Mr. and Mrs. George Hofstetter were in Oregon City on business the other day.

S. Elmer was in Portland last week. Fred Lindsay has sold all of his 1922 walnut crop at a good price. He also sold his dried prunes at a satisfactory price.

As this was his first prune crop and his nut orchard is young, both crops ought to be about double next year. He states that his filbert trees are full of blossoms for the first time in a few years Mr. Lindsay will be a leading fruit and nut grower in Oregon.

Paul Schiewe has started to build a house. This is bad weather for house building, but we all hope he will succeed and that he will have a good home before long.

The Misses Elenora and Lilly Schiewe of Oregon City spent Christmas with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Schiewe.

Charles Gasser is busy planting prune trees. One more grower converted to the fruit industry here.

Our school celebrated Christmas last Friday evening. The school rooms were decorated with the usual greens, and the children gave a remarkably fine program, after which Santa Claus came down the chimney and distributed presents to the children, also many packages of candy. The attendance was a record breaker and everyone had a fine time.

CHERRYVILLE

Parnell Averill

Work was resumed at the big sawmill, five miles east of here, on Wednesday of this week. There will be a lay-off New Year's day.

A happy New Year to everybody! Chatterers say that the squaw winter we had in December means mild weather for the balance of the season.
