

NEWS FROM ALL OVER THE COUNTY

Correspondence From All Over the County Telling of Improvements and Local Happenings During The Past Week—Your Subscription Will Receive Prompt Attention.

Beaver Creek

BEAVER CREEK, Oct. 9.—A farewell party was held at the grange hall Friday evening, honoring Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Orr, who will leave for Michigan soon. About 60 guests were present and enjoyed dancing until midnight when a dainty lunch was served.

A party was given for Edwin Bealer at the home of his mother, Mrs. D. I. Jones, last Wednesday evening. The evening was spent in playing cards and having the usual good time. Present were Mr. and Mrs. A. Thomas and daughter, Margaret, Mr. and Mrs. George Havill, Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Londergan, Misses Ruth French and Genevieve Londergan, Messrs. Elmer Londergan and Edwin Bealer, Mr. and Mrs. D. I. Jones.

At the regular grange meeting Saturday night the following were elected to membership: Mrs. E. C. Brown, of Carus; Mrs. Lizzie Ringo, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Berger of Clarks.

The directors of the co-operative store held a business meeting Saturday afternoon. The management is looking for a bookkeeper to fill the place of Oscar Orr.

Mrs. Lizzie Ringo, Mrs. E. E. Berger and children of Clarks, visited with Mrs. John Coulter Saturday while Mr. Berger attended the director's meeting.

Mrs. J. Watts and baby son, John Gordon Watts, arrived home from St. Vincent's hospital Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Schram had as Sunday guests Mrs. Schram's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Roberts, their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. F. K. Hodge and two children.

State Master C. E. Spence returned recently from a 880 mile trip through Baker, Union, and Walla Walla counties, visiting the granges.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Thomas entertained Mr. and Mrs. Peter Rasmussen, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Rasmussen, and Miss Rasmussen of Salem Sunday.

Miss Vera Coulter of this place is teaching in the Hendrick school.

Among the Oregon City visitors this morning are Mrs. Fred Yoeman and John Schram, both of whom are still under the doctor's care.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Foglesong attended the dance at the home of Harry Crawford of Shubel Saturday night.

Ted Hughes' mother and her little grandson are visiting her son and family here.

Mountain Road

MOUNTAIN ROAD, Oct. 8.—A few of the farmers in this district are digging potatoes.

Deward and Ernest Hodge went on a ten day hunting trip to Cow Creek canyon. We are glad to say they returned home with the limit of deer. "Dutch" Weddle is running the Furson for Fred Baker.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Robinson and daughter spent the day with the Farquahson family of Peach Cove Sunday. The party motored to Oregon City in the afternoon and attended the Liberty theater.

Miss Mary Koellmeier is studying music under Miss Oliver of Willamette.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Schatz, Bob Schatz and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Elisele and daughter of Stafford, spent Thursday evening with the Hodge family.

Our teacher Miss Worley spent the week end at her home.

Mrs. Belle Koellmeier visited relatives in Willamette Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wright and family visited at the Hodge home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Neils Christensen, Jr., visited their relatives here Sunday.

Barlow

BARLOW, Oct. 9.—Roy Parmenter and A. Nelson went to Tillamook Friday on a fishing trip.

Mrs. Porter and children of Oregon City visited with friends in Barlow Sunday.

Harry Gardner, who has been playing ball at Vernon, spent a few days of this week at his home in Barlow.

Mrs. Andrus has been quite ill at her home in Barlow with a severe cold and sore throat.

Miss Lulu Larsen of Portland visited with Mrs. Toogood Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Babbs have sold their place and have moved to Barlow.

The Barlow Community club met at the Barlow school house Friday afternoon.

Kelso

KELSO, Oct. 10.—The Woman's Club of Kelso will give a program and basket social at the school house on Saturday evening, October 21. Ladies are requested to bring baskets, and everybody is cordially invited to attend. The proceeds will go toward paying for the interior painting of the school rooms which work was done before school opened.

The next meeting of the Woman's Club will be held on Thursday afternoon, Oct. 26 at the home of Mrs. Robert Jonsrud.

The following Kelso people attended the meeting and program of the

Holman & Pace

FUNERAL DIRECTORS

Homelike—Efficient—Courteous

Telephone 86

7th and Water Sts., Oregon City

Willamette News

Loraine Bunke, daughter of the late William Bunke of Canby, is visiting in Willamette as the guest of her grandmother, Mrs. Bunke.

Mr. and Mrs. Sproul, who formerly lived in Willamette but have been making their home in Maine for the past two years have written to relatives in Willamette and Gladstone that they are coming by automobile to spend the winter here and perhaps make Willamette their permanent home.

Grandpa Hill is in Portland where he is planning to spend several weeks visiting relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Riggs of Portland were in Willamette Wednesday where they transacted business and also visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bunke.

There is an ever increasing call for homes in Willamette. One of the most recent sales was that of the residence and two lots on sixth avenue owned by Mr. and Mrs. Prah and sold to Mr. and Mrs. James Kaiser, who have been making their home near Willamette. The deal was closed through the Clem Dollar real estate agency of Willamette.

On Saturday of last week Mr. and Mrs. Leo Porter and three children moved into the Gotthard cottage on Maple street near the school building.

Mrs. George Batdorf motored to Portland on Saturday where she spent the day shopping and visiting with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Khale and children, who moved from Willamette to a large farm in Frogpond a few weeks ago are very much pleased with farm life and last Tuesday they made the purchase of a new Ford.

Mr. and Mrs. Yoeman of Petes Mountain visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Froemong last Tuesday.

Mrs. George Batdorf and her father, Mr. Hill, were in Portland Wednesday where they attended the funeral services of Mrs. Batdorf's aunt, Mrs. Hill.

The Oliver Grocery store which was sold recently to Albert Runyan was moved last week to a new location on railroad avenue near eleventh street. The store building is being enlarged and will be open in a few weeks under the new management.

Frances Janet, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Halley has been ill for the past week. Dr. Silverman, local physician, is in attendance.

Mrs. Belle Koellmeier of Mountain Road, spent the day Thursday in Willamette visiting relatives.

Mrs. Frank Halley made a business trip to Portland on Friday of last week.

Mrs. G. Prah and Mrs. Clem Dollar were in Portland Tuesday where they attended a meeting at the White Temple of the Women's Union of the Baptist churches of Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. Reinke and son Charles, Jr., were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Barbur of West Linn on Friday.

After spending the summer in Willamette Mr. Lunt left last Wednesday for Safford, California where he will spend the winter. While there he will visit relatives.

A dance was given Saturday night in the new Leisman hall, which proved a decided success. Another dance has been announced for next Saturday night.

Mrs. R. A. Junken visited at the home of Mrs. W. C. Elliot in Oregon City on Wednesday. Mrs. Elliot recently moved to Oregon City from Willamette.

Mrs. Georgia Fogel of Portland spent Thursday in Willamette as the guest of her sister, Mrs. A. Adamson. Mrs. Lunt moved last week into her new five room bungalow on fourteenth street, which was recently completed.

Mrs. G. Prah is preparing to move to Los Angeles, California, in the near future where she will join her husband who preceded her several months ago.

Mrs. Prah has purchased a house in Los Angeles and is preparing to build on her soon.

Philly Schnoerr and Gustave Schnoerr in company with the Zimmerman boys motored over the Columbia highway on Sunday.

Mrs. A. Adamson after being confined to her room for the past two months, suffering with blood poisoning, is able to be out again. Mrs. Adamson spent several weeks in the Oregon City hospital and her many friends are glad to have her among them again.

Willamette was well represented last Friday evening at the annual meeting and supper at the Baptist church in Oregon City. Those attending from here were Mr. and Mrs. Howard, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Buckles, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Milliken, Mr. and Mrs. Clem Dollar and children Gladys, Clem, Jr., and Laurence, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Gross, Mr. Fredrick and Gladys Fredericks.

Frank Halley of Portland spent the week-end in Willamette visiting his wife and daughter who are guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. Shipley.

A religious political meeting was held in the Willamette school gymnasium last Friday evening. Among the speakers of the evening were E. A. Leisman, Mr. Snidow, and L. L. Porter. This is the forerunner of several meetings which will be held before election.

Mr. and Mrs. Mike Peters motored to Hood River on Sunday where they spent the day.

Mrs. Alice Allen has purchased an eight room residence and three lots in Gladstone. She will take possession the latter part of the week.

Clem Dollar left early Saturday morning in company with Pearl and Cecil Turner of Oregon City on a fishing trip into the Tillamook country, the trip being made in the Turner machine. They returned home Sunday evening with a good "catch."

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Junken, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. A. Adamson, motored to Willamette last Sunday. The party was pleasantly spent and a picnic lunch enjoyed at the noon hour.

What is an undertaker. An undertaker is a man who follows the medical profession.

There was a good attendance at the "Father Goose" entertainment Tuesday night and all who took part did nicely. The committee in charge went to considerable time and some expense to get up the entertainment and the Library Association surely appreciate their efforts. There was no large amount realized from the entertainment, but every small amount even helps to meet the expenses of the library.

There was a good attendance at the "Father Goose" entertainment Tuesday night and all who took part did nicely. The committee in charge went to considerable time and some expense to get up the entertainment and the Library Association surely appreciate their efforts. There was no large amount realized from the entertainment, but every small amount even helps to meet the expenses of the library.

There was a good attendance at the "Father Goose" entertainment Tuesday night and all who took part did nicely. The committee in charge went to considerable time and some expense to get up the entertainment and the Library Association surely appreciate their efforts. There was no large amount realized from the entertainment, but every small amount even helps to meet the expenses of the library.

There was a good attendance at the "Father Goose" entertainment Tuesday night and all who took part did nicely. The committee in charge went to considerable time and some expense to get up the entertainment and the Library Association surely appreciate their efforts. There was no large amount realized from the entertainment, but every small amount even helps to meet the expenses of the library.

There was a good attendance at the "Father Goose" entertainment Tuesday night and all who took part did nicely. The committee in charge went to considerable time and some expense to get up the entertainment and the Library Association surely appreciate their efforts. There was no large amount realized from the entertainment, but every small amount even helps to meet the expenses of the library.

There was a good attendance at the "Father Goose" entertainment Tuesday night and all who took part did nicely. The committee in charge went to considerable time and some expense to get up the entertainment and the Library Association surely appreciate their efforts. There was no large amount realized from the entertainment, but every small amount even helps to meet the expenses of the library.

JENNINGS LODGE

MRS. HUGH ROBERTS, Correspondent.

S. S. Attendance Is Showing Good Gains

JENNINGS LODGE, Oct. 12.—The Sunday school is rapidly gaining in attendance. Over 100 were present on Sunday. The increase is due to the untiring efforts of Dan Jones, the superintendent.

A number of the teachers are availing themselves of the opportunity of attending the State Sunday School convention in Portland this week. As the convention is to be more in the nature of an institute, and consists mainly of classes in which the various types of Sunday school work will be presented by experienced workers many facts will be gleaned by our teachers for the betterment of their classes.

Mrs. A. B. Smith and Mrs. Geo. Gardner go as delegates from this Sunday school.

Mrs. Carl Smith will give a paper on "The Folks We Teach" at the young peoples division of the afternoon session on Wednesday.

At 8:15 P. M. on Wednesday Mr. Theroux and his orchestra from here will furnish special music.

Busy Workers Enjoy Silver Tea Friday

JENNINGS LODGE, Oct. 12.—In response to the invitations sent out by the Busy Workers about 30 attended the silver tea on Friday which was given by the members of Mrs. A. B. Smith's Sunday school class held in the hall room of the church. Each member invited their mother and three additional guests, who came and enjoyed a literary and musical program, which was followed by the serving of cake and tea.

The proceeds which amounted to $6.48 will go to the Children's Farm Home at Corvallis. The members of the Busy Workers contributed to the program as follows: duet, Jean Robbins and Alma Boetger; recitation, Lila Rosenberry; recitation, Betty Hole; piano solo, Audrey Tillman; recitation, Jeanette Roberts; solo, Pearl Grady; recitation, Elsie Grundl and solo, Mrs. Arthur Smith.

The Oliver Grocery store which was sold recently to Albert Runyan was moved last week to a new location on railroad avenue near eleventh street. The store building is being enlarged and will be open in a few weeks under the new management.

Frances Janet, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Halley has been ill for the past week. Dr. Silverman, local physician, is in attendance.

Mrs. Belle Koellmeier of Mountain Road, spent the day Thursday in Willamette visiting relatives.

Mrs. Frank Halley made a business trip to Portland on Friday of last week.

Mrs. G. Prah and Mrs. Clem Dollar were in Portland Tuesday where they attended a meeting at the White Temple of the Women's Union of the Baptist churches of Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. Reinke and son Charles, Jr., were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Barbur of West Linn on Friday.

After spending the summer in Willamette Mr. Lunt left last Wednesday for Safford, California where he will spend the winter. While there he will visit relatives.

A dance was given Saturday night in the new Leisman hall, which proved a decided success. Another dance has been announced for next Saturday night.

Mrs. R. A. Junken visited at the home of Mrs. W. C. Elliot in Oregon City on Wednesday. Mrs. Elliot recently moved to Oregon City from Willamette.

Mrs. Georgia Fogel of Portland spent Thursday in Willamette as the guest of her sister, Mrs. A. Adamson. Mrs. Lunt moved last week into her new five room bungalow on fourteenth street, which was recently completed.

Mrs. G. Prah is preparing to move to Los Angeles, California, in the near future where she will join her husband who preceded her several months ago.

Mrs. Prah has purchased a house in Los Angeles and is preparing to build on her soon.

Philly Schnoerr and Gustave Schnoerr in company with the Zimmerman boys motored over the Columbia highway on Sunday.

Mrs. A. Adamson after being confined to her room for the past two months, suffering with blood poisoning, is able to be out again. Mrs. Adamson spent several weeks in the Oregon City hospital and her many friends are glad to have her among them again.

Willamette was well represented last Friday evening at the annual meeting and supper at the Baptist church in Oregon City. Those attending from here were Mr. and Mrs. Howard, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Buckles, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Milliken, Mr. and Mrs. Clem Dollar and children Gladys, Clem, Jr., and Laurence, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Gross, Mr. Fredrick and Gladys Fredericks.

Frank Halley of Portland spent the week-end in Willamette visiting his wife and daughter who are guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. Shipley.

A religious political meeting was held in the Willamette school gymnasium last Friday evening. Among the speakers of the evening were E. A. Leisman, Mr. Snidow, and L. L. Porter. This is the forerunner of several meetings which will be held before election.

Mr. and Mrs. Mike Peters motored to Hood River on Sunday where they spent the day.

Mrs. Alice Allen has purchased an eight room residence and three lots in Gladstone. She will take possession the latter part of the week.

Clem Dollar left early Saturday morning in company with Pearl and Cecil Turner of Oregon City on a fishing trip into the Tillamook country, the trip being made in the Turner machine. They returned home Sunday evening with a good "catch."

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Junken, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. A. Adamson, motored to Willamette last Sunday. The party was pleasantly spent and a picnic lunch enjoyed at the noon hour.

What is an undertaker. An undertaker is a man who follows the medical profession.

There was a good attendance at the "Father Goose" entertainment Tuesday night and all who took part did nicely. The committee in charge went to considerable time and some expense to get up the entertainment and the Library Association surely appreciate their efforts. There was no large amount realized from the entertainment, but every small amount even helps to meet the expenses of the library.

There was a good attendance at the "Father Goose" entertainment Tuesday night and all who took part did nicely. The committee in charge went to considerable time and some expense to get up the entertainment and the Library Association surely appreciate their efforts. There was no large amount realized from the entertainment, but every small amount even helps to meet the expenses of the library.

There was a good attendance at the "Father Goose" entertainment Tuesday night and all who took part did nicely. The committee in charge went to considerable time and some expense to get up the entertainment and the Library Association surely appreciate their efforts. There was no large amount realized from the entertainment, but every small amount even helps to meet the expenses of the library.

There was a good attendance at the "Father Goose" entertainment Tuesday night and all who took part did nicely. The committee in charge went to considerable time and some expense to get up the entertainment and the Library Association surely appreciate their efforts. There was no large amount realized from the entertainment, but every small amount even helps to meet the expenses of the library.

There was a good attendance at the "Father Goose" entertainment Tuesday night and all who took part did nicely. The committee in charge went to considerable time and some expense to get up the entertainment and the Library Association surely appreciate their efforts. There was no large amount realized from the entertainment, but every small amount even helps to meet the expenses of the library.

There was a good attendance at the "Father Goose" entertainment Tuesday night and all who took part did nicely. The committee in charge went to considerable time and some expense to get up the entertainment and the Library Association surely appreciate their efforts. There was no large amount realized from the entertainment, but every small amount even helps to meet the expenses of the library.

There was a good attendance at the "Father Goose" entertainment Tuesday night and all who took part did nicely. The committee in charge went to considerable time and some expense to get up the entertainment and the Library Association surely appreciate their efforts. There was no large amount realized from the entertainment, but every small amount even helps to meet the expenses of the library.

There was a good attendance at the "Father Goose" entertainment Tuesday night and all who took part did nicely. The committee in charge went to considerable time and some expense to get up the entertainment and the Library Association surely appreciate their efforts. There was no large amount realized from the entertainment, but every small amount even helps to meet the expenses of the library.

There was a good attendance at the "Father Goose" entertainment Tuesday night and all who took part did nicely. The committee in charge went to considerable time and some expense to get up the entertainment and the Library Association surely appreciate their efforts. There was no large amount realized from the entertainment, but every small amount even helps to meet the expenses of the library.

diameter, 14 inches in circumference and weight 6 pounds and 7 ounces. Miss Elizabeth Bruechert, who is one of the office help at the P. R. L. & P. Co. office, is having her vacation this week.

Rev. and Mrs. Reul Snider and little daughter arrived last week from Ohio to visit with their parents, Rev. and Mrs. A. B. Snider. Rev. Snider is a graduate of Harvard and has been engaged as pastor of the Akron church during the past year.

On Thursday Rev. A. B. Snider and wife accompanied the eastern visitors to Cherry Grove where they remained till Monday with the Clem Patton family.

A call has been extended to Rev. Herbert Crocker of Newberg to become pastor of the Grace Congregational church of Jennings Lodge. While the field seems very favorable to Rev. Crocker, no definite reply has been given by him to the official board of the church.

It has been announced that Rev. Crocker is to preach at the Grace church on Sunday, Oct. 15, at the morning service.

Mrs. Matilda Moore has moved into the home recently vacated by Mrs. Ingalls.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Roberts and son, Gerald, of Portland, were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clare Maple. W. E. Tripp, with the Capitol Journal at Salem came down for over the week end and accompanied his wife and baby home, who have visited here during the past week.

Geo. Pooler left Sunday night for Jefferson, where he is working on the paving of the highway.

Mrs. Ida Clohesy has been a welcome visitor at the Lodge during the week, visiting her brothers, Harry and E. P. Williams as well as her parents.

H. H. Emmons is a business visitor at Kalama and Kelso, Wash., making the trip in their new Willis Knight car.

Mrs. Kate Burton and Mrs. A. J. Robbins were luncheon guests on Wednesday of Mrs. Brushner, a Portland visitor, who is returning soon to her home in Waukesha, Wisconsin.

Mrs. Ella Maple was entertained on Tuesday at the home of her niece, Mrs. Ruth Wendenhall, when she gave a luncheon at her home in Portland.

A marriage license was issued to De Witt Campbell and Louise King of Portland on Saturday. The groom was a former resident, who has many friends here who wish him success on the sea of matrimony.

Miss Sarah Kaminski motored to Chehalis, Wash. during the week. Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Holden have decided to locate in Sellwood and is operating a mattress factory.

Leonard Spooner is at the North Ford on a deer hunting trip.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Woodbeck, Mr. and Mrs. S. Mosher, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Smith attended the annual dinner at the Baptist church on Friday evening. Covers were laid for 400 and a splendid time was reported by those attending.

Geo. Lepper passed away at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Grover Still on Oct. 5th. He was a visitor from Nebraska coming west for his health. The remains were shipped east to his old home. The deceased is survived by a wife, four daughters and two sons.

F. B. Madison, a well known realtor and Ernest Young have gone south on a hunting trip.

Mrs. C. D. Atchley has returned from Sellwood, where she has been for the past two months caring for a sick friend.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Hole, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Chapman and Mrs. M. Dion were among those who attended the dance Saturday given by the Oak Grove Community League at that place.

R. G. Thompson is building an addition to their home on Boardman Ave. and Blaine street.

Mrs. Edna Moore and Newcomb are to be joint hostesses for the regular meeting of the Guild on Wednesday. The members are to assemble at 1 P. M. and the afternoon will be spent with needle work. On Friday afternoon the work committee for the annual bazaar will meet at the home of Mrs. Jerry Madden. The afternoon is to be devoted to sewing for the bazaar.

Mr. and Mrs. John Jones, who have recently arrived from Spokane, to make Portland their home were Sunday visitors at the Dan Jones home.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Woodbeck and Mrs. Henry Woodbeck and little Barbara were guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. Adams on Sunday at their country home in the Colton district.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Smith enjoyed a visit from Mr. Smith's parents of Dallas, who motored here for over the week end.

F. W. Parker gave a very splendid sermon at the church during the morning service. Six little girls assisted with the music taking place of the regular choir.

MELDRUM NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. P. Harris of Portland were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Davidson.

Mrs. Gill of Stafford was a guest of Mrs. Bun on Friday.

Rev. and Mrs. H. G. Crocker of Newberg were callers on Meldrum friends Friday.

Miss Ruth Preice a student of a

Portland school, was a week-end guest of her sister, Miss Ruby Preice of Meldrum.

Mrs. Bun was badly frightened during the electrical storm of this week, which blew the fuse from her electric range.

The Harry Bond house was set on fire by the electrical storm but no damage was done.

Mrs. J. Blair Miller of Meldrum is enjoying a visit from her mother, Mrs. R. W. Havens and her sister, Mrs. Wm. Osborne of Elmira, New York, who made the trip this far by automobile.

Miss Edna Holman of Oregon City was a dinner guest Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Murray Bun.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Henderson and Mr. and Mrs. Gus Wamblade motored to Salem Sunday.

On Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hibbert gave a house warming. Places for 12 were laid for relatives only.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Meyers were dinner guests on Tuesday evening at the Zimmerman home in Sunnyside.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Roake of Castle-rock, Wash., were week end guests with Mrs. Geo. Gardner.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester French were callers at the Gardner home on Sunday.

Oscar Erickson returned on Sunday to Tacoma after the illness and death of his mother, Mrs. Victor Erickson.

Mrs. Geo. Gardner had a very enjoyable surprise lunch on Mrs. Harry Jones, of Portland, recently returned from England. Those attending were Mrs. John Crawford of Oregon City; Mrs. Grace Wentworth, Oregon City; Mrs. Minnie Stevens, Oregon City; Miss Jean White, Oak Grove; Mrs. Will Kinsley, Portland; Mrs. Nina Blanchard, Portland; Mrs. Todd, Portland; Mrs. Hitchman, Portland; Mrs. Bert Roake, Oregon City; Mrs. Mable Harlow, Milwaukie; Mrs. Harry Jones, Portland; Mrs. Geo. Gardner.

LOCAL BRIEFS

Miss Andrews Visits.—Miss Glenna Andrews, who has been spending the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Allen E. Frost and family, of Corvallis, returned to Oregon City on Monday. Mrs. Frost is a sister of Miss Andrews, who resided here before taking up her home in the college city. Mr. Frost is editor and publisher of the Benton County Courier. He was formerly connected with the Oregon City Courier.