HAZELIA

W. H. Zivney called on S. S. and Albert R. Boutz Tuesday.

J. Fiala, Sr., was transacting business in the Tualatin Meadows neighborhood Wednesday.

Life is one great picture frame; and our little acts of kindness are just so many gems set therein, by which we determine the goodness of the heart they surround.

Mrs. C. C. Borland is on the sick list.

Can you by any process of transposition, substitution, elimination or imagination arrive at the conclusion that all the bores are in the country when the legislature is in session?

Arthur Borland and Korkins Ackerson were visitors at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Borland, Wednesday.

Mrs. Charles Larson spent several days with her mother last week.

W. H. Zivney and brother, R. J. Zivney, were transacting business in Portland Thursday.

These progressive farmers have sold an immense lot of potatoes and cabbage this year. W. H. Zivney is called the "cabbage king" of Hazelia.

Theodore Steinhiller was in Oswego Saturday afternoon.

Those from Hazelia who attended Oswego grange Saturday were: L. M. Davidson, Mrs. S. S. Boutz and H. M. and C. C. Borland.

C. Milam, from the coast, and Mr. and Mrs. Ackerson of Turner, Ore., are guests at the C. C. Borland home.

Mrs. Fred Lehman was a caller in Oswego Saturday evening.

Mrs. S. S. Boutz was a pleasant visitor at the C. C. Borland home Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Bolds and the twins, Jack and Gloria, spent the week-end at "Shadow Woods," their country home at Hazelia.

Those from Oswego who attended the basket social here Saturday evening were Mr. and Mrs. Hephel Shipley, Mr. Wilmarth, Charles Austin, Misses Ethel Thompson, Edna Porter, Florence Brumbaugh and Mr. and Mrs. McMahon.

Master Henry Zivney visited C. Antonio and Shirley Boutz Saturday morning.

Charles Helms was a visitor in Portland Saturday.

H. T. Duncan is still quite sick.

Joseph MacMahon was marketing farm produce in Portland Saturday.

The basket social given at Hazelia Saturday evening was a great success and the crowd of visiting friends locally and from a distance enjoyed the play, "Won by a Wager."

Musie was furnished by an orchestra from Portland. The baskets were sold at auction and netted a sum of more than $50.

A Wallace of Portland was in the neighborhood Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Raicy were dinner guests Sunday in Tualatin, where they were visiting with Mrs. Raicy's sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Payne.

George Wilson was a visitor in Oswego Saturday.

Mrs. Sarah Childs is quite sick.

The Rev. Mr. Coleman preached a very interesting sermon at Hazelia Sunday afternoon, using for his text, "Give us this day our daily bread—Matt. 6:11," and "Jesus feeds the five thousand."

Mr. Oliver of Oswego was in the neighborhood Monday.

JENNINGS LODGE

Handsome in all its appointments was the luncheon given by Mrs. H. H. Emmons at her pretty home on Tuesday of last week.

Mrs. Ora Kaufman of Ashland being the motif of the affair. She is a house guest of Mrs. Laura Newell.

About the luncheon table were Mesdames Edith Truscott, Clemens, Cushing, Laura Newell, the honored guest and the hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Sanders are returning to their home at the lodge.

Mr. Sanders' business interests called him to Wabburg early in the fall and he remained at the Washington town during the winter.

Mrs. S. H. Bechtel is enjoying a visit from her sister, Mrs. Schatz, of Adams, Ore.

Mrs. Allen departed on Monday for a visit with her daughters at The Dalles.

The "E. R." a women's class of the Grace Congregational church of this place, held a delightful meeting on Thursday, March 8.

Mrs. Louise Morse had charge of the devotional part of the program.

Through the teacher, Mrs. H. N. Smith, the lessons are made very interesting.

Mrs. Kessi is president of the class; Mrs. Allen vice-president; Miss Kelly secretary; Mrs. Roberts treasurer; Mrs. Losey the teacher in the Bible and social living work.

The class has two meetings a week, on Sunday morning at 10 a. m., and on Thursday afternoon from 2:30 till 4 o'clock.

Twenty mothers came out at the last regular meeting of the Parent-Teacher association, which was held on Friday afternoon, March 9.

The real treat of the afternoon was having with us Mrs. W. T. Milliken, wife of the Baptist minister at Oregon City.

Mrs. Milliken gave a splendid paper on "Self Control," and it contained much food for thought for all mothers.

Mrs. Carl Smith introduced the speaker and Mrs. Morse, presided at the short business session which followed.

The Sunday school of the Grace Congregational church is quite promising.

The enrollment for February was 96, with an average attendance of 57.

Total offering for the month $5.12. A committee is busy arranging for the Easter program, Mrs. Kelly being at the head of this committee.

F. B. Tucker is superintendent.

The Tri-M men's class gives a banquet at the church on the evening of March 15.

A speaker from Portland is to be present. W. I. Blinstone is the president of the class and Mr. Woodham the teacher.

The Christian Endeavorers held their monthly social on Friday evening.

A taffy pull at which fourteen of the young people enjoyed themselves was a feature.

Mrs. Arthur Smith, who is the president of the society, was chaperone.

Mrs. Albert Tucker was summoned to the bedside of her mother, who resides in Chicago, and left a fortnight ago for her old home.

Charles Risley is recovering from his recent illness, during which he was confined to the Oregon City hospital some weeks.

Mr. Risley is a member of an old pioneer family and his host of friends from here, as well as all over Clackamas county, are pleased to hear he is recovering.

The guild will give a St. Patrick's dinner at the church on Friday evening, March 15.

We understand that menu and decorations are to be in keeping with the day. Everyone is invited to come.

The annual church canvass takes place this week.

The budget voted on for current expenses and pastor's salary for the coming year is $600.

Cut This Out—It is Worth Money

DON'T MISS THIS. Cut out this slip, enclose with 5c and mail it to Foley & Co., 2335 Sheffield Ave., Chicago, Ill., writing your name and address clearly.

You will receive in return a trial package containing Foley's Honey and Tar Compound, for coughs, colds and croup; Foley Kidney Pills, for pain in sides and back, rheumatism, backache, kidney and bladder ailments; and Foley Cathartic Tablets, a wholesome and thoroughly cleansing cathartic, for constipation, biliousness, headache and sluggish bowels.—Jones Drug Co.

WILSONVILLE

Mrs. Mary Seely is quite ill with a gripe.

Mrs. E. Curry and family are much improved.

Ray Yeager is still in Portland at the home of his aunt, Mrs. Monro, recovering from a slight operation on his nose.

Joe Graham, Jr., returned from the hospital Tuesday after an operation.

Stanley Murray is resting as well as could be expected in Good Samaritan hospital after having both legs broken. While at work with a sweep stump puller, the double-trees broke, letting the sweep fly back, breaking both legs below the knees.

Dr. Butler took him to Portland immediately, but it was the next day noon before the setting could be done.

R. B. Graham lost a valuable horse Sunday. The horse had been sick for a week.

Anton Batalga and Joe Roberts also have horses sick with the same disease.

Little Elmer Stangel, while shooting rats in his father's barn, shot through a partition in the stable and the bullet entered the leg of one of his father's best horses.

Dr. Wagner of Newberg was called, but failed to locate the lead.

The M. B. A.'s have their new "old" hall moved on their lot and will soon have it remodelled into comfortable quarters for meetings.

Mr. Butson has moved his house from the Bisle Seely side of his ranch to the Wilsonville side and will soon be moving into it, as he has rented the home he is living in.

The ladies of the W. C. T. U., 16 in number, met at the home of Mrs. M. C. Young Thursday, despite the snow storm.

Mrs. Sleeth of Portland, president of the Multnomah county W. C. T. U., was in attendance and after the usual program gave a talk on bills and measures which are to be voted upon.

The talk was much enjoyed by all. At five o'clock refreshments were served by Mrs. Mattie Young, assisted by Miss Martha Yeager.

Quite a number of our ladies, with well filled baskets, took the noon car and visited the Union Hill school, under the leadership of Mrs. Cora Haslebrink.

It was parents' day at the school and the children had a fine display of their work and a splendid program.

An old fashioned basket dinner was first. Superintendent Calavan and Supervisor Vedder were there and both gave good talks.

After the judges had passed, many blue, red and white ribbons shone out as a reward for fine needle work, art and pastry, the cakes, bread and biscuits all being sampled.

It is to be hoped that much of this real child's work will be exhibited at our county fair this fall.

Correll Creek school will hold its annual fair and parents' day program this Friday.

The W. C. T. U. meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. George Seely March 22. This is an open meeting where all are invited to take part.

MOUNTAIN VIEW

Last Friday Al Maritz was taken to the Oregon City hospital, where he was operated on for appendicitis. He is getting along nicely.

George Gillett is at home from the hospital much improved.

Mr. Torrance also was brought home from the hospital, where he has been the past three months.

Though not very strong, he is improving, and his friends hope to see him out soon.

Raymond Fisher moved his family back to Dundee, Ore., from the property of E. D. Van Auker on Duane street.

As there are no vacant houses here on the hill we predict this will be rented soon.

Rev. Mulvey will hold services at the little white church Sunday, March 25, at three o'clock.

He will give an illustrated talk, which promises to be very interesting. Let everybody come.

The Ladies' Aid is a loyal, busy crowd, and meets every two weeks on Friday and welcomes all who wish to help.

Mrs. Ed May and daughter, Miss Pearl Martin, went to Kelso, Wash., last Sunday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Boylan, a sister of Mrs. May.

Mr. and Mrs. Boylan and daughter, Celia, and Mrs. Henderson, also attended the funeral.

Mrs. Boylan is the mother of Mr. Boylan, employed at the Estes grocery store. She came to Oregon City a short time ago from Kelso, and was very feeble at the time, suffering from cancer of the stomach.

She was taken to the Oregon City hospital on Wednesday and died the following Saturday morning.

Mrs. Boylan was an earnest Christian woman, and died in the faith. She leaves behind a memory long to be cherished.

Rev. Tatman of the United Brethren church conducted the services at Kelso, where the remains were laid beside her husband.

The patriotic instructor of Meade Relief corps has started the patriotic work in the schools of Clackamas county.

There are a few schools without flags, and if the teachers will report to Mrs. R. M. C. Brown, 302 Molalla avenue, she will see that flags and patriotic literature are furnished.

Meade Relief corps is a loyal band of women, working together for the good of our country.

It numbers 84 members and all loyal women are eligible to membership.

A baby daughter arrived last Friday morning at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Miller on Molalla avenue, weight 11 pounds. Mother and babe are doing well.

Arthur Tanner, who has been visiting at Frank Welsh's home for some time, left for Wolf Creek last Monday to visit the Story family.

STONE

We notice that the swallows have come and still it rains and snows.

The farmers are waiting patiently to plant some of those 4-cent potatoes and perhaps a few onion seed, also.

Fred Hess and mother, of Park-place, were callers at the home of her daughter, Mrs. W. E. Mumpower, on Monday.

Charlie Hattan has been nursing a "boil" on his thumb the past week.

Mr. Edwards, our singing teacher, made a trip to Clarks last Wednesday to organize a singing class, and we have learned that he had good success in getting a class there and one at Springwater also. There is some Elton Hattan spent the last week-end with his parents at Stone.

Mr. Packerman has moved to Gladstone.

Mrs. J. W. Watts and daughter, Virginia, of Molalla, visited the former's mother, "Grandma" Hattan, the past week.

The many friends and neighbors were glad to see Mrs. Watts again in this vicinity.

We understand the county it to put in the rock crusher at Baker's Bridge. The drill is already there and some blasting has been done.

It will be quite an improvement to our roads to get some of this rock scattered over the county. Perhaps there might be a bottom to some of the road holes we read about.

Quite a number were present at the school on Parent-Teacher's day.

The program and the work of the children was excellent.

The boys had built bird houses after their own designs and with the needle work of the girls proved to parents that the children were really getting something more than just book-lore.

We feel very proud of our school.

The semi-annual election of officers and visitor's day were held at the home of Mrs. J. J. Hattan March 7.

The following officers were elected: Mrs. T. Hattan, president; Mrs. Ray Dallas, vice-president; Mrs. Mark Sprague, treasurer; Mrs. Mabel Dallas, secretary.

The club is planning to build a community house at the chautauqua grounds in the near future.

A number of visitors were present in the afternoon. After the program lunch was served and a general good time was had.

EAST CLACKAMAS

J. Enghouse was a visitor with Mr. Lane, west of Clackamas, last Sunday.

Otto Klinker was a visitor with his brother, Henry, in Portland last Sunday.

Mrs. Lena and Mary Heinrich were calling on Mrs. Enghouse last Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. H. Klinker, who has been on the sick list, is improving slowly.

M. S. Shearer made a trip to his ranch in the hills of Clarke county, Wash., last week.

Arlene Haworth was an Oregon City visitor last Saturday.

Raymond Boyer was doing things in Oregon City last Saturday.

Mrs. W. Kneeland and Mrs. E. R. Boyer were calling on Mrs. J. Heinrich Tuesday last week.

Arlene took dinner at Cedar Springs ranch last Sunday.

Mrs. A. Kelnhofer and Mrs. E. R. Boyer visited Mrs. H. Klinker last Monday.

Mrs. E. R. Boyer and daughter, Edna, were week-end visitors with Mrs. Grace Gottberg of Oregon City.

W. Kneeland made a business trip to Portland last Monday.

The E. C. S. C. will meet this week with Mrs. Franz Haberlach on Wednesday.

Mrs. H. H. Blake and sister, Martha Schuren, gave a musical evening to a few invited guests last Saturday.

There will be a hot debate next Saturday night at the school house, so every one that can come should attend because it is a good number.

You get the idea?

Mrs. J. Enghouse was a visitor at the Klinker ranch last Monday.

PARKPLACE

The Gladstone Parent-Teachers' association will give an original entertainment on Friday assisted by band.

There will be several very interesting attractions and some tiful statuary. This is for the benefit of the Parent-Teachers' association.

Mr. Apperson, who has been very ill at his home, is still in a critical condition, although Sunday it was thought he was slightly improved.

Mrs. Chris Rivers and granddaughter, Alto Oehler, returned from a week-end visit to Portland Sunday morning, bringing the former's daughter, Mrs. James Keeley, and family.

Mr. Hays moved his family last week into the Telson house. Their little boy, who has been in bed since before Christmas, is a little better, and is allowed to sit up each day.

The silver tea given at the home of Mrs. Holmes last week was largely attended, considering the stormy weather. Over twenty were present.

The Parkplace school is growing in attendance; at least Miss Chadbourne, the primary teacher, thinks so.

The directors have hired an assistant, Miss Hines, from Portland, to help finish this year. She started on her "task" Monday.

Frank Brown made his parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. Brown, a short visit. He came in a machine, and when he got nearly to his parents' home he found, to his dismay, that the streets are not paved in Parkplace. He had to call on Mr. Holmes to pull him out.

Homer Coffey spent the week-end with his parents last week. Homer is working in the paper bag factory at Camas.

VIOLA

Parents' day was observed at the school house Thursday. The attendance was very good and a great interest was shown by the parents.

On this Thursday there will be a meeting of the parents to organize a parent-teacher's association. Those interested are urged to be present.

The Happy Hour social that was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Miller on Friday evening was enjoyed by all who were there.

There were 42 present. Besides playing games, a mock trial was held. A prominent man was accused of stealing six chickens. He said he had them in his pocket, where some feathers were found, and he even crowed like a rooster, but the jury gave its ver-

Run-down?

—Tired?

—Weak?

Every spring most people feel "all out of sorts"—their vitality is at a low ebb. Through the winter months shut up a great deal in heated house, office, or factory, with little healthy exercise in the great outdoors—eating more than necessary—the blood becomes surcharged with poisons! The best Spring medicine and tonic is one made of herbs and roots without alcohol—that was first discovered by Dr. Pierce—years ago. Made of Golden Seal root, blood root, with glycerine, it is called Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. Ingredients on wrapper. It eliminates from the blood disease-breeding poisons. It makes the blood rich and pure, and furnishes a foundation for sound, physical health.

Sold by medicine dealers, in liquid or tablet form, or send 10 cents to Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y., for a large trial package of tablets.

WHEN "RUN-DOWN."

Salem, Oregon.—"As a spring tonic, to build up a weakened, run-down system, and to give one an appetite, I found Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery good. A friend had recommended it and I found it all that she claimed for it."—Mrs. JAKE GINDER, 1568 S. Bellview Street.

Constipation causes and seriously aggravates many diseases. It is thoroughly cured by Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. One a laxative; two or three a cathartic.

dict, that the prosecuting attorney, who is a preacher, and the sheriff, who is fond of chicken, were guilty of the theft.

Rev. C. W. Pogue left on Monday for California, where he will attend to some business. He expects to be gone three weeks.

Ray Miller and family made a trip to Estacada Sunday afternoon to see Mr. Demoy before he left for his trip to eastern Oregon, where he will look for a new home site.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bartholomew of Estacada came over Friday evening to attend the social, and Mrs. B. Tanner went home with them.

Also went to visit her son, Bennie, who is working on the Columbia river.

EAGLE CREEK

A large crowd attended the melodrama, "The Night Riders," presented by sixteen members of the Eagle Creek grange at Wilburn's hall last Saturday evening. Each one in the play did his or her part well and everyone enjoyed the show very much. After the play a cafeteria supper was served, after which some adjourned to Cogswell's hall and danced for two or three hours.
