SOCIETY

The Girl Reserve Club of Oregon City was entertained at a Christmas party at the Y. W. C. A. in Portland on Friday of last week. Mrs. W. A. White of this city chaperoned the club. Those attending were: Dorothy Blake, Wilma Croner, Helen Toose, Frances Blake, Catherine Croner, Helen Harris, Lois Pagenkoff, Carrie and Jessie Cunningham, Helen Surber.

The second number in the Ellison White course given at the High School auditorium on Monday of this week, was an entertainment of high quality and deserved better patronage on the part of people in Oregon City and vicinity. The next number will be a lecture by Herbert Le on Cope on "The Smile That Never Wears Off," on the evening of February 23.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Bennett and Mr. and Mrs. Sam Stevens and children, watched the old year out and the new year in at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fosberg last Saturday night. A delightful time was enjoyed and a delicious luncheon was served by the hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank R. Anderson and son, Charles and daughter Glena, delightfully enjoyed a watch party Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Andrews of Portland. Other guests at the An Chester A. Muir, son Glen and daughter Virginia of Portland, and Mr. and Mrs. Allen E. Frost and children, Melville and Dorothy of Corvallis.

Mrs. Willis Yonce entertained a few friends at her home on Fifth and Jackson streets last Saturday afternoon. The time was spent in doing needle work and some splendid music was enjoyed. Delicious refreshments were served by Mrs. Yonce. The guests were Mrs. James Shannon, Mrs. Link Waldron, Mrs. Izzetta Abright, Mrs. J. K. Morris, Mrs. John Surber, Mrs. Robert Summons of Oregon City, and Mrs. L. C. Posson and daughter Leta of Estacada.

Mr. and Mrs. Judge H. S. Anderson entertained at a dinner on Monday at their home on Seventh and Center streets. Their guests were Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Edgar and Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Green. Mrs. Anderson was assisted by her niece, Miss Grace Anderson of Portland.

One of the most delightful evenings of the season was spent last Thursday night, December 29, at the Odd Fellows' Hall when the Oregon Lodge, No. 3, held open house for all its members and their families. After a short business session, the hall was thrown open and a most impressive ceremony was the first feature of the evening. Lodge jewels were presented to two of the gentlemen who had been members for an unbroken period of 25 years. These men who were honored were Charles Hannaford and T. C. Thomas. Judge F. F. Ryan had the honor of presenting the jewels to Mr. Thomas and J. V. Swan of Portland, who initiated Chas. Hannaford 25 years ago had the honor of presenting him the jewel. Those jewels which are handsomely designed and changed every five years thereafter are highly prized by those getting them. After the presentations, a short program was rendered, this being vocal solos by Mrs. Walter Wentworth, Lyman Warnock and Eloise Ely. Dancing was indulged in, after which an oyster supper was served to nearly 300 people. It was an occasion that will be long remembered.

Mr. W. F. Mueller of Rt. 3, Oregon City, was a caller at the Banner-Courier on Friday.

J. M. Caldwell of Portland, transacted business in Oregon City on Friday.

O. R. Daugherty of Molalla, was an Oregon City visitor on Friday.

Needy Boy Killed by Gun

One of those deplorable accidents happened at Needy last week, when Oscar Hoffman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hoffman, was instantly killed.

Young Hoffman, with a friend, were hunting. They were standing on a log talking and his gun, muzzle up, was resting on the log. It slipped the hammer catching, discharging the gun into his head, killing him almost instantly.

The boy was a high school student at Woolburn.

We do printing of all kinds at the Banner-Courier—the best workmanship at lowest prices.
