REVIEW OF YEAR BY OSWEGO WOMAN CLUB

OSWEGO, June 29.—(Special.)— Reviewing the club's work for the past year, the Oswego Woman's club, in session Thursday, found that the members while accomplishing nothing great, have given great care to detail and the little things have been well and faithfully done.

The committees have worked wonderfully well, interest and harmony have been maintained and a pleasant helpful year has certainly been theirs.

Trying out the school house as a meeting place with marked success; visiting the school twice a month, thus awakening an interest in the school not felt before. They have had the pleasure of listening to four lecturers from Eugene, these were given in the evening and open to the public—a new venture for them. Their regular programs have been deep and well preparing.

already been established. Meeting of charity. It helped the firemen with their entertainment, also furnished the lunch. One member has been called to her long rest during the last year, also a mother of one and a sister. The attendance has been from 33 September 22nd down to the 14th of May, with an average of 26.

Mrs. Thomas, Mrs. Davis, Mrs.
Smith are the star members, only having been absent once. The Oswego Woman's club is a credit to the community.

very few on account of bad weather.
A delicious lunch was served. Brick ice cream and cake, sandwiches and salad.
