

LOCALS AND PERSONALS

Called to Bedside of Son—

Mrs. E. S. Womer, of Estacada, who was called to Corvallis by the serious illness of her son, Paul Womer, former knotype operator in Oregon City, who is suffering from effects of pneumonia, visited her daughter, Mrs. Roy Woodward, of this city on Saturday and Sunday, while enroute to her home. Mrs. Womer left for her home on Sunday evening. Her son was greatly improved when she left Corvallis. Mrs. Womer has been at Corvallis for the past two weeks.

Attends Exercises, Now Visits—

Thelma Wilcox, of Estacada, is in this city, where she is visiting her aunt, Mrs. R. E. Woodward and Mrs. C. A. Baxter. She was among those attending the eighth grade exercises at the Chautauqua park at Gladstone on Saturday, having finished the eighth grade at the Estacada school this year. She will spend the remainder of the week in Oregon City.

Logan Residents Visit City—

Mrs. Frazier, who has been making her home at Viola, now residing at Logan, accompanied by Mrs. Feathers, of that place, were Oregon City visitors on Thursday. Mr. Frazier, who is a well known sheepbreeder of this county, is in Idaho, having gone there on business several weeks ago.

Little Girl Comes from Molalla—

Elma Woodward, daughter of Mrs. Grace Woodward, of Molalla, is in this city, where she is visiting her grandmother, Mrs. R. E. Woodward, and her aunt, Mrs. Roy Woodward, and other relatives. She will spend the week here. Her parents were former Oregon City residents.

Out-of-Town Visitors—

Among the Oregon City visitors on Saturday were J. E. LeCroy, of Estacada, route 2; T. C. Blackburn, of Beaver Creek; P. E. Davidson, of Oswego; P. J. Olson, of Monitor; Miss Maude Tarnaghan, of Portland; Chas. Beck, of Molalla; Miss Goldie Jones, of Orchards, Wn.

Mrs. Williams and Son Here—

Mrs. Paul Williams and son, Bobby, residing near Jennings Lodge, were Oregon City visitors on Thursday. They formerly resided on Tenth and Main streets, having taken possession of their property in the early spring.

Acts as Hostess—

Mrs. Gilbert Robbins, of Maple Lane, was an Oregon City visitor on Thursday, coming here to act as assistant hostess to Mrs. Linton at the W. C. T. U. rest room.

Called to Albany—

Mrs. F. Beach, of Gladstone, was called suddenly to Albany the last of the week by the illness of her daughter, Mrs. W. Badford.

Spent Day in City—

Mrs. Anna Tremayne, of Barlow, and her daughter, Miss Gladys Tremayne, who has been visiting relatives at Beaver Creek, spent Saturday in Oregon City.

For real bargains in millinery and latest styles and material go to Celia Goldsmith's.

Cherryville Resident Visits—

Mrs. Maggie G. Friel, of Cherryville, was an Oregon City visitor on Thursday.

Mrs. Herring in Oregon City—

Mrs. D. B. Herring, whose home is at Estacada, was among those coming to Oregon City on Thursday.

Come from New Era—

Mrs. H. Vhakos and son, of New Era, were in this city on Thursday, coming here on business.

Ruth and Paula Fisher Visit—

Ruth and Paula Fisher, of Carus, visited Oregon City on Thursday.

Estacada Represented—

Mrs. W. E. Frazer, of Estacada, was an Oregon City visitor on Thursday.

Miss Wilson Here—

Miss Alberta Wilson, of Canby, was an Oregon City visitor on Thursday.

Fishers Visit Oregon City—

Mrs. H. Fisher and Miss Ruth M. Fisher, of Carus, were among those visiting in Oregon City on Monday.

Boring Represented Monday—

Mrs. J. C. Metcalf, Mrs. C. E. Polin and Leone Polin, of Boring, were Oregon City visitors on Monday.

Wonderful bargains in millinery at Celia Goldsmith's.

James Nelson in City—

James Nelson, prominent resident of Liberal, who was county assessor for a number of years, was in this city on business Tuesday. Mr. Nelson also visited among some of his old time friends. He was accompanied by his wife.

Howard Eccles in City—

Howard H. Eccles, principal of the Canby grammar school, was in this city on business Tuesday.

R. E. Cherrick in City—

R. E. Cherrick and son, of Barlow, were Oregon City visitors on Tuesday.

DR. WM. KRASSIG

DENTIST

Specializes in

Extraction of Teeth

Crown and Bridge Work

"Plates That Fit"

10-11-12 Anderson Bldg.

Oregon City, Ore.

WILHOIT SPRINGS CASE VERDICT GIVEN MCLAREN

A verdict for the defendant in the case brought by Wilhoit Springs, Inc., to oust F. W. McLaren from their holdings, was returned in the justice court Monday by Judge E. J. Noble. Suit in the circuit court was instituted shortly afterward by McLaren against H. D. Poore, Orlan Moore and B. O. Rowan, comprising the Wilhoit company, for material delivered to them on which $1,200 is alleged to remain unpaid.

Whether the justice court action will be carried further will depend largely on the outcome of a suit between the Wilhoit Springs owners and the leasing company to break the present lease, it is indicated.

DAIRYMAN HURTS ARM IN AUTOMOBILE SMASH

Henry Woodham, dairyman of Jennings Lodge, is suffering from a broken arm, sustained last week when his delivery cart was struck by speeding joyriders on the River road. He was taken to the Oregon City hospital where he was given an X-ray examination, and will be unable to resume his work for some days.

FLORENCE JAGGER TO BE HEAD OF CO-ED SPORTS

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene, June 2.—Florence Jagger of Oregon City succeeds Margaret Russell, Tacoma, Wash., as president of the Woman's Athletic association of the University, as the result of an election held Thursday. The Woman's Athletic association sponsors all co-ed sports activities at the university.

NURSE SLAYS LOVER IN BEDROOM, SHOOTS SELF

KANSAS CITY, Mo., June 3.—Frank Anderson, World war aviator, hero and superintendent of the Jones Department store here, was shot to death in a Midwest hotel room here today by a woman police said was Marie L. Beals, a nurse of Springfield, Ill.

Police and guests who crawled thru the transom of the room following the shots, found the girl, Anderson's alleged affinity, lying beside the dead body. She was seriously injured with a self-inflicted bullet wound in her side and her silken night garments were asfrie.

EASTERN PLANT GIVES INCREASE IN PAYROLL

CANTON, Ohio, June 3.—Announcement of an increase in wages of 10 per cent throughout the large plant, effective June 5, was made today by the Timken Roller Bearing company of this city. This will put the pay of the men back to where it was before a cut was made in September, 1921. The plant, which during the peak of operations employed about 4000 men, is running practically 100 per cent now.

THIRTEEN FIRES RAGE IN CLARKE COUNTY FOREST

SEATTLE, June 1.—Thirteen or more forest fires are burning in various sections of Clarke county, and although all are said to be practically under control, reports of a wind rising in the fire area are causing apprehension. Should the wind again rise, firefighters fear the flames will again get away from them and spread into the green timber which has thus far been kept unharmed.

Railroad Wins In Suit On Location Of Stock Corral

The Oregon and California Railway company, Monday won its condemnation suit brought against Augusta Warner and William R. Logus to secure possession of .36 acre located at 16th and Center streets for use as a stock corral and loading station. The amount of damages fixed by the jury was $1,200, allowed together with $200 costs in favor of the plaintiff. The defendants held out for a price of $6,000.

The condemnation proceedings followed an order of the Public Service Commission requiring the Southern Pacific to construct new depot facilities here including a yard for the handling of stock.

Suit to assess a value on the property was filed February 23. It is understood that during the negotiations the defendants agreed to accept $4,500 for the property and the railroad was willing to pay as high as $1,500. In court, various values fixed by appraisers called as expert witnesses, ranged from $5,000 to $1,000, with one as high as $6,000. The jury was composed of Robert D. Wilson, Fred C. Goodridge, Samuel J. Jones, Edgar C. Brown, Grover Pomeroy, Maggie Johnson, W. F. Hartnell, William Lewis, Aurie Draper and Clara Anthony.

The complaint, in detail named Augusta Warner, Sophy Moody, William Logus and Sadie Logus as defendants.

IN SOCIETY

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Chinn at Central Point was the scene of an enjoyable social event on Sunday, when a birthday dinner in honor of Mrs. Chinn was a feature. The rooms were prettily decorated with varied colored spring blossoms, all of which were gathered from the Chinn garden.

The decorations of the table were also prettily arranged, the center of which was marked by a handsome birthday cake bearing the 25 lighted candles, the handiwork of Mrs. Chinn's mother, Mrs. Eugene Roberts, of this city.

Gifts were presented to the hostess, preceding the dinner.

Places were laid for Mr. and Mrs. Fred Chinn, Ruth Chinn, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Chinn and the latter's sister, and Mr. Schwartz, of Central Point; Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Roberts, Miss Rita and Buddy Roberts, of Oregon City; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Chinn.

Among the enjoyable events of the past week and proving a most unique affair was the barn dance given under the auspices of the T. C. K. Dancing Club of this city, which took place on Monday evening at the country home of Robert Beatie at Beaver Creek.

At 7:30 o'clock members of the club left this city by automobile for the Beatie home, where dancing was enjoyed until 12 o'clock.

Refreshments were served during the evening.

This club composed of some of the prominent young people of this city was organized last winter, and many enjoyable dancing parties have been given since it was formed.

A pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward L. Shaw, at Sixth and High street on Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, when their elder daughter, Miss Sedonia, became the bride of John Jackson, of Portland. The impressive ring ceremony was performed beneath a canopy formed from golden colored California poppies, buttercups and sweet briar, the ring scheme of the bride being in golden and yellow. Rev. A. J. Ware, brother of Mrs. Shaw, performed the ceremony, in the presence of only relatives of the contracting parties, and several close friends.

The young couple was unattended.

The bride in her gown of changeable color, with a picture hat to match. Her corsage bouquet was of orchids and lilies of the valley, and her traveling suit was of tailored effect.

A luncheon was served by the bride's mother following the marriage ceremony, and immediately after Mr. Jackson and his bride left on their honeymoon, which will be spent at Crater Lake, making the trip by automobile. Upon their return they will take up their residence in Portland, a prettily furnished apartment in waiting for them.

Attending the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Latourette, Mrs. J. W. Norris, Mr. D. L. Shaw, Mr. and Mrs. A. McDonald, Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Avison, of Oregon City; Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Latourette, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Latourette, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Carl George, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Burns, Miss Anne Schneider, of Portland.

The bride, a popular Oregon City young lady, graduated from the Oregon City high school, later attending and graduating from a Portland business college. For several years she was stenographer for the Dimick & Dimick law firm, and for the past two and one-half years has held a similar position with the Bryce Mortgage Company, of Portland.

Previous to her marriage, Mrs. Jackson was the guest of honor of several social affairs, given in this city and in Portland.

Mr. Jackson is popular among his many friends, and is engaged in business in Portland. He was a resident of Clackamas county before taking up his home in that city.

Among the enjoyable events at Park place during the past week was the farewell party tendered Professor Jense, of Parkplace, when students of the seventh and eighth grades of the Parkplace school entertained.

The affair was given in the auditorium of the Parkplace school, when Mrs. Maude Glass was hostess.

Refreshments followed games and music, and a most delightful time was had by those in attendance.

Mr. and Mrs. I. D. Taylor entertained in a charming manner at dinner at their country home on Thursday evening.

Guests were Mrs. Margaret Dion, Miss Veda Andrus, Miss Lura Paddock and Miss Jess Paddock, J. B. Carter.

The evening was spent in a social time.

The rooms of the Taylor home were prettily decorated with ferns and cut flowers.

Mrs. Eugene Noon Good was hostess Friday at her home in Gladstone at a luncheon announcing the engagement of her sister, Miss Frances Cross to Winfield J. Dryden, of Los Angeles, Calif. Miss Cross is the youngest daughter of Judge and Mrs. H. E. Cross, and Mr. Dryden is the son of Professor and Mrs. James Dryden, formerly of Corvallis, but now residing in California. Miss Cross and her mother will leave the middle of the week for Oakland, Cal., where the wedding will take place on June 10th.

Good's guests were Mrs. Raymond Canfield, Miss Evelyn Harding, Miss Erna Petzold, of Oregon City; Mrs. C. M. Maurice, Mrs. Ernest McKee, Mrs. Waldemar Spild, Miss Florence Holmes, Miss Mary Holmes, and Miss Lucile Resing, all of Portland; Mrs. H. B. Cross, Mrs. William Hammond and Miss Pansy Oswald, of Gladstone.

Miss Marie Friedrich's friends at Parkplace planned and carried out an enjoyable event for Thursday evening, given in honor of her approaching marriage to J. Henry Endres, the event to take place on June 12.

Assembling in a body the friends started for the Friedrich home on the Clackamas river near Parkplace, each guest carrying a pretty and useful gift to the bride elect. A number also took roses which were used in decorating the rooms of the Friedrich home.

Vocal and instrumental music and games were among the features of the evening. Among those favoring with musical selections were Mrs. Marie Brunner and Miss Catherine Brunner, the former rendering a vocal selection and the latter piano numbers.

Refreshments were served during the evening.

Enjoying the event were Mrs. H. Coffee, Mrs. Flora Fisher, Mrs. Blanche Pope, Mrs. Maude Glass, Mrs. Marie Friedrich, Mrs. Thelma Brunner, Miss Ira Witzig, Miss Josephine Busch, Miss Grace Malo, Mrs. M. R. Rivers, Mrs. Dora Burns, Mrs. Ethel Lucas, Mrs. Fannie Rauch, Mrs. Blanche Peckover, Mrs. Cordelia Lucas, Mrs. Pearl Bernier, Mrs. Cora Holmes, Mrs. Clara Preager, Mrs. Ellen Beach, Mrs. Hattie Himler, Mrs. Rose Ratke, Mrs. Marie Brunner, Mrs. Augusta Feih, Mrs. Marie Friedrich, of Parkplace; Mrs. Daisy Oehler, of Portland; Miss Lillian McCormick, Mrs. Edna Rittenhouse, of Oregon City; Mrs. Marie Harrington, of Gladstone; Mrs. Bertha Keeler, of Portland; Mrs. Elsie Gerber and children, Edwin, Virginia, and Erma Gerber, of Logan; Genevieve Glass, Mildred Burns, of Parkplace; Miss Julia Busch, of Logan.

Miss Roberta M. Schuebel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. Schuebel, of this city, and J. Burrows Caldwell, of Portland, were married Thursday evening at an attractive ceremony at the home of the bride's parents, Rev. H. G. Edgar, pastor of the Presbyterian church, officiated. The bride party was preceded by two little flower girls, Roberta Claire Bequette and Marcelle Carlock, of Portland, dressed in flame colored organdie frocks.

The bride was lovely in a gown of crepe satin, embellished with crystal beads, and her veil was caught in place with a band of orange blossoms. Her bouquet was made up of freesias, sweet peas and rosebuds. Her maid of honor, Miss Helen Case, of Portland, was gown in pale green silk chiffon, and she carried pink carnations. F. Evans Carr, of Portland, attended Mr. Caldwell.

Miss Florence Garrett, of Hillsboro, sang "The Sweetest Story Ever Told" before the ceremony, and she was accompanied by Miss Ruth Schuebel, who also played the wedding march. Assisting about the rooms were Miss Glyde Schuebel, of this city, and Miss Marian Gillis, and Miss Gretchen Colton, Miss Lois Macy and Miss Lucille McCorkle, of Portland, were in charge of the serving, and they were assisted by Miss Eugene Page, of Hood River, Miss Genevieve Laughlin, Miss Margaret Peterson, and Miss Christine Forbes, of Portland.

The rooms of the Schuebel home were attractive in spring flowers and greenery, and the fireplace before which the ceremony was performed was banked in palms. A number of out-of-town guests, among them several sorority sisters of the bride, attended the wedding. In addition to the guests from this city, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. E. Rauch entertained in honor of the former's daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Gestley of Forest Grove. A basket lunch was served and swimming and games enjoyed. Those enjoying the affair were: Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Davenport, of Gladstone, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Peckover of Edgewood, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Gestley of Forest Grove, Mr. and Mrs. James Saboff of Portland, Harry Peckover, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Rauch and daughters, Misses Vestraie and Vivian Rauch of Gladstone.

Miss Fayne Burdon entertained Sunday evening the members of the Ladies Quartette of the Christian church, at the home of her parents. Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Burdon on Portland Ave. Miss Burdon was assisted in serving and entertaining by her mother. Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Burdon, Mrs. R. M. McGitchie, Mrs. Ralph Johnston, Misses Vestraie Rauch, Payne Burdon and Nora Webster.

Mrs. John McGeechie, as her home guest, Mrs. H. T. Bestow of Husum, Washington. Mrs. Bestow has visited here on various occasions and is very well and favorably known. Mrs. Bestow is an aunt of Mrs. J. W. Gray, formerly of this place.

Mrs. W. E. O'Donnell and sons, Percy and Harold and Samuel Resser, of Oregon City, were guests of her sister, Mrs. E. W. Eby, Saturday when they attended the graduation exercises at Chautauqua park. Percy O'Donnell and Samuel Resser were two of those completing the eighth grade from the Eastham school.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Freytag had as their dinner guests Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Pace and daughter, Miss Pauline of Oregon City.

Mr. and Mrs. O'Dell left Saturday evening for Yakima, Wash., where they will make their home. They will go by the way of Seattle.

Mrs. Dorsett entertained in their honor in a most delightful manner. Lester Kerns of Cornelius, spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Sam Clay and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wheeler. Lester is making his home with Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Clay and will attend college at Forest Grove the coming winter.

Cashius Strickland, who has suffered a serious attack of double pneumonia is very much improved and is able to be about the house again.

Miss Anna McMillon of Astoria is spending the summer with her parents in Gladstone.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Green have let the contract for a modern home on Fairmont Street and Portland Avenue.

Mrs. James Tracy is very much improved. She has been confined to her home with La Grippe.

The members of the Christian Church will give a reception to their new minister and wife, Rev. and Mrs. John Hornaday at the church parlors Friday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Hornaday will leave the first of the following week for Washington, D. C. where they will visit with relatives and friends for one year.

The Gladstone City Council will meet in regular session at the council chambers Tuesday evening. One of the questions to be considered is the removal of the water office. A petition to retain the office at Paddock's drug store was presented but not placed on file.

Miss Genevieve Evon, sixth grade teacher in the Gladstone schools left Saturday for Bellingham, Washington, where she will attend summer normal. Miss Evon will return to Gladstone in the fall for a three weeks' visit before taking up the

BASE BALL GAME WON BY CROWN WILLAMETTE

The Crown Willamette baseball team won from the Portland Woolen mills in a game played on the West Linn grounds Sunday afternoon, the score standing 6 to 3.

ARRESTS FOR FISHING ON OSWEGO LAKE REPORTED

Three arrests for angling during closed season were made on Oswego lake Sunday by E. Miles, deputy game warden, who has reported to the state game commission headquarters that numerous sportsmen are forgetting the fact that fishing season does not open on that body of water until June 15. The three were C. C. Lane and J. R. Block of Portland, and Mrs. F. Upton of Oswego. Miles also arrested George Deane of Portland on a charge of angling without a license.

Mulligan Residence Is Total Loss In Fire In Elyville

Fire, believed to have originated from an overheated or defective flue, practically destroyed the residence of M. H. Mulligan, in Elyville, at 2:15 o'clock Friday afternoon.

The roof and the entire upper story were burned, the loss possibly amounting to $4,000.

The fire started on the roof, burning down through the attic to the top floor.

The blaze was discovered by Mrs. Mulligan who happened to go outside the house. With the aid of a neighbor who had been shingling a roof nearby, an attempt to fight the flames with a garden hose was made.

The fire department was called but by the time they arrived the blaze had gained considerable headway. Their work was somewhat delayed by a break in the main hose line, which blew out under pressure.

The major portion of the furniture in the house was saved by the neighbors but practically all of the family's personal effects were lost.

Mr. Mulligan was at work in the Corvinn Willamette mills at the time of the blaze. His wife and child had ample time to escape from the burning structure.

GLADSTONE LOCALS

The Gladstone eighth grade class was among the best represented at Chautauqua park. Saturday, with eighteen members present, these being: Vera Miranda, Olive Duff, Elsie Scherzinski, Lila Land, Alma Mayfield, Jeanie Patterson, Dorothy Kyles, Lulu Lee, Irene Caldwell, Franklin Niles, Charles Peterson, Leonard Trolbeson, Vincent Meyers, Earl Davis, Arden (Bobbie) Grasier, Pearl Enger, Melvin Carrothers and Lyle Williams.

Professor J. W. Leonard took Saturday off and attended the graduation exercises at the park. Mr. Leonard is identified with the Pacific Fruit and Produce Company in Portland during the summer months.

The Gladstone base ball team composed of the larger boys met the Bolton team on the Chautauqua field Sunday, the Bolton team winning by a score of 18 to 15.

A telegram was received last Friday from George Mehlke from Henry W. Streib stating that himself and W. Streib would sail the next day from New York for Europe. They left Gladstone over a month ago, traveling eastward leisurely, visiting at a number of different points of interest. They expect to be away a year.

Mrs. Brendle and son, Clay and Clarence McManis, motored to Salem Saturday evening where they visited with the Fraternal Brotherhood Lodge, of which they are all members.

Mr. and Mrs. Winnifred Knight and Miss Amy Peckover of Portland were guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Rauch Saturday.

Miss Rosamond Ginter of Washington, D. C., is the guest of her sisters, Mrs. Christ Grasier and Mrs. G. W. Bonavia. Miss Ginter will spend the summer with relatives and friends in Oregon returning to Washington in the early fall.

Margaret Peterson returned to her home in Sandy after a delightful week's visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. Harvison. She was accompanied by Misses Nell Harvison, Meryl Platt, Vestraie Rauch, Vivian Rauch and Clyde Harvison, making the trip over the highway in the Harvison machine.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvison, formerly lived in Sandy before buying the Rauch property in Gladstone.

Mr. Harvison and son, Clyde are identified with the Crown-Willamette mills. A few weeks ago Clyde has been assisting to break the small finger on his left hand. However, it is healing nicely and he hopes to resume his position in a few days.

One of the loliest picnic parties of the season was enjoyed on the banks of the Clackamas River Sunday when Mrs. C. A. Davenport and Mrs. W. E. Rauch entertained in honor of the former's daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Gestley of Forest Grove. A basket lunch was served and swimming and games enjoyed. Those enjoying the affair were: Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Davenport, of Gladstone, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Peckover of Edgewood, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Gestley of Forest Grove, Mr. and Mrs. James Saboff of Portland, Harry Peckover, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Rauch and daughters, Misses Vestraie and Vivian Rauch of Gladstone.

Miss Fayne Burdon entertained Sunday evening the members of the Ladies Quartette of the Christian church, at the home of her parents. Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Burdon on Portland Ave. Miss Burdon was assisted in serving and entertaining by her mother. Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Burdon, Mrs. R. M. McGitchie, Mrs. Ralph Johnston, Misses Vestraie Rauch, Payne Burdon and Nora Webster.

Mrs. John McGeechie, as her home guest, Mrs. H. T. Bestow of Husum, Washington. Mrs. Bestow has visited here on various occasions and is very well and favorably known. Mrs. Bestow is an aunt of Mrs. J. W. Gray, formerly of this place.

Mrs. W. E. O'Donnell and sons, Percy and Harold and Samuel Resser, of Oregon City, were guests of her sister, Mrs. E. W. Eby, Saturday when they attended the graduation exercises at Chautauqua park. Percy O'Donnell and Samuel Resser were two of those completing the eighth grade from the Eastham school.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Freytag had as their dinner guests Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Pace and daughter, Miss Pauline of Oregon City.

Mr. and Mrs. O'Dell left Saturday evening for Yakima, Wash., where they will make their home. They will go by the way of Seattle.

Mrs. Dorsett entertained in their honor in a most delightful manner. Lester Kerns of Cornelius, spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Sam Clay and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wheeler. Lester is making his home with Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Clay and will attend college at Forest Grove the coming winter.

Cashius Strickland, who has suffered a serious attack of double pneumonia is very much improved and is able to be about the house again.

Miss Anna McMillon of Astoria is spending the summer with her parents in Gladstone.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Green have let the contract for a modern home on Fairmont Street and Portland Avenue.

Mrs. James Tracy is very much improved. She has been confined to her home with La Grippe.

The members of the Christian Church will give a reception to their new minister and wife, Rev. and Mrs. John Hornaday at the church parlors Friday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Hornaday will leave the first of the following week for Washington, D. C. where they will visit with relatives and friends for one year.

The Gladstone City Council will meet in regular session at the council chambers Tuesday evening. One of the questions to be considered is the removal of the water office. A petition to retain the office at Paddock's drug store was presented but not placed on file.

Miss Genevieve Evon, sixth grade teacher in the Gladstone schools left Saturday for Bellingham, Washington, where she will attend summer normal. Miss Evon will return to Gladstone in the fall for a three weeks' visit before taking up the winter's work at the normal at Bellingham where she will graduate the following June.

Miss Evon is held in the highest respect by her pupils and principal as well as her many friends here.