Plans Are Made For P.T. Picnic Sunday

SANDY, Aug. 10—Arrangements are progressing in fine shape for the Parent Teacher picnic next Sunday at the grove back of the Lutheran church. Judge Stapleton and family will be present and the judge will give one of his characteristic addresses. There will also be music by the Sandy quartet, a soprano solo by Mrs. C. L. Clinesfelter, accompanied by Miss Aileen Sprague of Portland, a contralto solo by Miss Margaret Miller, saxophone solo by E. E. Miller, reading by Miss Eunice Jonsrud, games will be played by the children and a small boys' pie eating contest and a general good time will be enjoyed. Everybody come and bring a basket for the picnic dinner.

If convenient bring cups for the family. A stand will be conducted by the Parent Teacher where light refreshments will be sold.

The Sandy baseball boys will play Oswego at 2:30 and the "fans" will be free to go to the game.

Mount Hood Climb Made on Saturday

SANDY, Aug. 7—The following climbed Mt. Hood on Saturday from the Pleasant Home vicinity: Mrs. Alta Gentry, Mrs. B. C. Altman, Miss Jennie Sloop, Miss Alice Sloop, Miss Anna Lemmertz, Miss Gladys Miller, Rev. Earl Cotton, Charles McKinney, Raymond McGinnis, Henry Brink, Wilbur Altman, and Edgar Sloop.

All of the above reached the top, though some had nose bleed, others were dizzy and sick, and one or two could not breathe well, but none were "slackers." Considering the mixed ages, and all but one being inexperienced climbers they felt pleased that the entire party reached the top peak by 12:30. Orville Zimmerman of Gresham was the guide, Mrs. Mabel Johansen, Miss Wilma Chase, and Miss Maud Smart of Portland were with the party but did not attempt to go farther than the timber line.

Mission Festival Is Well Attended

SANDY, Aug. 6—There was a large attendance at the Sandy Lutheran mission festival last Sunday in the grove back of the church. Rev. Fred Zehe of Mt. Angel delivered the morning sermon and Rev. H. H. Koppelman of Portland preached in the afternoon. Rev. Koppelman organized this church here 21 years ago and was pastor of the same for the first three years, previous to the coming of the present pastor, Rev. F. Dobbler. A collection was taken for the benefit of the Pacific Coast missions. A picnic dinner was enjoyed during the noon hour, and a refreshment stand brought in a nice sum during the day. A number of Portland people attended the meeting.

Letter Asks Help Locating Mother

SANDY, Aug. 6—Postmaster Eason received the following letter Monday: "Dear Sir: I am a little girl thirteen years old and my mamma lives at Sandy, or did live there and I can't hear from her. Can you tell me if she lives there yet. I am with my aunt and I have a step father. Not knowing about things I would like to hear from my mamma. She was in poor health the last I heard. (Signed) Mabel Thompson, Guyard, Idaho." The mother of the child does not live in Sandy now, and any information concerning her will be gladly forwarded to the child.

Woman Injured by Explosion of Stove

SANDY, Aug. 8—Mrs. Henry Aschoff, who was badly burned last week at Marmot, when a coal oil can exploded as she picked it up from behind a hot stove, is improving slowly. Mrs. Aschoff wrapped herself in some wet clothing which properly saved her life. Her husband was so absorbed in caring for Mrs. Aschoff that the house was hopelessly on fire before help arrived. The house and contents, including all clothing is practically a total loss. There was no insurance. Mrs. Aschoff is at the home of Carl Aschoff at Sandy.

Annual Conference To Be Held Aug. 19

SANDY, Aug. 8—The fourth annual quarterly conference of the Powell Valley circuit will be held at Linne-man Junction Saturday, Aug. 19. An all day picnic is planned, and prominent speakers will be present. There will be an important business session and representatives from each Methodist church in the circuit are especially requested to be present.

NEW HATCHERY

SANDY, Aug. 8—Material for the construction of a new government fish hatchery at the Big Sand dam is being hauled through Sandy. Floyd Hutchinson is the man in charge of the construction.

Fire Fighters Are Called Out Sunday

SANDY, Aug. 8—The forest fire between the head works and Larch Mountain got beyond control again Sunday and 30 men were called out from Portland Monday afternoon via Bull Run, the Cameron and Hogue mill was asked to send a crew and about 30 responded. A camp of about 60 or 70 fire fighters was established. The Sandy Lumber Co. also responded with their crew, and the fire will be under control probably tonight. The blaze spread from Walker prairie into the Cameron and Hogue timber at Aimes.

Austrian Crew On Crusher Discharged

SANDY, Aug. 6—The Austrian crew that has been working here on the rock crusher since last winter was discharged by the Palmer Construction Co. and a new bunch of men brought out from Portland.

The crusher stopped running the first of the week to settle objections made by W. F. Strack whose home is so close to the continued blasting that Strack considers it dangerous to his house and family.

Good Yield Reported In Douglass Section

SANDY, Aug. 8—Bill Douglass of the Douglass settlement threshed 100 bushels to the acre of wheat and oats, this mixture being 23 oats and 1-3 wheat, fall sowing.

H. H. Udell of Dover threshed 67 bushels of gray oats to the bushel, and his wheat went 30 bushels.

Sandy Beats Oswego Winning 8 Straight

SANDY, Aug. 7—About 40 Sandy baseball fans drove to Oswego Sunday and had a picnic dinner at the Oswego auto park and attended the ball game between Sandy and Oswego in the afternoon. The game was won by Sandy which makes eight straight games for Sandy. The score was 7-0. Harry Hendricks made his usual home run and one of the Oswego men made a home run.

Campfire Girls of Gresham Break Camp

SANDY, Aug. 7—About a dozen campfire girls from Gresham "broke camp" on Saturday morning and drove to the Mattingly place for the past ten days left today. Miss Alexander was their chaperone. This same unit camped here last year. On Sunday the camp was "alive" with visitors among whom were Dr. and Mrs. Will Ott, the Kidder and L. K. Miller families of Gresham.

ROAD WORK PROGRESSING

SANDY, Aug. 8—Work is proceeding on market road No. 3 in the Douglass settlement, and grading will begin next week on No. 2 near the Philip Evans place. This road is gradually settling on down toward Sandy. The crusher is running and hopes for an outlet for that section is looking brighter.

MRS. KOCH IMPROVES

SANDY, Aug. 8—Mrs. Paul Koch of Cherryville, who fell off the wagon while helping in a "hayring party" at the home of her aunt, Mrs. L. Lehnfeld near Sandy, and threw her arm out of place and broke her elbow is improving at a hospital near Troutdale. The break was pronounced a very bad one by the attending physician.

PURCHASE POOL HALL

SANDY, Aug. 7—Frank Christianson and Alois Gray bought the Schroll building and took possession at once. Schroll left the same evening for Banks where he expects to take charge of a garage. Geo. Beers of Sandy made the deal. Christianson sold the same business to Schroll about a year ago.

TRADES FOR HOTEL

SANDY, Aug. 7—J. H. Holm recently traded his 160 acres on the Bluff road for hotel property at Washougal and has moved his family there. The new owner has taken possession of the Holm ranch.

LODGE HALL PAINTED

SANDY, Aug. 8—A big addition to the looks of the town is the painting of the Odd Fellow's hall which was begun by C. Scharke on Monday. Much painting has been done here the past few months.

Financial Preparedness

Extensive and Intensive Banking Service

In times of stress or in times of increasing opportunity, a good banking connection proves a tower of strength to the worthy man. Some of this community's leading men look to the First State Bank for counsel and cooperation in their financial affairs. As a depositor here, you are always in a position to use our complete facilities for domestic and foreign banking, and to share in the benefits of our unusual equipment for handling such transactions.

Our service is extensive. We should be glad of the opportunity to make it intensive as applied to your own business problems.

DEEP CREEK NEWS

SANDY, Aug. 8—Mr. and Mrs. Lester Irvine have moved from Deep Creek to the Beers saw mill near Eagle Creek.

Miss Mabel Erdman who works for the R. L. & P. Co. has been spending two weeks' vacation with the home folks, the D. L. Erdman family.

Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Erdman attended the Lutheran mission festival at Sandy last Sunday.

The bunkers which are located near the Wilcox place are filled with gravel and hauling was begun the first of the week and everybody is jubilant over the prospect of having a better road this winter.

Threshing on Swede hill was begun this week, though Erdman's grain was threshed last week and turned out 32 3-4 bushels to the acre. There has been little kale planted here this season owing to the dry weather.

Charley Krebs began threshing last week on Sandyridge, but found little to thresh but fall grain as most all the spring grain was cut for hay.

Matt Zogg of Sandyridge had a fine crop this season. He threshed 1025 bushels of grain, it all running 44 bushels to the acre straight through.

John Macho threshed Thursday of last week and his wheat went 45 bushels, his gray oats 41 bushels and his spring sown white oats 25 bushels to the acre, which is considered fine for this season.

Straw is in great demand it seems from the way Charley Krebs disposed of his "crop", it all being spoken for before threshing time.

J. G. DeShazer has been marketing late cherries at the Gresham cannery for which he received good prices.

OSWEGO ITEMS

Mrs. Cora Bullock

Water System to be Voted In September

OSWEGO, Aug. 8—On September 15 there will be an election regarding the Bull Run water for Oswego and between the highway bridge and Bolton, as there will be several large tracts of land in that district to be platted and placed on the market, and water is desired for them. Ernest Nelson, a former well known young man of this place, who has engineering offices in Portland, has circulated the petition, meeting with splendid success in securing names.

At the same election a water board of three will also be elected. The board is then authorized to go ahead and secure engineering data and estimates of expense for the construction of such a system, and can incur an expense of not to exceed three per cent of the assessed valuation in the proposed district for such purpose. This data secured, the board can call an election to vote bonds for the construction of the system, said bonds not to be in excess of 10 per cent of the assessed value of all property, which include the three per cent for preliminary work.

Portland Truckman Loses State Permit

OSWEGO, Aug. 8—George F. Hensner of Portland, who has been having logs and piling hauled over the Pacific Highway pavement through the city of Oswego, caused the state highway commission to revoke the permit issued to him.

The offending truck drivers were arrested by officers of the state department and fined $50 each in the Oswego justice court. A avenue in Oswego as suffered material damage, due to the travel over it of these heavily loaded trucks.

ELECTION CARRIES

OSWEGO, Aug. 8—The Oswego special annexation election which took place on Monday, carried in the city limits also with the residences of South Oswego. In the city there was 54 votes cast, 33 for and 21 against, and the votes cast in South Oswego and Old Town were 43, 32 for and 11 against. So it looks as though South Town and Old Town will be in the city before long.

JOINT PICNIC HELD

OSWEGO, Aug. 8—The joint picnic held by the Oswego and Oak Grove Women's clubs in the grove by the lake Friday, was enjoyable for all who attended. The day was spent discussing social and business topics. After the picnic lunch, David Nelson let the ladies have boats free so they enjoyed boating and swimming all the afternoon.

TWO HOMES SOLD

OSWEGO, Aug. 8—Considerable real estate has changed hands the last few days in Oswego, and among other houses to be sold are the two new cottages which the Oregon Iron & Steel company has recently erected on the south side of the lake in the new area just placed on the market.
