

WIRES PLEASED AT ESTACADA MEETING

EXCELLENT CHICKEN DINNER PUTS BOTH SIDES IN GOOD SPIRITS

STEVENS ASKS AID FOR FAIR

Different Viewpoints Given by Speakers of Farmers and Merchants' and Local Clubs

Sixty-five members of the Oregon City Commercial club returned from a banquet and "get-together meeting" at Estacada Tuesday night, highly elated over the successful outcome of their visit. After enjoying an excellent chicken dinner served by the ladies of the Civic Improvement club, of Estacada, speakers of the Live Wires and members of the Farmers' and Merchants' club took alternate turns at presenting civic problems from their point of view. Judge Grant Dimick, of Oregon City, covered agricultural subjects, interspersing his address with apt verses of poetry. H. C. Stevens, state representative and president of the Eastern Clackamas County Fair, made an appeal for financial assistance for the fair and discussed road building problems. Gilbert Hedges, district attorney of Clackamas county, B. T. McBain, H. E. Cross, G. F. Johnson, Livy Stipp, C. W. Robey, C. Schubel and Thomas Burke, of the Live Wires, also made brief addresses. E. W. Bartlett, prominent attorney of Estacada, told of some of the needs of his section of the county. O. D. Eby, of the Live Wires, and Walter Givens, president of the Farmers and Merchants' club, presided at the meeting.

The Farmers and Merchants' club suspended their order of business and turned that feature of the meeting over to the Live Wires, who made their committee reports and conducted their business very much as it is conducted at home. Judge Dimick told of the efforts of the "bean" committee of the club to raise a standardized bean crop, in the hope of demonstrating the value of standardizing farm production. He pointed out the importance of raising pure bred stock; felicitated the Estacada people on the organization of a cheese factory in that town and suggested that the farmers get behind the move by bringing their products to the factory instead of shipping them elsewhere. Mr. Stevens said the Eastern Clackamas county fair had received financial aid from the county budget two years ago and that last year aid was given, although not provided for in the budget; this year, however, said the speaker, there is plenty of budget but no appropriation. He said he had introduced a bill in the last legislature to permit the division of state aid funds, but the measure was defeated and had been opposed by the Live Wires. B. T. McBain agreed with Mr. Stevens but C. Schubel later said the Wires had favored the bill.

A rising vote of thanks to the ladies who served the dinner and the introduction of Mrs. E. W. Bartlett, president of the Civic Improvement club, and the singing of America by the entire assemblage were other features of the meeting. A bit of humor was injected by Judge John N. Sievers, who said he would have to give up marching with the Oregon City

INSURANCE CASE LOST BY WOMAN

TAKES JURY TWENTY MINUTES TO BRING IN VERDICT FOR INSURANCE COMPANY

Twenty minutes after the case was submitted to them Monday, a jury who had listened to the case of Mrs. Mary C. Wells against the Firemen's Insurance company of New Jersey for $1,400 alleged to be due as insurance on a residence which burned in Oswego last August, brought in a verdict for the insurance company.

The suit for recovery on the insurance was contested by attorneys for the company on the grounds that Mrs. Wells had hired William Newman to set fire to three cottages so that the money could be collected. Newman was tried for arson last year and pleaded guilty, receiving a sentence of from three to seven years in the penitentiary. He was brought here to testify Monday and swore that Mrs. Wells had promised him $225 for doing the job.

Mrs. Wells was also tried for arson but was acquitted, and she started the action which resulted in a verdict against her Monday. Judge Robert Tucker heard the case. Brownell and Marsters appeared for Mrs. Wells and Gilbert Hedges, district attorney of Clackamas county, and John McCort, former assistant United States district attorney, of Portland, appeared for the insurance company.

WILL MAKE TRADE FOR NEW PARKSITE

COUNCIL HEARS PROTESTS AND APPOINTS COMMITTEE TO CONFER

Responding to popular appeal as manifested in a petition signed by several hundred citizens, the city council, at a special meeting Friday night, reconsidered its former action in regard to trading certain pieces of city property for 13 1/4 acres in the south end of the city under control of the water board, which it is proposed to use for a park site. At a meeting last week five of the councilmen voted against the trade but with only one member absent from the meeting Friday night the vote to appoint a committee to confer with the water board and consummate the deal was unanimous. Councilmen Buckles, Cox and Bridges were named on the committee.

The decision was reached after a communication from Frank Busch, offering $5,500 for the site, was read and a storm of protest against accepting the offer was made by several gathered in the chambers for the purpose. Councilmen H. M. Templeton, Fred Metzner and I. C. Bridges led the opposition to the sale of the property. Mr. Bridges was opposed to the trade last week but explained Friday night that he realized a majority of the citizens favored the public park and he wished to comply with the will of the people. On the proposal of Councilman Tobin the letter from Mr. Busch was rejected.

Attorney C. Schubel, Mrs. J. W. Norris, prominent club woman, and George Randall were actively in favor of the city accepting the offer of the water board. "Hang on to what we have," said Mr. Randall, who strongly opposed selling the property to a private individual. Mrs. Norris also spoke for the park. "Why do we have to beg and beg for a thing of which we may well be proud?" asked Mrs. Norris, and several women in the audience decisively nodded their heads in approval.

DELEGATES TO CONVENTION APPOINTED AT CLUB MEETING

The Bible class department of the Women's club had charge of the meeting in the Commercial club rooms here last Thursday. Mrs. D. C. Latourette was the leader. The subjects for the afternoon were "The Prophets, Elijah and Elisha," Mrs. S. S. Walker; "The Life of Samuel," Mrs. J. W. Draper; "Character Study of David," Mrs. D. M. Shanks; "Friendship of David and Jonathan," Mrs. F. J. Toole. Appropriate readings illustrating their subjects were given by Mrs. E. A. Chapman and Mrs. Theodore W. Clark, and Mrs. Latourette gave a general Bible review.

Delegates were appointed to the State Federation meeting to be held in Prineville in October. They are Mrs. Rosina Fouts and Mrs. J. W. Norris, with Mrs. J. E. Downey and Mrs. W. J. Wilson, alternates. The calendar committee was chosen as follows: Mrs. D. C. Latourette, Mrs. W. A. White, Mrs. T. E. Beard, Mrs. N. W. Scott, Mrs. A. McDonald, Mrs. N. M. Aldredge, Miss Ada Bedwell and Mrs. D. M. Shanks.

WELL KNOWN YOUNG PEOPLE ARE MARRIED AT PARSONAGE

Miss Blanche Miller, who recently finished the term as a teacher in the Oregon City schools, and Waldo F. Brown, of New Era, were quietly married at the Presbyterian parsonage by Rev. J. R. Landsborough at 11 o'clock yesterday morning. They left immediately for a short honeymoon, after which they will go to New Era, where Mr. Brown is engaged in farming with his father, George Brown, who is known as the "potato king of Clackamas county."

Mrs. Brown is the daughter of Mrs. Nora Miller, of Highland, and a graduate of the Highland schools and the Oregon City high school. She was a teacher here for three years and had been elected for the term next year, but resigned recently when her wedding engagement was announced.

FLOWER DAY JULY 2

Money Paid for Admission Will be Given to Red Cross

The Mount Pleasant Rose society will hold a "flower show" in the school house July 2nd in lieu of the Rose show which it was intended should be held in June but which was postponed on account of the shortage in the latter flowers. A small admission fee will be charged to the flower show and the money given to the Red Cross. All kinds of wild flowers and ferns will be shown in addition to roses and other cultivated blooms. A strawberry fete for the benefit of the Red Cross will be held at the home of Mrs. A. C. Warner, June 27.

Two Fined for Speeding

Gust Petzol, of California, and P. A. Schmidt, of Mount Angel, were fined $5 and costs by Justice of the Peace John N. Sievers for speeding yesterday. They were arrested by Motorcycle Officer H. E. Meades.

RED CROSS GIVEN $1.50 PER CAPITA

CLACKAMAS COUNTY TOTALS SLOW COMING IN BUT SHOW OVERSUBSCRIPTION

COUNTY DONATES $12,700

Many Districts Ask for More Time as Supplies Reached Them After Drive Started

The total of the contributions to the Red Cross fund from Clackamas county has not yet been compiled but figures reported late last night with many districts yet to turn in complete reports show about $12,700 have been collected, approximately $7,200 coming from Oregon City. It was learned by County Campaign Manager T. W. Sullivan that the quota for Clackamas county was $10,000 instead of $15,000, so that with the figures available the apportionment is oversubscribed by more than $2,000.

The total contribution of Oregon City to the Red Cross fund is more than $7,200 at present with a few more subscriptions to be reported. This gives the city credit for donating approximately $1.50 per capita.

County Campaign Manager T. W. Sullivan does not expect to have the grand totals in for several days, as the time for making collections was extended in some of the districts because of the late arrival of supplies.

Several fraternal organizations made their contributions known Tuesday. They are the Elks' lodge, $100; Masons, $25; Rebekahs, $10; I. O. O. F., $25; W. O. W., $20; and the Oregon City Commercial club, $50.

Districts which have turned in reports are Dist. 3, Canemah, $44.17; Dist. 4, $38; Dist. 20, Macksburg, $122.50; Dist. 26, $38.50; Dist. 15, Beaver Creek, $101.90; Damascus, $112.50; Dist. 31, $40; Dist. 37, $39.50; Dist. 46, Sandy, $317.50; Dist. 48, Parkplace, $102.20; Dist. 55, $100.50; District 63, $61; Dist. 64, Clackamas, $221; Dist. 78, New Era, $100; Dist. 81, $36.30; Dist. 92, $60.05; Dist. 107, $56.50; Dist. 305, $48.50; Stafford, $70.50; Oak Grove, $316.17; Logan, (partial), $29; Bull Run (partial), $28; Oswego, $636.50; Estacada, $1,026; Concord, $109; Lakewood, $130.25; Redlands, $117.80.

The following reports were received by Mr. Sullivan yesterday: Dist. 32 (partial), $13.75; Dist. 38, $66.50; Dist. 42, Cherryville, $1.00; Dist. 43,

WEST POINTER IS HERE ON FURLOUGH

JOHN HALESTON, GRADUATE OF OREGON CITY HIGH VISITS FRIENDS

John Haleston, West Point cadet, is here visiting friends while on a furlough of 60 days, after spending two years at the military academy. Cadet Haleston is a graduate of Oregon City high school and was appointed to West Point by the late United States Senator Harry Lane. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Haleston, former residents of this city, who now reside at Camas.

Only one furlough is allowed West Point cadets during the four year course, said Cadet Haleston. The leave of absence is granted at the end of the second year. He said that the incoming class this year is about twice as large as in former times and that the students were being graduated at the end of three years because of the war. He expects to complete his course next fall if the war lasts until that time and he says military authorities in the east do not look for an early ending of hostilities.

As he watched a detachment of the Third Oregon Guards passing through the city on a practice hike, he remarked that the men looked in fine physical shape and were equipped for the roughest kind of going and he added that the duties and training at West Point were not the strenuous commonly believed compared with the lot of a private soldier in the National Guard or regular army. The rigid rules, which are as rigidly enforced, and the intensive course of study, he declared, required constant and close application. His only regret, however, is that he will not be able to finish the course this year, as he is anxious to see active duty in the field.

Hold Auxiliary Meeting

An auxiliary meeting of the Pacific Synod of the Evangelical Lutheran church, which held its convention in Portland last week, was held here Friday afternoon with services in the Lutheran church in the evening. Rev. Dr. Kunzman, of Philadelphia, addressed the auxiliary meeting and the evening services. Delegates to the convention took an automobile trip over the Columbia highway Saturday.

NEAT SUM RAISED AT GARDEN FETE

STRAWBERRIES AND CREAM AND MUSICAL PROGRAM ENTICE MONEY

A neat sum was realized for the Red Cross society at the strawberry fete given at The Lilac, the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Warner, of Mount Pleasant, last evening. The musical program and the delicious strawberries combined to delight the large number who attended the affair. While the evening was not as pleasant as the patrons would have wished the inspiring spirit of the musicians and the worthy cause to which the proceeds were devoted pleased a crowd that would have been much larger had the weather had been more generous with warmth.

The harp selections of A. Galicio, of Gladstone; the classical violin numbers by Miss Maxine Telford; the songs of Mrs. Carl Moore, of Gladstone, and E. McLane, who was accompanied by his daughter, Miss Mildred, of Mount Pleasant, were given spontaneous applause, and the address by James Cary, of Oregon City, on Red Cross work, was received with attentive interest. Dancing, on a specially built platform, helped pass the evening, the music being furnished by Mrs. William Estes and Gustave Flechtner, of this city. Many of the women of Mount Pleasant did their bit by sending dainty baskets filled with delicatessens to be sold for the cause.

Members of the Red Cross chapter of this city and Mount Pleasant, and Honor Guard girls of Oregon City assisted Mr. and Mrs. Warner in entertaining the guests. They are Mrs. O. A. Kruse, Mrs. A. E. King, Miss E. E. Williams, Mrs. J. M. Warnock, Mrs. E. McLane, Mrs. O. G. Thomas, Mrs. E. A. Chapman, Mrs. W. B. Lawton, Mrs. Jennie Vincent Miles, Mrs. F. M. Thompson, Mrs. Curtis Dadds, Miss Marie Harvey, Mrs. W. B. Stafford, Miss Lyle Yexley, Miss Merle Yexley, Miss Margaret Bruening, of Mount Pleasant; Mrs. J. N. Wisner, Mrs. James Cary, Mrs. L. E. Jones, Mrs. Theodore Osmond, of the Red Cross society; Miss C. Pratt, Miss Dolly Pratt, Miss Merle Keck, Miss Kathryn Sinnott, and Miss Pinkney Whitney, of the Honor Guard of Oregon City.

DAMASCUS PRINCIPAL IS UNITED TO DAIRY FARMER

Miss Anna Bachmann, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Bachmann, of Damascus, was married at the family home at noon yesterday to John W. Wornstaff, of Bend, Ore., by Rev. J. R. Landsborough, pastor of the Presbyterian church, of Oregon City. Miss Jennie Bachmann, sister of the bride, was bride's maid and the groom was attended by George Bachmann, brother of Mrs. Wornstaff. The ceremony was performed under a floral arch of ferns and pink roses in the presence of relatives and several intimate friends of the families. Mrs. Josephine Langst Link, of Portland, sang "I Love You Truly" as the bridal party took their places beneath the arch.

After the honeymoon, which is to be spent in Astoria and Seaside, the new married couple will go to Bend, where Mr. Wornstaff has a dairy farm. The bride was principal of the Damascus schools for several years and has many friends in Portland and this city.

COUNCIL RAISES PAY OF CITY EMPLOYES TO $2.75

At a special meeting of the city council Friday night wages of city employees were raised from $2.25 a day to $2.75 and the operators of the city elevator will receive $60 per month instead of $50. The increases become effective July 1. Councilmen Tobin, Bridges and Templeton were appointed to confer with officials of the Southern Pacific Railway company and the Portland Railway, Light & Power company in an effort to have the blowing of whistles at all hours of the night stopped. An ordinance authorizing the purchase of 500 feet of hose was passed and several petitions for the improvement of streets were considered.

SUES BLIND HUSBAND

Mrs. Minnie A. Lent Claims Fred G. Lent Deserted Her

Charging her husband, Fred G. Lent, with desertion, Mrs. Minnie A. Lent has started suit here for divorce. The couple were married in 1893. She claims her husband has not lived with her since June, 1916. He is blind and formerly conducted a confectionery store in Oregon City.

Arrested for Speeding

W. J. Burns, an automobile demonstrator of Portland, was arrested by Motorcycle Officer H. E. Meades near Barlow Sunday. He told Meades, according to the latter that he would appear for trial yesterday. When he did not show up Justice of the Peace John N. Sievers sent Constable Jack Frost after him. He is to be given a trial today. Burns was en route from Salem to Portland.

HEDGES WINS SUIT IN SUPREME COURT

CONSIDERABLE IMPORTANCE IS ATTACHED TO WEYERHAEUSER TAX CASE

COUNTY ASSESSMENT UPHELD

Difference of $95,643 in Valuation Allowed by Campbell Set Aside By Higher Court

Considerable importance is attached by local attorneys to a decision handed down by the supreme court Tuesday, in which the appeal of Clackamas county to reverse the circuit court in the Weyerhaeuser Timber company's tax suit is upheld and the county will receive taxes on $188,145 instead of $92,502.

The supreme court decision is the culmination of a suit started by the timber company in 1914, at which time its attorneys appealed to the circuit court to lower the assessed valuation after the board of equalization had refused to grant the request. Judge J. U. Campbell heard the case and rendered a decision for the Weyerhaeuser interests, lowering the valuation $95,643.

District Attorney Gilbert E. Hedges, assisted by his deputy, Thomas A. Burke, and H. B. Beckett, appealed to the supreme court, their contention being that if the assessments were to be overturned on what they termed flimsy evidence the county officials might just as well permit the timber companies to make their own assessments.

The attorneys for the timber company, C. L. Starr and Littlefield & Maguire, held that the assessment in this case had been made at full valuation of the land, whereas other lands were assessed at a 58 per cent valuation.

The cruise was made for the company by M. G. Nease, assisted by M. L. Stoddard, C. A. Hart, L. Clarke and L. W. Olinger on about six sections of timber. Judge Campbell sustained the county cruise and the assessment on but two parcels of land covered by the petition, the county cruise being approximately the same as the high cruise of the other men in those two cases.

District Attorney Hedges characterized the decision of the supreme court as a "victory for the small land holder," whom he said must pay the taxes necessary to conduct the government if the large holders escape paying the assessed valuation on their timber.

AVIATOR WILL FLY AT FOURTH PICNIC

GOOD PROGRAM BEING ARRANGED BY COMMITTEE OF MILL EMPLOYEES

The principal attraction at the big Fourth of July picnic of the employees of the mills of this city, to be held at Chautauqua park, will be Aviator Hansen, pupil of the late Silas Christofferson, who will fly from Eugene to the grounds and do "stunts" during the day after his arrival at the park. George C. Brownell will deliver a patriotic address.

Employees of the Oregon City Manufacturing company, the Hawley Pulp & Paper company and the Crown-Willamette company, numbering about 2000 men, will participate in the festivities with their families and the general public is invited to be present.

The committee on arrangements which will meet tomorrow night to formulate further plans for the celebration are Captain M. D. Phillips, Crown-Willamette company, chairman; B. L. Harvey, of the Oregon City Manufacturing company, secretary; E. A. Chapman, of the Hawley Pulp & Paper company, treasurer; Fred Metzner, H. F. Tschirgi, Henry Henningsen, Joseph Bealieu, John Reams and Mr. Schwartz.

The Boys' band, of Oregon City, will furnish the music. Other attractions will include sack races, running races, nail driving contests for the women and girls, three legged races and baseball. Prizes will be announced later by the committee.

There will be dancing during the afternoon and evening. Arrangements have been made to run special cars to the park at Gladstone and no charges will be asked at the gate.

WORKERS WILL ORGANIZE

Employees of Oregon City Manufacturing Co. to Meet Friday

Employees of the Oregon City Manufacturing company will meet in Willamette hall tomorrow evening to perfect the organization of the textile workers' union. Otto Hartwig, president of the Oregon Federation of Labor, will speak and assist in the organization.

EMPLOYERS SHOW DISCRIMINATION

ADVERTISEMENTS FOR MEN SHOW DISLOYAL SPIRIT, SAYS NEW YORK MAN

Men of military age are being discriminated against by employers since the enactment of the selective draft and it is becoming increasingly difficult for them to obtain employment. Help wanted advertisements in the great daily papers show this, the greater majority calling for men "over 31" and otherwise indicating that preference will be given to the men not subject to the nation's call. The injustice and disloyalty of this was shown by Dr. Schuyler S. Wheeler, past president of the American Institute of Electrical Engineers, who is head of a firm employing several thousand workmen.

"Employers only willing to hire men over the military age," he said, "are disloyal, un-American and unfair. In addition, they are shortsighted, as only about one in twenty of the ten million men registered will be called. Refusal to employ men between the ages of twenty-one and thirty-one penalizes the very class on which the future of the nation depends. These men are the fathers of the coming generation."

"Men should be given employment on the same basis as before the war. If a man is called from his work to take arms to help 'make the world safe for Democracy' the employer should be proud that one of his men has gone to the front and should wish him God-speed. The thought that his work may have to be done by a new man should never occur—there are millions who cannot go!"

"If employers are not careful they will make it a disgrace for a young man to be called to the colors. Instead, there should be rivalry between the shops and factories as to which sends the most men to the front, for only the best are wanted and the fittest to work are the fittest to fight. Give the young men their chance! They took it when they registered—now, let the employers take their chance and give them work!"

The movement to employ men regardless of their liability to military service was started at the plant of the Crocker-Wheeler Company, electrical machinery manufacturers of Amper, N. J., and is being adopted by many of the other large concerns.

JUDGE'S DAUGHTER UNITED TO PORTLAND PHARMACIST

Miss Lillian Anderson, daughter of Judge and Mrs. H. S. Anderson, was married to Leland Hendricks, son of Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Hendricks, at the home of her parents, Fair Oaks Farm, by Rev. J. R. Landsborough, of the Presbyterian church at noon last Thursday. Relatives and intimate friends of the contracting couple attended the ceremony.

Miss Ruth Brown and Miss Winifred Brown, of Logan, sang "God Made Me Thine," preceding the wedding, and Miss Grace Hendricks, sister of the groom, played the Lohengrin wedding march as the bridal party entered the living room. Mr. Kenneth Hendricks was best man and Miss Ozella Anderson, cousin of the bride, was bridesmaid.

The bride is an accomplished vocalist of Logan, where she has spent most of her life. Her father is county judge of Clackamas county. Mr. Hendricks is a graduate of the Pharmacy college of Portland and is employed at the Byerly Drug company in that city, where the couple will make their home following a honeymoon of two weeks.

An account of this wedding hastily prepared for last week's paper was entirely wrong. The Courier wishes to apologize for the error.

JURY ACQUITS FOUR OF FISHING NEAR FISHWAY

A jury in Justice of the Peace John N. Sievers' court here Saturday found W. Judd, Geo. Story, Matt Story and William Finucane not guilty of fishing within 100 feet of the fishway in the Willamette river.

The case excited considerable attention because of the number of witnesses called by the defendants to refute the testimony of Deputy Game Warden Jewel and Constable Jack Frost, who made the arrest June 13. The jury was composed of John Le-wellen, M. D. Telford, E. H. Cooper, James McNeil and H. C. Salisbury. Their verdict was greeted with cheers from the crowd of friends of the accused men who filled the court room and half the sidewalk in front.

DRAFT BOARD ORGANIZES

Sheriff Wilson and County Clerk Harrington Are Chairman and Clerk

The local board for the selective draft, composed of Dr. J. W. Norris, W. J. Wilson, sheriff, and Iva M. Harrington, county clerk, met Thursday morning to organize. Sheriff Wilson was chosen chairman and Miss Harrington was elected clerk. Deputy District Attorney Thos. Burke acted in an advisory capacity. The board will draw the names and pass on the men eligible for the selective army when the call is made by President Wilson.

BIG FORCE BUSY ON NEW BUILDING

RESERVATIONS COMING IN RAPIDLY FOR CHAUTAUQUA TENT SITES

GREAT YEAR ANTICIPATED

Season Ticket Sale Opened at Oregon City Bank With Rush of Orders Coming In

From present indications it looks as if most every man, woman and child in Clackamas county will be in attendance at the Willamette Valley Chautauqua Assembly this year. The big program opens July 10 for a 13-day assembly, and already Secretary Burke has been besieged with reservations for tents and camp-sites. The season ticket sale, which opened Monday morning at the Bank of Oregon City, has been unusually brisk, and from the fact that the opening date is still two weeks away, there is every indication of a wonderful year.

Down at the old park a large force of men is at work on the new auditorium and every possible means will be used to have the elegant new structure in readiness when the gates of the park swing open on the morning of the tenth. The new building will be one of the finest Chautauqua auditoriums of the country, and the excellent program chosen by the board of directors is certainly fitting for the fine new auditorium.

The program this year is a wonderfully large assortment of excellent features. The summer school morning classes will be up to the standard of former years in every way. Prof. Griley, of Portland, will supervise the athletic work, Hart-ridge G. Whipp, of Portland, is to handle the daily chorus work and the big Chautauqua chorus, and daily Bible study, bird-lore and interesting forum hours each day on the general theme, "How Can I Do My Bit?" will round out the mornings.

The lecturers include Montavilla Flowers, Lee Francis Lybarger, Wm. A. Boni, Dr. Whitcomb Brougher, Governor George Carlson, Dr. Andrew Johnson, Dr. G. Whitefield Ray, W. L. Mellinger, Chauncey Hawkins, Dr. Henry Smith Williams, Lorene Wiswell Wilson, Wood Briggs, Elias Day, Mrs. Chas. Castner, W. I. Nolan, A. E. Turner and Dr. Frank Bohn.

A wonderful music and entertainment program is in store for the patrons. James Goddard, world's greatest baritone, is coming. Also Lozzi's Royal Venetian band, the Ongawa Japanese troupe, the Davenny Festival Quintette, Graus Alpine Yodlers, Mawson Antarctic movies, the Wassers Co., Boston Light Opera Co., the Australian Manikins, Lyric Glee club, Fillion Concert party, the Military Girls' orchestra, Musical Arts Quartette, the Smith-Spring-Holmes Co., and other splendid features.

Gladstone Park is the most ideal site for camping. It is estimated that over 1000 people will camp on the grounds.

NEW RECTOR TAKES CHARGE AUGUST 1

REV. C. H. L. CHANDLER, OF SAN LUIS OBISPO, COMING TO ST. PAUL'S EPISCOPAL

Rev. C. H. L. Chandler, rector of St. Stephens Episcopal church at San Luis Obispo, Cal., will become rector of St. Paul's Episcopal church in Oregon City about August 1, it was announced by members of the local church, who have received word from Rev. Chandler stating that he has accepted the call to this city.

Rev. Chandler has been at San Luis Obispo for seven years and has taken keen interest in public affairs, while strongly developing his pastorage, his friends say. He organized the Emerson club and a Chautauqua association and was very active in other civic and economic bodies. A Guild hall was built and a parochial organization of the church was effected under his direction.

Mrs. Chandler is a talented musician and a member of the Music Study club, the Book club and other organizations designed to support community interest and church work. Rev. Chandler was employed in the office of the O. W. R. & N. company in Portland for ten years and prior to accepting the call to California he was travelling secretary of the St. Andrew Brotherhood.

Discuss Juvenile Work

"The Juvenile Work," was the subject discussed at the meeting of the W. C. T. U. in the Oregon City library Saturday afternoon. Mrs. Min-da Church, court matron, and Constable D. E. Frost spoke at the meeting on the work of the juvenile court of Clackamas county. Several speakers from Portland also talked upon the subject.
