

NEWS FROM ALL OVER THE COUNTY

Correspondence From All Over the County Telling of Improvements and Local Happenings During The Past Week—Your Subscription Will Receive Prompt Attention.

Estacada

ESTACADA, Sept. 6—Rev. C. W. Pogue, wife and baby, were guests at the J. P. Woodlee home last week. Mr. Pogue left Wednesday to attend the state conference at Salem. He has been pastor of the Siletz Reserve Mission during the past year.

Miss Mary Whiting and Mrs. A. W. Botkin left for Portland Tuesday to attend the opening service of the Episcopal church general conference, Wednesday for a motor trip to Spokane, Wash.

Labor Day in Estacada passed off very quietly, there being no programs of any description. Quite a large number of visitors from Portland and other places were here to spend the day and the parties. A large number of our people took motor trips on that day and the trains, which run on Sundays, had a goodly number of passengers for other places as well as visitors here.

Mrs. F. E. Burns and daughter, Bertha and son, Frederick, left on Thursday for their new home at Freewater, Ore. Mr. Burns already being there where he will be principal of the grade schools for the coming year. The family have resided at Estacada for the past three years. Mr. Burns being superintendent of the Estacada schools and they leave behind them many loyal friends. Mrs. Burns received many complimentary attentions before her departure.

The apron sale and social at the M. E. church last Friday evening was a decided success and the Ladies Aid feel well repaid for the amount of work and trouble they assumed in preparing the entertainment. There was a good program and refreshments were served.

The Ames family are enjoying a visit from relatives from Underwood, Wash. They arrived in two machines last Sunday.

Married—At Oregon City, Thursday, August 31, 1922, Richard Palmer, Jr. and Miss Lora Davis. The bride is the daughter of Fred Davis in the Garfield neighborhood and the groom the son of the late "Doc" Palmer, of the same place. They received Monday and will reside on the groom's ranch at Garfield.

Rev. and Mrs. Lacy are in Salem this week attending the yearly conference of the M. E. church.

Dr. Owen, the dentist, has sold out to Dr. Charles P. Johnson of Portland. Dr. Owen's successor is a married man with one child and will occupy the Evans residence on upper Main street.

T. H. Morton and wife, accompanied by A. T. Elliott and wife, motored to Seaside last Sunday, returning Tuesday evening.

The aeroplane which has been in this vicinity for the past week, was flying around considerably Monday, doing all kinds of "stunts" over Estacada, sometimes flying so low that it almost came in contact with the trees and people held their breath for fear the flying bird would strike the ground.

Rev. U. H. Gibbs and Mrs. Gibbs went to Portland Wednesday to attend the opening session of the Episcopal convention.

Mrs. Maude Graham came over from Portland last Sunday to visit her son's wife and meet other Estacada friends.

Sunday, Sept. 17, is Rally Day at the Christian church, services, commencing at 10 A. M.

R. C. Deming and family left on Saturday for their new home in Portland.

Miss Olive Jones of Portland, spent the week end with her friend, Mrs. Ed Linn. Miss Jones is bookkeeper at the Portland Crematorium.

Loran Ellis and wife of Portland took advantage of the Labor day vacation and visited the former's parents at this place. They expect to leave soon for Boston, where Mr. Ellis will take a special course in architecture.

Dr. Adix and son, Victor, visited Estacada last Friday evening. They motored over from their home at Gresham.

Miss Lydia Matson came home from Portland to visit her parents Sunday and Monday.

Mrs. Myrtle Bellis and son, Albert, went to Portland Sunday to visit relatives, returning Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Almarson, who are members of the high school faculty for next year, will occupy the Somers residence as soon as the Burns family move out.

Miss Carey, who has been visiting at the home of her brother, Dr. Carey, most of the summer, left last Friday for Portland where she started that evening for her home in Chicago. Mrs. T. H. Morton drove her over to Portland, accompanied by Mrs. Carey, in her Maxwell coupe.

While hauling poles last Friday, R. S. Coop's wagon tipped over, throwing him under the load and breaking his leg below the knee. He was rushed to town and medical aid summoned, later being taken to Gresham. He is getting along as well as can be expected. The accident happened across the river from Estacada.

Mrs. E. E. Ericson of Seattle, surprised her sister, Mrs. R. G. Hughes

last Thursday with a visit. She remained until Friday afternoon when she left for Portland to join friends who were going to Seaside.

Mrs. G. W. Graham and little son arrived from Alaska the first of last week to visit relatives and many friends in this vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. Gus Wilcox left last Friday for a visit to Heppner, Ore., to be absent for a couple of weeks.

Dr. G. L. McLellan and family left Estacada last Friday for Vancouver, Wash., where he decided to locate. Dr. McLellan came here about three months ago, having his office in with Dr. Carey.

Dr. C. K. Carey decided again to leave Estacada and locate at Hoquiam, Wash. With Mrs. Carey they left this week for their new home. At present there is but one doctor here, Dr. Rhodes, osteopathic, but a medical doctor is expected every day. Dr. Midford, who purchased the property of the late Dr. Morse.

Quite a number of our people are taking advantage of the opportunity to go up in the aeroplane, which has been located near town for a number of days.

The ball game Sunday afternoon between the Estacada team and a color team from Portland, was a fast one and resulted in a victory for the home team with a score of 4 to 5.

The city of Estacada is getting after the non-resident property owners who do not pay their assessments against their lots for sidewalk improvements. A certain time is given in which to pay the assessments and if not then the city council will proceed to sell said lots so delinquent in the manner provided by the charter of the city.

William Pass has decided to sell his ReNu-En tailoring shop and locate at North Bend where his uncle, D. B. Bass will locate.

Mr. and Mrs. P. S. Pesznecker have rented their residence on Main street to E. G. Hopkins, who recently bought the barber shop formerly owned by D. B. Bass, and will move to Vancouver, Wash., where their two sons reside. It is regretted by the entire community to have this family leave Estacada. They are good neighbors and citizens. They make the change so as to be near their sons.

Earl Shibley came down from the railroad camp Saturday afternoon and that evening left for his home in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Morton were here from Portland last Sunday to visit at the home of the former's mother, Mrs. W. J. Moore, returning home the same day.

Mrs. J. R. Hughes was hostess to the Modern Priscillas last Friday at her home in the Currinsville district. There were seven members present and two visitors.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Erickson of Seattle and Mrs. Sisson, who is en route to her new home in California. Those who enjoyed the splendid dinner and social time were Mesdames Heiple, E. E. Erickson, Mrs. Henry Heiple, Mrs. Clara Boyer, Mrs. R. A. Lovell, Mrs. N. B. Ecker and the visitors. The next meeting in October will be at the home of Mrs. Heiple.

Mrs. Will Perry and little daughter were Portland visitors last Friday.

Mrs. R. S. Coop went to Gresham Sunday to visit Mr. Coop who is in the hospital at that place, having suffered a broken leg.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Lawrence, of Portland, spent the first of the week here at the home of Mr. Lawrence's mother, Mrs. G. E. Lawrence.

I. D. McCutchin of the Garfield neighborhood, is suffering with blood poisoning in his foot.

Rev. Charles Farrar, of Eureka, Cal., spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. U. H. Gibbs. He came to Portland to attend the General Conference of the Episcopal church. The reverend gentleman was a class and room mate of Mr. Gibbs, in the theological seminary at Fairbault, Minn., when they both graduated in 1896. He also married Mr. and Mrs. Gibbs 24 years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Smith went to Pacific City Saturday returning Tuesday.

The beautiful new home of Mrs. H. C. Stephens in Terrace Addition was the scene of a delightful social function Tuesday afternoon, when Mrs. Stephens and Mrs. C. S. Allen entertained in honor of Mrs. F. E. Burns who left this week for her new home at Freewater, Ore. The guests enjoyed musical selections on the phonograph and also indulged in gymnasium exercises which furnished excellent diversions and much merriment. To complete the charming hospitality a delicious two course luncheon was served, the guests being seated at two prettily arranged and effectively decorated tables in the cozy dining room where a cheerful fire in the grate lent comfort and cheer. The guests were Mesdames U. H. Gibbs, A. E. Smith, G. R. Ellis, J. E. Gates, O. E. Smith, J. Lloyd Youcum, G. E. Lawrence, W. J. Moore, N. B. Ecker, the guest of honor, Mrs. Burns, and Misses Gertrude Dillon and Bertha Burns.

R. C. Kimmel has moved from his residence in the east part of the city to a new home recently purchased from the Cary Real Estate Co., on the acreage just across the river from town.

After the summer vacation, Mountain Chapter No. 108, O. E. S., will hold its next meeting Tuesday evening, Sept. 18.

Estacada crosses bats with the Montavilla club of Portland next Sunday afternoon on the home grounds.

C. A. Dykeman was a business visitor in Portland Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Cary and children, Glen and Phyllis, motored to Portland Wednesday.

George Rose and family were Portland visitors Wednesday. Mrs. Nellie Carson assisted in the store while he was absent.

The Neighbor of Woodcraft will give a dance in the L. O. O. F. hall on the evening of Sept. 14, to which everybody is invited.

Dr. Carey has been in Estacada again this week making arrangements for moving to Washington.

Eagle Creek

EAGLE CREEK, Sept. 4—Mrs. Viola Douglas has been visiting in the neighborhood for two or three days.

Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Orke and Mr. and Mrs. Hollander motored out to Mr. Orke's farm on Sunday and spent the day.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Woodlee and son, Leslie, were Portland visitors on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Douglass and children were guests at the home of Mrs. Douglass' parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. Moehneke on Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Moehneke accompanied them home to be their guests for a couple of weeks.

Mrs. Seranous and daughters are leaving today for their home in Sellwood, after their summer's vacation on their Deep Creek farm.

The girls have to return to school as it commences September 5th in Portland.

Fred Paddison and Kermit Bestul left on Tuesday for North Yakima, where they intend to work during the fruit picking season.

Dodge

DODGE, Sept. 4—Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Keller spent Sunday visiting J. H. Keller and family at Viola.

Mr. and Mrs. Folsom of Springfield were Sunday visitors at Ed Lacey's this week.

Earl Linkins and Miss Ten Eyck were visiting at Fred Horner's place on Wednesday and Thursday.

Mrs. J. E. Keller went to Portland on Saturday to visit her son, Kenneth, who is still in the hospital. She reports he is much better and expects to be home on Wednesday, Sept. 6.

Frank Chambers, who for a while attended the Dodge school and who now resides in Portland was a week end visitor at Mrs. Jackinsen's.

Fred Horner and family spent Sunday visiting at S. N. Kilgore's place at Springfield.

Fred Horner and wife were business visitors in Oregon City Tuesday.

Hazelja

HAZELJA, Sept. 4—The Hazelja Community Sunday school will give a picnic Saturday, Sept. 16 at Supt. D. Christiansen's home. The afternoon and evening will be spent in having a good time and a picnic supper will be enjoyed. Every family in Hazelja is most cordially invited to come as this is a real community picnic.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lehman and son, Wilbur, and Mrs. Frank Childs has returned from the beach after a pleasant vacation.

Hazelja students of West Linn high are ready for the bus Tuesday to start their year's work in school.

Master Duncan Christiansen returned Saturday from a trip with the Whitney Boys.

Kelso

KELSO, Sept. 6—The Woman's club met at the home of Mrs. E. V. Erickson, Aug. 24 with the following members present: Mesdames Phipps, Baumbach, Peterson, Herz, Kliger, R. Jonsrud and the hostess. It was decided to have the interior of the schoolrooms painted before school opens. A pleasant afternoon was spent and the hostess served delicious refreshments.

The Jonsrud-Gunderson mill which was destroyed by fire on June 5 is now rebuilt and running full blast.

E. Herz, who has been laid up with blood poison caused by a cut on the knee is improving.

Helen Jarl arrived from Medford last week and will remain with her father, Joel Jarl and sister, Mildred, and attend school here this winter. Mildred will attend the Sandy High school, while Helen and her sister, Verne, will remain in Medford for the winter. The machine in which Helen came from Medford was in a collision but no one was seriously injured.

The Kelso school will open Sept. 11 with Miss Vaeretti and Mrs. Baumbach as teachers.

Dorothy Jonsrud has returned to Portland to attend the Jefferson high school.

The Robert Jonsrud family recently moved to their new home on the Bluff road.

Among those who have gone to the hop fields are Mrs. Patterson and daughter, Bessie and Mrs. E. V. Erickson and son Roland.

Bissell

BISSELL, Sept. 4—Mrs. W. Fleebe and children who have been visiting her brother, Ralph Chaney, for the past six weeks left last Tuesday for their home in Nebraska.

Emma Paulsen of Portland visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Paulsen at Bissell last Saturday night and Sunday.

A number of the Bissell people, who have been to the huckleberry patch, returned home with well-filled buckets.

Carl Lins who has been working in Portland for some time returned home last Sunday.

Mr. Klinker and daughter, Helen of Portland visited the former's sister-in-law, Mrs. Marie Klinker at George last Sunday.

WILLAMETTE NOTES

A baby boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Decker at their home here Wednesday morning.

R. H. Scott of Oregon City purchased two lots from John Moehneke Monday. The deal being made through Clem Dollar's Real Estate office here.

Miss Helen Wallis returned home Saturday after spending the summer at the home of her grandmother in Portland. She will attend union high where she is a senior.

Mrs. John Casey and daughter, Mary Jane and Mrs. Lucy Mathers returned from Newport Monday, where they have spent the last ten days.

Miss Meta Higgenbottom of Portland spent the week end with Miss Esther Larson.

The M. E. Church held its monthly silver tea at the home of Mrs. Waldron hursday afternoon. The afternoon was spent by the ladies piecing quilt blocks for the Ladies Aid. Refreshments were served at 3:30 o'clock to the following ladies: Mesdames, John A. Reams, Jr., Bert Barnes, C. Smith, A. Fromong, A. Dugucki, J. A. Reams, Sr., Beardsley, J. Casey, H. Leisman, E. Leisman, L. Mathers, O. ennett, Mrs. McLean, N. Whitney, A. Tuor, E. Carpenter, A. Runyan, J. Overton, W. W. Davis, Jos. Thornberry, Mrs. Barthlemew, Miss Mary Leisman, Ella Rogers and Lorraine Martin.

Miss Senora Brown spent part of the week at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Murry Bunn of Medford.

Albert Adamsen after being confined to the Oregon City hospital for five weeks with blood poisoning returned home Tuesday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Clem Dollar were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. I. Baker of Gladstone Saturday, it being Mr. Baker's birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Critser of Oregon City were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Bernert Saturday.

Miss Mabert Larson, Margaret Maune, and Frances Waldron, who have been attending summer school at Monmouth for the last twelve weeks returned to their homes here Saturday.

Mrs. Prah and C. Earsley, who have been at Everett, Wash., for the last week returned home Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Buckles and baby returned from a week's vacation at the beach Friday.

Mrs. Marion Bennett was most agreeably surprised at her home on 4th Ave. Monday evening, it being her birthday. After a social evening lunch was served to the following guests: Mrs. McLean and children, Mrs. Spatz, Mrs. Fromong, Mrs. Carpenter, Mrs. Snidow, Mrs. Overton, Mrs. E. Leisman, Mrs. Casey, Mrs. Mathers, Mrs. Tuor, Mrs. Denton, Mrs. Berse, Mrs. Buckles, Mrs. Kaibless, Mrs. Barthlemew, Mr. and Mrs. and Mrs. Davis, Miss Olivera, Veda Andrus.

Miss Florence Fromong and Mrs. Swan of Oregon City were shopping in Portland Wednesday.

Mamie Wallis spent Tuesday and Wednesday visiting friends and relatives in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Reams Jr. spent Saturday shopping in Portland.

Miss Helene Frances visited at the home of her aunt in Gladstone Wednesday and Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Renke and son spent Sunday and Monday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Anderson of Salem, Ore.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Gross and Mr. and Mrs. Frederic spent Sunday in Tualatin, where they visited at the home of Mrs. Skog.

Mr. and Mrs. Doc Overton have moved into the cottage belonging to Clarence Morrell on Railroad Ave.

Mrs. Ira Kaiser of Salem is visiting at the home of Mrs. Albert Adamsen.

Mr. and Mrs. Theobald of Tualatin were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frederic on Tuesday.

Mrs. W. C. Elliott left Sunday morning for Orland, Calif. She expects to be gone about a month.

Mr. and Mrs. Skinner and children who have been spending the last few weeks at Dayton returned to their home here.

Mr. Cov and family of Oswego have rented the Greaves bungalow on Maple Ave. and moved in Saturday.

Sidney Brown and Homer Beals were the guests of Herbert Backus at Middleton, Monday.

Mrs. Tuor was given a surprise and miscellaneous shower Wednesday evening when a number of friends called at her home on Maple Ave. She received a number of useful gifts.

After an evening spent in old fashioned games, refreshments were served to Mrs. H. Leisman, Mrs. Herman Peters, Mrs. C. Bigley, Mrs. John Casey, Mrs. F. Shipley, Mrs. Silverman, Mrs. Ridder, Mrs. Downe, Mrs. Gureley, Mrs. E. Leisman, Mrs. Barnes, Mrs. Lucy Mathers, Mrs. Barthlemew, Mrs. Thornberry, Mrs. Elliott, Mrs. Whitney, Mrs. Buckles, Mrs. Fromong, Mrs. Denton, Mrs. Rauch, Mrs. Robt. Young, Mrs. Gary, Mrs. Davis, Mrs. Zimmerman, Mrs. McArthur, Mrs. Tuor, Miss Florence Fromong, Lorraine Martin, Mary Leisman, Rosina Ellington.

A minstrel show will be given by the ladies of the Fraternal Brotherhood next Tuesday evening for the benefit of the order of Willamette.

Miss Yena Baran spent Saturday shopping in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson and family returned Monday after a week's stay at Rockaway.

JENNINGS LODGE

MRS. HUGH ROBERTS, Correspondent.

Hiking Party Home From Fine Outing

JENNINGS LODGE, Sept. 6—Kenneth and Hugh Allen Wilcox have returned much elated over their hiking trip to Lost Lake. Leaving Portland by boat they went to Hood River and taking the train to Dee, Ore., they were ready for their hike of 14 miles to Lost Lake. After spending the night here, hiked about 11 miles to Wathum Lake returning by way of Eagle Creek which was a 13 mile hike. Returning over the Columbia Highway on Monday were taken home by passing autoists.

They were chaperoned by their sister, Mrs. Evelyn Holden and Mrs. Stevens of Sellwood. There were six in the party and all together hiked 59 miles.

At Bonneville the party hiked up to the Tanner Creek Falls and it proved a very enjoyable outing.

Francis Harragan has been at Portland visitor at the C. R. Holloway home. On Sunday R. E. Holloway and daughters, who returned during the week from British Columbia were guests of their son, Charlie.

The Hugh Roberts family accompanied Dr. J. L. Scripture and Jamie to Bonneville on Sunday.

Mrs. Bess Bruechert was a Salem visitor over Labor Day.

R. L. Newcomb accompanied Portland friends to Wathum Lake on Saturday.

Warren Swart and wife have returned from the mountains after a 10 days' stay at Rhododendron.

Miss Sarah Holloway was the house guest of Katherine Satterfield in Rose City Park last week.

A number from here are planning on picking hops at Parkplace, the picking beginning on Wednesday. The yard has been well kept and free from weeds and insects, will make it much easier for those who are gathering the hops.

Geo. Maple was an Olympia, Wash., visitor over Labor Day, a guest of his son, R. E. Maple.

Miss Lansburg of Salem, Virginia, has returned to her home after a visit with her sister, Mrs. Robert Rogers. She is teacher in a female seminary in Virginia.

Attracting considerable attention are some Paw Paws, which were sent to J. W. Dain from his father in Indiana. Two large ox heart tomatoes were also on display at Shady Nook, which were sent by Mr. Dain Sr. from Waynetown, Indiana.

W. H. Tillman and family spent the week end at Seaside, remaining over Labor Day at this popular beach resort.

C. R. Holloway resumed his school duties on Tuesday, being given the principalship of the Glen Haven school in Portland.

Miss Wilma Bruechert spent the week end at Rockaway, Ore., the guest of the Painton family.

Mrs. W. H. Kelly has returned from Garabaldi beach after being most delightfully entertained at the home of her son, Alden.

Noah Bechtel has returned from Corvallis to spend several days with home folks.

J. W. Dain and wife spent Labor Day in Vancouver, Wash.

Mrs. Nettie Theroux will teach again this year in the Barclay school in Oregon City, resuming her duties on Sept. 18th.

Mrs. H. D. Smith and son, Dean, and Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Deter and two daughters, Meryl and Ouida Deter motored to Malloy over the holidays of the past week where they were the guests of Mrs. Malloy, who is a sister of Mrs. Deter.

A wedding of interest to the older residents of this place, took place in Rockwood on Sunday last when Trance Grimschay and Ted Reeves were married. The groom is the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Reeves, who formerly resided where Mrs. Erickson now lives. he Reeves family are now located at Corbett.

Oscar Erickson has returned to Tacoma, after a visit with his mother, Mrs. M. Erickson.

Shelton Bechtel is looking after business interests in Cottage Grove this week.

Mrs. Anna Monod of Kansas City Missouri, who has spent the summer with her daughters, Mrs. J. W. Jones of this place and Mrs. A. B. Mayo, of Oregon City, is returning home this week, leaving on Wednesday.

H. Wittenberg is building a new garage at their home.

J. L. Florence and wife and sister, Mrs. Morgan, a visitor from Kansas, motored to Eagle Creek on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Rohads and son, Fay, of Boise, Ida., is visiting their sister, Mrs. E. O. Kiggins.

R. H. Hendry, who recently disposed of his interests in the Blue Front grocery, has accepted a position with the Pacific Asbestos and Belting Co. of Portland, taking up the work on Sept. 1.

Mrs. C. D. Dietz of Rainier is the guest of her sister, Mrs. R. F. Butler of the Butler Poultry farm.

Prof and Mrs. L. Baker of Portland

ORCHESTRA ENTERTAINED

JENNINGS LODGE, Sept. 6—The Theroux orchestra was delightfully entertained at Monitor over the week end. Leaving here by auto on Saturday were entertained over night in the Monitor homes. On Sunday the orchestra furnished music for the church service, and were treated to a chicken dinner. It was a very enjoyable time for Mr. Theroux and his pupils.

P-T TO MEET

JENNINGS LODGE, Sept. 6—The regular Parent-Teachers' association meeting will be held this week on Friday afternoon at the school house. Mrs. Norman Chapman will preside.

Mrs. Lawrence is the secretary for the coming year. The committees for the year will be named and an outline of the winter's work will be given. A full attendance is desired.

JENNINGS LODGE LOCALS

E. R. Sanders and family from San Diego, Calif., are recent arrivals and are pleasantly located on the river front. Mr. Sanders is one of the buyers for the Olds, Wortman, King store.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Fleming are home from Seaside after spending a week at the coast. On Thursday the Flemings motored to McMinville.

Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Hoag are spending a week with their daughter at Newport.

Holman & Pace

FUNERAL DIRECTORS

Homelike—Efficient—Courteous

Telephone 86

7th and Water Sts., Oregon City

WHERE will you attend High School this year?

Colton is offering the strongest musica course