

NEWS OF THE COUNTY AND SUBURBS

Local and County Items of Interest to Courier Readers

PARKPLACE

Mrs. Sarah Thomson, of Clackamas, spent a day with Mrs. Brayton last week.

Prof. Mason, of the Oregon City high school, gave two readings which were very much enjoyed, at the last Grange meeting. He is going to be with us again. You must hear him next time. C. E. Spence, State Grange Master, who has recently returned from Washington D. C., was at the meeting and spoke on "The Many Phases of the Great National Problem."

Our scarlet fever patients are out of quarantine. Two families were in quarantine, Frank Bernier's, and Mr. Phelsh's.

Corn Lake was visiting in Park-place last week. He stopped on his way home from Salem where he is an instructor in one of the schools.

Mrs. Fred Himler and Mrs. Charles Smith spent a day last week at the camp in Clackamas, visiting the former's nephew, Ernest Hitchcock. He came home with them and spent the evening. He is now on his way to France.

Fred Himler is having a serious time with his eye. Last week he got a fine bark sliver in it, and later in the day a rope flew against the eye and as a result he is visiting the doctor.

Mr. Hasting has a broken wrist. He was harnessing a horse when the animal became frightened at a passing motorcycle and kicked his wrist. Mr. Hasting sustained several other minor injuries.

The Boy Scouts put on a good Halloween entertainment Wednesday for their own benefit. There was a good attendance, and a splendid program, including a speaker from Portland, who told of the Boy Scout work. It was given under the direction of the Scout Master, Mr. Blake.

Stanley Blou, a Boy Scout, recently saved his mother's life through a lesson he had learned only the day before. His mother had cut an artery and Stanley was alone with her at the time. He stopped the flow of blood, and then called a doctor. The physician said that but for Stanley's prompt action the mother would have bled to death before he could have reached her.

Mrs. Pearl Selby, of Gladstone, and little son, Robert Pearl, took dinner at the home of Mrs. A. M. Brayton, Sunday.

Lester Brunner recently took his class of boys on a hike and hunting trip. They enjoyed it very much.

Mrs. Clark of California, who has been spending several weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. La Diox, left for her home last week Friday.

Several Grange women met at the home of Mrs. Kent last Friday, and organized a work club. Mrs. Iva Rittenhouse was made president.

Mr. Peckover, who has been working at American Lake helping to build "the big city," returned to his home last week.

CANBY

Mrs. J. W. Lowry, who was operated on recently at a Portland hospital, is recovering.

Arthur Lowry has gone to Stanfield to work for his uncle in the butcher shop.

Nelson Bowers, of Macksburg, was trading in Canby on Saturday.

Mrs. Bowlsby has returned home after visiting relatives and friends in Missouri.

Mat Poverlet was in Canby Saturday. He lives in the Union Hall district.

Mr. Prouty and Lee Eckerson attended the football game in Portland Saturday.

Charley Morris was in town on Saturday.

Clifford Wills has returned from Pendleton, where he has been for some time.

Walter Kenney is going to move to Portland in the near future.

Herman Hiram sold one of his

STONE

(Too Late for Last Week)

Some of our young people attended the dance at Clackamas Saturday night.

Mr. Black, head butter maker at Clear Creek creamery, has moved away. Ollie Crader is head man since the former's departure.

A large window and sky light were broken out at the creamery and two large glass windows at the home of John Hutton the past week by blasting. But the roads are being made, so let the good work go on.

The Halloween social given Monday evening by the primary room of the school proved quite successful. Several readings given by Miss Miller of Portland were appreciated very much by the audience as was the little folk's program. Net proceeds for the baskets, $19.35, will be used for school purposes.

Frank Hattan has sold his 40 acre farm on the hill, to Mr. Stanley.

mules, to Uncle Sam.

Polk Gribble, of Gribble Prairie, was in Canby the last of the week.

Mr. Henriksen has sold his farm and moved to Canby. A man named Lance bought the place.

Mrs. Clark fell off the steps of her porch and was painfully bruised.

George Mitts has been taking advantage of dry weather to burn stumps on his ranch.

The farmers have been hauling potatoes to Canby for some time, taking advantage of good weather.

Mrs. Bair is having a new wood shed built on her town property.

Bert Rape and family are moving to Portland. They lived in Portland for several years.

John Burns called on Mrs. Clark one day last week.

Mr. Heilman has moved into one of Mr. Sutherland's houses.

The steam shovel is working in the gravel pit at Canby.

Mrs. Draper, who was burned several weeks ago, is able to be about.

Mr. Pitts has sown wheat on his place here.

MOUNT PLEASANT

The Lyons and Lawton auction sale Saturday was quite a success. The approximate sum realized was about $1400.

The Parent-Teachers' association had its regular meeting Friday evening at the school house.

The Mount Pleasant mail route has a new postman. We are sorry to lose our carrier, Lloyd Allen from Redland, succeeds Frank Adcock.

S. O. Dillman's new well is drilled 80 feet and they say they can't pump it dry under a test.

H. L. Andrews, known as the "deacon," has leased his farm to a real estate firm and it will proceed to lay out and sell in small tracts.

Bert King, the present tenant, will likely return to Iowa, to make his future home.

Mr. Kunsie has sold his farm here and will move to Silverton, where he has bought a 2000-acre farm.

We hear quite a lot of discussion among the Live Wires about goats. They think of pasturing in the Abernathy canyon. Why the Abernathy? Why not fence Oregon City, there are more cans in the back yards there than they could find outside the city.

Wallace, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. McCord, who is in France, writes regularly. He says he is in a beautiful country.

Miss Leona Kellogg, of Oregon City, was the guest of Elsie McLane on Halloween.

The young folks of Mount Pleasant spent Halloween with many pranks such as soaping windows and moving gates.

We are wondering how we can get a nice turkey or goose for Thanksgiving, but we surely will have one.

JENNINGS LODGE

The Halloween spirit reigned supreme at Jennings Lodge school house on Wednesday evening when the community, in general, met for a frolic of games and music. The garlands of orange and black with, here an there, an old witch, black cat or a pumpkin lantern with weird eyes, and shaded electric lights, made a splendid setting for the Halloween program given by the pupils including a pleasing recitation by Janet Booth, and the gardeners' drill by primary pupils. The Jack o' Lantern drill by the grammar grades brought forth great applause. Wilbur Trant gave his first recitation, which was splendid. The Gooks put on a comical stunt. The pupils all sang "Canning the Kaiser." A talk on the conservation of food was given by Mrs. Altman and those who were present were given a chance to sign pledge cards. An old witch, who read palms, appeared at the meeting and afforded much fun for old and young. Pumpkin pie and cider were sold and the proceeds are to be used for play apparatus and amounts to over $10.

Mrs. Blaisdale and little daughter were entertained at the home of Mrs. Pierce during the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Hall of Portland, have been assisting the Ostrom family in getting ready to leave for their new home in California. Mr. and Mrs. Hall, who have visited here on many occasions, have sold their Portland property and will also locate in southern California.

Mrs. Jacobs entertained with a handsomely appointed luncheon on Tuesday noon, in honor of Mrs. George A. Ostrom and her mother, Mrs. LeClaire. The Ostrom family will depart on Sunday evening for Los Angeles. They will spend one day in San Francisco as guests of the A. C. McFarlanes.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Koon are pleasantly located in "Buena Vista," one of the Emmaus beach cottages.

Mrs. Lillian Clarkson, wife of the late Major Clarkson, and daughter of pioneers of Jennings Lodge, has been recently honored in California by being elected orator and lecturer for the California Loyal league. Mrs. Clarkson's home is at present in Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Atchley are providing a home for two of Mrs. Atchley's nieces, the Misses Barbara and Helen Portz, who recently arrived from Indiana, coming on Monday of last week. Barbara and Helen will enter the school on Monday and we welcome the little Misses to our community.

Carey and Ouida Deter entertained with a jolly Halloween party at their home on Saturday evening. The large living room at the Deter home is an ideal place for the young people and with the Halloween colors, so prettily arranged about the wall, the pretty customs worn by the young ladies and the round of games planned by the host together with music and dancing, the hours slipped hurriedly by. Mesdames Deter, Bruchert, Redmond and Merritt assisted in receiving and serving of delicious refreshments. Those attending were the Misses Le Claire Ostrom, Annie Russell, Wilma and Mary Bruchert, Bessie Roberts, Lois Thayer, Kate Oetkin, Helene Seelye, Francis Merritt, Ouida Deter, Bunny and Myrtle Sullivan, Evelyn McClain, Ruby Bailey, Caroleta Pace, Annie McLarty, Messrs. Marion and Guy Barbour, Earl and Derrel Clark, Glen Russell, De Witt Campbell, Albert Love, Clare Heath, Vincent Purnell, Chester McClain and Carey Deter.

The Sunday school teachers and officers are to be entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Sanders on Friday evening. The subject for discussion will be the "Responsibility of Personal Honors."

Mr. and Mrs. Tilman are among the new arrivals in our community and are pleasantly located on the Waldron place.

Mesdames Charles Redmond and Merritt were week-end visitors with Mrs. Bruchert.

Miss Vera Glass, who was taken suddenly ill on Monday, and whose condition was considered critical, is said to be improving.

Mrs. W. P. Wood is also on the sick list. Dr. Oral Welch, of Oregon City, is in attendance.

Owing to the continued illness of Mrs. H. N. Smith, Rev. Smith has resigned his ministerial duties here and the family will go to Portland to live, where they will be closer to the physicians who are attending Mrs. Smith. "Westena" has been let to a Mr. Ford, who takes possession this week.

Pretty little invitations inviting the younger contingent, were issued by Mrs. William Wood for a Halloween party given in honor of her son, Billie, at their home on the Hillamette on the afternoon of October 31. The home was beautiful with Halloween decorations and old Dame Witch with her magic wand played an important part in the Halloween games. Halmon Roberts won the first prize in one of the games. Cider, fruits and pumpkin pie were served. Mrs. Blaisdale of Portland, Mrs. Kelly and Mrs. Pierce assisted Mrs. Woods in entertaining Betty and Junior Hole, Sarah, Charles and John Hollaway; Milton and Helen Sanders; Flora, Alice and Louise Morse; Teddy Pierce, Marguerite Blaisdale, Hal-mor Roberts, Helen and Glen Nolta; Phyllis Dent, Betty Anne and Billie Wood.

Mesdames Bertha Hart and Edith Truscott are the delegates from Grace church who are attending the 69th annual convention of the Congregational churches, held in Portland on November 6 and 7.

Mrs. Frank Pratt of Rock Creek, Ore., is visiting at the home of her brother, H. R. Smith.

Mr. McKee of Eugene, is spending a few days with his sister, Mrs. Koon, while attending to business interests in Portland.

We were sorry to hear that the physician attending Mrs. Altman, has pronounced her case scarlet fever. The school is being fumigated and closed for a time. Mrs. Altman has been unable to attend school for several days.

Leslie L. Ulbrand and Miss Hazel Waff were married on Wednesday, October 31 at the bride's home in Portland. Motoring out to the Lodge they took dinner with the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ulbrand. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. William Waff, brother of the bride; Miss Violet Page, Mrs. Laura Koecker of Aurora; Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Koecker, of Woodburn; Mr. and Mrs. Earl Koecker of Hubbard; Mrs. Martin and Miss Gladys Rypczynski of Gladstone.

CLARKES

Clyde Ringo purchased a new Ford last week.

W. H. Bottmiller hauled straw to Oregon City for Jack Hooper last Friday.

Miss Elizabeth Marshall, from Oregon City, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. Marshall over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Clarke and son were in Portland last week.

Miss Mary Bottmiller came home Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Marshall and daughter, Zeltha, visited her mother, Mrs. Eliza Kleinsmith Sunday.

G. Marquardt was in Oregon City Monday.

George Evans, from Portland, is visiting his sister, Mrs. Jason Clarke, for a short time.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Marshall and baby were in town Friday.

H. C. Kleinsmith and family visited W. H. Bottmiller and family Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Lizzie Ringo and daughter, Hazel, visited Mrs. Eliza Kleinsmith Sunday.

H. C. Kleinsmith was in Oregon City Friday on business.

A Halloween party was given at the home of George Rogers Wednesday evening, October 31, and it was reported a success.

William and Jason Clarke took a trip to Brownsville last week to look for a farm.

Mrs. Fred Bauer, daughter Tillie, and son, Harry, and Albert Martin were in town Friday.

The farmers are happy because of the rain. They can now plow and dig their potatoes and put in their crops.

S. Marquardt is digging his potatoes.

The Highland Grange had a meeting in the hall Saturday.

Miss Tillie Bauer of Colton, and Albert Martin of Highland, were married Tuesday and they have the good wishes of their many friends.

Edwin Bottmiller has gone from Kansas City, Mo., to Bertha, Minn., to visit relatives for a short time, but will soon return home.

Sam Elmer was sowing grain on Tuesday.

John Putz of Colton, is hauling oats for Mr. Nelson of Colton. He bought the grain from Mr. Clyde Ringo of Clarkes this week.

J. T. Grace sold his potatoes and is delivering them now.

Miss Ida Zwahlen was in Oregon City Tuesday.

Walter Kleinsmith was in town Monday.

Alexander Nelson attended the dance at Beacon Heights Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Bottmiller were in town Friday and visited their daughter, Mrs. C. Ralph, and family.

Rev. Bristle, the English M. E. church pastor, preached in the Clarkes English church Sunday morning.

The Clarkes school is planning a Thanksgiving program for the evening of November 24, in the evening.

Miss Olga Elmer and Ida Zwahlen visited the Clarkes school on Friday, when the school had a program.

A birthday party was given at the home of Mrs. Christina Kleinsmith Saturday evening in honor of Miss Florence. Among those present were Misses Dora Marquardt, Mary Bottmiller, Olga Elmer, Ida Zwahlen, Florence Kleinsmith, Elsie Kleinsmith; Messrs. Claudius Bottmiller, Henry Nelson, Charles Nelson, Harvey Nelson, Walter Lee, Walter Kleinsmith, Benjie Elmer, John Boal, William Robbins and Frank Zwahlen. Refreshments were served and the evening was spent by playing games.

DAMASCUS

Welcome showers!

Mrs. Bernice Elliott has gone to Detroit, Mich., where she is to be married.

Corporal Fensler, who has been visiting at the Burr home, has gone to Fort Stevens, where his company is stationed.

The Grangers met at their old

The American Ideal

The Brunswick

The instrument that plays any record and plays them in a manner that makes it difficult to distinguish between its performance and that of the artist himself.

Examine this instrument, let us play it for you—then compare it with others—its superiority will become apparent immediately—No argument by ourselves will be necessary.

You owe it to yourself to hear this—master instrument—before you buy one.

Prices from $92.50 to $180.00
Terms to suit.

JONES DRUG CO. OREGON CITY OREGON

quarters last Saturday and feasted on the good things of the land.

The patriotic rally held at the school house to discuss food conservation, was well attended. The speakers were Mr. Coulter, R. J. Werner, Corporal Fensler, Miss Lorene Parker and a few others. The Red Cross activity was brought up and several new members enrolled.

The Red Cross met at the Elliott home Saturday afternoon and elected officers. "Same old thing in the same old way."

Mrs. Burr and family spent a pleasant evening at the Coulter home last Monday.

The holidays are creeping onto us day by day and pleasant thoughts chase one another through our memories as the past rises up before us.

BEAVER CREEK

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Williams made a business trip to Oregon City Saturday.

Miss Alma Hardy of Spokane, Wash., arrived on Tuesday to visit her sister, Mrs. J. R. Hoff.

Sherman Bashford called on relatives in Oregon City Sunday.

Henry Parry has a crew of men digging potatoes.

The potato crop in this vicinity is not turning out as well as in former years.

Miss Bella Davis of Portland, is a visitor at the W. F. Harris home.

Mrs. Cash, a former resident of Beaver Creek, but now of Monitor, called on Mr. and Mrs. A. Thomas and family, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. B. Santesson and children, Ellen, Fred, Raymond and Robert, motored to Portland Sunday to take dinner with old friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Hellenger and family have moved into the John Heft cottage. Mr. Hellenger has quit farming, and at present is clerking for Hoff Bros.

Dan Williams sowed several acres of wheat on his newly cleared ground, Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrews of Oregon City, were present at the services at the Welsh church. Mrs. Andrews gave a very interesting talk on national prohibition, as a war measure.

Mr. Keesler and family of Schubel have rented the Scanlon farm and are moving this week.

A party of young people went to Colton Sunday to call on friends.

R. L. Badger transacted business in Oregon City Saturday.

We are glad to report that Mrs. C. E. Spence is much improved in health. Mrs. Spence has been very ill at the home of her daughter, Mrs. W. J. Wilson, in Oregon City.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Thomas entertained the K. U. club with a Halloween party on Wednesday evening. All reported a most enjoyable evening.

Mrs. Mary Greenwathie called on friends in Portland one day last week.

A daughter was born to Mrs. W. J. Herman at the Oregon City hospital. Both the mother and daughter are doing fine. We extend our congratulations to the happy parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Thompson called on neighbors Sunday evening.

John E. Jones is busy plowing for fall grain. Mr. Jones always has some of the best crops raised in Beaver Creek.

Mr. and Mrs. John Moehne, of Schubel, motored through here on their way to Oregon City.

William Martin, Jr., was a business visitor in Portland last Wednesday.

John Hehn, of Highland, was at Hoff brothers store on business on Monday.

CUT THIS OUT—IT IS WORTH MONEY

DON'T MISS THIS. Cut out this slip, enclose with 5c and mail it to Foley — Co., 2835 Sheffield Ave., Chicago, Ill., writing your name and address clearly. You will receive in return a trial package containing Foley's Honey and Tar Compound, for coughs, colds, and croup; Foley Kidney Pills, for pain in sides and back, rheumatism, backache, kidney and bladder ailments; and Foley Cathartic Tablets, a wholesome and thoroughly cleansing cathartic for constipation, biliousness, headache and sluggish bowels.—Jones Drug Co.

EAGLE CREEK

The Helping Hand was pleasantly entertained by Mrs. Addie Judd last Wednesday afternoon. The club will meet with Mrs. E. Naylor November 21.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Wilcox and Mrs. Bravender motored to Portland last Wednesday and heard the great singer, Alma Gluck.

Mrs. E. Naylor was a Portland visitor last week, and was accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Claude Sersanous.

Mrs. J. W. Cahill attended the W. C. T. U. meeting held last Thursday at Mrs. D. M. Marshall's, Estacada.

Misses Mildred and Florice Douglass and Naomi Paddison, Glen and Virgil Douglass attended Sunday school at Estacada last Sunday.

George Smith was a Portland visitor Monday.

Last Thursday Will Douglass had a road-working bee; the neighbors coming out and helping him to make a road into his place so he can get out and in easier. Seventeen men turned out and did quite a bit of work on the new road. There were 11 ladies present, some of them helping Mrs. Douglass with the dinner and all having a social time together.

While Will Douglass was blasting out some stumps one day last week, his dog got in the way and at the fifth discharge was killed—literally blown up.

A Soldier's Strength

Every enlisted man would stand up stronger during the first year's service if he could have the benefits of

SCOTT'S EMULSION

because it fortifies the lungs and throat, creates strength to avoid grippe and pneumonia and makes rich blood to avert rheumatic tendencies.

Send a bottle of SCOTT'S to a relative or friend in the service.

The Norwegian cod liver oil in Scott's Emulsion is now refined in our own American laboratories which makes it pure and palatable. Scott & Bowne, Bloomfield, N.J. 17-14

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Woodlee were Portland visitors Saturday and were accompanied home by Miss Barnes, a cousin of Mrs. Woodlee, who spent Sunday with them.

Roy Douglass and wife were Oregon City visitors Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Woodlee, Mr. and Mrs. Will Douglass and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Douglass visited with Mrs. Viola Douglass Sunday.

Mrs. R. B. Gibson was the guest of her sister, Mrs. S. J. Eddy, the first of the week.

CHERRYVILLE

We are "Webfoot" once more! Five months of comparatively dry weather was quite a spell for this part of the state.

L. C. Read and family, who lived one mile west of this place, have moved.

CORRESPONDENCE

(Continued on page 6)

TOWER'S FISH BRAND REFLEX SLICKER

is a corker for staying on the job.

Waterproof Absolutely. Satisfaction Guaranteed. DEALERS EVERYWHERE. A. J. TOWER CO. BOSTON.

PROSPERITY

THE FRUITS OF LABOR

THE FRUITS OF LABOR should be preserved as well as any other form of fruit. Deposit the fruits of your labor with us at 4 per cent compound interest and they will not only be preserved but multiplied.

Just as with a harvest of edible fruit, the harvest of your industry should be stored away against the winter of want. Money in the bank is the stored up energy of the harvests gathered in youthful vigor to be used as necessity, old age or lack of employment demands. It's the insurance of the future. Let us talk with you about opening an account today.

Total Resources Over One Half Million Dollars

Bank of Commerce

Owned, Operated and Controlled by Clackamas County People

THOS. F. RYAN, President. DR. H. S. MOUNT, Vice President. JOHN R. HUMPHREYS, Cashier.