

COMMERCIAL CLUB DRIVE IS TAKING FINAL SHAPE

Manager Reports Encouraging Attitude On Part of the Public

GOAL 600 MEMBERS

Captains for Drive, Are Now Appointed. Organization to Be Completed Friday Night.

All the arrangements preparatory to the launching of the membership drive for the Oregon City Commercial club are moving forward according to schedule according to Campaign Manager Clay. For the past week Mr. Clay has been holding a number of meetings organizing forces to properly conduct the campaign.

Mr. Clay states that in this kind of work in other cities he has very seldom encountered the same amount of enthusiasm as he has in starting the work in Oregon City. Everywhere there is a feeling to the effect that the drive will be successful. The actual campaign will be begun on Monday, March 27, and will continue until including Saturday, April 1.

It is the desire of those in charge of the drive to secure a budget of $7000 to conduct all of the work of organization for the forth-coming year. The resulting membership has been placed at 600.

The present drive is based on the slogan "A New Deal and A Square Deal for All." A suggestive program for the new year has been mapped out which includes the most extensive development program that has ever been attempted in the history of campaign organization in Oregon City.

One feature of the new plans for the club is the fact that every member of the organization will be assigned regular duties in some department of club work. With this plan in operation, the club then will accomplish good results, in so far as every member puts his shoulder to the wheel for progressive development of Oregon City, and the surrounding country. Furthermore every member will be held responsible for his or her part of the work.

The organization for the drive is: Colonel M. D. Latourette with captains L. A. Henderson, D. C. Eby, C. H. Dickey, W. T. Wright, Ben Harding, C. G. Miller and Raymond C. Caulfield.

Colonel John R. Humphreys with captains L. A. Morris, Clarence Farr, A. L. Beattie, O. D. Eby, Joseph E. Hedges and J. A. Brady.

A dinner will be served the organization workers on Friday evening, when final arrangements will be completed for the opening of the campaign drive on Monday.

MOVEMENT IS ON FOOT FOR ALDERCREST SCHOOL

Proposition Is to Unite Portions of Three Districts to Accommodate Community Growth.

A movement is on foot to organize a new school district from portions of Clackamas, Harmony and Concord districts. In case that the proposition goes through to completion, there will be built a new school building at Alder Creek which point is near the center of the proposed district.

A committee has petitions in circulation and will present the matter to the boundary board in the near future. There will be one teacher at first, but it is probable that at least two will be necessary within the next year. Concord is one of the most densely settled sections of the county between Portland and Oregon City and is growing very rapidly. The community is being built up largely from well to do farmers from Portland, where the heads have employment or are in business and who delight in the best in community life and progress.

Live Wires Elect New Set Officers

At the Live Wire meeting on Tuesday, the following officers were elected:

A meeting is planned for Tuesday evening, March 28, at which time there will be discussions of taxation. The views of the members will be invited to be present. Suggestion that candidates for governor be present were made.

Non Partisan League Makes Many Changes

At a meeting held in Portland last Sunday the non-partisan league of Oregon reorganized with an executive committee of five to manage its affairs. Of these there are from Clackamas county F. H. King, chairman; H. Trabue; H. D. Kribbs. P. P. Koppch of Hood River and M. Weinacht of Mt. Angel are the other members. Differences between H. H. Stallard, state organizer and other leaders over methods used were adjusted by the outcome.

A programme adopted by the reorganization favors the reduction of taxes, at least 25 per cent; the exemption of city homes up to $1000; household goods $500; workmen's tools, $300; clothing, $200, and the farmers' tools up to $1000.

It declares factories, public utilities, banks, stores, flour mills, warehouses and similar wealth should be assessed at full value. Livestock, threshing machines and similar property at 50 per cent value.

No government injunction in labor disputes, state conducted insurance, state employment for the unemployed and state development and distribution of water power are also on the programme.

Resolutions favoring the abolishing of the state tax commission were adopted as was also a resolution endorsing a soldiers' bonus financed by an income or excess profits tax.

DEMOCRATS TARRYING ABOUT GUBERNATORIAL RINGSIDE

H. G. Starkweather, J. D. Brown, Milton A. Miller, F. S. Myers Mentioned

CHAMBERLAIN DECLIN

The Ex-Governor Declares His Intentions to Continue in Present Position on Shipping Board.

Ever since his defeat for United States senator, ex-governor George E. Chamberlain has been mentioned as a probable contender again this year for the democratic nomination for governor. As the time for nomination draws near, interest in the candidacies of the parties increases. Hence it is that leading democrats have set about to learn as nearly as possible the intentions and purposes of the said Hon. George E. Chamberlain. And the interest in his candidacy is still further heightened by the frequently and freely expressed opinion by the wing of democracy favorable to him that he would be the "unbeatable" follower of Jefferson in Oregon. However the other wing whose leaders were run-in against Stanford two years ago has not shared in this opinion.

Recently to determine the political status more accurately the former governor now occupying a $12,000 position on the United States shipping board was urged to give his final answer. His reply is that he prefers to remain where he is for the present in the belief that he can render more valuable assistance there than in the position of governor.

Harvey G. Slack, president of the Jackson club, who was a candidate against Walter M. Pierce four years ago, is now the most prominently mentioned among the democratic candidates.

The name of Frank S. Meyers, who, bereft of the postmastership during Wilson's administration and which Chamberlain was in the senate and a close personal friend of Starkweather is also mentioned. Others having an eye cast toward the gubernatorial ring and hat in hand are Milton A. Miller, former collector of customs, and J. D. Brown, former president of the Farmers' union.

P. R. L. & P. COMPANY REPORTS SUCCESSFUL BUSINESS YEAR

Last Years Operations Give Promise of Better Times for Local Industry.

Among the important features covered in President Griffith's statement to the stockholders were the following:

During the first six months of 1921 the earnings of the city railways showed increases over the corresponding months of 1920, due to the fact that the comparison was made between an 8-cent fare in 1921 against a 6-cent fare in the first half of 1920. The number of passengers, carried, however, in 1921, was less than in 1920, due to the gradual decrease in industrial activity and the consequent unemployment. During the last six months of 1921, with the same rates of fare as during the last half of 1920, the reduction in street railway passengers was greater than during the first half of the year 1921, but this reduction was fairly uniform during each of the months of the last half of 1921, indicating that the unemployment in Portland did not materially increase after July 1.

VIOLA RAILROAD COM- PANY TO EXTEND CARVER LINE

The Portland-Oregon City railroad will be extended from Carver to Viola. The extension covers a distance of nine miles and reaches into the timber holdings on Clear creek.

The cost of the construction will be around 180,000 of which about one-half has been spent in bridges and grading, it is reported. J. L. Sprinkle will be president.

It is believed that with this addition of lumber business to the present passenger traffic, the road will become a paying proposition.

William Etters Gone.
Funeral services for William Etters were held at the Holman and Pace undertaking rooms on Monday afternoon with Rev. H. G. Edgar officiating. Mr. Etters left three daughters, Mrs. M. M. Cross, Oregon City; Mrs. Fred Lambert, Jennings Lodge; and Mrs. W. A. Cross, Parkplace.

CLACKAMAS COUNTY JERSEY CLUB MEETS

Many Talks of Practical Interest to Cattle Breeders Were Made by Club Leaders.

At the residence, formerly the Geo. Laselle home, now owned by Mr. and Mrs. Fred Meindl, about 60 members of the Clackamas County Jersey Cattle club met together on Saturday, last. It was a regular bi-monthly meeting with business matters during the forenoon, a basket lunch at noon and a fine programme in the afternoon.

W. A. Holt, county agent, gave a talk on the breeding of the dairy cow.

E. A. Rhoten of the "Pacific Homestead"—a farm paper published by the Statesman Publishing company of Salem, gave an address on the use of milk by school children. In his talk he told of the plans whereby children in a school of south Salem are encouraged to drink milk freely. For the purpose of encouraging its use as a part of the noon lunch, a fund has been provided by patrons for the purchase of this, the most perfect food for this purpose. Mr. Rhoten urged the purchase of good foundation cows.

D. Brooks Hogan, who has charge of the Ladd Jersey farm at Oswego, spoke interestingly on the dairy. N. H. Smith urged elimination of the purebred "scrub" as essential to success.

E. J. Ackley, calf club leader at the O. A. C., spoke on the "Benefits of Calf Club Work." Among these benefits are bringing in better breeds and the training of boys and girls in livestock work.

The next meeting will be held at the home of A. D. Gribble of Gribble's Prairie on Saturday, May 13. N. H. Smith is president and J. L. Linehart secretary of the club.

Motor Busses Must Stop at R. R. Crossings

Commercial auto busses and trucks operating over the highways of Oregon and Arizona will be required to come to a complete stop before crossing railroad tracks, according to recent order passed by the Oregon public service commission and the Arizona corporation commission.

The orders, similar to those issued by the California railroad commission, and the Nevada public service commission, provide that motor vehicles subject to the orders shall come to a full stop not less than 50 feet from a rail road track or tracks at grade. Violation of the orders may subject the owners of such vehicle to suspension or revocation of his license.

During the year 1921, on the lines of the Southern Pacific company in Oregon and Arizona, 153 automobile accidents occurred at grade crossings resulting in 5 deaths and 40 injuries.

The South End Road Project Still Open

Everybody wants the south end road improved. In fact it must be improved to complete the Pacific highway through the city. The highway commission has said that unless steps were taken soon to build the same over the hill by either, the county, the city, or both the commission would improve the present route.

Committees appointed some time ago to investigate the matter, reported no funds for the project whereupon the Live Wires through the newly-elected main trunk, E. L. Pope, appointed another committee consisting of O. D. Eby, L. A. Henderson and Linn Jones at the Live Wire luncheon to meet the highway commission in Portland today (Thursday) to confer on the matter.

Ladies of the Baptist Church entertained the W. W. G. Girls at a banquet at the church on Wednesday evening this week.

Market road number 1, extending from Colton to Wright's Bridge will receive $15,000 while number 2, from Eagle Creek bridge to Estacada gets $18,000—the second largest single apportionment.

Market road number 3, divided into two sections, will receive $10,000. Of this amount $6000 is for finishing from the top of Gibson hill and the balance is for the east end. Number 4 gets $5000.

Market road number 5 receives $20,000 to be spent on the Silverton section between Butler creek and Lateral. This is a section of highway proposed for a federal-post road.

Number 6 gets $15,000 for improvement from Wilsonville to the Yamhill county line. From Carver to Barton on road number 7, the apportionment is $3000.

The amount granted to number 8, from Fisher's Mill to Redland is $9000 if the county apportionments $7500, while the people of the district put in $1500 by subscription.

Macadam is the kind of roads outlined in the county programme. This selection over concrete is due to lack of funds.

Abel Gilbert for the past year county roadmaster, has been reappointed.

Russia Goes Forward.

Russia has made great gains in internal development recently. Private enterprises have been encouraged and corporate industries restored in order to meet this country's demands, but Lenin and his advisors have called a halt and contemplate rejection of the part the government hoped to take in the Genoa conference.

Mr. Hughes and the administration can not go far in international financial and economic altruism when the senate contains an element who bickers and fights the Armament conference treaties. The secretary by his action may hurry the European powers toward a more generally favorable attitude of restoration.

And at these meetings, there has been a general demand for lowering government expenses by cutting off extravaganzas, and cutting down appropriations as the first step toward tax reduction.

The U. H. S. Will Show Merchant of Venice

J. L. Gary, superintendent of the West Linn schools, has booked from the extension division of the university of Oregon for his students and the people of the community the three-reel film classic, "The Merchant of Venice."

This picture, based on Shakespeare's famous play, was filmed at great cost. For instance, a fleet is shown in the bay of ancient Venice. The picture takes you back to costumes, streets, boats and customs of former days and keeps you in suspense with the incidents of an unfolding drama. This will be a chance to see one of the greatest plays of the world written for the greatest dramatist of all time.

"The Merchant of Venice" will be shown by the West Linn school April 5.

These educational pictures are being sent out to the schools of Oregon by the extension division of the university of Oregon as part of its service in visual education.

REDUCTION PROGRAM WAS ADOPTED AT CONVENTION

Session Was Featured By Orations and Debates

INCOME TAX FAVORED

Recommended Repeal of Millage Tax For Higher Education by Vote of 48 to 38

As a concrete result of the two days session of the Oregon State Tax Reduction League held in the Central Library building in Portland, Monday and Tuesday, a committee of seven members to be announced later will be appointed to draft measures in accord with the program adopted. The lack of harmony which existed was not on the lines that tax reduction was unnecessary but rather over some of the means of effecting a reduction. Monday the advocates of a graduated income tax won a signal victory when on the protests of Colonel E. Hofer and Colonel Peter D'Arcy, Marion county delegates, the vote showed, 53 for and 28 against such a measure.

The millage tax for the support of the Oregon Agricultural College and the University of Oregon was stubbornly contested and when the smoke of battle had cleared away—the recommendation for the repeal of the millage tax had carried by a vote of 48 to 38. The members of the Clackamas county delegation divided evenly on the proposition, three voting for and three against the repeal. One delegate from Clackamas county was absent.

The following is the program as adopted Tuesday. The income tax resolution was adopted at Monday afternoon's session.

We oppose paying more than $5000 to any official of the state government of Oregon, heads of departments or subordinates.

We oppose the educating at state expense of men studying law or medicine.

We oppose further bond issues and we believe bonds already issued should not be sold at less than par.

We oppose appropriation of state money for the support of the Pacific Livestock exposition.

We oppose appropriation of state money for the Northwest Tourist association, including display.

We oppose appropriating state money for the commercial fish commission.

Recall Is Proposed

We recommend the recall be used for the removal of the public service commission.

Other matters which have been referred to the committee of seven to consider, having been approved by the legislative committee of the convention, are:

Assets at full cash value, all property.

Place a time limit on soldiers' educational bill at six years from date of its adoption.

Application for a soldiers' bonus must be filed within four years of adoption of the act.

Bar the legislature from referring anything to the people but constitutional amendments.

Creation of cabinet form of government, to be appointed by governor, whose heads can be removed by the governor or recalled by the people.

Prohibit use of public funds for propaganda.

County Teachers' Institute Planned.
