

JENNINGS LODGE

MRS. HUGH ROBERTS, Correspondent

Interest Is Keen In Lodge Grace Guild

JENNINGS LODGE, Feb. 15.—Much interest is being manifested in the Grace Guild. On Wednesday Mesdames Hooker and Waterhouse were joint hostesses, the affair being held in the church banquet room, Mrs. Babler, presiding, at the devotional service Mrs. Hugh Roberts leading taking as her subject, "The courage, faith and service rendered by great men and organizations whose birth came in February."

At the business hour it was deemed best to hold three missionary meetings a year and a bed is to be furnished for the Childrens Farm Home at Corvallis, Mrs. A. Smith to look after this work of the society.

Twenty-seven enjoyed the elaborate luncheon served by the hostesses. Among the visitors were Mrs. Guy, Mrs. Tagley, Mrs. Newell, Mrs. Boetger and the additional guests were Mesdames Frank Covert, Ella Mac Hargue, W. I. Blineston, S. Griffith, Geo. Williams, Hugh Roberts, J. W. Smith, R. G. Thompson, Edith Truscott, Orlan Randall, Wm. Moritz, Olin Ford, Henry Babler, Dan Jones, Arthur B. Smith, W. W. Woodbeck, A. B. Snider, Jerry Madden, Geo. Pooler, A. Nelson and Rev. A. B. Snider.

Lodge P-T Meeting Is Held At School

JENNINGS LODGE, Feb. 15.—The February meeting of the Parent-Teachers was held on Friday, February 10 at the school house. Mrs. Altman room was very prettily decorated with flags. The pupils grouped around the room sang a number of songs in keeping with Arbor day and some of the pupils responded with readings on the planting of trees, and shrubs, all making a very interesting program. The hostesses, who were Mesdames T. Grady, Olin Ford, Henry Babler, W. Moritz and J. Boetger served coffee and sandwiches. The business meeting followed and the hot lunches are to be continued during the month.

The Guild and Parent-Teachers are to give a playette jointly and Mrs. Florence Moore will coach the affair. Miss Truscott's room was awarded the cash prize for having the most mothers attending who had pupils in her room. Mrs. Blineston favored with one of her readings which was much enjoyed by the thirty-five mothers attending.

The warm lunches at the noon hour for the pupils are proving very popular and on Wednesday or last week 86 were served Mrs. A. Nelson and Mrs. O. Randall serving.

Church Fund Drive Plans Are Outlined

JENNINGS LODGE, Feb. 15.—The trustees of the Community church met on Wednesday evening and outlined the plans for the coming drive for the funds for this years church budget. February 12 was the date chosen and the following committees were named to act on the drive Messrs Blineston and Humphreys, Dan Jones and Henry Woodham, Ed. Pearson and Warren Swart; Mesdames Hugh Roberts and Jerry Madden, Bertha Hart and Arthur Smith, S. L. Wilcox and R. P. Deter, W. H. Tillman and Henry Babler. On Monday evening those taking part reported their success. With the substantial pledge from the Grace Guild almost $1000 was raised and one part of the neighborhood still remains to be canvassed. Owing to the illness of some of the members of the teams the house to house visits were not completed. The church budget calls $1200.

Endeavor Social Given At Church

JENNINGS LODGE, Feb. 15.—One of the first socials given by the Christian Endeavor society of this place, was a very pretty and well attended affair given in the church banquet room on Tuesday evening. The well rendered program was composed of music from the Theraux orchestra, readings by Mesdames W. I. Blineston and Fred Wilson and a vocal solo by Miss Kennedy and a violin solo by Mr. Theraux.

Rev. Snider spoke briefly and Mr. Guy held of the work that has been accomplished by the Endeavor and their plans for the future. Pretty boxes and baskets were auctioned off and about $46 being realized which will go for the church organ fund. At a prettily decorated candy booth where cups and hearts were effectively used, candy was sold, also doughnuts and coffee.

and the proceeds from this booth will be used to defray the delegates expenses to the coming Christian Endeavor convention in Salem. The affair being held on St. Valentines day the church decorations were in keeping with the occasion.

C. E. Delegates of Lodge Are Chosen

JENNINGS LODGE, Feb. 15.—It is estimated that a thousand delegates will be present at the annual state Christian Endeavor convention, which will be held in Salem this week, beginning on Thursday evening and closing on Sunday night. The delegates chosen from the society are Mr. Guy, Miss Naomi Wilcox, Miss Lila Dietz and Mr. Mc Intyre, who will be privileged to hear such speakers as Dr. L. A. McAfee, of Berkeley, Rev. H. L. Bowman, of Portland; and Paul Brown of Los Angeles. Mrs. W. E. Wright of Portland will lead the singing. Rev. and Mrs. A. B. Snider will also attend from Jennings Lodge.

Enjoyable Party Given by Pupils

JENNINGS LODGE, Feb. 15.—Mrs. Mac Donald's pupils enjoyed a very pretty valentine party in her room from 3 until 5 on Tuesday. The room was prettily decorated with hearts and streamers of red and white and were effectively used to complete the decorations. Six of the pupils were a social committee, who planned the games and a committee of the same number provided refreshments which were a pleasant part of the occasion. Miss Janet Booth was postmistress and all the children received missives adorned with hearts, cupid, and tender and romantic messages in keeping with St. Valentines day. It was a very happy affair for the children. Thirty taking part in the festivities.

Anniversaries Are Fittingly Observed

JENNINGS LODGE, Feb. 15.—Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Rinearson celebrated their birthday anniversaries on February 12 both occurring on the same day. Their children coming and taking dinner with them and presenting them with a beautiful rocker. The Rinearsons are among the pioneer residents and they have many friends who wish them many happy returns of the day.

Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Heath and daughters, Edna, Violet and Evelyn; Mr. and Mrs. S. Rankins, Mr. and Mrs. Will Hall and son Everett and Pete and Leonard Rinearson.

Sixteen Register In Short Period

JENNINGS LODGE, Feb. 15.—The registration books were only open such a short time that only 16 registered. On March 15 the books will again be reopened and those wishing to vote at the spring election should register with Mrs. Julia Ullabrand, who has charge of the registration.

MRS. EMMONS WINS

JENNINGS LODGE, Feb. 15.—Mrs. H. H. Emmons attended the Arts and Crafts club at the home of Mrs. A. B. Miller in Sellwood on Friday last. In the guessing contest Mrs. Emmons was awarded a beautiful basket of sweet peas for her efforts in guessing the most correctly. The Miller home was very beautiful with spring blossoms and delicious refreshments were served.

MILLERS ATTEND DINNER

JENNINGS LODGE, Feb. 15.—Mr. and Mrs. Wilson B. Miller and children attended a birthday dinner at the home of Mrs. Millers parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gage, in Portland on February 11th.

Mr. and Mrs. Gage sharing honors in the delightful affair as both their birthday anniversaries fall on Feb. 11.

PORTLANDERS VISIT LODGE

JENNINGS LODGE, Feb. 15.—H. L. Nordstrom and wife of Montavilla spent Sunday at the home of the former's brother, and helped to celebrate the 20th birthday anniversary of Harry Nordstrom of this place, whose anniversary was on Feb. 14. The unusually large and attractive birthday cake being baked by Mrs. H. L. Nordstrom of Portland.

ATTEND REUNION

JENNINGS LODGE, Feb. 15.—Mr. and Mrs. Will Booth and children attended a reunion of the former residents of Josephine county, which was held at the Multnomah hotel on Saturday evening. This is an annual affair and a very happy reunion of old friends and school mates who now reside in and near Portland.

MRS. MISNER TO VISIT

JENNINGS LODGE, Feb. 15.—Mrs. Geo. Misner who has been sojourning in Southern California for the past six months will arrive this week and will be a house guest for a month at Stone Gables, the attractive home of the H. H. Emmons.

LEAVE FOR SOUTH

JENNINGS LODGE, Feb. 15.—Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Meldrum and little daughter departed on Saturday for California, for an extended visit. Mrs. Meldrum Sr. is enjoying visits from Portland relatives while her son and family are south.

JENNINGS LODGE LOCALS

JENNINGS LODGE, Feb. 15.—Mrs. A. B. Snider goes to Cherry Grove on Monday to spend a few days with her mother, Mrs. Patton. On returning will spend a few days in Salem attending the Christian Endeavor society.

Mr. Carter leaves soon for Wheeler County where he goes to look after land interests.

Chas. Redmond and wife motored out from Portland and were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. T. Hopkins on Sunday. Mrs. R. F. Deter celebrated her birthday anniversary on Sunday. Among the pretty gifts she received a beautiful handkerchief from the Philippine Islands.

W. B. Jennings is remodeling "Lys-wm," their summer home on the Willamette. They are soon to take possession again, which has been occupied by the Wilson family. Mr. and Mrs. Wilson moves March 1st to what is known as the Curtin place.

Fred Waldorf is making his home with W. B. Jennings. During the war Mr. Waldorf served on the U. S. Delaware and his experiences are very interesting and his old time friends are glad to have him here again.

Mr. Peterson of Duluth, Minn., who has spent the winter months with his son Al Peterson departed for California, taking the southern route home.

Mrs. Nettie Francis Hughes who has spent nine months with her son R. F. Deter departed on Sunday for her home at Montague, Calif.

Mrs. Minnie B. Altman was a dinner guest of Mr. and Mrs. Shelton Bechtel on Thursday. Mrs. Altman remains at the Lodge every Thursday until after the orchestra rehearsal.

Mrs. J. W. Jones is having a number of built-in conveniences added to her home on Hull Ave.

A group of the younger married set attended the dancing party at the Oak Grove hall on Saturday night and report a very good time.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Maple spent Sunday with Mrs. Bess Bruechert at her Portland home.

Mrs. Matthew of the Boring district paid a visit to her aunt Mrs. Julia Ullabrand on Friday.

Mrs. Addie Cowan Whitcomb of Hosum, Washington, was calling on old time friends this week.

Wilford and Mrs. Ross and Miss Lola and Geo. Ross, spent Sunday with Mr. Ross's sister, Mrs. T. A. Root at Boring.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Miller took dinner on Sunday with their son Clarence in Portland. The Millers were prominent farmers of the Aurora district but have spent the fall and winter here, occupying the little cottage of Ullabrand.

F. Goralamon who has occupied one of the Emmons cottages for the winter season has gone to Portland and plans to soon leave for Seattle.

Mr. and Mrs. Fitzgerald are nicely located in the Zimmerman place which we understand they have purchased. Mrs. Ella Mac on Tuesday day for Vancouver, Wash., where she is to be the guest of Mrs. Cushing for several days.

Three members of the S. L. Wilcox family and three of the Dan Jones family are ill with the la grippe which seems quite prevalent just now in this vicinity. H. D. Smith is also under the care of the family physician.

Mrs. R. F. Deter and Mrs. Rush are among those confined to their home with illness.

Meade Kennedy has been able to leave the Oregon City hospital and is very much improved.

Mrs. Frank Tucker went to Emanuel hospital on Wednesday where she is to undergo a serious operation.

Mrs. Erickson who has been an invalid for six years is confined to her bed constantly, yet she is able to see her friends and call to help pass the hours away is greatly appreciated.

The Frank Lambert family are to return again to Jennings Lodge and Mr. and Mrs. Covert who have occupied their home during the Lambert year of absence, have decided to locate in Gladstone. We will miss the Covert family very much as they have taken an active part in our church work.

Mrs. Wm. Moritz entertained the luncheon club at 1 o'clock on Wednesday at her pretty home on the river road.

Mrs. Arthur Roberts spent Wednesday at the bedside of her aunt Mrs. Chenowits in Portland, who is seriously ill with cancer. Mrs. Chenowits is a resident of Idaho but is under the care of Portland specialists.

Mrs. A. J. Robbins makes daily trips to be with an uncle who has just returned from California and is confined to the hospital.

F. W. Dain is making a number of extensive improvements at Shady Nook. Electric lights are installed and stoves are to be placed in the camp grove. A small fee will be charged campers to cover the expense of lights and fuel, but the grounds are to be free for picnic parties.

Mr. Deltz and family have removed to their new home at Batavia.

E. L. Kellogg spent Sunday at his old home at Milwaukie.

MAPLE LANE NOTES
MAPLE LANE, Feb. 15.—Mrs. A. B. Taylor visited her daughter in Portland on Friday last week.

John Egink and George Frank went to Beaver Creek on business Monday. Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Skene were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Skaggs of the Wastena Dairy on Sunday.

OSWEGO ITEMS

Mrs. Cora Bullock

NEW LODGE IS FORMED BY MASONS AT OSWEGO

OSWEGO, Feb. 9.—Masons of Oswego received a dispensation to form a new lodge under the name of Waluga lodge, A. F. and A. M. The following officers were installed: F. H. Reese, W. M.; R. B. Stotzel, S. W.; A. C. Good, J. W.; John Stone, S. D.; H. P. Lee, J. D.; Henry Bickner, treasurer; C. D. Hall, secretary; C. H. Horn, S. S.; Leon Stone, J. S.; H. E. Carpenter, chaplain; L. Stanton, marshal; G. L. Raven, tyler.

Chief Chemist of Cement Plant Dies

OSWEGO, Feb. 15.—L. L. Woodard, chief chemist of the Oregon Portland Cement Company, who died suddenly at his home in Oswego Thursday, was buried Saturday afternoon. The services were held at Holmans Chapel, in Portland and interment in the Oswego cemetery, where a large number of friends were present.

Mr. Woodard will be greatly missed by the Oswego people and all who knew him. He was very prominent in the welfare of the young people of Oswego, having organized both the Boy Scouts and the Girls' Club. He left Oswego to go into the service in the late war, and joined the Y. M. C. A. war organization and was stationed as a secretary at Camp Lewis. Since his marriage he has made his home at Oswego.

He was a man of great talent in community work and Oswego always considered itself fortunate in having the benefits of his leadership, in the many lines of work in which the city was interested.

Besides his wife and little daughter Margaret, Mr. Woodard left two brothers and a sister who live in Canada.

House Warming Is Given At Oswego

OSWEGO, Feb. 15.—On Friday evening the 10th a house warming was given Mr. and Vernon Centers who are now located in their new little bungalow facing the river. Those to attend the jolly occasion were Mr. and Mrs. David Nelson, the parents of Mrs. Centers, Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Fulton, Mr. and Mrs. I. A. Lord, Mr. and Mrs. Savaze, Leslie Savage, Mr. and Mrs. George Bullock, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Larson, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Emrich, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Borghorst, V. Nelson, David Nelson, Nellie Nelson and Mr. and Mrs. Centers, "500" was the feature of the evening. Cake and coffee and sandwiches were served. Mrs. Lord and Vernon Nelson won first prizes and Mrs. Bullock and R. D. Fulton won second prizes.

Mrs. George Emrich Hostess to Clubbers

OSWEGO, Feb. 15.—On Thursday evening the "500" club met at the home of Mrs. George Bullock with Mrs. George Emrich as hostess. First prizes were won by Mrs. Lord and I. A. Lord, while the 500 prizes fell to Mrs. Henry Borghorst and George Bullock. Mrs. Emrich had the table prettily decorated with valentine greetings and place cards for each guest. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Borghorst, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fulton, Mr. and Mrs. I. A. Lord, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Bethke, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Centers, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Emrich and Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Bullock.

Washington Day To Be Observed

OSWEGO, Feb. 15.—Plans for an elaborate George Washington day celebration are being laid by the Oswego Grammar school. In addition to fancy dancing, songs and other music, the stellar event will be a flag raising with the local Boy Scouts officiating. The program will be held about 10 o'clock a. m. in order to let the children have a half holiday. Parents and friends are all invited.

CHICKEN DINNER SUCCESS

OSWEGO, Feb. 15.—The chicken dinner given Thursday evening at the Congregational church, had the largest attendance of any event of its kind in Oswego. It was given by the community sing club and the sing club membership deserves great credit for the hard and effective work they did.

L. M. DAVIDSON PASSES

OSWEGO, Feb. 15.—L. M. Davidson passed away at his home near Oswego, Wash., on Wednesday. He was 70 years of age. He was a son of P. E. Davidson, Arthur Davidson, and Orin Davidson, all of Oswego.

RUDOLPH ROSENRETER

OSWEGO, Feb. 15.—Rudolph Rosentreter who has been in the St. Vincent hospital for two weeks or more passed away Sunday morning following a serious operation. He leaves a wife and two children besides a father, one sister, Mrs. Arthur Davidson, and three brothers.

OSWEGO LOCALS

OSWEGO, Feb. 15.—Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Weidman are the proud parents of a baby boy which arrived at their home Friday. Mother and son are doing nicely.

Rollie Worthington has been on the sick list for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Powers of Seattle, Wash., are visiting relatives in Oswego for a few days before going to Texas where Mr. Powers work will be for the next few months.

On Friday last Mrs. Guy Raven was luncheon hostess to Mrs. W. H. Scott, Mrs. John Davis, Mrs. W. G. Weightman, Miss Bertha Scott, and Miss Della Davis.

Willis Koehler of Falls City, was in Oswego during the week.

Miss Ellen Worthington is staying with her aunts and uncle Miss Maggie and Miss Obrien and Jerry Obrien for a couple of weeks. Miss Worthington is from Oak Grove and a daughter of T. R. Worthington.

Mr. and Mrs. Mosely and her friend visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Yates over Sunday.

Mrs. George Thomas entertained the "500" club Wednesday afternoon.

The school board met and transacted regular business Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Monroe are rejoicing over a 10 pound baby boy coming to their home last week.

Miss Pettigrew is very grateful to the boys of the manual training school for the table they made for use in her room.

The Fox children have returned to school after an absence of several months.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Schindler of Portland were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Pete Emmott Sunday. Mrs. Schindler is a sister of Mr. Emmott.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Ranker were dinner guests of the Donald James' at their new home in East Portland Sunday.

The Roy Foster home is quarantined for diphtheria.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fulton were hosts to a party of Portland friends Friday evening.

Mrs. Archie Worthington has been on the sick list for the last week. Mrs. Childs, her mother, is staying with her.

Russell Delashment is ill at his home in South Oswego.

Mrs. Pete Emmott and Mrs. Joseph Bowers were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Archie Worthington on Monday.

Oak Grove News

OAK GROVE, Feb. 15.—A number of pupils were out of school because of grip first of the week, 15 from one room. Many of them are back again. Mrs. L. H. Little has recovered from a severe attack of grip which confined her to her bed several days.

All who attended were pleased with the appearance and lecture of Miss Evangeline Booth, commander of the Salvation army who lectured to an overflowing house in Portland Auditorium Sunday evening, February 12.

The Social Service Club held their annual reception Thursday, February 16 at the home of the president, Mrs. Mattie Leroy on River road, to late for report in this issue.

On account of inclement weather the moving of the church is somewhat delayed.

T. C. Elliott has sold his fine residence to Robert Flemming who has taken possession.

The Gillespie property has been disposed of to C. L. Morgan.

The Ladies Aid's food sale Saturday was a fine success.

Mrs. Grace Bryant has had an attack of rheumatism which effected her ankles badly.

Mrs. Minnie Youngs is recovering from an injury to her spine caused by a fall several weeks ago.

Mrs. Helen E. Wilcox was placed in charge of the post office temporarily to release Mrs. V. G. Benvie who has served the public as postmistress nearly four years in a very satisfactory manner and who regret her resignation very much. Mrs. Benvie will go into Americanization work.

G. S. Davenport, wife and two sons were all sick last week with grip.

Mrs. L. Simmonds was cut about the head and face when the auto in which she was riding with Mr. Simmonds at the wheel hit a truck in trying to pass a street car.

Kitchenette Fitted Up in School House

HAZELIA, Feb. 13.—Many are suffering severe colds in our neighborhood. Mrs. Wm. Schott, Kenneth Baker and Mrs. Geo. Wilson have been quite ill.

Mrs. Wm. Wanker is gaining slowly. She has been confined to her home for several weeks.

The whole neighborhood enjoyed the gathering at the school Saturday evening the event being a pie social and program by the school. The sale of pies amounted to over $67 which was given for the school Victory fund.

A kitchenette has been fitted up by the community-kitchen committee at the school house and the ladies are now able to prepare "feeds" but which will be enjoyed by all who are in the habit of getting together at the regular monthly meetings which occur the first Saturday in the month. These meetings will meet, the needs of the community in a social and literary way good community singing and the development of community spirit. March 4 will be a program entirely of music.

Miss Frances Willis, our school teacher is at present with the Cook's being very convenient to the school.

Mrs. Duncan Christiansen of Hazelia and Miss Jane Lindsey of West Linn are arranging a joint musical and entertainment to be given at Park Rose March 3 for the Congregational building fund, which church is soon to be built at that place.

Mrs. Archie Worthington is able to be about again much to the delight of her many friends.

Duncan Christiansen has been busy at the Pilkington nursery for the past week helping in the work preparatory to spring trade.

Greenland was discovered and named about the end of the 10th century by a Norseman, who established a colony there.

Civil War Veteran Passes at Garfield

ESTACADA, Feb. 15.—William W. Davis, an old settler in the Garfield district, died February 11, 1922, at the family home aged 80 years. He was born in Clark County, Indiana, and was one of a family of eleven children, six of whom are still living. He volunteered in Sept. 1861, in Co. A 4th Iowa cavalry. Reenlisted Dec. 12, 1863 and was promoted to corporal. Was captured in action Oct. 11, 1863 at Jones Lane, Ark. and was paroled and returned Nov. 8, and restored to duty. He was mustered out of service in 1865 at the close of the Civil war. He was married to Sarah Martha Green May 24, 1867 and crossed the plains with ox teams, landing in Oregon Sept. 1868. Ten children were born to this union who all survive him. They are F. H. Davis, E. T. B. W. Davis, Jr. Davis of Estacada, W. W. Davis, Jr. and Clara Johnson of Yancow, Wash. Anna Lowden of Portland, J. A. Davis of Ellensburg, Wash. H. W. Davis and Grace Jacobs of Aberdeen, Wash., and a number of grandchildren. Sarah M. Davis died March 15, 1912, and on Sept. 14, 1913, the deceased was married to Mary M. Boebe, who survives him. Funeral services were held at Mt. Zion church Garfield, Monday afternoon, Rev. A. Demoy officiating, and interment was made in the cemetery near the church.

Mr. and Mrs. John Page went to Gladstone Tuesday to visit their daughters and families.

Charles Dubois returned from Portland Monday where he has been receiving medical aid.

Died—Jason W. Moxley, who resided at Morrow Station a few miles from Estacada, passed away last Sunday afternoon at 5 o'clock at his home, after a lingering illness of a few years.

Besides his wife, four children survive him. Funeral services were held at the Mt. Zion cemetery, Portland where he was buried, Tuesday morning. Funeral director Gates of this place being in charge.

There is to be a special communication of Mountain Chapter, No. 108, Friday evening, Feb. 24, when worthy Grand Master will make the chapter an official visit. Dinner is to be served at 1 o'clock and the meeting will follow.

Miss Mamie Marrs, who was making her home with Mrs. G. Lawrence, was taken to St. Vincent's hospital last Friday, where she submitted to an operation for appendicitis. At last reports she was getting along satisfactorily.

Edward Cadanan, a former Estacada resident, is here from Terrebonne, Oregon, looking after business matters.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Stephens are both sick and confined to their home with la grippe.

Electricians came out from Portland the latter part of last week and connected up the new Stephens residence and installed an electric range.

Estacada Mayor will make the chapter an official visit. Dinner is to be served at 1 o'clock and the meeting will follow.

Miss Mamie Marrs, who was making her home with Mrs. G. Lawrence, was taken to St. Vincent's hospital last Friday, where she submitted to an operation for appendicitis. At last reports she was getting along satisfactorily.

Edward Cadanan, a former Estacada resident, is here from Terrebonne, Oregon, looking after business matters.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Stephens are both sick and confined to their home with la grippe.

Electricians came out from Portland the latter part of last week and connected up the new Stephens residence and installed an electric range.

Estacada Mayor will make the chapter an official visit. Dinner is to be served at 1 o'clock and the meeting will follow.

Miss Mamie Marrs, who was making her home with Mrs. G. Lawrence, was taken to St. Vincent's hospital last Friday, where she submitted to an operation for appendicitis. At last reports she was getting along satisfactorily.

Edward Cadanan, a former Estacada resident, is here from Terrebonne, Oregon, looking after business matters.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Stephens are both sick and confined to their home with la grippe.

Electricians came out from Portland the latter part of last week and connected up the new Stephens residence and installed an electric range.

Estacada Mayor will make the chapter an official visit. Dinner is to be served at 1 o'clock and the meeting will follow.

Miss Mamie Marrs, who was making her home with Mrs. G. Lawrence, was taken to St. Vincent's hospital last Friday, where she submitted to an operation for appendicitis. At last