

NEWS FROM ALL OVER THE COUNTY

Correspondence From All Over the County Telling of Improvements and Local Happenings During The Past Week—Your Subscription Will Receive Prompt Attention.

Big Lumber Mill Is Destroyed by Fire

KEISO, June 6—The Jonsrud-Gunderson Lumber Company's sawmill situated two and one-half miles south of Keiso was destroyed by fire, early Monday morning at 2 o'clock. The mill was all ablaze when the fire was discovered. Help was summoned from Keiso and the surrounding country, and while nothing could be done to save the mill, most of the lumber yard was saved, also the office. The company's books and surrounding buildings were saved, although the Gunderson residence was in great danger for awhile. The plant was valued at $20,000 and no insurance was carried. The members of the firm are Robert Jonsrud, Oscar Gunderson and George Gunderson. They will rebuild. The origin of the fire is unknown. The loss is estimated at about $15,000.

Mrs. John Sandy (nee Stella Jonsrud) and Miss Lilla Jonsrud, a nurse at Emanuel Hospital in Portland, are visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Jonsrud.

The Woman's Club met at the home of Mrs. Oby Thursday of last week and spent a most enjoyable afternoon. The following members were present: Mesdames Oby, Herz, Kluge, Rathke, Eliza Revenue, Jolie Revenue, Peterson Kersch, Patterson, D. Hite, J. Hite, R. Jonsrud and Baumbach, also the following visitors: Mrs. Anna Rabold and Mrs. Dawson. Plans were made for serving refreshments at the Enna concert on June 17th. Delicious refreshments were served. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Dock Hite.

Dr. Emil Enna, pianist, and Mrs. Herbert Garr Reed, dramatic reader will give an entertainment at the schoolhouse Saturday evening, June 17th. Admission free.

Needy News Notes

NEEDY, June 6—Mr. and Mrs. Carothers spent Sunday with the Hagan family at Broadacres.

The program at Rock Creek Decoration Day was fine and Mrs. Kinzer, Mrs. Weaver and Miss Stine certainly did fine with the little folks.

Miss Lella Praves and niece spent Monday afternoon with Mrs. Noblitt.

Miss Letta Ritter came home Sunday after two weeks stay in Canby with her aunt, Mrs. E. Kroger.

Chas. Spagle and L. Spagle spent Saturday in Oregon City on business.

Don't forget the big dance at Needy June 10. Mount Angel orchestra will furnish the music and ice cream and cake will be served.

Loney Yoder attended the exercises at Gladstone. Mrs. Hoffman, Dortha Fredrickson, Elizabeth Lang, Archie Babb went to Gladstone Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Watts, Mr. and Mrs. Ned Leasfield motored to Portland Sunday and spent the day. Rude Ritter and family and J. D. Ritter spent Sunday at Scotts Mills.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Brackett and Sam Howard and Mrs. George Brackett spent Sunday with Edd Harnack.

Miss Bertha Carothers was shopping in Oregon City Saturday and while there visited friends.

Mrs. George Askins and daughter and Mr. and Mrs. G. Fredrickson were shopping in Oregon City Saturday and while there visited relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Carothers spent Sunday with June Heckers of Oregon City.

Mrs. Noblitt called on the Hagens and friends of Broadacres Sunday.

Clackamas News

CLACKAMAS, June 6—A very enjoyable day was spent on Sunday, June 4th, 1922, at the residence of J. W. Hilleary of Damascus, in honor of Frank Batcheller's birthday anniversary. Dinner was served at 1 o'clock. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. John Baker, of Oregon City, Frank Batcheller, Leroy Batcheller, Miss Berna Kummrow, John Laye, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Laye, and daughter, Margaret, Mrs. A. L. Hilleary, and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hilleary, all of Damascus. In the afternoon ice cream and cake was served by the hostess. All departed wishing Mr. Batcheller very many happy returns of the day.

The members of the Ladies Club of School Dist. No. 31, were very pleasantly entertained at the home of Mrs. H. G. Laye, on Wednesday afternoon. Delicious ice cream and cake was served. Those present were Mesdames A. W. Coke, J. E. Deardorff, Adolph Stoll, Hanson, Hanson, Ellis, P. R. Hunter, Netherland, M. Tong, Plaskett, Lund, Swenson, Ois Deter, Walter Young, Curtis Young, Elsie E. White, Hugh Laye, J. W. Hilleary, Miss Reta Hunter, Miss Margaret Laye, Miss Dallas, Miss Stoll, Helen White, Herbert White, Norwood Netherland, and baby White. At 5 o'clock the ladies all departed to meet again in two weeks at the home of Mrs. Bronson.

Carus Items

CARUS, June 1—Hugh Parry has as his guest his cousin, John Jones, of Rock Springs, Wyoming.

Mr. and Mrs. Hayhurst of Portland, and Mr. and Mrs. Llewellyn, of Beaver Creek, called on friends in Carus Saturday evening.

A number of Carus people attended the commencement exercises at the Oregon City high last Friday evening. Eleanor Brown and Mary Schmeiser, of Carus were members of that class.

Mrs. Frank Anderson, of Molalla, visited last week with her mother, Mrs. Chas. Stewart.

Emily Griffiths, Gertrude Griffiths, Edna Brown, Katherine O'Leary, John Bliss, Earl Davis and Willie Miller, were the members of the class that graduated from the Carus school this year.

Carus defeated Canby for the second time this season in a return game played Sunday. The score stood 16-8. The Carus boys have been playing some splendid games recently which is evident by the strong support they are given by the community.

Mrs. Carlson of Hillsboro, was a visitor at the home of her mother, Mrs. Monroe Irish, the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. John Kline, Mrs. Smith of Mulino and Ed Brown visited friends at Dundee, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Erich Fischer, Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Gwillim and children, Miss Davies and Miss Hansen spent the evening of Decoration day at the home of Geo. Ingram.

The Ladies Aid met at the home of Mrs. A. G. Weisser, last Wednesday.

Ed Brown is leaving this week for an extended visit in the East.

The Carus team is scheduled to meet Clackamas for a return game on Sunday, at Carus.

Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Gwillim, and children, Miss Davies, Miss Hansen and Fred Jaggar were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Weisser last Friday evening.

Eleanor and Edna Brown are recovering from an attack of whooping cough.

Mr. and Mrs. George Ingram and daughter, Grace, visited with Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Mills, of Aurora, last Friday.

Jane Yergen is here from Aurora visiting her aunts, Mrs. A. A. Spangler, and Mrs. John Griffiths.

The Carus school children are presenting a program Friday, June 9, at the Carus M. E. Church. A cafeteria lunch will be served after the program. There will be an admission fee of 25 cents charged.

Estacada News

ESTACADA, June 7—Home grown strawberries have made their appearance in the grocery stores and they are of a very nice quality.

The local order of Eastern Stars are to entertain their worthy Grand Matron this Friday night.

Mrs. Margaret Kilgore and little daughter, Alice, left on Saturday for Portland, where they will visit relatives for some time.

Radio fever seems to have struck Estacada quite hard. Among several others who have been installing radio sets during the past few days is R. G. Marchbank, who has one in his restaurant and confectionery.

The interior of the Dave Bass barber shop has been newly papered and painted and now presents a very neat appearance.

Miss Irene Saling has taken a position in Sweetland's confectionery in Portland.

Rev. T. B. Young of the Garfield neighborhood, was again called by a unanimous vote, to be pastor of the Methodist church at Dover, for another year.

Lawrence returned Tuesday from North Bend, Oregon, where he has been taking care of a laundry for a friend for two or three weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Ellis went to Portland last Sunday to visit their son and now daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Loran Ellis who have apartments at the Rex Arms.

Miss Lella How went to Oregon City Monday morning where she underwent an operation for the removal of her tonsils. She came home Tuesday evening and is recovering from the operation in good shape. Her mother, Mrs. C. F. Howe, accompanied her.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. Will Bass, Saturday, June 3, a daughter.

S. E. Wooster and wife of Portland, visited friends in Estacada Monday, coming over in their machine.

Mrs. U. H. Gibbs dispensed hospitality Tuesday afternoon, at her home when she entertained in honor of Mrs. M. H. Evans, of Portland, who is spending the week with Mrs. A. E. Sparks.

The afternoon hours were pleasantly spent visiting and a most tempting and delicious luncheon was served by the hostess. Those present were Mesdames M. H. Evans, A. E. Sparks, R. C. Decker, W. J. Moore and Nina B. Becker.

One day last week, Fred Muhle got his arm cut badly while working at the Kaake & Jubb saw mill. Dr. Carey dressed the wound which required four stitches to close.

Dr. and Mrs. C. K. Cary motored to The Dalles last Sunday, returning the same day.

Mrs. D. B. Hearing was an Oregon City visitor last Saturday.

W. S. Davidson has been elected delegate to the American Legion of this place, to attend the convention at The Dalles next month.

The baseball season opened in Estacada Sunday, when the Estacada team played the Tremont Athletic Club, of Portland in the afternoon. There was a very good attendance and the home team won by a score of 6 to 1.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Morton are the proud owners of a new sedan, purchased last Saturday in Portland.

Mrs. Ava Bronson, operator in the local telephone office was compelled to take a vacation on account of poor health and is in Portland visiting relatives and taking a much needed rest.

B. E. Alward returned Saturday evening from a trip to Seattle and other points over in Washington.

T. H. Sherrard, supervisor of the Oregon national forest, has ordered the Clackamas river above Cazadero closed to fishermen and other recreationists for the greater part of the summer because of the danger caused by blasting of the Portland Railway, Light & Power Company for the building of its road along the river to Oak Grove, where its new power plant is to be located.

Mrs. C. F. Howe and Miss Lella Howe visited Oregon City and Portland last Saturday.

The Colton Oratorical society will give a concert, "The Holy City" at the M. E. Church at Estacada Sunday evening, June 19. Those people gave the same entertainment at Oregon City and Portland a short time ago.

Mrs. B. O. Sarver, who was ill at the Lovelace hospital, was able to return to her home Saturday evening.

Editor U. H. Gibbs visited the metropolis last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stenzel and three sons, Robert, Paul and Franklin, motored over from Portland last Sunday and were guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Sparks.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Hall, who have been managing the dining room at the Estacada hotel, left there Monday and will move onto their ranch near Estacada hotel, left there Monday and will move onto their ranch near Estacada. They are succeeded by Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Hogan, who come from Gladstone. Mr. and Mrs. Hogan have been in the restaurant business for some time and come well recommended. Mrs. Hogan is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Page of this place.

A party composed of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Woodie, their daughter, Mrs. Harry Morgan and little daughter and Joe Woodie motored to Siletz, in Lincoln county last Friday, where they visited their daughter and sister, Mrs. C. W. Pogue. Mr. Pogue is the minister at that place. Before the party returned they drove to Newport on the coast, returning home Monday evening.

Mrs. Joe Woodie left last week for a visit with her mother, Mrs. Bonnell, who lives at Chico, California. She expects to be absent about three weeks.

Albert Hannah, assistant in the Estacada post office visited friends in Portland last Sunday.

R. C. Deming and Mrs. Mae Reed motored to Oregon City and Portland Tuesday on business connected with the settling up of the Reed estate.

S. P. Pszcecker went to Portland Saturday to get more material for the radio outfit that he is installing at his residence. He expects to have a good outfit in a few days.

Mr. K. E. Elinson chaperoned a party of Campfire Girls to the Reed farm, which is located on the Clackamas near Currinsville. They returned Saturday, reporting a fine time.

Mr. Lemon, who has been working in the Bacon & Lemon garage, has joined the crowd of workmen for the railroad company up the Clackamas.

Mrs. George Hslop and daughter, Mrs. W. S. Syms, are visiting Portland relatives.

Tom Morton has had the addition to his residence on the west, torn away as it is not particularly needed and its disappearance will lower his insurance.

The Modern Precilla club held its June meeting last Thursday at the home of Mrs. Henry Heiple at Currinsville. It being such a busy time for some of the members, there was not as many present as usual at this meeting. However, those who did attend enjoyed the day very much, also the splendid dinner served. There was no business session and the next meeting place was not decided upon, as the club expects to have a picnic next month, instead of holding the meeting at some member's home.

W. J. Moore and wife motored to Cascade Locks last Friday and remained all night. The next morning they proceeded on to Hood River and got back home Saturday evening.

Mrs. A. Morse went to Portland Saturday evening to visit relatives over the week end.

Mrs. R. M. Standish motored over from Portland Saturday accompanied by her mother, Mrs. M. H. Evans. Mrs. Evans remained as the guest of Mrs. A. E. Sparks until the latter part of the week.

William Dale is now the clerk at the Estacada hotel which assures that the guests will be well taken care of.

Ray Holgate came from Idaho, to visit his parents and other relatives at this place last Saturday, returning to his home Monday.

Thirty four passengers of eighth graders and their parents and friends boarded the Bartholomew & Lowrence truck last Saturday morning for their commencement exercises at Gladstone park. They enjoyed the day immensely with a basket dinner and the good time going and coming, singing and their other class.

Mrs. W. H. Grabeel and children returned Monday from Gladstone, where they spent a week visiting with relatives and friends.

Station Agent Ahlberg is enjoying his two weeks' vacation at present, and with Mrs. Ahlberg at little son, are stopping with relatives in Portland and will take several side trips during the time. Phil Adams is looking after the business at the depot and with Mr. Adams and the baby Carle occupying the Ahlberg residence.

Dr. and Mrs. R. G. McCall of Portland were here last Monday night. The doctor came over to attend a meeting of Carl Douglas Post, American Legion.

Miss Elina Hoygaard has returned home and her many friends are pleased to see her looking and feeling so well.

Died—John A. English at his home five miles east of Estacada, June 2, 1922, after an illness for some time, which proved to be a cancer of the liver, aged 62 years, 8 months and 25 days. The surviving relatives are two boys and two girls, his wife having died several years ago. The children are: Mrs. Ernest Duus of Garfield, Mrs. E. Jenkins, a native of Ohio but has lived on his farm in the Garfield section for a number of years. Funeral services were held last Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock at Zion church, ev. A. Demoy, an old friend of the deceased, officiating. Interment was made in the cemetery near the Zion church, under the direction of Joseph E. Gates funeral director of Estacada.

The play given by the Ladies' Aid of the M. E. church at the church last Monday evening, entitled, "The Old

6 Per Cent State School Money to Loan on Farms

SCHUEBEL & BEATTIE
Bank of Oregon City Bldg.
Oregon City, Ore.

On Saturday, June 17, a Farm Bureau picnic will be held at the grove south of the Union high school at Damascus for which a good program has been provided. This picnic promises to be of interest to all and a good time is promised those attending.

Peabody Pew, a production from the pen of Kate Douglass Wiggins, was a great success and the ladies who took part did exceedingly well. The play was one of deep human interest and the costumes took one back to the times of many years ago. Those taking part were: Mesdames J. C. Hayman, G. Mendenhall, A. F. Lacy, C. J. Pimm, Gerald Wilcox, W. E. Linn, O. E. Smith, C. S. Allen and Miss Anna Dillon, who acted the only male character in the play. Mrs. Mae Reed read the story at the beginning and the closing and Mrs. R. J. Hughes was prompter.

Redland Items

REDLAND, June 7—Mrs. S. A. Stone visited friends at Gladstone Monday evening and on Tuesday evening with her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Winfield Perry of Vancouver, Wash., to Carus.

On Tuesday, May 30, there were many came to the Redland cemetery to decorate the graves of their loved ones.

On Saturday graduation exercises were held at Gladstone. From the Redland school there were six to receive diplomas, these were Wilfred Coop, Claremont Faler, Catherine and Lucien Koch, Bruce Phillips and Stella Wynne.

Their class color was pink and green. Fred Egrove, who was just Eugene obnny to graduate. His class color was gold.

There were many from the neighborhood who attended the exercises.

On Saturday evening Clara Pearl Nevill had the misfortune to fall on a spoon and run the bowl through the roof of her mouth. She was taken to the Oregon City hospital at once and at last reports she was doing splendidly.

The children of the Redland Bethel Presbyterian church are practicing for a Children's Day program to be given next Sunday.

Gustave Damback of Oregon City is visiting his sister, Mrs. C. J. Staats.

Misses Icelia Hughes, Goldie Brown, Mildred Koch and June Kirchem returned from high school in Portland, Wm. Phillips, Sr., and son, William, and L. Hendrickson were Oregon City callers Monday.

Mrs. H. G. Nevill and daughter, Clara Pearl, spent Monday with friends in Oregon City.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Allen of Oregon City spent the week end with home folks.

Miss Grace Hinkle was an Oregon City visitor Monday.

C. J. Staats spent Monday and Tuesday with his mother at Portland.

On Monday there were many went to Portland to attend the Northwest Breeders' Sale of Registered Guernseys. A. I. and J. Hughes entered three head one which went for $500, one at $205 and the 3rd for $310.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Hughes entered two which sold for $225 and $200, two which sold for $225 and $200 and W. A. Carlson entered one which sold for $200.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Hughes attended the Guernsey meet at Tillamook, June 1, 2, 3.

Mildred and Lucien Koch and Icelia, Frances and Kenneth Hughes are preparing for a two weeks trip to Corvallis.

Eagle Creek Items

EAGLE CREEK, May 6—Walter Douglas has a crew of men working the Market Road these few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Bell and James Bell were over this way on Decoration Day.

Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Eddy and children of Portland, Mrs. M. S. Horsman, of Centralia, Wash., Ed Chapman, Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Gibson, Harvey Gibson, Hazel and Franklin Gibson, Mrs. Clyde McMurry and children and H. S. Gibson, of Portland, were over this way on Decoration Day, making a visit to the cemetery.

Last Friday school closed in this neighborhood, the event being celebrated by the teacher, pupils and some of the neighbors going on a picnic under the shade of the trees down near Eagle Creek by the old Baker place.

Miss M. Evans was delightfully surprised last Friday evening when some of her friends gathered at the home of C. Rhenstrom and spent a pleasant evening with her in honor of her 18th birthday. The time was spent in playing cards, games and dancing. Delicious refreshments, consisting of coffee, lemonade, sandwiches, cake and pie were served along about midnight and soon after the people left for home.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Haley were the dinner-guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hofmeister Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Douglass and children and Robert Moehke were Sunday guests at the home of Mrs. Viola Douglass, of Estacada.

Little Frankie Paddison, who has been quite sick with pneumonia, and has been at the Good Samaritan hospital for a week, was brought home on Monday. He is improving and stood the trip home very well.

Dodge News Items

DODGE, June 5—All the eighth grade pupils passed the examinations and attended the graduating exercises at Gladstone, Saturday. The members of the successful class are: Irene Kaake, Wallace, Joyce Pederson, Ralph Enquist and Ernest Malart.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Horner and family and Rosa B. Ten Eyck spent Sunday with the Sherrard Kilgore family of Springfield.

Pete Jochimsen of Hood River spent a few days last week with his sister-in-law, Mrs. Jochimsen.

David Horner, Sr., spent Sunday with the Harold Horner family at Springfield.

FARM BUREAU PICNIC

On Saturday, June 17, a Farm Bureau picnic will be held at the grove south of the Union high school at Damascus for which a good program has been provided. This picnic promises to be of interest to all and a good time is promised those attending.

Childrens Day Is Observed by Grange

BEAVER CREEK, June 5—Central Grange observed Children's Day with an open meeting Saturday evening. Over 70 people enjoyed a good literary program and social time, also ice cream and lunch, after which the young people played games until midnight. A debate has been arranged for the next meeting. The subject is: "Resolved, that the mileage tax should be repealed." Williamette Harris and Mrs. Estella Hughes are the captains.

Quite a number from this vicinity attended the school picnic at Gladstone Saturday and report a very enjoyable day. Our junior baseball team played against Molalla and lost. This is the

OSWEGO ITEMS

Mrs. Cora Bullock

Birthday Party Is Given Mrs. Hallman

OSWEGO, June 2—A birthday party was given Monday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Kate Hallman at her home in South Oswego, on her 73 birthday. Mrs. Hallman is an old-time resident of this place and all the old friends were glad to be with her. The home was beautifully decorated in lavender and wild iris.

Those who attended were Mrs. Joe Bickner, Sr., Mrs. J. K. Worthington, Mrs. Jessie Dyer, Mrs. P. H. Jarisch, Mrs. George Baker, Mrs. Henry Yates, Mrs. A. Waldorf, Mrs. John Erickson, Mrs. George Bullock, Mrs. Charles DeLashment, Mrs. Johnnie Cox, Mrs. Katherine Merrick, Mrs. Jack Curtis, Mrs. Joe W. Bickner, Jr., Mrs. Albert Robertson, Mrs. Orrin Davidson, Miss Mary Bickner, and Mrs. Hallman's three daughters, Mrs. J. L. Davis, Mrs. Wm. Weichtman, Mrs. Ethel Simonson, also their children, Miss Della Davis, Miss Marjorie Weichtman, Everett Simonson. A delicious lunch was served and the birthday cake was decorated with lavender candles. Games and music were the features of the afternoon.

School of Oswego Ends on June First

OSWEGO, June 2—The Oswego public school brought the present term to a happy close Thursday evening, June 1, with a most interesting program, the pupils of all rooms taking part. The little tots of Mrs. Ewing's room were cunning in folk dances and a skipping rope dance that particularly pleased, Miss Pettenger and Mrs. Goraline girls gave a beautiful fairy dance dressed in pink and green, while her boys sang.

At the close of the pageant, Miss Janette Duncan, as fairy queen, presented Miss Mary Bickner, retiring principal, with a beautiful gift from the pupils of the school. Flowers were presented to Miss Bickner and Miss Pettenger and Miss Cohen, who will also leave the school faculty this year. Friday there was a school picnic which the children all enjoyed as well as the teachers.

Entertainment of Legion is Success

OSWEGO, June 2—The dinner and entertainment given by the American Legion on Friday was a success both financially and socially. An interesting program followed the dinner and there was singing of patriotic songs by the community led by Mr. Henderson of the Community Service Bureau of Portland. Little Miss Velma Fay of Portland sang and Master Duncan Christiansen rendered a violin solo, accompanied by his sister. There were several talks on the work of the boys and Mrs. Christiansen sang "Smiling Through".

DINNER IS ENJOYED

OSWEGO, June 2—Mrs. Fred Wilson entertained at dinner Monday evening in honor of Mrs. Dora Wilson and Mr. Gilmore's birthdays at the home of Mrs. Wilson. The house was decorated with the flowers of the season. Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Gage, Mr. and Mrs. Arch Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Merrick, Mrs. Wilson, Claude Simson and Mr. and Mrs. Gilmore. A good time was enjoyed by all.

TEACHERS ELECTED

OSWEGO, June 2—The following teachers were elected for the Oswego school: Mrs. Agnes Buckley, principal; Miss Margaret Hamilton, third and fourth grades; Miss Vose, first and second; Mrs. Ewing, primary; Mrs. Goraline, fifth and sixth.

OSWEGO LOCALS

OSWEGO, June 2—Mrs. T. R. Clinefelter and daughter, Virlian, went to McMinnville, Tuesday, May 30.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Shipley of Gresham were in Oswego Tuesday of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Clinefelter of Sandy spent Tuesday evening of last week at the former's brother, T. R. Clinefelter.

Mrs. Otto Larson and children have gone to Altoona for a few weeks' vacation.

Mrs. Leslie Savage gave a dinner Friday afternoon, June 2, for the Camp Fire Girls of which she is guardian. Miss Grace Cooper of Boring was honor guest. The girls who attended were Misses Merrick, Patricia Newlands, Marion Weidman, Kathryn Weidman, Edna Grey, Evelyn Fox, Gladys McDonald, and Janette Duncan.

Mrs. Ruth Peasly spent Sunday with her mother, Mrs. John Erickson.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Baxter of Oregon City, visited relatives in Oswego Tuesday evening.

Mrs. G. W. White and her brother, Clarence Haines, spent Tuesday with their mother, Mrs. Mary Haines.

Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Bussard of second game our boys have lost this season.

Our senior ball team played against Maple Lane Sunday afternoon and was defeated, the score being 16-11 in favor of Maple Lane.

Rev. Everett preached in the Central hall here Sunday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. John Schram and daughter, Eva, and Mr. and Mrs. G. V. Woodard and baby motored to Highland Wednesday evening and heard Mrs. Andrews of Oregon City speak on prohibition.

Mrs. J. Watts and Mrs. G. V. Woodard were