SOCIAL EVENTS OF THE WEEK

Wedding Bells at Elk City.

A very pretty wedding occured last Wednesday at 11:30 at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Mentor Randall, on the banks of the Big Elk river, ten miles from Elk City, when Miss Louva LaVerne Randall became the wife of Frederick C. Lamoreaux. The house was prettily decorated in the many varities of beautiful wild flowers that grow in profusion in the immediate neighborhood. At the appointed hour, the groom took his place under a beautiful wedding bell of white blossoms, where he was met by the bride, attired in a becoming gown of cream viole, trimmed with baby Irish lace, with a veil held in place by orange blossoms. She was leaning on the arm of her father, and was followed by maid of honor, Miss Ana Alldredge, of Oregon City, who was attired in pink silk orandie, and the best man, Philip J. Sinnott, also of Oregon City. The bride carried a shower bouquet of white and the maid of honor one of pink carnations. Taking their proper places, the couple were united in the bonds of matrimony by Rev. Ellsworth of Toledo, Ore. After the ceremony, the guests sat down to a bountiful dinner, at the conclusion of which, the newly wedded pair left for a trip to Newport, returning to Elk City two days later. Mr. and Mrs. Lamoreaux received many beautiful and costly presents from their host of admiring friends. Those who witnessed the ceremony are: Mr. and Mrs. Mentor Randall, Mr. and Mrs. Z Randall and child, Mr. and Mrs. William Randall, Misses Violet and Harriet Randall, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Allen, Miss Winnie Allen, Miss May Daniel, Miss Ethel Kawetszky and Alfred Allen all of Elk City, and Mrs. W. W. Alldredge and Miss Eloise Alldredge, both of Oregon City. The members of the bridal party spent several days on the Big Elk, enjoying the matchless scenery, the pure mountain air and the splendid fishing and hunting before returning to Oregon City, and it was with a feeling of regret that they realized that the time for their departure had arrived.

Mr. and Mrs. Lamoreaux will remain on the Big Elk until Mr. Lamoreaux completes his contract to build the new school house for the district, coming thence to Oregon City, where they will spend a few days before leaving for Wilkesbarre, Pennsylvania, the home of the groom, where they will reside. Miss Randall has been connected with the Oregon City postoffice for a number of years, and has always been considered one of the most popular young ladies living here. Mr. Lamoreaux, who is a contractor, has resided in this city about a year, and by his straightforward business manner, has gained a number of friends, who join with the friends of his bride, and the Courier in wishing them a most pleasant and prosperous journey over the sea of matrimony.

Alumni Meets Friday Night.

The regular semi-annual meeting of the Oregon City High School Alumni Association will be held Friday night July 2nd, in Willamette Hall. There will be several matters of importance to be discussed at this meeting, and full attendance is desired. Several fine speakers have been secured, a banquet will be served, and a general good time enjoyed.

Mrs. Sommer Entertains.

Sixteen friends of Mrs. E. A. Sommer were delightfully entertained Monday afternoon by their hostess at her lovely home on the banks of the river at Tenth street. Bridge whist was the game of the afternoon, and the first prize was awarded to Miss Marjorie Caufield, the second being won by Mrs. Linwood E. Jones. Refreshments were served.

Ice Cream Social.

The Christain Church of Gladstone held a pleasant ice cream and strawberry social on division street in Central addition Saturday night, and in spite of the coolness of the evening, the sale of ice cream and strawberries netted a tidy amount. The grounds were gaily decorated with Japanese lanterns, and the affair was one of the most enjoyable of the kind ever held in the city.

Bachelor Girls Entertained.

The Bachelor Girls were entertained by Miss Wynne Hanny in Green Point Monday night. The evening was pleasantly spent with music and playing cards and the prize was awarded to Miss Charlotte Pratt. Dainty refreshments were served.

EASTERN STAR ENTERTAINMENT.

Pioneer Chapter, Order of Eastern Star gave another of their pleasant entertainments Tuesday night in the Masonic Temple. The rooms were tastefully decorated, and the following program was rendered: Intermezzo from Cavalleria Rusticana, Congregational Orchestra; vocal solo, (a) "Evening Song," (b) "All Through the Night," Miss Laura Pope; reading, "Beatrice and Dante," Mrs. E. W. Scott; "The Lost Cord," Congregational Orchestra; reading, "Aux Italines," Miss Clara Fields; vocal solo, "I Have Sighed to Rest Me," Mrs. R. C. Ganong; vocal solo, "The Angeles," Mrs. Nieta Barlow Lawrence; farce, "Midsummer Night's Dream," Mrs. Leslie L. Porter and Miss Martha Frances Draper with several accompanists. After the program, refreshments were served in the banquet room, and the remainder of the evening was spent in dancing, music being furnished by the Congregational Orchestra.

Gray-Vigelius.

John Vigelius, who has for some years been head clerk in the large department store of John Adams in this city, and Miss Lena Gray, a popular young lady of Oregon's metropolis, were married te the home of the bride's parents at 201 14 street, Portland, Oregon, at 8 P. M. Tuesday, the weding was a quiet affair, only the immediate relations and friends being present. The bridal couple left the same night for Seattle where they will take in the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific Exposition and will continue on up to Vancouver, Victoria and other Sound cities, returning to this city in about two weeks and will reside at 612 4th street. The Courier extends hearty congratulations and best wishes.

Final Meeting of Woman's Club.

A meeting of the Oregon City Woman's Club was held Wednesday afternoon at the residence of Mrs. W. S. U'Ren. This was the final meeting of the club's fiscal year, and the time was spent planning the work for the coming year, and the manner in which the members would spend their vacations. All were unanimous in the matter of having the club boost for Oregon City and Clackamas county. Present were: Mrs. Robert Goodfellow, Mrs. F. E. Beard, Mrs. E. Clarence Oakley, Mrs. Frank Forsberg, Mrs. E. F. Fields, Mrs. E. C. Stuart of Portland, Mrs. Thos. Warner, Mrs. H. P. Brightbill, Mrs. H. E. Straight, Mrs. W. E. White, Mrs. M. M. Charman, Mrs. W. S. U'ren, Miss Cis Barclay Pratt.

Rush for Popular Groom.

A surprise was given Mr. John Vigelius Jr., by Mr. and Mrs. John Adams and the members of the clerical force of the Department Store of which Mr. Vigelius is head clerk. The rush was given in the Store and there were eleven guests. Many useful and handsome gifts were presented and a delightful time was had, after which delicious refreshments were served consisting of salad, sandwiches, ice cream and cake.

Quiet Wedding.

Miss Mary Weismandel and George Pursiful were quietly married Sunday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. H. Samson on Main street, between Eight and Ninth streets. The ceremony was performed by Judge Samson, whose house enjoys the distinction of having been the scene of ninety-three weddings. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Weismandel, and the groom is a well known resident of this city. They will reside here.

Quiet Wedding Wednesday.

Miss Margaret B .Wilkenson and Arthur Ruegg, both of this city, were quietly wedded at the Baptist Church Wednesday evening, the ceremony being performed by Rev. Henry B. Robbins, an instructor at the Baptist Seminary in Dixon, Cal., but formerly pastor of the Oregon City church. Mr. and Mrs. Ruegg are well known in this city, having attended the public schools, and have a host of friends who wish them every joy.

Willamette Couple Wed.

A quiet wedding occurred Wednesday afternoon at the office of Justice of the Peace W. W. H. Samson, in the Jaggar building, when Miss Mae Samson and Chester A. Middleton both well known residents of Willamette were pronounced man and wife by the Judge. The couple will make their home in Willamette, where they are well and favorably known by all.

FRIBBLES OF FASHION.

Paris Says No Buttons on Gowns. Something New In Jewelry.

In Paris they are using no buttons on gowns, and very little fringe is seen. The aim among Parisian tailors seems to be long straight lines with an absence of buttons and any trimming whatever.

Among the new brooches are tiny straw hats of finely woven gold, with wreaths of enamel daisies or seed pearl flowers. Earrings, brooch and necklace matching in color make a pleasant ensemble.

Such a simple little dress as this one is in demand at all seasons, but especially so at this time, when washable materials are used. The body portion and the skirt are cut in one, simply held in place by means of a belt, and consequently laundering is an easy matter, while at the same time the dress is a becoming and attractive model. JUDIC CHOLLET.

This May Manton pattern is cut in sizes for children of four, six, eight and ten years of age. Send 10 cents to this office, giving number (6224), and it will be promptly forwarded to you by mail. If in haste send an additional two cent stamp for letter postage, which insures more prompt delivery.
