr. Elliott, who is an experienced automobile salesman, has been connected with the Independent Garage for the past year, and will enter the automobile business when arriving in California.

Robert Asher, of Sacramento, Cal., accompanied by Payne Button, of that city, were in this city Monday, where they were the guests of the Misses Goldsmith. Mrs. Asher, nee Almee Hollack, a former resident of Oregon City, but now of Sacramento, who accompanied her husband to Oregon with her baby daughter, will visit in Oregon City the latter part of the week.

Corporal C. W. Riley, who is with the 23rd Engineers, entering the service November, 1917, arrived in New York from overseas service July 9. Corporal Riley received his discharge at Camp Funston, Kansas, and before returning to Oregon City will visit relatives in Wichita, Kan., expecting to arrive here the latter part of August.

Warren Wright, whose home is in this city, and who received his discharge from the service at Camp Lewis, July 11, is one of the Oregon City boys who are glad it is over. Wright entered the service May 21, 1918, and served in England and France, arriving in the United States June 28, 1919. He was a member of the 88th Transport Corps, 62nd Engineers.

Gordon Taylor, editor of the Molalla Pioneer, and who has been in France, where he has been lecturing in behalf of the Y. M. C. A., his subject being "Dad," has returned to his home in Molalla, and was in Oregon City visiting friends Saturday. He was accompanied to Oregon City by his wife, and they attended the Chautauqua.

Merle Martin, who received his discharge from the army at Camp Lewis, Wash., the latter part of last week, was in Clackamas Saturday and Sunday, where he visited at the home of his sister, Mrs. John Moehne, of Beaver Creek. He also visited friends in Oregon City Sunday. He left for his home at Bull Run Monday morning.

Levi Hawkins, an old time resident of Indiana, but now making his home in Southern California, has arrived at the home of J. M. Hollowell, Gladstone, where he is spending the week. Mr. Hollowell and family and Mr. Hawkins were former neighbors in Indiana. The latter is 84 years of age, and is making his first trip to Oregon.

Miss Merle Yexley, who recently returned from the Oregon Agricultural College at Corvallis, is substituting in the office of County Recorder Gilbert Noe. Miss Cynthia Pace is the first of the employees to take her two weeks' vacation, which will commence today, and she will leave Saturday for Long Beach, Wash.

Captain Charles Parker has arrived in the United States from overseas service, and for the present is located in Virginia. Mrs. Parker received a telegram Friday morning from her husband advising her of his arrival. He is expected to arrive at Camp Lewis, soon to receive his discharge from the service.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Waldron and the latter's mother, Mrs. L. T. Batten, who is making her home in this city at the Waldron residence, have been spending several weeks at their farm at Liberal. They will return to their country home this week, and will send the larger portion of the summer there.

Mrs. Ellen Stratton, an old-time resident of Oregon City, but now of Portland, was among those to come to Oregon City Sunday to attend the funeral services of the late Mrs. John G. Porter. Among the others, formerly residing here and attending were Mrs. Lizzie Dagliesh and Mrs. Kate Colburn.

Charles O. Roberts, a private first class of the 20th Engineers, and member of Eighth company, has received his discharge from the service. Roberts left France for the United States May 11, and received his discharge at Camp Lewis a short time ago. He enlisted for overseas duty October 12.

Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Houlton, who have been enjoying a three weeks' outing at Salt Air, and occupying the Gausfield cottage, have returned to Oregon City. Mr. Houlton will resume his position as manager of the Pacific Telephone Company Monday morning.

James Stewart, son of Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Stewart, of Linn's Old Mill, who has been employed in Pendleton, Oregon, has returned to his home. He was accompanied by Roy Shaw, who is visiting at the Stewart home. They may decide to remain in Clackamas county.

Mrs. S. Hettman left Saturday for Beaver Creek, where she will remain until Wednesday, and will then visit friends in Portland for several days before going to The Dalles. At the latter place Mrs. Hettman will visit relatives for several weeks.

Mrs. Lena Charman and daughter, Miss June, left Monday for the beach, where they will be the guests of Mrs. Lansing Stout, of Portland, who has a cottage there. Mrs. Charman and daughter will be gone for about a week.

Mr. and Mrs. George Ingram, of Ingram station, were Oregon City visitors Friday. Mr. Ingram is one of the prominent fruitgrowers of Clackamas county, and is specializing on apples, being known by many as the apple king.

"If you have any good apples, potatoes, beef or other farm produce for sale see F. T. Barlow at C. W. Inn, West Linn, and he will pay you cash on delivery. Phone Pacific 608."—Adv.

Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Armstrong, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Bonney, of Redland, have established a pretty camp at

PEACHES IN MARKET
The first local peaches to arrive in market this season were brought to the Brady Mercantile Company's store Thursday afternoon by Indian Dave, who has a little farm in the Gladstone district. These peaches are cling, have a fine flavor and brought 15 cents per dozen. They are the Sweet Water variety.

beautified, and have given it the name of Look Out Camp.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Cramblitt are receiving congratulations upon the birth of a baby daughter July 5, 1919. Mrs. Cramblitt will be remembered as Miss Maude E. Horton, a former residence of this city.

H. W. Hagemann, who resides in the Logan country, and owning one of the finest places in the county, was among the Oregon City visitors Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Gregory, of Molalla, were in Oregon City Sunday, as guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Cartledge. They also attended the Chautauqua Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Laura Williams left Thursday for Newberg, where she will make her home for some time, and where she has a position with her brother-in-law in the real estate business.

Anna Margaret Stewart, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Stewart, of Linn's Old Mill, who has been very ill, is recovering nicely.

G. G. Kruse, prominent farmer of Oswego, was among those to transact business in Oregon City Saturday.

Born, Saturday, July 12, to Mrs. John Chapin, of Mountain View Addition, a son, weight 9 pounds.

Mrs. W. P. Kirchem and daughter, of Logan, were among the Oregon City visitors Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Timmerman, prominent residents of Boring, were in Oregon City Monday.

Frank Kerr, of Aurora, was among those to transact business in Oregon City Saturday.

Local Registration Board Discontinued

In a letter received from the National Registration board Tuesday morning Sheriff Wilson has been officially notified of the termination of his office as chairman of the Local Registration Board of Clackamas county. The letter commends Sheriff Wilson for the efficient manner in which the affairs of the local board were conducted under his supervision and formally releases him from any further duties in connection with the work of the board.

Young Boy Sent To State School

Cecil Shaw, 10-year-old delinquent, was committed to the State Training School at Salem Tuesday morning by Judge Anderson. He will be taken to Salem for commitment to the institution today.

Couple Are Wed By Reverend Milliken

William Johnson, of St. Louis, Mo. and Mable Rowley, of San Francisco, secured a marriage license in Oregon City this evening, and were united in marriage at 5:30 at the residence of Rev. and Mrs. W. T. Milliken. Rev. Milliken, pastor of the Baptist church, officiated.

Divorce Action Filed in Court

Josie E. Wheeler has brought suit for a divorce from James M. Wheeler, charging him with having violent fits of temper. They have one child of which the mother asks the custody. They were married at Tillamook September 29, 1914. They have not lived together for the past two years.

New Pastor Arrives At Nazarene Church

Rev. A. D. Hoover, who has accepted the pastorate of the Nazarene church of this city, has arrived with his family from Alberta, Canada. Rev. Ketter has been in charge of the church for some time.

MARRIED IN VANCOUVER
VANCOUVER, Wash., July 10.—Clara Johnson, 18, of Clackamas, and Ralph Stark, 33, of Portland, were married here today.

HUNTLEYS TO ENLARGE

Contract was closed Thursday for extensive alterations to the building occupied by the Huntley Drug Co. The plans provide for an enlargement of the building, a new front and other alterations.

GLADSTONE TEACHER RESIGNS
J. F. Croft, principal of the Gladstone school, has resigned. He taught there during the past school year and was recently re-elected. Mr. Croft is going to South Dakota.

SUIT IS FILED
J. W. Schulz has filed suit against Martin E. Hayman and John Doe Griffith to recover $40 for the rental of a gravel pit at Bell station, $37.50

CRUELTY TO CHILD IS BASIS FOR WIFE'S ACTION FOR DIVORCE

Charging her husband, Elbert L. France, with whipping her little daughter unmercifully, Mrs. Belle France has filed a suit for divorce. The little girl is Mrs. France's daughter by a former husband. The plaintiff says that France called her names unfit to print and is guilty of cruel and inhuman treatment. They were married December 8, 1914. Mrs. France asks that her husband's wages earned at the Hawley Pulp & Paper Co. be diverted for her costs in prosecuting the suit.

Ola Boyle, who was married to H. W. Boyle in Eureka, Kan., May 3, 1897, has filed suit for divorce, alleging desertion at Portland in 1910. The couple has two married daughters.

JONES INSULTS TWO WOMEN THEN AGREES TO GET OUT OF TOWN

A. T. Jones, mill employee, paid a fine of $10 in the police court for insulting women on the street Wednesday night. He accosted two young women and made a slurring remark to them, and when the brother of one and the husband of the other went on his trail he fled to his room in the Willamette hotel and barricaded the door. Constable Fortune induced him to go to jail.

Recorder Loder imposed a fine of $10, with a 30-day jail sentence, but suspended the latter on condition that Jones leave the city. He left Thursday night.

NEW OFFICERS ARE INSTALLED BY THE KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS

The annual installation of officers and banquet of the local Knights of Pythias lodge was held Wednesday evening in Woodman hall and was attended by a representative assemblage of the members of the order in this city, as well as by a number of visiting members.

The following officers were installed for the ensuing year: Richard Geaves, Chancellor Commander; Mr. Snidow, Vice-Chancellor; A. M. White, Prelate; W. H. Smith, Keeper of Records and Seals; Harry Peckover, Master of Finance; H. A. Shandy, Master of Exchequer; Mr. Grant, Master-at-Arms; John Crawford, Outside Guard; Mr. Poole, Inside Guard.

Following speeches by several of the newly installed officers dainty refreshments were served.

Heat Prostration First of Season

Sheriff Wilson was called to Jennings Lodge at 1:30 o'clock Tuesday morning on a telephone complaint that a stranger had arrived at that place shortly before and was displaying unmistakable signs of insanity.

Upon arrival at Jennings Lodge Sheriff Wilson took the man in charge and brought him to Oregon City, where he was placed in the local hospital.

The stranger gave the name of Frank Nicklin and stated that he was an employee of the Fleishner-Meyer company of Portland and had been connected with that firm for a period of 15 years. He also stated that he had a brother, Isadore Nicklin, located in Eugene.

Inquiry at the hospital late yesterday afternoon elicited the information that Mr. Nicklin appeared to be normal and that in the opinion of the authorities there he was merely suffering from a slight heat prostration. The Sheriff's office confirmed his statement regarding his connection with the Portland firm.

GREENPOINT WOMAN HAS HAND POISONED WITH SALMON GAFF

Mrs. C. W. Bagby met with a painful accident at her home at Greenpoint a few days ago, which has resulted in blood poisoning in her hand. Mr. Bagby was attempting to pick cherries at her home by means of a gaff hook, when in some manner, the hook slipped, and struck her hand in such a manner that the sharp point penetrated the flesh between the fingers, causing an ugly wound. Although the services of a physician were immediately secured, she is suffering severely from the effects of the accident.

POLK'S GAZETTEER

A Business Directory of each City, Town and Village in Oregon and Washington, giving a Descriptive Sketch of each place, Location, Shipping Facilities and a Classified Directory of each Business and Profession.
R. L. POLK & CO., Inc., Seattle, Wash.

His Name is Dennis Sues For Injuries Isenhart Wins $30

George Isenhart, who lives near Milwaukie, recovered $30 in the Justice Court Thursday in his suit against David Dennis for personal injuries. The men had trouble over a dog and Isenhart contended that Dennis assaulted him.

DIVORCE PLEAS ARE BASED ON VARIETY OF DIFFICULTIES

Clara Cooper petitioned the local court yesterday to dissolve the bonds of matrimony between herself and Lee A. Cooper, charging cruel and inhuman treatment. The couple were married in Multnomah county in February of 1919.

George Bigham, who married Kezlie Bigham in Pendleton in 1914, is petitioning the local court to release him from the bonds which hold him. He asserts as basis for his petition cruel and inhuman treatment and asks the custody of a son, aged 13. A daughter of 9 years he is willing to leave in the custody of the mother.

Elizabeth Cryer also claims cruel and inhuman treatment in her petition for divorce from Sidney A. Cryer. They were married on Sept. 24, 1914. Mrs. Cryer has filed a demurrer to the action and the case will be heard in due course.

In a suit to recover on a promissory note Ira W. Carl yesterday filed a complaint against Heilka Peters in the Clerk's office.

RELATIVE LONG LOST ARRIVES TO VISIT HOME OF PETERSON

Miss Helen Sword, of Moline, Ill., arrived in Oregon City Wednesday morning to visit the grave of Chas. M. Peterson, who dropped dead at his home near Boring on June 13, and who was presumed to have died without any known relatives.

Coroner Johnson, who took charge of the property of Mr. Peterson after his death, was notified a few days ago that a letter he had addressed to Miss Sword had reached its destination after a considerable period of wandering and that she would visit this city this summer. Miss Sword is the only known relative of Mr. Peterson and no claimant for the twenty-acre tract of land which he owned would probably ever have been found had it not been for the finding by Coroner Johnson of a letter written to Peterson in 1902 by Miss Sword, and discovered among his effects when Coroner Johnson took the body in charge.

Coroner Johnson was named as administrator of the estate shortly after the death of Mr. Peterson.

Miss Sword stated in an interview Wednesday that she had not seen Mr. Peterson in the past 35 years.

REVEREND SEEMAN ACCEPTS CALL FROM PORTLAND PASTORATE

Announcement of the resignation of Rev. S. W. Seeman was made from the pulpit at the First Presbyterian church last Sunday at the conclusion of the Reverend Seeman's sermon, it being stated that his resignation would be effective on September 30th. Rev. Seeman announced that he had accepted a call from the Rose City Park Presbyterian church in Portland. Reverend Seeman came to the Oregon City Presbyterian church about a year ago from the Montavilla church in Portland, and during the period of their residence in this city the Reverend and his estimable wife have made a host of friends who sincerely regret their departure. Many expressions of felicitation have been tendered to Rev. and Mrs. Seeman since the announcement of their departure was made last Sunday.

TRY THIS ON YOUR PIANO

(Being a suggestion for a popular song which will keep a certain mighty good tune from falling into disuse.)
Over here! Over there!
In the air, here and there, everywhere.
The blimps are coming, the blimps are coming,
With motors humming through the air.
Get aboard, all you horde,
Get aboard, get aboard get aboard;
Where the wine's still flowing
In the blimps we're going,
And we won't blimp back
Till it dries up over there.

LIBERTY BONDS BOUGHT SOLD

If you must sell your Bonds or partially paid receipts sell to me. MAIL BONDS to me. I will remit by return mail.

A. C. HOWLAND
8TH AND MAIN STS. OREGON CITY, OREGON

MRS. FANNIE PORTER IS DEAD IN OREGON CITY AT AGE OF 84

Mrs. Fannie M. Porter, widow of the late John G. Porter, died at the family home at Eleventh and Jackson streets Thursday evening at 5:30 o'clock, after an illness of fourteen weeks.

Mrs. Porter was born in County Longford, Ireland, December 4, 1834, and came to America when a mere girl. After residing here for a number of years, she again made a visit to the Old World, remaining with her parents for one year, and when returning to the United States she took up her residence in Portland, Maine, where in 1860 she was united in marriage to John G. Porter.

In 1862, Mrs. Porter, with her husband, left Portland, Maine, by way of the Isthmus of Panama for California. Residing in California until 1866 Mrs. Porter accompanied her husband to Oregon, making her home in Oregon City, at that time a pioneer settlement. Since that time Mrs. Porter has retained her home here. Her husband was one of the active citizens of this county, and for a number of years served in the city council.

Mrs. Porter was a woman who had a sunny disposition and even during her last illness she was always cheerful and never complained. She had a kind and generous heart, and was always ready to assist the needy without show or ostentation. Her kindly disposition and noble character have endeared her to many friends.

Mrs. Porter had celebrated her 84th birthday anniversary in December, and it was an occasion long remembered by this pioneer, for scores of congratulations and gifts found their way to the Porter home.

Mrs. Porter is survived by her daughters, Miss Fannie G. Porter, principal of the Failing school, Portland, and Miss Kate I. Porter, an instructor in the same institution. Mr. Porter died in Oregon City in 1902.

OREGON CITY MATRON PASSES AFTER BRIEF ILLNESS IN PORTLAND

Mrs. May Lillian Brown, wife of Harry Brown, of Oregon City, died Friday morning at 10:45 o'clock at the St. Vincent's hospital, Portland, after a brief illness, and the remains have been brought to Oregon City, where they have been taken to the funeral parlors of Holman & Pace. Mrs. Brown was born November 17, 1884, at Clinton, Clinton county, Iowa, and came West a number of years ago, marrying Harry Rowland Brown at Vancouver, Wash., June 27, 1904. To this union there were born three children, Lucile, 10, Dwight, eight, and Roland, two years of age.

Mrs. Brown was a former resident of Parkplace, and about a year ago came to Oregon City with her family from Sheridan, having resided at 14th and Center streets for the past three weeks, and although she had resided here but a brief time has made friends.

Mrs. Brown is survived by her husband, Harry Brown, her three little children, of this city; a sister, Mrs. Hazel Smith, of Iowa, a brother, Joseph Luce, of Iowa, and an aunt, Mrs. Etta Coffey, of Parkplace.

LONG ENLISTMENT PERIOD IS REPLET WITH EXPERIENCES

C. L. Williamson arrived in Oregon City Wednesday morning after a period of 27 months' service in the United States navy, having received his honorable discharge at Bremerton Navy Yard last Monday.

Mr. Williamson enlisted in the navy at Portland in April, 1917, and was sent to San Francisco for training. He was transferred to Minneapolis for a course of study at the University of Minnesota and after a course in pharmacy there was transferred to a hospital ship stationed at Norfolk, Virginia.

Enlisting as 2nd class apprentice Mr. Williamson was advanced during the period of his service to the rank of 1st class pharmacist mate at the time of his discharge. He completed three round trip passages across the Atlantic to France during the period of the submarine menace to shipping and was stationed for three months at the embarkation port of Nantes, France.

DR. MOUNT VICE-PRESIDENT

Dr. Clyde Mount, Oregon City dentist, was elected vice-president of the Oregon State Dental association at the convention in Portland this week. He is the only state officer not a resident of Portland.

BE A LEADER

"A wise and great leader lifts his whole community and may lift an entire nation"—E. V.

An immense problem in reconstruction confronts the present generation. Are you doing your utmost to prepare to lead in its solution?

For College Catalog, Illustrated Booklet and other information address THE REGISTRAR, Oregon Agricultural College, Corvallis

Oregon Agricultural College

Trains for leadership in the industries and professions as follows: HOME ECONOMICS, AGRICULTURE, COMMERCE, FORESTRY, PHARMACY, MUSIC, VOCATIONAL EDUCATION, CIVIL ENGINEERING, ELECTRICAL ENGINEERING, MECHANICAL ENGINEERING, CHEMICAL ENGINEERING, INDUSTRIAL ARTS, MINING ENGINEERING, LOGGING ENGINEERING, MILITARY SCIENCE.

The College training includes courses in English, Economics, Art, Mathematics, Modern Languages, Physical Education, Industrial Journalism, Natural Sciences, and all essentials of an education.

Three regular terms—Fall term begins September 22, 1919

For College Catalog, Illustrated Booklet and other information address THE REGISTRAR, Oregon Agricultural College, Corvallis