

NEWS FROM ALL OVER THE COUNTY

Correspondence From All Over the County Telling of Improvements and Local Happenings During The Past Week—Your Subscription Will Receive Prompt Attention.

Mountain Road

MOUNTAIN ROAD, Oct. 23.—A surprise birthday party was given Mary Koellmeier Sunday afternoon. A small crowd of her friends gathered to help her celebrate her fifteenth birthday and the afternoon was spent in playing games, music and singing. A dainty luncheon was served to the following: Leonora and Henry Heinz, Marian Robinson, Bernice Hodge, Helen, Gladys and Marie Anderson, Kenneth and Marion Baker, Mrs. Baker, Mrs. Koellmeier, Mary and Hazel Koellmeier.

Miss Marion Wheeler and Lee Caldwell of Portland spent Sunday evening with the Hodge family.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Boeckman and children visited the Claus Peters family Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Cooile and children spent Sunday with the Fred Baker family.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Anderson visited relatives here last week-end.

Visitors at the Hodge home Thursday evening were: Dutch Weddle, Nora Heinz and the Robinson family. Miss Mary Koellmeier spent Saturday in Willamette visiting relatives and taking her music lesson.

Deward Hodge attended the dance in Willamette Saturday evening.

Helen and Gladys Anderson spent Saturday in Oregon City, where they had dental work done.

Pete's Mountain

PETES MOUNTAIN, Oct. 23.—Mrs. Knichrehm of Portland visited with her son Edward one day last week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Parqueson have been helping L. Koellmeier of Mountain Road with his potato harvest.

Mrs. John Vlahos visited Mrs. Hellberg Thursday afternoon.

Frank Kaiser went to Willamette Thursday.

Godlieb Notdurft has the foundation for his new home in place. He will start on the frame work this week.

Mrs. M. Rypcynski was in town on business Saturday.

A budget meeting was held at the new school house Saturday afternoon. Quite a number of our young folks attended the dance at Willamette Saturday evening.

Agnes Bernert spent the week-end with her sister, Mrs. Marie Schmitt in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Hellberg and children and Frank Lambert spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Monner of Holcomb.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Kaiser of Washington and Marguerite Kaiser of Willamette spent Sunday at the Frank Kaiser home.

Kelso

KELSO, Oct. 24.—The entertainment and basket social given by the Woman's Club Saturday evening was a splendid success. The nice sum of $70.25 was taken in from the sale of baskets and coffee and cake. This sum nicely covers the cost of painting the interior of the school rooms for which purpose it was raised. Harry Bickford made a most efficient auctioneer of baskets. Mrs. E. Herz, president of the club was in charge of the program, which consisted of the following numbers: played by Miss Veretti's pupils, song by Mrs. Baumback's pupils, story by Dorothea Gilbert, solo by Miss Margaret Miller, piano solos by Miss Sibyl Lindell and Dorothy Jonsrud, readings by Miss Jean Wheeler, Mrs. R. Jonsrud and Miss Vaeretti and a song by a group of girls. Games were also enjoyed.

Mrs. Mary Dietl of Portland spent the week-end with her daughter, Mrs. E. Herz. She was accompanied by her grand-daughter, Gretchen Larsen, and both took in the Kelso entertainment Saturday night.

Eunice Jonsrud brought home the following Reed students as week-end guests, the Misses Jean Wheeler, Alice Lindell and Dorothea Gilbert.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis and children and Mr. and Mrs. Twining of Portland visited Miss Walling Sunday afternoon.

The Woman's Club met with Mrs. Robert Jonsrud on Thursday, October 26.

Anna Wilson was a week-end guest of Gertrude and Florence Kilgel.

Dodge

DODGE, Oct. 23.—Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Davis of Garfield spent the week-end with the W. E. Myers' family.

While working for the P. R. L. & P. Mr. Swerzer had the misfortune to fall and hurt himself quite badly. He is now in a Portland hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Horner and family and Ross B. Ten Eyck made a trip to Oregon City on Saturday.

M. Pederson is spending a few days in Portland.

The W. T. Kaake family and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Jubb motored to Oregon City on Sunday afternoon.

Jack Watson from Viola visited at the John Keller home on Sunday.

Jack Marrs from Oregon City spent Friday with his brother, J. W. Marrs, and family.

Mrs. Jachimsen and children visited at the W. E. Myers' home on Sunday.

Eagle Creek

EAGLE CREEK, Oct. 24.—Mrs. Ethel Lansdowne, the school supervisor, was out visiting the school last Thursday.

Mrs. R. B. Gibson was calling on Mrs. Ray Woodie Friday.

Kernit Bestul returned home last week from Yakima where he had gone to pick apples.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Douglass and children were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Benson Sunday afternoon.

Last Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. Ray Woodie and son, Leslie, were completely surprised by a crowd of the neighbors coming and spending the evening with them in honor of Mrs. Woodie's birthday. All spent a pleasant evening and about midnight a delicious luncheon, consisting of coffee, sandwiches, potato salad, pickles, pie and cake was served, when soon after all departed for their homes.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Duns, and Mr. and Mrs. N. Kirchem and children were guests at the home of Walter Douglass Sunday.

The road between the school house corner and Will Douglass' has been graveled.

Logan

LOGAN, Oct. 25.—Mr. and Mrs. John Schuettel of Logan celebrated their fiftieth wedding anniversary at their home here Sunday, October 22, 1922, with a family reunion at which more than fifty were gathered and at which four generations were represented. Those who attended the reunion were: Mrs. Rosia Gallagher and sons, of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. John Boss and family of Logan; Mr. and Mrs. Christ Malae and family of Milwaukee; Mr. and Mrs. Henry Tschopp and family of Logan; Mrs. Lydia Schiappi and family of Portland; Daniel Malae and family of Hood River, Ore.; Mr. and Mrs. Gottfried Strahm and family of Logan; Mr. and Mrs. O. V. Bryan and daughter of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Moser and family of Logan; Mr. and Mrs. John Schuettel of Logan.

Mr. and Mrs. Schuettel were emigrants of Switzerland; the latter (Miss Rosina Bigler) coming over in 1859, and Mr. Schuettel two years later. They were united in marriage in Schanensee, Ohio, October 25, 1872. Two years later they went to Missouri where they lived until 1880, where they started for Oregon, crossing the plains in an emigrant train. They reached Portland, Oregon, July 9, 1880, and settled in Logan, Clackamas county. With the exception of seventeen years, which were passed in Portland and where they have lived at Logan since their arrival in Oregon.

During their union there were seven daughters born, five of whom are living.

Meadowbrook Items

MEADOWBROOK, Oct. 25.—Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Jones and son, Hugh Thomas, made a business trip to Portland Saturday and visited friends while there.

Elenora and Lillie Matson started to high school at Molalla, Tuesday. They are staying with Mrs. Geo. Case.

Several from here attended the Odd Fellows' convention at Canby Saturday.

Mr. Brown and family of Bolton have recently moved into our neighborhood.

Chas. Oglesby and Walter Ball returned from Tillamook this week. They brought a wagon load of salmon back with them.

Mr. and Mrs. Jess Young and daughter, visited relatives in Portland Sunday.

Mr. Matson left last week for Red Lodge, Montana, where he will be employed in a coal mine.

The P. O. Dunrud family spent Sunday at the Dave Ackerson home, near Needy.

Several from here attended the farewell party Sunday on the Rev. Renhard family, who are leaving November 1 for Hoquiam, Wash., where Rev. Renhard has been called to take charge of the two congregations of Aberdeen and Hoquiam.

Lad Hill Items

LAD HILL, Oct. 24.—Clair Sovey went to Hood River last week to pick apples.

Reuben Kramien returned from Dundee last Wednesday where he has been working.

Mrs. Percy Kiser is visiting his week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Briston on Parrot Mountain.

Miss Martha Struve has returned home Friday from a two weeks visit in Portland.

Mrs. Frank Crites of Newberg is visiting this week with her sister, Mrs. Ellis Parrott and brother, Bruce Case.

W. P. Graham and Chester Kiser drove out from Tillamook last Friday with a load of salmon which they sold out to the neighbors. They spent the night at Frank Kisers and returned to Tillamook Saturday.

Mrs. C. H. Ives was visiting Mrs. Bruce Case Tuesday afternoon.

A Halloween party will be given at the Club House Saturday evening, October 28. Every one welcome.

Several of Lad Hill folks attended the dance at Rex Saturday evening and report a good time. Those from Lad Hill were Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Parrott, Mr. and Mrs. Bert LaPore, Mr. and Mrs. Don Parrott, Mr. and Mrs. Lips, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kiser, Mr. Fred Parrott, Mr. and Mrs. Vern Phil and Mrs. Bruce Case, Misses Gladys and Alice St. Clair and Roe Heater and Mrs. Lizzie Parrott from Dundee.

Oscar Olson of Portland visited four days last week with Kramien Brothers.

Gus Kramien left Sunday morning for Portland to spend a few days with his daughters, Mrs. Carl Carlson.

Church services were well attended Sunday at the Club House, meetings will continue every two weeks.

C. Struve and family motored to Portland Sunday to spend the day with friends.

George Smith and family and Will Smith and family and Mr. and Mrs. Tom Parrish and son, Earl, of Ferriswood and Mrs. Stewart Walker and son, Raymond of Salem, were dinner guests at the home of Jack Smith Sunday.

A Japanese has a contract to get 200 pilings to ship to China. He is cutting them off Charlie Sellwood's place, and has several men with their teams helping to get them in the river where they will be rafted to Portland and loaded on ships from there.

Scott Parrott is getting some piling out on the Andy Johnson place.

Mrs. Lizzie Parrott of Dundee was visiting relatives here last week.

Bissel

BISSELL, Oct. 23.—Ouis Weisenfluh was transacting business in Portland last Saturday.

Chas. Mathews, wife and son of Portland, spent Saturday night on their farm at Bissel.

Irene and Otto Paulsen motored to Portland last Sunday returning the same day.

Jake Mueller and wife and children of Portland visited the former's sister, Mrs. Peter Ruhl, last Sunday.

Willamette News

Mrs. Fred Zimmerman and daughter, Dorothy LaFlemme visited at Damascus the last of last week as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ora Elsie.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Florence of Portland were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Porter on Tuesday of last week. Mr. Florence is an uncle of Mrs. Porter.

Mr. and Mrs. Tiedeman have moved from Willamette to Clatskanie where they will make their home. Mr. and Mrs. Tiedeman spent the summer visiting relatives in Clatskanie and decided to move to be near their sons, whose homes are near that city.

Mrs. Amy Berle and Mrs. Harry Greaves spent the afternoon at the city library in Oregon City last Wednesday.

Mrs. Andy Fromong had as her dinner guests at her home last Tuesday evening, Miss Lamb and Miss Shaffer, high school instructors in the West Linn High School.

Harold Greaves was ill for a few days last week and was out of school.

Mrs. Wilkenson and small son of Tacoma, Wash., visited at the home of the former's mother, Mrs. Hall several days last week.

Among the real estate transfers reported by the Clem Dollar real estate agency of Willamette for the past week was the sale of the property consisting of four lots and residence owned by Mr. Gottberg and sold to Mr. and Mrs. Lee Porter. This property is located near the school house on Maple Avenue and is considered one of the sightliest locations in Willamette.

Mrs. J. L. Gary entertained a few of her friends in an informal manner at her home last Tuesday afternoon. The ladies brought their sewing and enjoyed a social afternoon.

Dr. and Mrs. Jos. Silverman motored to Portland on Saturday of last week and spent the day shopping.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Davidson and daughter of Portland were the guests of Mrs. J. A. Reams, Sr., on Sunday. Mrs. Davidson is a granddaughter of Mrs. Ream and remembered by her friends as Bessie Ream.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Cox and children Earl and Arda Cox, visited relatives in St. Johns on Sunday of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. N. O. Whitney entertained at dinner on Sunday of last week Mrs. A. C. Klemson and children and Mrs. Lewis.

Mrs. H. Leiseman, Mrs. J. Thornberry and Mrs. J. A. Reams, Sr., attended a silver tea given at the Congregational church in Oregon City on Wednesday, October 18.

Mrs. Cox was pleasantly surprised at her home Wednesday evening, October 18, when several of her friends from Oswego arrived unexpectedly reminding her of her birthday anniversary. The evening was spent with music and cards and refreshments were served to the guests, who were Mr. and Mrs. William Boyd, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lehman, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Whitte all of Oswego and Miss Elsie Jucken of Willamette.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Boekman and family and Mrs. Alma Clutter of Willamette were entertained at dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Rider at their home Friday evening.

Either Moser of Stafford spent the week-end with his aunt, Mrs. F. Frederici last week while attending teachers' institute in Oregon City.

Mrs. Lucy Mathers, who has been spending several weeks visiting with relatives in Aberdeen, Wash., returned home last Wednesday.

A silver tea for the Willamette Methodist church was given at the home of Mrs. H. Leiseman on Thursday afternoon of last week. The afternoon was spent sewing on quilts for the ladies aid society. About five o'clock delicious refreshments were served to the guests, who were Mrs. Amy Berle, Mrs. Ida Adamson, Mrs. Zimmerman, Mrs. Davis, Denton, Mrs. H. Colson, Mrs. Skinner, Mrs. C. Bierner, Mrs. Jucken, Mrs. Martin, Mrs. Chas. Fromong, Mrs. Carpenter, Mrs. Robert Young, Mrs. Joe Thornberry, Mrs. M. Peter, Mrs. Lucy Mathers, Mrs. John Casey, Mrs. Joe Schauble, Mrs. Chas. Ridder, Mrs. Silverman, Mrs. J. A. Reams, Sr., Mrs. Barnes, Mrs. Sutton, Mrs. Chas. Beale, Mrs. Wm. Reams, Mrs. E. Buckle, Mrs. W. W. Davis, Mrs. Blossom, Mrs. C. B. Willson, Mrs. John Cox, Mrs. H. D. Skinner, Mrs. Frank Shipley, Mrs. John Rauch, Mrs. J. Baty, Mrs. A. Fromong, Mrs. E. Leiseman, Mrs. J. L. Gary, Gladys Baker, Mrs. N. O. Whitney, Mrs. J. A. Ream, Jr., Mrs. Claud Peery. The sum of $6.50 was contributed for the treasury of the Ladies Aid Society.

Henry Saffron, whose home is in Tualatin Meadows was a guest at the home of F. Frederici last Thursday evening.

Miss Lora Petter of Snohomish, Wash., spent last week in Willamette visiting relatives.

Mrs. Woods and Mrs. Moorty were dinner guests of Mrs. Ed Buckles, Sr., on Sunday of last week.

Mrs. R. J. Young and Miss Leota Young, former residents of Willamette were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Young the latter part of last week.

Mrs. Clem Dollar has been busy for the past few days taking the school census.

Miss Mary Shannon, of Oregon City, spent the week-end visiting at the home of Thelma DeBok.

Mrs. Bartholomew and family moved the first of the week from the Tremaine house on fourth avenue they have been occupying for the summer months to their home near Willamette.

Mrs. William Elligsen of Fropond visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Elligsen last Saturday.

Mrs. Anna Dollar, Mrs. A. Fromong, and Florence Fromong were dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hammerley in Bolton on Sunday.

Mrs. C. O. Williams has as her guest this week, her brother Lloyd Baysinger of McMinnville.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Davis and children, and Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Gary and children and Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Shadle and family formed a motoring party on Sunday afternoon and enjoyed a drive to Newberg.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Shipley, Audrey Shipley and Garrett Peters visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Yinger, of Petes Mountain on Sunday afternoon.

A social, which was very much enjoyed by those present, was given at the Willamette Methodist church on Saturday evening, October 21. The young ladies brought baskets which were auctioned off to the highest bidder, and cake, pie, coffee and candy were also sold. The proceeds netted $13.25 for the church fund. The following program was given, each number receiving its share of applause: Song, "Where the West Begins" by Naomi Barnes, Alberta Barnes, Annie Myers, and Anna Matlaski; reading, Jean Bradley; dialogue, "Seeing a Ghost," Leatha Shadle, Alice Woods, Jeanette Waldron; piano solo, Frances Waldron; reading, Lydia Gertrude Greaves. At the present time the sum of $50.00 is being raised by this church for the mission field.

Mr. and Mrs. John Rauch and children Jack, Clara and Lynn, accompanied by Mrs. Robert Young and children, Lucille and Lillian, motored to Salem Sunday where a picnic lunch was enjoyed.

On Thursday evening of last week Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Smith of Oregon City were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Young.

On Sunday evening, October 29, J. L. Gary will give an interesting address in the Methodist church, his subject being "Religious Education." There will be no sermon by Rev. Shaffer as the time will be given to Mr. Gary.

Mrs. H. Leiseman entertained at dinner on Sunday of last week, her guests being Mr. and Mrs. Claus Peters and Miss Boekman of Fropond.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Willson and family motored to Brownsview on Saturday of last week and visited relatives until Sunday evening.

On Tuesday morning the road between Willamette and Oregon City was closed to all vehicle traffic. The grading was done early in the fall and is now ready for the concrete pavement to be laid. There are two short gaps in the road between the two cities.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Fromong and family moved on Tuesday from the Fromong acreage near Willamette to Portland where Mr. Fromong is employed.

Lloyd Mathers left Willamette last Sunday for Prescott, Oregon, where he will probably remain for the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Toedtermeier visited Mr. and Mrs. Fred Baker in Mountain Road last Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Grindeland returned last week after spending several weeks visiting relatives in the middle western states.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Bierner had as their guest over the week-end, Mrs. Bierner's brother, Arthur Setje, of Stafford.

Mrs. Pollack and Mrs. Gorley, the latter a former resident of Willamette visited relatives here Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Shipley, Mr. Corrigan and F. Halley of Portland, visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Shipley on Sunday. In the afternoon the men enjoyed a short hunting trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Young and daughter, Muriel, of Jennings Lodge, and Mrs. R. J. Young and Leota Young of Portland were entertained at dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Young last Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Runyan have rented their property on Maple Avenue to Mr. and Mrs. Claud Peery, who will take possession about November 1st.

Mrs. Dale Skinner and children, Howard and Jean left Sunday for a week's visit with relatives in Sheridan, Ore.

Sid Brown is coaching the grammar school football team and much interest is being shown among the pupils.

Elmer McArthur and his bride of New Era were guests at the home of R. A. McArthur on Monday of last week. While here they were given a pleasant surprise by having friends serenade them.

On Sunday of last week Mrs. M. J. Brown was a guest of friends in Mel drum.

Mrs. John Casey and daughter, Mary Jane, accompanied by Mrs. Lucy Mathers were guests at the home of J. A. Brock and family of Parkplace last Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Jucken and family were dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Elliot last Sunday.

Mrs. A. P. Tuor entertained Miss Ruth Beach of Portland at her home several days last week.

Mrs. Reid was given a happy surprise party last Sunday in honor of her birthday anniversary. The occasion was also a pleasure to Whitney Rankins, a relative of Mrs. Reid's whose birthday anniversary occurred on the same date. At noon dinner was served and a social time enjoyed in the afternoon. Those enjoying the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. Reid and grandson, Elmer Evans, Mr. and Mrs. Whitney Rankins and daughter, Jean.

Mr. Kisor of Newport visited at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Ida Adamson on Monday.

Bert McArthur left Willamette on Tuesday morning for Braleish, Calif., where he will remain for several months.

Mrs. George Fogel of Portland visited her sister, Mrs. Albert Adamson the first of the week.

A debate which was given at the Willamette city hall between J. E. Hedges and C. Schuebel of Oregon City was very well attended.

Mr. and Mrs. Meeks moved last week from their home on sixth avenue to the Beckman home at 15th and Hoot streets.

Mr. and Mrs. Schnoerr and Mrs. H. Leiseman were Portland visitors on Sunday evening.

Mrs. W. Baysinger and son, Leonard, of McMinnville, are visiting relatives in Willamette this week. The trip was made in Leonard's car. Moehneke was given a party in honor of his 9th birthday anniversary. The guests were invited for all day and at the noon hour dinner was served. The table was decorated in pink and white and a large cake with pink and white candles delighted the host and his small guests. Those enjoying Mrs. Moehneke's hospitality were Mrs. Oliver Johnson and children, Helen, Gertrude Lawrence and Robert, Mrs. Clyde Bigley and children, Clyde Jr., Stanley, and Marcella, Billy, Jim, and Vernon Kinney, Marion Stelts, and Miss Freda Volpp of Portland.

On Friday, the 27th, the school is giving a pie and cake social to which all are invited. An interesting program is being prepared and our aim is to purchase basket ball suits for the boys.

Last week we had a number of visitors from West Linn Union High school. Those who were exempted from their examinations spent a good deal of time visiting former teachers and schoolmates.

Mr. and Mrs. McLean and children, Jean, Margaret, and Robert accompanied by Mrs. W. K. Sutton and son, Robert, motored to Gresham Sunday in the McLean car.

Mrs. M. E. Wallis of Portland visited at the home of her son, H. E. Wallis several days last week.

Mr. and Mrs. William Farlein of West Linn visited at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Farlein Sunday. Mrs. Farlein was formerly Miss Nettie Andrus of West Linn.

The pulpit of the Willamette Methodist church was ably filled by Mr. J. L. Gary last Sunday morning.

The boys of the Willamette school have organized a football team, which played the Gladstone eleven last Friday.

The girls have organized a basketball team which, with Miss Shannon as coach.

We are this week honored with visitors from the McMinnville school, also Mrs. Fuge, who was formerly a teacher in the Willamette school.

On Sunday, October 22, Howard Moehne, son of Mr. and Mrs. August Moehne, visited with Mrs. R. A. Jucken entertained the color bearers of the Women's Relief Corps at a dainty luncheon at her home on twelfth street. The table was centered with pink roses and other fall flowers were artistically arranged about the rooms. Covers were laid for Mrs. Henry Henningsen, Mrs. Mattie Hadley, Mrs. Ida Adamson and the hostess. Mrs. Jucken is also a color bearer.

With the opening of hunting season for the Chinese and native pheasant on October 15 several hunters were seen around Willamette on Sunday. Pheasants seem to be plentiful this year and several motorists have killed the birds from their cars near the city limits.

Mrs. Alice Allen moved from Willamette on Thursday of last week to her new home on Dartmouth street in Gladstone. She is planning to make many improvements on her home in the near future.

The children have been enjoying the ideal weather during their three day holiday, during the Clackamas county teachers' institute. Several children have ponies and others are renting them and horseback riding is the popular sport in Willamette this fall.

Major Welch and Ella Welch were Sunday guests at the home of Mrs. G. Prahl.

The Fraternal Brotherhood Lodge of Willamette which was organized here about a year ago has put on a membership campaign. Mrs. Amy Berle and Mrs. Perry Barnes are rival captains and much interest is being shown. The losing team will entertain the other winners at a supper the date of which will be decided at a later date.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Buckles, Jr., moved the first of the week into their residence on thirteenth street recently purchased from Mrs. Alice Allen.

Grandpa Hill, who has been visiting in Portland for several weeks returned home last week.

Mr. and Mrs. John Rauch and children, Clara and Linn, motored to Oswego Sunday and spent the day visiting Mr. and Mrs. Joe Nemic former residents of Willamette.

Mrs. Joe Schauble spent the day last Tuesday with her sister, Mrs. S. Miller in Sellwood Gardens.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard have taken a ten-year lease on the Cora Hunt property. They moved the latter part of last week.

Beulah Snidow, Elva Snidow, Annette Adcock and Miss Harriet Rock of Oregon City formed a merry party last Wednesday evening and attended the Whitney Boy's chorus at the Portland Auditorium.

Miss Una Hyatt entertained a number of her friends at a "Slumber Party" at her home last Friday evening. After an evening spent playing games and a night of slumber Miss Una served breakfast to her guests who were Misses Hazel Hudson, Elsie Jucken, Ardis Cox, Ellen McArthur, Ruth Jucken, and Bernetta Strong.

Miss Helen Wallis spent the three days of vacation last week visiting relatives in Portland.

Lloyd Jucken and Iva Richardson of Portland spent Saturday visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Jucken.

Florence Twombly of Portland spent the week-end in Willamette visiting her cousin Mamie Wallis.

On Friday evening of last week the Parent-Teachers association entertained the teachers of the Willamette grammar school in the school gymnasium. A program was given and after a social evening refreshments were served.

The dance given in the Leiseman hall on Saturday evening was well attended. The music was furnished by an orchestra from Oregon City. Another dance is scheduled for next Saturday evening.

Russell Beal, who is attending school near Newberg, spent Saturday and Sunday in Willamette visiting his mother and brothers.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Jucken, Clifford and Elsie Jucken, accompanied by Mrs. A. Adamson motored to Gresham last Sunday.

A basket social, to which everyone is cordially invited, will be given under the auspices of the Sunday school at the Willamette Methodist church next Saturday evening. The ladies and girls are asked to bring baskets, also pies and cakes. The proceeds of the sale will be applied on the church piano.

The Progressive club, which was organized last winter with Chas. Ridder as president will begin soon to hold regular meetings which will be announced later. The object of the club is to boost for the west side and we believe much good has been accomplished as the west side and especially Willamette is growing rapidly.

After the regular meeting of the W. O. W. lodge last Wednesday evening a social evening was enjoyed and pumpkin pie and cider was served.

On Friday several local members attended the Oregon City lodge.

Ruth Miller, Mamie Wallis, Mildred McKilligan, Bertha McKilligan and Beulah Snidow hiked to Oswego lake last Friday morning. After rowing on the lake a "weenie" roast evening.

Last Monday Miss Dora Currin was operated upon for appendicitis in one of the Portland hospitals. She is getting along nicely.

R. S. Coop was seen on our streets one day last week, having returned from Gresham where he has been confined in a hospital on account of a broken leg. He gets around very well on crutches and is glad to be home again.

A Portland paper reported an accident to Howard Glens, son of Walter Glens and formerly of Estacada. The accident happened last Wednesday in front of their home in Portland when he was run over by an automobile. He was unconscious for a short time but seemed to be all right the next day.

A man by the name of Pemberton, who was working in the Hurley-Mason camp above Faraday, had his leg broken last Sunday when a speeder on which he was riding was thrown off the track. Dr. Rhodes gave first aid and the man was then taken to Portland.

Mac Dale, who is attending dental college in Portland, was a week-end visitor at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Dale.

Mrs. Viola Douglass visited Portland last Thursday.

Mrs. Mabelle Carlton, a niece of A. E. Sparks, and her son Raymond, arrived last Thursday evening from Oakland, Cal. They remained until Sunday evening when they left for Portland where the boy is to attend school and his mother will locate there.

Mrs. Gertrude G. Hutton, formerly of Estacada, passed away in Portland last Friday morning, after a short illness. Mrs. Hutton was the sister of Walter Glens, a former resident of this place and where the deceased made her home for several years. She was familiarly known as "Bobbie".

Grin before her marriage, died—At her home in Currinsville, October 19, 1922. Mrs. Elizabeth Amann, aged 57 years, 10 months and 24 days. Deceased has been a resident of Currinsville for the past ten years, coming from Topeka, Kansas. She is survived by five children, C. D., L. K. and S. Amann of Currinsville, W. J. Amann of Jefferson, Ore., and Mrs. Zwirmer of George. Funeral services were held Saturday afternoon in the Gates chapel, Rev. A. Demoy officiating, and the interment was made in the I. O. O. F. cemetery under the direction of Joseph Gates of Estacada.

C. F. Brown was in Oregon City last Sunday attending the ceremony of laying the corner stone of the I. O. O. F. temple.

Clyde Ecker left for Portland Sunday night where he will remain for a short time.

Mrs. Rex Ludlow returned Friday from a two week's visit with Portland relatives.

The local W. C. T. U. ladies are making arrangements to give an entertainment and bazaar along with December 12. They will have many articles to sell, especially appropriate for Christmas presents. The proceeds of the affair are to go to the Children's Farm Home, which is being built by the W. C. T. U. women. Everybody knows that the work has begun and as this association at Estacada was given a certain quota of the amount to be raised, the women find they are considerably behind and will have this bazaar and entertainment for the purpose of raising their quota. It is to be called a "Mother Goose Affair", more of which