

JENNINGS LODGE

MRS. HUGH ROBERTS, Correspondent

Former Lodge Man To Be Buried Here

JENNINGS LODGE, Feb. 22.—Mrs. Belle Robbins had planned to return to San Francisco on Saturday in response to a telegram stating that her husband was seriously ill at a hospital in the Bay City but she too has been taken very ill and unable to go south. On Tuesday a message came that Mr. Robbins had passed away and the remains are to be shipped to Oregon City for interment.

The arrangements are not quite complete but services may be held on Sunday.

Mr. Robbins resided at Jennings Lodge at one time and went to California for his health two years ago. He is survived by his wife and one son Howard who is here with his mother. A. J. Robbins was a brother of the deceased.

Community Club of Lodge Has Session

JENNINGS LODGE, Feb. 22.—Owing to the prevalence of a gripe very few social affairs have been taking place. In some instances entire families are confined to their homes, yet the regular social meeting of the Jennings Lodge Community Club was a very successful affair and was a "500" party, which was held on Wednesday evening last.

Ten tables were arranged for cards, and an admission fee of 10 cents helped to defray the expenses. Wafers and coffee were served. Those holding high scores were Mrs. O. Randall and Jerome Madden, receiving pretty prizes, consolation favors falling to Mrs. Moritz and R. G. Thompson.

Mrs. Moritz Hostess To Luncheon Clubbers

JENNINGS LODGE, Feb. 22.—The pretty little home of Mrs. Wm. Moritz was open to the members of the Luncheon Club on Wednesday.

The decorations were suggestive of the Valentine time. A delightful party of the afternoon was a number of aesthetic dances given by Miss Evelyn Moritz. Covers were laid for fourteen guests the members all being present and included the Mesdames Jerome Madden, Edward Pearson, C. C. Hole, W. L. Blinestone, A. J. Robbins, Fred Bretcher, Tom Grady, Will Booth, Norman Chapman, Carl Starker, R. H. Hendry, George Gardner, R. G. Thompson and the hostess.

Clock Handed Down Seven Generations

JENNINGS LODGE, Feb. 22.—H. H. Emmons has an old fashioned "grandfather's clock" which stands on the floor in their reception hall. It has been handed down for seven generations from father to son and is traced back to 780 when it belonged to Elias Emmons. This antique time piece keeps accurate time and its entire mechanism is of wood and the motive power is now furnished by a number of makeshift weights the original leaden weights were discarded when the Emmons family came to Oregon. It has been in the repair shop of Burmeister & Andersen but once and was displayed in their window a few years ago where it attracted a great deal of attention.

Lodge People Are Luncheon Guests

JENNINGS LODGE, Feb. 22.—Mrs. Hugh Fleming and her mother Mrs. Mabel Pierce were the motif for a very pretty Valentine luncheon given by Mrs. Dennells, at her Portland home last week. The decorations were very beautiful and cleverly carried out in every detail in hearts in the menu as well as the decorations of the rooms. It was a very enjoyable affair.

Mrs. Fleming is devoting much of her time to her mother both on the piano and voice culture and favored with a number of selections during the afternoon.

GRANDSON ARRIVES

JENNINGS LODGE, Feb. 22.—Mr. and Mrs. George Berry received word last week of the arrival of a new grandson, which was born to Mr. and Mrs. Harischel of Bremerton this month.

Mrs. Harischel was formerly Miss Myrtle Berry.

Phones: Sellwood 597, Automatic 21363

John P. Miller, Mgr.

East Side Mill & Lumber Company

Manufacturers and Dealers in

Lumber, Lath, Shingles and Mouldings

Mill Foot of Spokane Avenue

PORTLAND, OREGON

J. P. FINLEY & SON

Perfect Funeral Service

Telephone Main 9 Montgomery and Fifth
A-1599 Portland

Classmates Enjoy Quarterly Social

JENNINGS LODGE, Feb. 22.—The class of 1921 of St. Mary's Academy held its quarterly social meeting at the home of one of its members, Ruth Agnes Cook on Sunday. Games and music featured the afternoon entertainment, which was followed by a chicken dinner.

The home was prettily decorated in the class colors which were intermingled with pussy willows and daffodils.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Cook assisted their daughter in this enjoyable affair.

Nydia Temple Plan Luncheon Saturday

JENNINGS LODGE, Feb. 22.—Mrs. R. L. Newcomb will attend the luncheon given at the Multnomah hotel on Saturday, February 25, which is given by the Nydia Temple, Daughters of The Nile. The ceremony will take place in the afternoon with a musical program and readings and in the evening a card party will be given for the members, the ceremonial and evening affair will be held at the Pythian Temple. On Saturday afternoon Mrs. Newcomb will attend the Shrines ceremonial which will be held at the Auditorium.

Dancing Party Is Enjoyed At Lodge

JENNINGS LODGE, Feb. 22.—Mr. and Mrs. Tom Grady entertained on Saturday evening with a dancing party which was enjoyed by the following guests: Messrs. and Mesdames R. G. Thompson, Clinton Heath, Norman Chapman, Carl C. Hole, R. H. Hendry, Edw. Pearson and Mesdames Dion and Truscott and Miss Ruth Truscott, Howard Truscott and Mr. Rinehart.

Coffee and cake were served during the evening.

Henry Woodham to Visit In Canada

JENNINGS LODGE, Feb. 22.—Henry Woodham is soon to leave for an extended visit with his brother in Canada. Mr. Woodham will take a much needed rest and his many friends are hoping his vacation will be beneficial to him.

BIRTHDAY PARTY HELD

JENNINGS LODGE, Feb. 22.—February 14 was the birthday anniversary of R. Holloway of Portland but owing to illness in the family, the affair was celebrated on Sunday, Feb. 19 at his Irvington home with a birthday dinner. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Holloway and children of this place.

PREPARE FOR FISHING

JENNINGS LODGE, Feb. 22.—Messrs. Wegner and Armstrong are busy during their spare times getting their boat ready for the spring fishing. They were former residents of Spokane and are looking forward to salmon fishing with much pleasure.

SNIDER TO ATTEND MEETING OF PASTORS

JENNINGS LODGE, Feb. 22.—Rev. A. B. Snider will attend the annual fellowship meeting of the Congregational pastors which will be held on Thursday and Friday of this week in Portland.

Rev. Snider is to take part in the symposium on "Public Worship" which takes place on Friday morning.

ATTEND MILL'S PARTY

JENNINGS LODGE, Feb. 22.—Mr. and Mrs. Will Cook and Miss Ruth Cook, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wilson and Miss Florence Wilson attended the Valentine party given by the Oregon City Woolen mills on Saturday evening of last week and report a splendid time.

TO ATTEND D. A. R.

JENNINGS LODGE, Feb. 22.—Mrs. Warren Swart will attend the State Conference of The Daughters of the American Revolution which will be held on Friday at the Multnomah hotel. This organization is much interested in the Americanization work.

JENNINGS LODGE LOCALS

JENNINGS LODGE, Feb. 22.—Mrs. L. L. Statmans of New York has returned home after a two months visit with her sister Mrs. R. J. Wilson, on the river.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Butler of Laurel hurst have been recent guests of their cousin, Mrs. E. Eades.

Rob. Meyers is excavating for his basement on the tract recently purchased from F. B. Madison on Hull Ave. These tracts are rapidly building up and is a very desirable location.

Mrs. H. Bice of the Roseway poultry place, visited with Mr. and Mrs. Marion on Sunday last.

Mrs. Janie Lacey Dugger and little son of Portland were luncheon guests at the home of Mrs. J. C. Maple on Thursday. Mrs. A. L. Roberts and Jerald being additional guests.

Ben and Mrs. Losey were dinner guests of Mr. Losey's cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Grant, Soden at their Portland home on Sunday.

W. T. Tait has gone to ranch at Oakland, Oregon and expects to be gone a month.

Chas. Holden has fitted up a room at his home where he renovated mattresses and his work being very satisfactory is kept busy most of the time and is able to curry wood for same.

Mr. Whitney will be at Jennings on Tuesday evening of next week to meet with the Whitney's boys unit here.

Mrs. Kuhnhausen has enjoyed a visit from her daughter Mrs. C. V. Rankin of Seattle and her twin children Ned and Enid who returned to the Sound City this week.

Mrs. Holden of Sellwood and her brother Harold Wilcox of Redlands have been visiting at the Lodge caring for the S. L. Wilcox family during their illness. The five members being confined to their home at one time.

Mrs. Pooler who substituted last week in the Canemah school is now confined to her home with illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Card entertained Mr. and Mrs. Hale and two children of Portland on Sunday.

H. M. Hayles and wife motored down from Astoria and were week end visitors at the Hugh Roberts home returning on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Buchard and two children are spending February with the latter's parents Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Berry. Mrs. Berry has been quite ill and her daughter is caring for her.

Mrs. Harry Williams has accepted the janitor work at the new church. Miss Grace Davis has been chosen captain of the girls basketball team at the Oregon City high school.

F. B. Madison has recently purchased the Weiss property on Addie street. Miss Mary Weinman is entertaining the la crip at the home of her sister Mrs. Waterhouse.

Mesdames A. B. Snider, George Pooler and Frank Covert went to Portland on Sunday evening to hear Miss Evangeline Booth and were pleased with the splendid address.

Lyle Poe and wife of Portland, who is connected with the O. W. R. & N. office were callers at the Arthur Roberts home on Sunday. Mr. Roberts has been ill since Thursday and unable to attend to his duties with the same company.

Jack Hampton Sr. enjoyed a visit from his father from Portland on Sunday.

Ernest Naef and wife have returned from Monrovia California, whither they had gone to spend the winter, but owing to the illness of Mr. Naef's father, returned sooner than they had planned to.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hopkins and daughter visited their son at the Open Air Sanatorium on Sunday.

Many of our people are enjoying a holiday this week and busily engaged about their yards. The pupils were dismissed at 10 o'clock and a holiday for them was declared for the rest of the day.

Mrs. Zalbrich of Tillamook who has been in the Oregon City hospital where she underwent an operation is recuperating at the home of Olin Ford.

S. J. Kiggins of Albany spent a week with his son E. O. Kiggins and family.

Mrs. Meade has returned from a Portland hospital very much improved in health.

Howard Truscott has sufficiently recovered from the flu to attend to his business duties in Portland after being home over a week.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Briggs entertained Portland friends on Sunday.

Charles Bench, a former resident of this place and now of Coos Bay, spent Sunday visiting former neighbors on the east side.

Mrs. Murphy, an Oregon pioneer, who crossed the plains in 1838, came out from Portland on Tuesday and spent the day with Dan Jones. Mrs. Murphy is 88 years old and comes unaccompanied to the Lodge on her visits.

Mrs. Vyvyan Dent and two children will visit a month with her grandmother, Mrs. Grider in Portland while Mr. Dents business interests have called him out of town.

Mrs. Pierce visited Mrs. O'Neill of Boring last week having been called there when Mrs. O'Neill suffered a stroke of paralysis.

Misses Helen Bellinger and Elsie Pitz of Seaside were Saturday visitors with Miss Ruth Agnes Cook.

Mrs. B. M. Hart and Miss Hart attended the popular opera of Rigoletto at the Auditorium in Portland on Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Jacobs of Rose City Park spent Sunday with the W. L. Blinestone family.

Mrs. J. P. O'Brien and Mrs. Randall were business shoppers in Portland on Tuesday.

The Grace Guild will be entertained at the church Mesdames Geo. and Harry Williams being joint hostesses. The affair will be in keeping with Washington's birthday.

Phoebe and Wm. Finley who are attending high school in Portland spent Wednesday with home folks.

Little Lucile O'Brien has been presented with a milk goat. Mr. Jorlman being the donor of the gift.

Warren Swart was a business visitor at Ridgefield, Wash., on Tuesday.

FOR SALE: Cow and 10 thoroughbred Buff Leghorn hens. Mrs. Olive Kosi, Jennings Lodge.

PACT RESERVATION LOOMS WASHINGTON, Feb. 21.—Congress would have to give its consent to any future agreement made under the four-power Pacific treaty before it would become binding upon the United States, according to a reservation to the pact tentatively agreed upon today by the senate foreign relations committee.

OSWEGO ITEMS

Mrs. Cora Bullock

Entertainment Of Artisans Enjoyed

OSWEGO, Feb. 22.—The Artisans entertained their friends and fellow members Wednesday evening with a party at the Grange hall. The hosts were some of the brother Artisans of whom were Bud Fulton, Ernest Zeller, Otto Johnson and Vernon Centers, who served their guests with baked beans, corn bread and bacon and coffee. Everybody had a wonderful time. These affairs are lots of fun for those who are fortunate enough to attend them.

Washington Day Is Fittingly Observed

OSWEGO, Feb. 21.—An elaborate George Washington birthday celebration was held at the Oswego grammar school. In addition to fancy dancing, songs and other music, flag drills and a fine program was also furnished by Miss Pettinings class. There was a flag raising with the local Boy Scouts officiating.

Housewarming Is Given At Oswego

OSWEGO, Feb. 22.—A number of friends and relatives gave a surprise housewarming for Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Centers last Friday evening at their home. Cards and refreshments were enjoyed throughout the evening.

Mrs. H. E. Campbell Suffering Relapse

OSWEGO, Feb. 22.—Mrs. H. E. Campbell who was formerly of Oswego is in St. Vincent hospital again. Mrs. Campbell was in the hospital some time ago for several weeks and was thought to be getting along nicely but some how or other took a relapse and was brought from Kerry, Oregon, to the hospital Sunday. Mr. Campbell is at present at his brother-in-laws at Oswego.

Valentine Party Is Held by Oswego Aid

OSWEGO, Feb. 22.—The Methodist Aid met at the home of Mrs. A. Waldorf on Thursday with a good attendance. The Valentine party held at the church by the Aid was also well attended and a net sum of $45 was made which will be used toward the church repairs.

Five Hundred Party Is Enjoyable Affair

OSWEGO, Feb. 22.—A Five Hundred party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Borghorst Saturday evening.

Oak Grove News

OAK GROVE, Feb. 22.—Mr. Hann is convalescing slowly from a severe attack of grip and Mrs. Hann is quite ill having collapsed last Saturday partially due to the nervous strain because of her husband's illness. A nurse is in attendance.

Mrs. Cora Ostrom has an attack of la grippe.

Helen E. Wilcox our temporary postmistress received a telegram Friday of last week that a son in Rochester, Minn., was quite ill. She thought at first she would leave absence and the former postmistress, Valeria G. Benvie was called to take charge of the office but during the evening a daughter who is a nurse at La Grande, Ore., left at once to the bedside of her brother and Mrs. Wilcox resumed duties of the office again.

Mrs. V. G. Benvie was elected treasurer of the National Alliance Daughters of Veterans at a meeting held recently in Portland.

Mrs. Ada White and children have recovered from their recent illness.

The reception of the Social Service Club which was to have been held February 16 at the home of Mattie E. Pierce was postponed two weeks because of the sudden illness of Mrs. Pierce who is much improved at this time.

The church will be in its new location by Saturday if all goes well. A crew of men began Monday to raise it from its foundation and have been moving it since. A number of wires had to be cut and crossing the Portland Railway was done by night after cars stopped running.

H. H. Princehouse has purchased the lot and the foundation where the church formerly stood and will build in new future.

Mrs. Helen Rindle is an assistant at the postoffice.

Mrs. F. N. Little is now collector for the Portland Railway Light & Power Co. She succeeds Mrs. V. G. Benvie who served the gas company as collector for nearly six years and the P. R. L. & P. Co. four years.

Mrs. V. G. Benvie has been reappointed Registrar in Clackamas county for the third term of 2 years each. She has quarters at Little's Confectionery where all who desire may register. All those who did not vote at last election or who have changed residence since should register before the date of election. Books close April 18. Books will be opened March 15.

Appropriate exercises were given in the different grades at our school on Monday.

Mrs. V. G. Benvie spoke on the life of Abraham Lincoln at the Milwaukee Grange last Saturday. H. G. Starkweather spoke on "The Agriculture Bloc in Congress."

Miss K. Stein, manager of the Telephone office, was absent from her duty last week on account of illness.

Mrs. J. F. Robinson is suffering with bronchial trouble.

Word has been received from Mrs. J. B. Evans of Goble formerly of Oak

ing. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Fulton, Mr. and Mrs. George Emrich, Mr. and Mrs. I. A. Lord, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Bethke, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Centers, Mr. and Mrs. George Bullock. Mrs. I. A. Lord won first prize, Cora Bullock, booby prize, George Bullock, first gentleman's prize and Carl Bethke second prize. Delicious refreshments were served.

Services Held For Mrs. Andrew Hodges

OSWEGO, Feb. 22.—Mrs. Cora E. Hodges, wife of Andrew Hodges, who lived at Peels Mountain, near Stafford, and was well known in Oswego, having at one time lived here, was buried in Oswego cemetery Thursday, after funeral services at her home. The husband and several children survive her.

OSWEGO LOCALS

OSWEGO, Feb. 22.—Mr. and Mrs. Edward Wanker and Mr. and Mrs. Peter Swartz were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Larson Tuesday evening. The hostess served refreshments.

Miss Lulu Wanker the chief operator of Oswego who has been ill the past week, is now able to attend her work again.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fulton were hosts at a dinner Wednesday evening entertaining Mr. and Mrs. Raymond McGrew, Mrs. Grace Burke, Maurice Burke and Edgar McGrew of Portland.

Mrs. D. E. Clancy, Mrs. Grace Burke and son Billy will move into the tent city by the lake this week. Mrs. Clancy is the mother of Mrs. Robert Fulton who now lives in the Grove.

Mrs. John Bickner was called to Waldport by the serious illness of her father, Mr. Nida, who was formerly of Oswego.

The Redmen held a good meeting Tuesday evening. Regular business was transacted with a social time afterward. The "Injuns" all report a good time.

The Stevens family is removing from the cottage in the grove to one of the houses of the Leslie Savage group.

Rollie Worthington is able to work again after a siege of la grippe.

Mrs. Daniel Dalzell entertained a number of ladies Monday afternoon honoring Mrs. Summers. The afternoon was spent sewing and later a delicious luncheon was served.

Mesdames Boyd and John Bickner attended the meeting of the officers and executive committee of the district No. 1 convention of Rebekah lodges Tuesday at Orient hall in Portland.

Monday Mrs. Donald James and Mrs. Allen Ranger visited Mrs. Monroe and her new son at St. Vincent's hospital. Mother and baby are reported to be doing nicely.

A cleaning and pressing shop is to be opened in the Aermi building, the fixtures have already arrived.

Herbert Ewing was absent from school Monday, for a slight operation on his ear.

Grove that the family has had the grip.

Logging Operations Started at Mulino

MULINO, Feb. 14.—Mrs. Philip Hult and children spent the week end visiting relatives and friends in Colton.

John Hardin has started a butcher shop here in Mulino. He also plans to run a wagon to Colton and other places.

A drinking party composed of Miss Cora Cash, Miss Dessie Shields, Misses Ether and Elsie Orem and Messrs. Garney and Allard James walked to the camp of the Hult Lumber company.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Daniels visited Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Daniels last Sunday.

Mrs. Fred Wallace of Oregon City was the guest of her sister, Mrs. Walter Wallace last Sunday.

Don Loford of Oregon City was a guest at the Hylton home last Friday evening.

Logging operations have started up at the Hult Lumber Company's camp. Mr. Elliott having the logging contract. The saw mill has also started to run and they are rushed with orders for lumber.

Joe Daniels made a business trip to Oregon City last Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Art Scott who reside in the foot hills above Molalla came down and visited Mrs. Scott's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Gregory over the week end.

Mrs. Mary Crook has gone to Oregon City to be the guest of her daughter Mrs. Fred Wallace.

John Harding made a business trip to Oregon City last Saturday.

Miss Tweedie was a visitor to Portland last Saturday.

Albert Erickson made a business trip to Oregon City last Monday.

Lee Adkins was an Oregon City visitor last Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. McMorris who have been living here in Mulino for the last few months have moved to Molalla.

Miss Gladys Harmon of Gresham was a week end visitor here in Mulino.

Mrs. and Mrs. Ed Berdine were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Churchill last Sunday.

Mrs. Ed Berdine entertained the Ladies Club last Thursday afternoon.

Albert Helvey passed through Mulino on his way to Silver Creek Falls last Sunday.

FOR SALE: O. A. C. strain White Leghorn breeding Cockerles. From high egg record, trap nested stock. Prices reasonable. M. R. Weidman, South Oswego, Ore.

CATARRH

Catarrh is a local disease greatly influenced by constitutional conditions. HALL'S CATARRH MEDICINE is a Tonic, taken internally, and acts through the blood to cure mucous catarrhes of the system. HALL'S CATARRH MEDICINE assists Nature in restoring normal conditions.

All Druggists. Circulars free. F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio.

Early Settler Dies At Morrow Station

ESTACADA, Feb. 22.—Jason Wells Moxley, who died at his home at Morrow station Feb. 12, brief mention of which was made in these items last week, was born in Jefferson, N. Y., July 23, 1849. He came to Oregon by the isthmus in the early seventies and spent some years at Cove and La Grange. He afterwards went to Montana, later to British Columbia, where he spent fourteen years trapping near the headwaters of Peace River. He came to this locality in 1910, working two years on the construction at Rivermill, the same time making a home on the ranch at Morrow Station.

He is survived by his widow Annie Moxley, and four children by a previous marriage. They are Lee Moxley of Victoria, B. C., Bruce Moxley, of Polson, Montana, Kent Moxley in the aviation service and Mrs. Hubert Denny of Jefferson, N. Y. Deceased was a member of the Masonic order. He was buried in the Mt. Scott cemetery at Portland.

Mrs. Dora Herring and daughter Wava, who have been ill for several days with the gripe, are now on the road to recovery.

R. C. Denny was in Portland last week attending a meeting of representatives of canneries of the northwest.

Clyde Denny is home for a few days on account of blood poisoning in one of his fingers.

For several days W. A. Heylman has been confined to her home on account of a bad cold.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Honegger and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Paulsen and two daughters, Georgie and Elizabeth, all of Portland, spent the week-end at the Harkerider home.

Mrs. J. C. Duns had a birthday last Monday and was the recipient of some pretty presents, besides the birthday cake.

Miss Lydia Mattson came home from Portland, where she is employed in Lipman Wolfe & Co. store, to attend the high school play in which her brother Walter took an active part.

There will be a high school debate Friday night, between Estacada and Milwaukie teams, at the high school auditorium.

After suffering a relapse, Mrs. G. H. Lichthorn is now improving at the home of her sister in Portland.