Willamette

F. Frederici and Mr. Franzel left last Wednesday morning on a duck-hunting trip into the Tillamook country.

A silver tea for the benefit of the Congregational church of Oregon City was given at the home of Mrs. H. Leisman on Wednesday afternoon. The afternoon was spent in a social manner, the ladies enjoying sewing. About four o'clock refreshments were served to the following: Mrs. Haskell, Mrs. Mark, Mrs. Pearl, Mrs. H. C. Stephens, Mrs. C. D. Latourette, Mrs. C. H. Caufield, Mrs. Loughery, Mrs. DeBok, Mrs. Glen Epler, Mrs. J. A. Ream, Jr., and son, Kenneth, Mrs. Thornberry, Mrs. J. A. Ream, Sr., Miss Winnie DeBok, Mrs. W. A. White, Mrs. Johnson, Mrs. Osborne, Mrs. Porter, Mrs. Emory Ream and the hostess, Mrs. H. Leisman.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Buckles and son of Willamette were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Jonnson at their home in Holly Gardens on Friday of last week. Mr. and Mrs. Johnson recently moved from Willamette to Holly Gardens.

Hallowe'en was appropriately observed in Willamette, spooks, goblins and witches being seen on their mysterious errands around town. Some mischief resulted but no serious harm was done. Several gates were missing the following morning and several automobiles were moved to a different location, also a few fences were placed across the roads but it was all accepted in the spirit of fun.

One of the largest parties of the season was given in the school gymnasium on Thursday evening, October 26, the hostesses being the Misses Naomi Miller and Verna Peter. Games were played, the Hallowe'en spirit being observed throughout the evening which caused much merriment. At a late hour delicious refreshments were served to the following guests Hilda Campbell, Clara Kinney, Letha Shadle, Jeanette Waldron, Emily Hoover, Esther Lindquist, Mildred DeNeui, Alice Woods, Josephine Sutton, Florence Jones, Jessie Farlein, Nila Farlien, Naomi Barnes, Ethel Emmerson, William Morgan, Jacob Spatz, Frank Truit, Paul Moles, John Novlanski, Philip Tuor, Gerald Baty, B. Decker, Ernest Wallis, Willard Brady, Chester Carpenter, Gordon Tuor, Preston Overton, Ted Hoover, James Patterson, Delmer DeNeui, Seldon Porter, Joseph Novlanski, Henry Hoover, Arthur Hagen, James Farlein, Marshal Jones, Lloyd Baysinger and the chaperones Thelma DeBok, Mary Shannon, and Frances Waldron.

Mr. and Mrs. White of McMinnville have rented the Bevins place on Twelfth street recently vacated by Mr. and Mrs. Leo Larsen.

Mr. and Mrs. George Batdorf and daughter, Marian, were Portland visitors on Friday of last week.

Mrs. Carl Khale of Stafford was in Willamette on Friday afternoon where she visited her father, Mr. Balzimer. She also visited friends.

The members of the Junior Choir were given a Hallowe'en party at the home of their instructor, Miss Florence Fromong, on Tuesday evening. The party was in the form of a masquerade and all the members were attired as ghosts. The lights were ded and ghost stories were told and Hallowe'en games which had been arranged were played. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Fromong and the hostess to the guests who were Ethel Irish, Sonora Brown, Eunice Morrell, Gladys Mootry, Lucille Emmerson, Helen Smith, Mary Laurs, Anna Matlaski, Annie Myers, Dorothy DeBok, Doris Andrus, Lula Babcock, Jean McLean, Brownie Matlaski, Alice Beardsley, Annie Lours, Gladys Dollar, Emily Hoover, and Naomi Barnes.

Earl Mootry, who is attending Willamette University, spent the week-end in Willamette visiting at the home of his parents.

Mrs. Grace Cantrill and daughter, Vesta, of Vancouver, visited at the home of the former's parents Mr. and Mrs. Marion Bennett, last week.

The local branch of the Fraternal Brotherhood lodge wave a large ball in the Leisman hall last Tuesday evening. Most of those attending came in masquerade costume and after dancing for a number of times the following prizes were given: "George Washington", Mrs. Lee Porter and "Martha Washington", Mrs. Conrad Zimmerman; "The Gold Dust Twins" Frances Carpenter and Maxine Tuor; "Mr. Jiggs", C. B. Willson, "Maggie Jiggs", Mrs. M. J. Brown. Harry Shipley was also awarded a prize for his clever costume. The ball was attended by many lodge members from Oregon City and also a number of people came from Stafford and Frogpond.

Mrs. John Kaiser of Petes Mountain was a guest at the home of her niece, Mrs. Conrad Zimmerman last Sunday.

Mrs. Frank Shipley and Mrs. John Rauch spent Friday shopping in Portland.

The work of paving the gap in the road between Oregon City and Willamette is progressing rapidly the last few days. We hope for a few days more of good weather and the pavement will all be laid and the road can be opened for traffic by the time the new bridge between Oregon City and West Linn is completed. Many people expect the new bridge to be opened for traffic by December 15.

Homer Beals, who has been employed by the Western Union as messenger boy for the past year, has accepted a position in the Doolittle Grocery Store in Oregon City.

Mr. and Mrs. William Kaiser, who are making their home near Vancouver for the winter spent the week-end in Willamette visiting relatives.

Herbert DeBok, returned home Friday evening from Condon, where he has been employed for the past eight months.

The Willamette Progressive Club held their first meeting of the season last Monday evening. Judge Cross was the speaker of the evening.

A miscellaneous shower was given at the home of Mrs. E. A. Leisman last Thursday evening in honor of Lorraine Martin of Oregon City, who will become the bride of Lloyd Mathers within a few weeks. Mr. Mathers, who has made Willamette his home for several years, has purchased a home in Prescott, Oregon, where the young couple will make their home. Miss Martin was the recipient of many useful and pretty gifts from her friends. The evening was thoroughly enjoyed and delicious refreshmnts were served in cafeteria style. Those present were Mrs. Riley Denton, Mrs. Frank Shipley, Mrs. J. A. Ream, Jr., Mrs. Emory Ream, Mrs. N. O. Whitney, Mrs. Harold Leighton, Mrs. A. P. Tuor, Mrs. A. B. Buckles, Jr., Mrs. Walter Larsen, Mrs H. Peter, Mrs. Harold White, Mrs. H. Leisman, Mrs. Conrad Zimmerman, Mrs. Martin, Mrs. John Casey, Mrs. Clem Dollar, Mrs. Lucy Mathers, Mrs. Lee Porter, Misses Gladys Baker, Lois Martin, Gladys Fredericks, Rosena Elligsen, Thelma DeBok, Mary Leisman and the honored guest, Lorraine Martin.

The girls of the Willamette school have organized two basket ball teams with Miss Mary Shannon as coach. The line-up on the first team is as follows: center, Alice Woods; running center, Esther Lindquist; forwards, Jeanette Waldron and Hazel King; guards, Nila Farlein and Clara Kanney. The girls chosen for the second line-up follows: center, Josephine Sutton; running center, Naomi Miller; forwards, Jessie Farlein, Mildred DeNeui; guards, Emily Hoover, and Ethel Emmerson. A great deal of interest and enthusiasm is being shown in the school in all kinds of athletics.

Pearl Turner of Oregon City was a guest of Clem Dollar at his home on Sunday afternoon.

The West Linn city council has chosen the following to serve on the city election board; judges, Gladys Baker and Clara Batdorf; clerks, Mrs. Amy Bersie, Mrs. Becker and Mrs. Williams.

Mrs. George Elligsen and daughter, Miss Rosena, spent the day in Portland.

Mrs. Ida Adamson was given a surprise party last Thursday afternoon in honor of her birthday anniversary. The afternoon was spent in a social manner, Mrs. Walter Bennett of Oregon City favored the guests with several readings. Mrs. Adamson was given a jardiniere in remembrance of her birthday anniversary. About four o'clock refreshments were served to the guests, who were Mrs. Henningsen, Mrs. J. W. Saunders, Mrs. Walter Bennett, Mrs. M. A. Hadley, of Oregon City and Mrs. Viola Fromong, Mrs. G. H. Peter, Mrs. H. Leisman, Mrs. H. Wallis, Mrs. J. Rauch, Mrs. George Batdorf, Mrs. M. Bennett, Mrs. Robert Young, Mrs. Lee Porter, Mrs. R. F. Junkens, Mrs. Clem Dollar.

Grandma Gross moved into her new six room house on Sixth avenue the first of the week.

The Willamette football eleven played the Oswego eleven on the West Linn field on Friday afternoon. The score was 58 to 0 in favor of Willamette. Most of the Willamette pupils hiked from Willamette to the game and home again chaperoned by their teachers.

Willamette was well represented at the football game at Gresham last Friday afternoon. All declared it was a good game and was much enjoyed.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Toedtermeier are rejoicing over the arrival of their first son at the Oregon City hospital on Sunday, November 4. Ruby Dorothy, the little daughter, is staying at the home of Mrs. Van Bibber.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Gary entertained Rev. and Mrs. Shaffer and family of Portland at dinner at their home on Sunday.

Several ladies from Willamette attended the lecture by ex-nun Lucretia in Oregon City on Monday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Rohr and two daughters of Portland visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Van Bibber on Sunday.

About seventh of the Epworth league members and the young people of Willamette attended a "Mother Goose" party at Leisman's hall last Thursday evening. The guests came in masquerade costume representing mother goose characters and each guest acted the entire rhyme he represented. The prize of a book of Mother Goose rhymes for the most clever costume was awarded to Letha Shadle. Late in the evening, after games had been enjoyed, refreshments were served.

Mary Leisman and her mother, Mrs H. Leisman spent Saturday and Sunday visiting relatives, who live near Hillsboro.

Miss Janess Sutton spent several days last week visiting friends in Gresham.

Mahlon Snidow and family moved last week from their home on Fifth avenue to the Achilles farm, which they have rented.

A Hallowe'en party which was very much enjoyed was given at the home of Amelia Paulin on Saturday evening. The house was prettily decorated with crepe paper and pumpkins. The evening was spent in dancing and games after which refreshments were served to the following: Laura Peter, Gladys Shepard, Louise Hagen, Estelle Sidden, Mary Mantha, Louis Desher, Ludwig Hagen, William Smith, Elmer Hagen, Percy Osborne, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Rodgers, Mrs. Jones, Mrs Joe Paulin and the hostess, Miss Paulin.

Mrs. Melvin Young and daughter, Elizabeth, visited at the home of the former's sister, Mrs. Amelia Boekman in Mountain Road last Saturday.

Orilla Oliver left Willamette on Wednesday for Portland to begin her hospital training course at the Emanuel hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Junken entertained a few friends last Tuesday evening in an informal manner. Hallowe'en refreshments, ginger bread, doughnuts, and cider were served to the guests who were Mr. and Mrs. Albert Adamson, Lynn Rauch, Mrs. Jess Hyatt and daughter, Una, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Larsen and son, Milner, Mabel Larsen, Esther Larsen and Arda Cox.

H. Martin is suffering from a broken blood vessel in his head. The first of the week his condition was reported to be improving.

(Continued on Page 7.)

SANDY NEWS DEPARTMENT

MRS. J. M. C. MILLER Correspondent

Services Held For Over Seas Veteran

SANDY, Nov. 7—The funeral of Ennis S. Townsend, which was held at Estacada last Saturday, was attended by a host of friends from this section. The sermon was preached by the Methodist minister of Estacada, and the music was furnished by the Sandy quartet, Miss Gertrude Pierce, accompanist. The Sandy Masonic lodge, assisted by members from Gresham, Troutdale, Estacada and Portland had charge of the burial service, Jack Greenwood of Bull Run acting as master of ceremonies. Mr. Greenwood read the burial service, which was very impressive. The Loyal Legion of Gresham also assisted in the last rites.

The Sandy Masonic, I. O. O. F., Eastern Star and Rebekah lodges sent elegant floral pieces in loving memory of their esteemed brother, the deceased having attended the Masonic lodge at Sandy the night before his tragic death.

Townsend was born at Woodburn, and was 34 years of age. He entered the service Nov. 4, 1917, and was overseas with the Third Oregon and was soon after transferred to the First Oregon. He was in all the big engagements in which the American army toon part except one, and was severely gassed, receiving a citation at Verdun. He reached the front just before the Soissons drive. He was wounded Oct. 1, 1918. Mr. Townsend was married to Miss Ethel Stanton of Portland, Oct. 10, 1914, and had lived at Bull Run nine years.

P-T Entertainment Is Decided Success

SANDY, Nov. 6—The receipts from the Parent Teacher entertainment Saturday night were $81 and everyone is jubilant over the success of the affair. The program was in every way pleasing and none but words of praise have been heard about each number. Coffee, cake and sandwiches were sold after the program, and a social time was enjoyed, after which Henry Perret auctioned off cakes and sandwiches. Mrs. Henry Perret was chairman of the refreshment committee, and she and her helpers worked hard to make their part of the evening a success. Mrs. Malar and Mrs. Connors put on the first halt of the program, and the children performed splendidly.

The program was as follows: songs by school; "The Proposal", Dorothy Wolfe and Ronnie Esson; calesthenic drill; jack o'lantern song and drill; recitation, Merlyn Malar; doll drill and song from the child opera "Wang", in which Roberta Smith was little "Miss Muffet", Arletha Proctor "Bo-peep" and Stearns Eason "Jack Horner". Numbers on part two of the program were selections by the Sandy mixed and male quarters, solos by F. D. Eason, Lyman Warnock, piano solos, Desiree Strack, readings, Miss Margaret Miller.

Cottrell Scholars Give Fine Program

SANDY, Nov. 6—A splendid Hallowe'en program was given by pupils of the Cottrell school at the Parent Teacher meeting last Friday night. The program was in charge of Mrs. H. H. Van Fleet and Miss Schenk, teachers.

During the business session the following officers for the coming year were elected: Mrs. H. H. Watkins, president; Mrs. Wm. Bancke, vice-president; Miss Schenk, secretary and Mrs. Ray Wilkinson treasurer.

The president will appoint a new committee of three each month to put on a program, also a new committee of three to serve refreshments each time, and hostesses are also appointed to look after the audience and see that all newcomers get acquainted and that everyone has a good time. Pumpkin pie, cider and coffee were served at the close of the program Friday night.

Students of Union High School Elect

SANDY, Nov. 7—The union high school student body has organized and have elected the following officers: president, Mildred Bosholm; vice-president, Ruth Krebs; secretary, Pearl Dixon; treasurer, Mildred Jarl, sergeant-at-arms, Lewis Murray. The Student body will meet every two weeks.

"High jinks" were put on by the upper classmen Friday night at the Odd Fellow's hall when the 24 "freshies" were initiated. After the ceremonies were over refreshments, consisting of pumpkin pie and other good things were served. A number of guests were present.

PIANO BENEFIT HELD

SANDY, Nov. 7—An entertainment and pie social were held at the Brightwood hall recently for the benefit of a piano fund for the Brightwood school. The "cheapest" pie sold brought $1.25, and the highest price paid was $6.00. Charley Bailey was the successful auctioneer. The affair was arranged by Miss Fowler, the Brightwood teacher.

Mazamas Hear Fine Lecture by Hiker

SANDY, Nov. 7—About 100 Mazamas spent the week-end at Aschoff's and had a merry time. They put on a big program of various stunts, and listened to lectures and were also entertained by Louis Schus, who represents the American Sign Co. of Philadelphia. Harry Thomas brought Schus out to spend the week-end at the hotel, and Schus proved very entertaining to the Mazamas as he told of the 25,000 mile trip on foot he made a few years ago. This sprinter was not allowed to accept charity, he had to work for every cent of "dough" so painted signs as he went, and at the end of the trip had $2,000 saved up. Schus is also a cartoonist. He now has a 5-year contract to travel over the U. S. in an auto to advertise for the Cocoa-Cola company.

Driver Exonerated In Fatal Accident

SANDY, Nov. 7—Clarence Everett of Firwood who had the unfortunate experience of being in the automobile accident which killed S. H. Sheller near Linneman Sunday evening, came home Tuesday morning, and was fully exonerated at the inquest held Monday night at Portland. Everett was a Sandy high school boy, and quit school about two weeks ago because he wanted to go to work. Geo. Algire was with Everett at the time of the accident.

Workman Injured On Big Sandy Dam

SANDY, Nov. 6—Nick Vanderhoof fell off the flume at the Big Sandy dam today where he was working and his right leg was broken, a rib fractured, and he was badly bruised. The injured man was taken to the Good Samaritan hospital this afternoon by Otto Aschoff. Mrs. Emma Thomas helped get Vanderhoof ready to take to the hospital. The break was at the ankle and some of the small bones protruded through the flesh.

Sandy Womens Club Meets on Thursday

SANDY, Nov. 6—Mrs. A. Hoernicker and Mrs. Geo. Beers entertained the Sandy Women's club at the home of Mrs. J. C. Duke last Thursday, with the president, Mrs. Blanche Shelley in the chair. The following ladies were present: Mrs. Shelley, Mrs Duke, Mrs. Hoernecker, Mrs. Geo. Beers. Mrs. Thomas Clifford, Mrs. R. C. Shipley, Miss Margaret Miller, Miss Sybil Lindell, Mrs Florence Connors, Mrs. R. Mullholland, Miss Gertrude Walling, Mrs. Edna Esson and Mrs. J. M. C. Miller.

Several Planning to Spend Winter South

SANDY, Nov. 6—Among those planning to spend the winter away from here are Mrs Geo. Beers and daughters, Hazel and Lois, who expect to leave for San Diego before Thanksgiving, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Christianson and children who will also go to Southern California. Mr. and Mrs. Jack Scales still hope to go south for a portion of the winter. Mr. and Mrs. August Hoernicker will be in Portland this winter.

Additional Tax to Be Voted on Nov 18

SANDY, Nov. 6—A road district meeting to vote an additional tax will be held at the following places on Saturday, Nov. 18: At Sandy city hall, 8:00 P. M.; at Firwood schoolhouse, 2:00 P. M.; at Sandyridge new school house, 1:00 P. M.; at Bull Run school house, 1 P. M.; at the Cottrell community church, 1:30 P M.; at Deep Creek school house, 7:30 P. M.; at Damascus communitty house, 8 P. M.; at Aimes, 8 P. M. There should be a large attendance at these meetings of all legal voters.

PROGRAM POSTPONED

SANDY, Nov. 6—The regular community Sunday evening program has been postponed from next Sunday night, Nov. 12, to Sunday evening, Nov. 26, when a special Thanksgiving program will be given. There have been so many things going on the past two weeks it seems impossible to get talent together for the song service this week.

SANDY LOCALS

SANDY, Nov. 6—Mrs. Henry Herman of Sandyridge, who was operated on at the Good Samaritan hospital last week is improving rapidly. Mrs. Herman had a large tumor removed from her stomach, and was very ill.

Little Arthur Lundeen, who was brought home from the hospital recently is getting along fine, and his injured limb is not shorter than the other. The child was in the hospital several months. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Lundeen of Sandyridge.

Tony Miller has moved back to the home of Chas. Krebs at Deep Creek again.

"Uncle" Morgan and Ike Anderson from Boring and Orient were among the Masons taking part in the Townsend funeral.

Mrs. Marie Krebs and Herman Krebs were down to the hospital recently to see Mrs. Henry Herman.

Mrs. W. H. Thompson was recently entertained at the Miller home with several other guests.

J. Fred Connors, husband of Mrs. Florence Connors came out from the city to spend the week end and attended the program Saturday night. Connors was a guest at the Duke home.

The stork made a visit to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Judd, and left a 10 pound baby daughter last week. The Judd ranch is near Dwyer camp. This is the Judd's first child.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Bell gave a little party on Sunday afternoon for Helen Beaver. Those present were Clara and Myrtle Sietz, Mildred and Florence Flateau. A birthday cake with 11 candles, chicken sandwiches and pink lemonade were served. Others present were Mr. and Mrs. Ed Littlepage and Ray, and Mrs. Ed Sietz.

Chas. Krebs was in town Sunday and Monday. Krebs has had trouble in finding a reasonable price for his 4 tons of dried prunes. Krebs says he has "been doctoring up" for appendicitis and is feeling "brand new" again.

Mrs. Eugene Boitano spent several days in the city last week and "Marlo" took care of the children.

Mrs. Joel Jarl has been home a week from Medford where she is keeping books while enjoying the mild winter climate there. Vernice Jarl is in high school there.

Mrs. L. J. Keenan and baby were out recently to visit at the home of Warren Wilkins.

The Esson children entertained their young friends Hazel Dixon, Jonne Shelley and Dorothy Dixon last Sunday at supper.

Miss Margaret Miller was a recent dinner guest at the home of the Duke family.

Mrs. F. J. Suckow visited Mrs. Haskell Ferrin recently and says Mrs. Ferrin (Esther Spillman) is feeling fine and her arm has been removed from the cast, which is good news to her many friends here

Mrs. A. W. Bell went to Portland again this week where she is improving under the care of a Naturopath doctor. Mrs. Bell was home for the entertainment Saturday night.

Mrs. L. Lehnfield says she is keeping 6 brood sows in fine shape and feeding them practically nothing but what they get from running in the orchard.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kerr and children were out again this week end and, as always, gave liberally to the Sunday school collection.

C. L. Shaw purchased R. A. Chown's big team and says he will find enough work hauling wood for C. A. Bowers to keep him out of mischief this winter Shaw recently returned from the Dixon camp at Summit where he was working till the snow came on.

There seems to be plenty of work around here for all the local laborers, especially for those who can take most any kind of a job.

Thomas Kubitza got home from the Parent Teacher entertainment at 1 A. M. Sunday morning and it was so cold he was afraid his potatoes would freeze so he and young Tommy picked up 18 sacks of "spuds" in the moonlight. Mrs. Kubitza kept a fire going and about 2:30 they all "turned in."

Mr. and Mrs. James Strain (Barbara Zogg) are rejoicing over the arrival of a 10 pound daughter which they have named Louise Cornelia in honor of both grandmothers. Mrs. Strain is at a private hospital near Troutdale and is getting along fine. Mr. and Mrs. Matt Zogg now have four granddaughters.

Mrs. Anton Malar went to the International Stock Show Sunday, and again on Tuesday. Both grade rooms were dismissed Tuesday, which time will be made up.

The radio outfit at Bull Run lake has proved very entertaining for the boys. Concerts from Seattle, political news, and happenings for Los Angeles, San Bernandino and Salt Lake have been received, and the "boys" can also broadcast. At 3 o'clock in the morning some fine concerts have been heard.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Forman and the Zogg boys may get home for Christmas. All the Zogg children are going to try to be home for a family reunion at the Christmastide. Miss Amelia Zogg may be home soon from Easern Oregon for a visit.

Alton Phelps was in town a few days ago from Bull Run lake. He reported snow over the Summit. There is only a small crew at work now, some 15 or 20 men.

Many Bull Run friends attended the McKee funeral which was held at Woodburn.

Reuben Hoffman went to Portland Monday, taking 20 sheep to the Portland stock yards.

Mrs. Martin Pizzola has returned from a three weeks' visit in Portland.

Remember the Grange meeting tomorrow and spelling contest. Everybody invited in the afternoon.

Tonight there will be fun and frolic for everybody at the Odd Fellow's hall to celebrate Armistice day, directed by Miss Miller, principal of the high school.

The community council has appointed Rev. G. S. Berreman as president in place of Rev. Earl Cotton, resigned. The council has changed plans and will not have a community Thanksgiving dinner at Cottrell, but will hold a watch meeting there, instead, on New Year's eve.

There were never so many tomatoes home grown in this section as this fall.

Dr Julius C. Sture attended the health show in Portland last week.

Miss Stanton of the Portland Boys' and Girls' Aid Society was out paying a visit to this section last week.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Henson have moved into their cozy new bungalow and are enjoying it better than tent life, although the finishing is not completed inside.

The good work goes on at the union high building, and everybody visiting the town remarks "what a fine structure."

J. W. Dixon brought home 18 ducks from a hunting trip a few days ago and "fed up" the family and the neighbors again on these rare "eats."

The Willing Workers of the Cottrell community church are working on a play, "Sewing for the Heathen" which will be given at their bazaar, which will be held Dec. 15.

Rev. Earl Cotton paid a short visit to Orient recently and attended the community council meeting at the home of Miss Dolan.

Miss Elsie Miller of Portland was out for a short stay with her sister, Miss Margaret Miller, recently.

Tommy Scales and Reuben Hoffman went to Portland to the Stock Show the first of the week.

Dewey Alt and Glenn Corey were down to enjoy the high jinks when the "Freshies" were initiated.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Oren Ganger were over from Bull Run Monday night and enjoyed dinner at the parental table of Mr. and Mrs. James W. Dixon.

Although Fred McKee was not so well known at Sandy as was Ennis Townsend, still much sorrow is felt here because of his tragic death and the young wife and her three year old daughter have the sympathy of the community.

Miss Carrie Lamereaux, a former teacher at Firwood and well known here was recently married to a Mr. Robertson.

Edna Masters, granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dave Douglass is home from the hospital but has not entirely recovered from her long siege of illness.

Mrs. John Revenue has returned from Bend where she remained several months helping take care of her son, Roy Hamblin, who passed away several weeks ago. Mr. Hamblin had been ill for about six years with tubercular trouble. He leaves a wife. Roy was well known here and his death is regretted by many friends.

There was a large audience at the Odd Fellow's hall Sunday to hear the speech of J. C. Bauer, an eastern man, who spoke against the parochial school bill.

Not only is this so with banking systems like the Federal Reserve System, but also with an individual bank.

As we grow in number of depositors, which has been steady and continuous from our organization in 1905, we are enable to give each and every one better service. We have all the facilities of a city bank and all the advantages of a country bank for the man living in the country. Try us on any financial matter that may come up.

FIRST STATE BANK

GRESHAM, OREGON

MEMBER FEDERAL RESERVE SYSTEM

Corral Creek School

Contributes by Pupils of Corral Creek School

Miss Claire Say, who has been attending school at Monmouth is home for a visit. She will return to Monmouth about Monday.

Harry Fisher, of Calgary, Canada, is to spend the winter with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Minor.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Jones entertained about 30 young people at a Hallowe'en party at their home last Tuesday evening. A lunch was served and the remainder of the evening was spent playing games. Everyone reported a fine time.

A new bridge is under construction at the bottom of Say's hill. It will probably be finished in a short time.

The Mother's Club gave a reception Friday night for the teacher, Blanche Brown. A dinner was served and games and a fortune-telling booth furnished entertainment for the evening. About 60 people were present.

Aubrey Wood, who was injured a few weeks ago while working at the rock crusher, has recovered sufficiently to resume his work.

Roy Baker, who had the misfortune to break his arm while cranking his Ford, is getting along nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. Reed Graham and daughters, Helen and Thelma, and Mr. and Mrs. Norman Say attended the Grange program and dance in Wilsonville Tuesday night.

The Coral Creek school is serving hot lunches at noon nearly every day.

Mrs. May Snider and Mrs. Eva Turner were home for the week-end visiting their mother, Mrs. Ed Baker.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Jones and family visited Mr. and Mrs. Wiley at Beaverton Sunday.

Mrs. Blanche Brown spent the week-end with her parents in Hazelia.

Misses Margaret, Betty, and Menga Batalgia of Wilsonville, visited Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Ridder last week.

Reed Graham and Fred Minor went to Portland Monday.

Will Baker had an accident with his car on his way home from Sherwood one evening last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Baker, who have rented a home near Multnomah spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Allison Baker.

Mrs. Bob Graham is spending a few days in Portland.

Misses Nettie and Jess Angus entertained some Wilsonville folks with a "500" party at their home last Friday evening.

Ed Baker is hauling gravel on the Woods' Hill from Graham's Landing.

Misses Eleanor Say and Helen Graham visited Miss Audrey Wood Sunday evening.

Hazelia School Notes

Contributes by Pupils of Hazelia School

Van Meter and Mrs. Nancy Kingston of Portland called at the W. H. Zivney home Sunday afternoon.

Kenneth Baker visited the J. P. Cook home Sunday afternoon.

D. E. Long was an Oregon City business visitor Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Crams of Portland visited Mr. and Mrs. Godfried Lehman Sunday afternoon.

R. J. Zivney made a business trip to Scio, Oregon, last week.

Wilbur and Donald Lehman visited at the Frank Whitten home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. . H. Zivney took dinner at the J. Robinson home in West Linn Sunday.

Thomas Whitten of Altoona, Wash., visited relatives in Hazelia and vicinity last week.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Zivney and daughter, Norma, were Oregon City visitors Thursday.

The J. J. Burkhardt family spent Sunday evening at the F. Child's home.

Andrew Mandis, Manola and Lena Garcia, Mr. and Mrs. A. Neilson, R. J. and W. H. Zivney were among the Portland visitors from this vicinity this week.

John Wanker and son, Fred, from Durham visited the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Wanker last Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Christiansen and family attended the box social given at the Sunset school Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Zivney and family took Sunday dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Zivney of Oswego.

Miss Ruth Willis of Monmouth, Ore., visited her sister, Frances Willis at the J. P. Cook home Thursday and Friday.

Mrs. Blanche Brown, formerly Blanche Duncan, of Hazelia, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Duncan, last week end. Mrs. Brown is now teaching near Wilsonville.

Gillman B. Nunn, editor of the Wheeler Reporter of Tillamook county, called on W. B. Cook Friday. Mr. Nunn was enroute to Dallas, Oregon, in company with State Highway Engineer Herbert Nunn of Salem.

D. E. Christensen is working on the public market in Portland.

The pupils of Hazelia school receiving 100 in spelling every day during the month of October are: eighth grade, Grace Duncan, Anna Spousta, Kenneth Baker and Henry Zivney; seventh grade, Rose Burkhardt, Joseph Spousta, Emil Zivney; fifth grade, Bozena Spousta, and Harlen Zivney; third grade, Norma Whitten, Roberta Papoun; second grade, Yoshiye Kimwia.

CHOICE MEATS—FAIR PRICES

As a good judge of Meats, you'll [illegible] buying here where there are so many luscious Steaks, Chops and Roasts.

Quality Meats Only.

Gresham Meat Market
A. J. W. Brown

6 Per Cent State School Money to Loan on Farms
SCHUEBEL & BEATTIE
Bank of Oregon City Bldg.
Oregon City, Ore.