LOCALS AND PERSONALS

Will Make Home At Canby—

Professor and Mrs. Stauffer, of Portland, the former connected with the Lincoln high school, were in Oregon City on Sunday, where they visited friends, among these being Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Warner, of Mt. Pleasant, where they made their home for a brief time. Professor Stauffer has recently purchased a home at Canby, where he and his wife spend the weekend, and made many improvements by planting fruit trees, selecting some of the best varieties. This place was owned by Mr. Cline, and is considered among the valuable tracts of land of that section. Mr. and Mrs. Stauffer are to make their home for the summer at their Canby farm.

Smith Family to Occupy Farm—

A family by the name of Smith, of this city, have rented the A. L. King farm at Mount Pleasant for the coming year. Mr. and Mrs. King and daughter, Hermina, are on their way to Isle of Man, where Mr. King is heir to a fortune left by a sister, Mrs. Palmateer, and upon their return in six months, they expect to make their home at Locust farm, the former home of the late Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Warner, early Oregon pioneers, and residents of Mt. Pleasant. Mr. and Mrs. Ward P. Lawton, the latter a sister of Mrs. King, are also making their home at this large farm residence.

MILWAUKIE, Ore., Jan. 9.—Paul Lusher was arrested here tonight by Deputies Long and Hughes and Constable Lowe on charges of moonshining. A large complete still, with 75 gallons of corn, sugar and malt mash was found together with three gallons of the finished product. Taken before Judge Perry, he was fined $500 and sentenced to serve 60 days in jail.

Society

Among the interesting parties given in Oregon City during the holiday season was at the apartments of Mr. and Mrs. Walter L. Little on Seventh and Center streets New Year's Eve, when a number of friends were invited to greet the New Year, proving a most delightful event, and one long to be remembered by those in attendance. The affair continued until Sunday morning.

Dancing and cards were features. Refreshments were served.

The apartments were artistically decorated. These were in keeping with the holiday season.

Enjoying the affair were Mrs. Tull, Miss Howe, Miss Sanders, Miss Freeman, of Oregon City; Miss Staats, Nelson Johnson, Ralph Johnson and Mr. Nicholas, of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Little, host and hostess.

A large number of social affairs were held in Oregon City during the holidays, but one of the prettiest was a luncheon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Harding, at Tenth and Main streets, when their youngest daughter, Miss Evelyn Harding, popular of this city, announced her engagement to William Wallace Laxton, of Portland.

The decorations of the Harding home were most attractive and artistically arranged. In the parlors spring blossoms were used, among these being red carnations, bright colored jonquils, pussy willows and potted ferns and palms.

The color scheme of the dining room was pink and white, when Loraine begonias, white narcissus and delicately shaded pink bougainvillas were used. The table decorations were effectively arranged, when the center was formed with pink Loraine begonias, from which extended pink satin ribbons to each place, which was marked with a dainty place card, bearing the fortune of each guest. Not until the last course was brought in when the announcement of the engagement was made, and this being cleverly done, when little bluebirds, bearing an engagement card in their bills told the story. This came as a complete surprise to the guests, who were members of the U-Go-I-Go Club, of which Miss Harding was a member. Each guest was presented with a corsage bouquet to correspond with the flowers used in the dining room.

Enjoying the affair were Miss Florence White, Miss Erna Petzold, Miss Marion Pickens, Mrs. Alfred Cook, of this city; Mrs. Thomas Knick, of Fullerton, Calif.; Mrs. Hugh Burdon, of Ocean Falls, B. C., and the hostess. The bride-elect, who has always resided in Oregon City, is one of the well and favorably known young women of this city, and a graduate of the Oregon City high school. She also attended the University of Oregon at Eugene, and is a member of the Chi Omega Sorority. Miss Harding is an active member of the Auxiliary to the American Legion, recently re-elected to the office of vice-president.

Mr. Laxton, an over-seas man, was with the 23rd U. S. Engineers, stationed in France during the world war, and upon his return from the service again took up his profession as a civil engineer. He is popular among his many friends, and has made his home in Portland for a number of years.

The marriage of Miss Harding and Mr. Laxton will be an event of early summer.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Solomon entertained with a watch party New Year's eve at their home in West Gladstone in honor of their son, Troy.

The evening was devoted to various kinds of contests, games and music was also enjoyed.

Refreshments were served.

Present were Miss Glenna Miranda and Miss Mildred Klyer, Troy Solomon, Prentice and Dennis Wallace, Mr. and Mrs. R. Solomon.

Among the enjoyable family reunions held during the holidays was at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Cooper, when attending were Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Baron and children, Elizabeth and Adelle, of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Roll and children, Elma, Elizabeth and "Buddy," of St. Johns, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Cooper and Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Cooper.

The rooms of the Cooper home were prettily decorated for this occasion, when holly and Oregon grape were used.

At a family reunion held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Linton on Christmas, when a tree and dinner were features.

The home was prettily decorated for the holiday season.

Attending were Mr. and Mrs. William Nichols and son, Morris, of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Powell and children, Pauline, Wayne and Juanita, of Valseltz, Oregon; Miss Elva Linton, Mr. and Mrs. Linton.

On New Year's day a similar reunion was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Nichols in Portland, when members of the families at the Linton home attended. Both proved most delightful affairs.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bernier was the scene of a brilliant New Year's watch party in honor of their son, Harold.

The home was beautifully decorated, and a number of innovations added to the pleasure of the evening, followed by a dainty lunch prepared by Mrs. Bernier.

Guests included Miss Grace Melinde, Miss Blanche Johnson, Miss Hazel Felth, Miss Mable Barnett, Miss Viola Fontana, of Portland; Miss Thelma Nachand, Miss Eleanor and Genevieve Himler, Robert Barnett, Lawrence Weaver, Harold Bernier, Mrs. L. Himler, Mrs. K. C. Felth, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bernier.

Mrs. W. M. Yonca entertained in honor of Mrs. L. C. Posson, of Estacada, last Saturday afternoon, when the time was devoted to music, needle work and a social time. Refreshments were served during the afternoon.

Among the enjoyable features were the piano selections given by Miss Lena Posson, of Estacada.

The rooms of the Yonca home were prettily decorated for the holiday season.

Enjoying the affair were Mrs. L. C. Posson, Mrs. James Shannon, Mrs. J. K. Morris, Mrs. J. L. Waldron, Mrs. Izetta Albright, Mrs. Robert Simmons, Mrs. Gus Bergren, Mrs. John Surfus, Miss Lena Posson and Mrs. Yonca.

Coming as a surprise to their friends was the marriage in Salem New Year's day of Miss Alta Burke, elder daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Burke, of Thirteenth and John Adams streets, and Robert Beattie, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Beattie, of Beaver Creek.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. T. Millikin, former pastor of the Baptist church of this city, now pastor of the Baptist church in Salem.

The young couple returned to Oregon City. Mrs. Beattie resuming her position as a clerk in the county recorder's office. Mr. Beattie has returned to the farm of his father, where he is assisting with the farm work.

The bride is an active worker of the Baptist church of this city, a graduate of the Oregon City high school, and has many friends here.

Mr. Beattie is also favorably known in Oregon City and at Beaver Creek, where he has a host of friends. He also graduated from the Oregon City high school, while the family resided here.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Lovett was the scene of a family reunion, an annual event held at the Lovett residence on New Year's day. Enjoying the affair were Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Walker, Mrs. Sophie Charman, Mrs. Matilda Charman, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Walker, Mrs. Thomas Knick, of Fullerton, Calif., Miss Marie Walker, Miss Helen Lovett, Pierce Walker, Nan Lovett, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Lovett.

On Christmas the annual reunion for that day was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Walker, when those attending the Lovett dinner were in attendance.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Moore's home was the scene of one of the enjoyable affairs of the holiday season, this being held on Monday, January 2nd, and in the form of a New Year's party.

Decorations were in keeping with the holiday season, and were artistically arranged.

Enjoying the event were Mr. and Mrs. J. Edgar Wells and son, John Edgar, Jr., Mrs. Alma Good, of The Dalles; Miss Alma Good, of Portland; Frank Wadsworth, of Portland, brother of Mrs. Moore; William Theis, James Moore, of Portland; Misses Alma and Florence Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Moore.

Mrs. Ernest P. Rands was a charming hostess to members of the Thursday Afternoon Bridge Club and a few other friends at her home on Tenth and Jefferson streets Thursday afternoon, when there were seven tables played.

The club prizes were awarded to Mrs. A. A. Price and Mrs. J. R. Humphrys, and the guest prize going to Mrs. H. E. Straight.

Following several hours of cards, dainty refreshments were served by the hostess.

Mrs. Nieta Barlow Lawrence will be hostess to the club at the next meeting, which will be held in two weeks. Mrs. Rands' guests were Mrs. Livy Stipp, Mrs. L. A. Morris, Mrs. Charles D. Latourette, Mrs. Nieta Barlow Lawrence, Mrs. H. E. Hendry, Mrs. Eber A. Chapman, Mrs. L. D. Porter, Mrs. T. W. Sullivan, Mrs. A. A. Price, Mrs. J. R. Humphrys, Mrs. J. L. Huycke, Mrs. Thomas Keith, Mrs. Frank T. Young, Mrs. J. P. Lovett, Miss Helen Lovett, Mrs. A. Banks, Mrs. C. Crusius, Mrs. H. E. Straight.

On New Year's day Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Paddock entertained at a dinner party Mrs. Elizabeth Hubert, Mrs. A. C. Sievers and children, Elizabeth and Louise, of Canby; Mrs. H. A. Dedman, of Canby; J. C. Paddock, Misses Laura and Jessie Paddock, of Gladstone; Prof. F. G. Buchanan, of North Powder, Oregon.

During the afternoon and evening Mr. and Mrs. J. W. McKenzie, of Portland, and Miss Mildred Dedman, student of Eugene, were guests.

One of the delightful events of the past week was the regular meeting of the Enterpean Club at the home of Mrs. Victor Gault in West Linn.

The affair was in the form of a luncheon served at 1 o'clock. The table decorations were of unique design, when a miniature artist and enamel formed the center piece. The place cards bearing the likeness of some artist, marked the place of each guest.

Mrs. Frank Miranda played two selections by Ethelbert Nevin, and Mrs. Slew played melodies by M. F. Rubenstein. These were especially enjoyed as Mrs. Slew is a former pupil of Rubenstein.

The art study was in charge of Mrs. Victor Gault and for the afternoon the members took up a review of the lives and famous paintings of Michael Angelo, Raphael and Leonardo De Vinci.

A review of the last two months study on current events was given.

At the next meeting of the club the play "Romeo and Juliet" by Gounod will be studied. At this meeting the members are planning to have as their guest of honor Mrs. Thomas Burke, nee Juliet Cross, of Chicago, who organized the Enterpean Club about seven years ago.

Mrs. Slew was a guest of honor at this meeting.

Enjoying Mrs. Gault's hospitality were Mrs. A. F. Parker, Mrs. Frank Miranda, Mrs. R. M. McGeechie, Mrs. M. E. Turner and Mrs. William Hammond.

Dr. and Mrs. J. G. Nash entertained at their home in East Gladstone Monday evening in honor of Mrs. Nash's aunt, Mrs. Cora Bennett, and also her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Arling Bennett, of Long Beach, Cal.

The Nash home was uniquely decorated, when imitation spiders and webs held favors for the guests. Mrs. Nash, a talented musician, favored the guests with several selections. The remainder of the evening was spent in games and various "stunts."

Refreshments were served at twelve o'clock by the hostess, who was assisted by her mother, Mrs. S. R. Bennett.
