

OUR NEAR NEIGHBORS

BOLTON

The social given by the fire department of Bolton Friday evening was a huge success both financially and socially. An excellent program was rendered by the younger members and each selection was well received. A great number of attractive baskets were sold and the remainder of the evening devoted to dancing. Music was furnished by the high school orchestra. The sum of $45 was taken in, of which $30 is profit. This department is one of the most active organizations of this city and their reputation as hosts yet remains unequalled.

Mrs. Harold Leighton of Willamette, who has been seriously ill, is now at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McDonald.

Miss Ruby Hogan entertained a group of young people at her home Sunday afternoon. Those who were her guests are: Joyce Mercer, Alta Warden, Elmer Simpson and John Michels.

Miss Ruth Young of Silverton was the guest of Mildred McKilligan Wednesday evening.

Mrs. A. J. Hobbie is able to be out again, having just recovered from a severe illness.

Walter Rector, a student of the Bolton school, left last week for his former home in Idaho. We are very sorry to have him leave but wish him success in his school work wherever he goes.

GLADSTONE

Party for Alfred Rowan

Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Rowan entertained Friday evening in honor of their son, Alfred, whose fifteenth birthday anniversary occurred on that date. The living rooms were prettily decorated with red carnations, hearts, and kewpies. The evening was devoted to games, contests, and music. Mrs. Rowan was assisted in serving refreshments by her daughter, Mrs. Elvin Catto. Those attending were: Misses Dorris Smith, Veatrice Rauch, Vivian Rauch, Eunice Amer, Nellie Harvason, Glenna Miranda, Leona Fox, Mary Louise Merrick, Mary Meads, Erma Roche, and Dorothy Shearer; Alfred Rowan, Fred Meads, Roy Wilkinson, Everett Catto, Frank Garlick, Franklin Niles; Harvey Woodward and Alfred Olsen, of Portland; Ernest Freytag, Jack Hempstead, and Eldred Grasier.

Euterpean Club Meets

Mrs. F. L. Oswald will entertain the members of the Euterpean club Thursday of this week.

Sunday School Class Entertained

Mrs. F. D. Ellis entertained the members of her Sunday school class, "The Busy Bees," Friday evening. The living rooms were prettily decorated with red crepe paper and hearts. The evening was devoted to games, contests, and music. The Valentine prize given in the "heart hunt" contest was won by Delbert Hayward. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess. Present were Helen Crawford, Matilda Hayward, Habel Turell, Lola Vedder, Elsie Sobinski, Dorothy Kyler, and Delbert Hayward, Robert Ellis, and Mrs. F. D. Ellis.

Missionary Society Meets

The Missionary Society of the Christian church met at the home of Mrs. K. E. Bauerfeld, Wednesday afternoon. In connection with the regular program and business, plans were made to entertain the Federation of Missionary Societies which will hold an all day meeting at the Christian church Friday. The program will start at 10 o'clock. Dinner will be served at noon by the ladies of the Gladstone Christian church.

Mrs. F. D. Ellis had as her dinner guests Wednesday, Mrs. E. H. Ellis, mother of Mr. Ellis, and Mrs. J. H. Potter, sister of Mr. Ellis of Portland. Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Legler and daughter, Mildred, were the dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Duane Ely, of Oregon City, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. McGetchie had as their dinner guests Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. R. M. McGetchie, Mrs. Margaret Niles, and Mrs. H. C. Parker. Mr. and Mrs. R. Freytag, Miss Alice Freytag, and Ernest Freytag were the dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Pace Sunday.

Delbert Hayward was the guest of friends in Portland Tuesday evening.

Church Department Prospers

The Home Department of the Christian church, which has been recently organized is proving successful. The department is divided into three classes. Mrs. B. F. Clay, Mrs. O. Thoen, and Mrs. G. Olds are in charge of the classes which meet each Thursday afternoon. These classes are for the benefit of those unable to attend Sunday school, the regular Sunday school lesson being studied at the meeting.

Mrs. F. A. Burdon, who has been seriously ill at the St. Vincent's hospital, is steadily improving.

Mrs. O. L. Weddle returned Friday from Salem where she was called last week by the illness and death of her granddaughter, and the serious illness of her daughter, Mrs. Otto Scheinman.

Mrs. W. E. Hempstead spent last week in Portland, the guest of her sister, Mrs. Benjamin Jones.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Roake of Oregon City and Mrs. W. I. Rowan motored to Salem Sunday where they were the guests of Mrs. Rowan's sister, Mrs. Barnette. They were accompanied home by William Davis, father of Mrs. Rowan.

Mrs. John Kent, is spending the week in Forest Grove with her daughter, Mrs. Fred Steiner, and sister, Mrs. John Yoder.

The young people of the Baptist Sunday school were entertained in the church parlors Friday by Judge H. E. Cross, who is Sunday school superintendent. During the evening delicious refreshments were served.

Mrs. Carrie N. Parker, acting postmistress, was installed as clerk of the Neighbors of Woodcraft for the 25th consecutive term.

Mrs. O. E. Freytag has been appointed registrar for the two Gladstone precincts by County Clerk F. A. Miller and has accepted the office. Mrs. Carl Simmons, who has been ill with la grippe, is improving.

JENNINGS LODGE

The Jennings Lodge Christian Endeavor society held a basket social in the Community church Tuesday evening. In connection with the sale of baskets a program was given.

The Community club held its regular monthly social meeting in the school house Wednesday evening when "500" was played. Light refreshments were served.

The regular meeting of the Parent-Teachers association was held at the school house last Friday afternoon. It was decided to continue serving warm lunches to the pupils during the noon hour. The report of the committee in charge of the lunches showing a surplus of $26.07 for the past month. A check for $25.00 was received from the Portland Knights of Pythias lodge in payment for the services of the pupils of Mrs. Moore's room in presenting the Tom Thumb wedding. A previous check received from Oregon City makes the total for the playground apparatus from this source $50.00.

Mrs. William Moritz entertained the members of the Luncheon club at her home on the River road Wednesday.

Charles Peterson of Duluth, Minnesota who has been visiting his son, Albert Peterson of Hull avenue, returned home Monday. Enroute home he will visit in California. He was so favorably impressed with this section that he may dispose of his property in Duluth and return to make his home here.

Mrs. Dan Jones and little sons are confined to their home with the prevailing grip.

Mrs. Claire Maple who has been confined to her home several days is convalescing.

Mrs. Florence Moore of the Jennings Lodge school has taken possession of one of the Blinstone apartments on Hull avenue.

OSWEGO

OSWEGO ITEMS—

L. L. Woodward, chief chemist of the Oregon Portland Cement Company, who died suddenly at his home in Oswego Thursday morning, was buried Saturday afternoon. Services were held at the Holman chapel, followed by interment at the Oswego cemetery, where a large concourse of friends were in attendance. Mr. Woodward has been very prominent in the welfare of the young people of Oswego, having organized both the Boys' Scouts and the Girls' club. He left Oswego to go into the service in the late war, and joined the Y. M. C. A. organization and was stationed as a secretary at Camp Lewis. Since his marriage he has made his home at Oswego. He was a man of great talent in community work and Oswego always considered itself fortunate in having the benefits of his leadership in the many lines of work in which the city was interested. His loss to the community will be almost irreparable. Besides his widow and daughter, Margaret, Mr. Woodward left two brothers and a sister, who reside in Canada.

Plans for an elaborate George Washington day celebration are being laid at the Oswego grammar school. In addition to fancy dancing, songs and other music, the stellar event will be a flag raising with the local Boy Scouts officiating. The program will be held about 10 o'clock a. m. in order to let the children have a half holiday. Parents and friends are invited.

The largest attendance at any event of its kind in Oswego in several years favored the chicken dinner given Thursday evening at the Congregational church by the Community Sing Club. The event had the hearty support of Oswego's general Community Club and also the town people regardless of affiliation. The Sing Club membership deserve a great deal of credit for the hard and effective work done and for the gratifying results financially.

The pupils of Miss Pettinger's class were given a pretty costume party Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Duncan. Little Celia Duncan was a charming hostess, and gave her small guests a happy evening.

The Wednesday Five Hundred club met at the home of Mrs. George Thomas, last week. First prizes were won by Mrs. Sumption and Mrs. John Davis; and the booky prize fell to Mrs. Griffee. Places for each guest were marked with dainty Valentines and a delicious luncheon was served. On Thursday evening Mr. and Mrs. George Emmerick entertained a party of friends at their home in South Oswego.

Miss Zannah Lytsell who is ill with

Willis Koehler was in Oswego during the week. He is from Falls City.

WEST LINN

Mrs. Shonks has been rather ill for some time at her home. Her friends hope she may improve soon.

Mrs. Polterer formerly Miss Irene Moore, niece of Mrs. L. L. Pickens, passed away in Omaha, this week.

The funeral will be held in Oregon City on Thursday of this week.

Since the death of her husband, Mrs. Polterer had lived with Mrs. Pickens but she had been visiting in Omaha for a time with friends.

Construction on the new bridge is progressing rapidly and the old suspension is nearly demolished. The forms for the concrete work have been in the making for some time. A large amount of reinforcing rods is also on the ground ready for use.

During the latter part of last week it was found necessary to add guys to the new bridge to prevent the swinging occasioned by high winds. A guy was stretched at each side level with the foot way and several smaller cables placed between the foot way and guy thus preventing the side sways.

Fred Hegdale, a junior at West Linn High, who has been very seriously ill with pneumonia is reported to be improving.

Mrs. Nora Armstrong is still in the Oregon City hospital, but is doing as well as can be expected.

Mr. Tom Armstrong is also ill having to have a doctor attend him. Mr. and Mrs. H. Reinke of Rosemont have had quite a few friends and relatives here visiting them recently. All of them coming from Holbrook, Iowa.

Mrs. Wm. Robinson was hostess recently at a beautifully appointed dinner at which Mrs. Eva Thery Dye, Mrs. Canfield, Mrs. McDonald, Mrs. Walter Bennett, Mrs. Hickman of Bolton and Mrs. Hugh Burdon of Ocean Falls were her guests.

On February 6th, County Agent Holt was at D. O. Days to advise Rosemont folks just which varieties of potatoes would be best for this community to market successfully. Quite a number came to hear the speaker. Rosemont now has its own road district, number sixty two with D. O. Day as supervisor. While nothing can be done to the two main roads this year, the DeBok road will receive our entire allowance, for it is badly in need of immediate repair.

Rosemont Community Club at its last meeting decided not to accept the one fourth acre Mr. Reinke offered for a club house but will buy one half acre from him instead. Incorporation papers are ready and as soon as they return and the half acre is purchased the work will begin on the new clubhouse.

The members finally decided to accept for membership any resident of West Linn, Oswego, Willamette or Hazelia.

Friends are welcome at regular meetings, the next one being March first and thereafter every two weeks, at 8 P. M. For information regarding plans of meeting, membership and so on call 7F2.

Mr. Jake Borland, who has resided in Eastern Oregon the last few years, has been visiting his old home for a few weeks.

Miss Zannah Lytsell who is ill with scarlet fever at her grandmother's, Mrs. Krummel's home in Oregon City is getting along well.

Wm. Robinson and Ruth were Portland visitors last Saturday.

Mrs. Mayme Schultz and children of Redland were the guests of Mrs. Edith Mowbough for several Sundays lately.

Mrs. Henry Elliott has been confined to her bed with the grippe for quite a while. She is still poorly.

Mr. Frank Petit was reported better the other day. He has been quite ill with pneumonia.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Elliott, Willie Elliott and Dorothy Boggess were out from Sellwood last Sunday to visit Mrs. Henry Elliott.

Mr. Pete Georoff is visiting at the Wm. Robinson ranch.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Blaney are home again and have taken up their residence at the Robinson ranch. Their two daughters of Portland were here Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. J. Hall were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Cory at the home of Dr. Ralph Fenton at Rockspur station, just off the highway.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Day have moved into the Albert Powell home in West Linn from the ranch in Rosemont, as Mr. Day is now employed at the Crown Willamette mills.

West Linn was again visited with snow and sleet on Sunday and Monday.

The trees are budding and the pussy willows are out in spite of the weather.

WILLAMETTE

The entertainment given by Mr. Parker at the Willamette Methodist church was enjoyed by many people. His poem "The Man with the Hope" was especially well-liked and his rendering of several of Edward Guest's poems pleased everyone especially the children.

Mrs. O. Larson who is at the St. Vincent hospital is much better and expects to be home soon.

One of the numerous improvements of the Progressive Club is to bring gas to Willamette. The required number of people have approved of it and work on the project will start soon.

Mrs. W. L. Snidow returned home Sunday from the Oregon City hospital.

Mrs. Carl Elliott entertained a group of friends at her home, Feb. 8. The guests enjoyed a social afternoon and a delicious luncheon. Mrs. Harold Graves, Mrs. Elmer Johnson, Mrs. Walter Larson, Mrs. Harlan Donovan, Mrs. Bert Zerker and Mrs. Carl Elliott attended.

Misses Meade and Mildred McKilligan visited Miss Edith Overton Thursday evening.

A baby girl arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hoffman Sunday evening, Feb. 12.

Mr. Lloyd Junken and his friend, Mr. Canuteson spent Sunday at the home of Mr. Junken's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Junken. Mr. Canuteson has just returned from visiting relatives in Idaho.

The teachers of the primary department of the Sunday school entertained the Willamette little folks Saturday afternoon. Including several parents there were seventy persons present. After feasting on gingerbread horses and other dainties the little folks went home tired and happy.

OAK GROVE

Many children are out of school this week because of illness.

Mrs. F. N. Little is able to attend to business again after a week's illness with grip.

Mrs. Ada White and three children were very ill the first of the week and the county nurse was called to the house.

A number from Oak Grove were in attendance at Portland auditorium on Sunday night, February 12, to hear Miss Evangeline Booth, commander of the Salvation army.

The annual reception of the Social Service club was held Thursday, February 16 at the home of the president, Mrs. W. C. Pierce on County road. A report in detail will be published in next week's issue.

The moving of the church has been delayed by the rains, which prevented excavating.

Rev. J. J. Patton, Mrs. Patton and son, are ill with grip but are improving.

R. Fleming has purchased the T. C. Elliott place and moved into the same. C. L. Morgan has purchased the Gillespie place on River road.

An appreciative audience was entertained with stereopticon views and lecture on Alaska Sunday evening at the church. The pictures were good and the lecture rendered in a pleasing and interesting manner.

The Ladies Aid society held a food sale Saturday, February 11, and a net sum of considerable proportions was realized and all food disposed of.

The A. C. Arnold home is under quarantine for diphtheria, the little boy being ill.

The Concord school was closed all last week because of diphtheria in the district.

Mrs. Grace Bryant has been suffering from rheumatism in her ankles.

Mrs. E. C. M. Youngs is still confined to her home from an injury to her spine which she received by a fall in the yard of her home.

The postoffice is now in charge of an "acting postmaster," who took charge February 15. No examinations have as yet been held and Mrs. Helen E. Wilcox was placed in charge. Mr. V. G. Benvie, veteran postmaster, after nearly four years, will go in to Americanization work about March 1.

The Helpers' club held its regular meeting Tuesday, February 14, at the home of Mrs. Bernire. After the business session, a Valentine party including a Valentine box and other games were enjoyed. Refreshments were served.

G. S. Davenport, wife and two sons, were all sick last week with the grip.
