

Suffered the Agony Of a Dozen Deaths

Prominent Farmer in Canada Describes His Recovery and Escape from the Operating Table

In a letter to friends at Saskatoon, Mr. F. Gifford, of the Ball Rock Farm, Maymont, Saskatchewan, Canada says: "Thanks to Fruitola and Traxo I am alive. I lay on my back for sixteen days, suffering the agonies of a dozen deaths. I began taking Fruitola and was relieved of a great many gall-stones. My health is now fully restored."

Fruitola possesses properties that act directly upon the intestinal parts. It is a great system cleanser, softening the congested waste and disintegrating the hardened particles that cause so much suffering, and quickly expels the accumulation to the great relief of the patient. Traxo is a tonic-alterative that acts on the liver and kidneys, stimulates the flow of gastric juices to aid digestion and removes bile from the general circulation. It serves to build up and strengthen the weakened, run-down system.

Fruitola and Traxo are prepared in the Pinus laboratories at Monticello, Ill., and arrangements have been made to supply them through representative druggists. In Oregon City, Portland, Canby and Hubbard they can be obtained at Huntley Brothers' Drug stores.

THE FASHIONS

Quite as important as the June bride is the June graduate. She must be just as daintily dressed in misty white, and her future is equally as promising.

It is no longer considered the proper thing for the graduate to be elaborately dressed in silk or satin; many of the daintiest frocks are fashioned by the graduate herself, from the sheer voiles, organdies, nets, or from the dainty flouncings of lace or embroidery. The high schools favor the idea of the graduate fashioning her own dress; some go as far as to suggest the material and the cut for the entire class. Perhaps this does not appeal to the average girl, with her ideas of individuality, but the notion of making her own frock should appeal to her, for this very reason, that she may add little distinctive touches which bring out her own personality.

Simplicity in Cut and Material

The very simplest, most youthful models are chosen for the June graduate. They are usually of organdy, or one of the sheer cottons, very sparingly and simply trimmed. Crepe de Chine or one of the very soft taffetas or satins may also be used, if preferred, but the cottons are more in vogue and daintier.

Net, which is such a general favorite for the typical summer dress, is quite as well liked for the graduation dress and proves extremely practical. White cotton net, combined with taffeta, voile, or organdy, fashions the daintiest of graduation frocks; one which may be worn later for summer afternoons, or the dance.

Skirts are short, sleeves range from the short puff, so charmingly in keeping with bouffant skirts of the moment, to the three-quarter or full length sleeve of organdy, net, Georgette or chiffon. Round necks are particularly modish, although the square neck and the V are also liked. If one wishes to be at the height of the mode, the graduation frock must boast a hooped petticoat. These are so softly boned and so unobtrusive that the frock loses none of its simplicity but gains in grace.

Shoes, Gloves and a Fan

White kid pumps and white silk stockings are dainty and carry out the "all white" notion; black patent or kid pumps and black stockings, however, are in quite as good form. White silk gloves, if any gloves are worn are better than kid, being cooler. A small white fan may be carried, both for use and ornament, for fans are extremely dainty this summer. Featherers are being used in the new fans. There are small ostrich feather fans and plain cock feather fans in white and colors. The small spangled silk fan is still favored. Any of these make most acceptable gifts for the graduate. Although the plainer the hair is dressed the better, a bit of tulle or a single comb may be worn, and Colonial silver or rhinestone buckles may adorn the pumps. Very little jewelry, if any, is permissible; a small brooch or a tiny Lavalier is quite enough.

Summer Frocks of Organdy

Organdy is one of the most generally favored of materials for the summer frock, whether for graduation garden parties, or summer dances. It comes in all the delicate pastel colorings now favored and is also patterned with dainty conventionalized designs, on white and colored grounds.

The plain and figured voiles are effective also, and there are many attractive combinations of voile and taffeta, organdy and taffeta, net and organdy and the like.

It is considered most Frenchy to combine organdy and taffeta, or net and taffeta. This is usually done in a frock which one has no idea of sending to the laundry, although there are at the moment taffetas and satins which wash very well.

The first frock illustrated here is a jumper model adapted from one of Poiret's designs. It is developed in net and taffeta and is a charmingly simple model for the girl who wishes to make her own frock for commencement.

In the second design is a particularly effective frock of plain and figured voile. The figured material is white with a white mercedized ring. The quaint neck line, puffed sleeves and full skirt, make it a very pleasing and youthful frock, suitable for graduation exercises or summer parties.

The Garden Party Hat

It will do no harm to tell of a hat or two, which, worn with the graduation frock after that wonderful day, will complete a most effective garden party, or summer afternoon costume. There are large hats of organdy in the dainty colorings, just the thing for the organdy frock; large black and colored wenchows, stencilled with some quaintly conceived and colored figure, flower, or bird; wide brimmed leghorns, with a flower or two on their drooping brims; and many others, for the large hat is again modish. These stencilled hats offer alluring possibilities to the girl who paints or understands the mixing of colors.

HEAR WITHOUT EARS

Police and Detectives are using Lip Reading in Place of Dictagraph. Thousands of deaf people are today throwing away all hearing devices and enjoying all conversation. This method is easily and quickly acquired through our system. Absolutely the only thing of its kind in the country. Our proposition is entirely original. We guarantee results, it will amaze you. Cost is trifling. See what New International Encyclopedia says on Lip Reading. Hundreds of people with normal hearing are taking up Lip Reading for the many benefits gained. You can understand what the actors are saying in the moving pictures. You can understand what people are saying just as far away as you can see them. The eye understands beyond the range of hearing. Send no money, but mention this paper and state whether or not you are deaf. All particulars will be sent you absolutely free and with no expense to you. SLAIN SPIRITS KICK

Full Home Mission is Disturbed by Small Boys

Small boys, cigarette smoke, flying tin cans and convenient knot-holes spell consternation. At least, H. S. Clyde, a convert of the Full Gospel mission at Gladstone, found that result of the unusual combination, and was forced to complain to District Attorney Hedges late last week that the meetings of the mission were being seriously disturbed.

Young boys in the neighborhood of the mission succeed in breaking the spells of the converts by blowing cigarette smoke through knot-holes, squirting streams of water through cracks in the floor, guiding tin cans in the general direction of the congregation and do countless other annoying little things. Mr. Clyde gave the district attorney the names of seven boys.

Out at the mission spirits are "slain" according to the explanation of Mr. Clyde. When the spirit is slain nothing can bring it back to consciousness until the psychological and religious moment arrives. Sometimes hours are required to restore consciousness in these slain spirits, says Mr. Clyde. Mr. Clyde cannot account for the sudden awakening of the spirit when a shy tin can affectionately patters from the head of a convert, or when smoke from youthful lungs under the floor seeps into the nostrils of the prone convert. Sometimes a squirt of water from a little tube will bring the slain spirit back to consciousness very suddenly, even though it would take Andrew C. Baker several hours to accomplish the same result. Mr. Baker conducts the meetings at the mission. He was acquitted in municipal court here a year ago for disturbing the peace with his meetings, which frequently lasted until the wee sma' hours of the morning.

According to the orthodox conception, smoke and meanness are things of the devil's creation. It is reasonable, therefore, to suppose, in the light of the complaint filed by Mr. Clyde, that the devil is able to accomplish greater things with the converts of this mission than is the Creator, whom the converts worship, and for whom their spirits are "slain."

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and for years it was supposed to be incurable. Doctors prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Catarrh is a local disease, greatly influenced by constitutional conditions and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is a constitutional remedy, is taken internally and acts thru the Blood on the Mucous Surfaces of the System. One Hundred Dollars reward is offered for any case that Hall's Catarrh Cure fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

A VALUABLE STOMACH

Strange Visitor at Kraft Farm Demands Justification

Coffee must be a much more terrible poison to the human system than science has supposed. One cup of it did damage to the extent of $1,000 to a certain gentleman who called at the home of T. E. Kraft near Canby late last week and asked for a hand-out. The kindly folk at the Kraft home fed and "coffed" the hungry stranger, and he departed. Shortly, however, he returned and waxed angry with his hosts of the moment before. He demanded justification for the ruin of one perfectly good and manly stomach. He demanded $1,000 for the crime that his digestive organ had suffered. Mr. Kraft was of the opinion that $1,000 was a rather lofty valuation for the injury done by one cup of coffee and he speedily summoned Sheriff Wilson.

Just as suddenly as he had returned, the stranger left the Kraft premises when the sheriff was called, and when Mr. Wilson, with Deputy Frost arrived they conducted a thorough search of the neighborhood without finding the man with the ruined stomach. The sheriff is inclined to the belief that Mr. Kraft's visitor was insane and thought he could "pull" some such simple blackmail scheme as he attempted.
