

WEEKLY SOLDIER LETTER

Thomas P. Barker, who has been in France, has arrived safely at Camp Lewis, Wash., much to the delight of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Barker of this city. A number of letters have been received by the young man while making the trip, and among these are as follows:

Oregon Headquarters for Soldiers, Sailors and Marines, 425 Seventh Avenue, New York City, April 7, 1919. "Dear Mother, Dad and the Girls: "Just a few lines this morning while I am up at the Oregon Club. I am certainly having a fine time here. I have a daily pass from 10 in the morning until 5 in the evening, and then from 5 until 11:30, so you see we have plenty of time to look around, but it is too good to last. I think we will leave here for Camp Lewis tomorrow or the next day."

"The hospital I am in is certainly a fine place. It used to be a mail order house. The different organizations do all they can to make us feel at home, but it doesn't seem like the West. I was in another club last evening, where they were having a sort of reunion of Washington men. It was a regular home-like party, but it was a fellow can tell a Western fellow or a Western girl as soon as you meet them. I don't know why, but there is a difference. They are more sociable."

"I will wire when we reach Camp Lewis. So long until then."

"TOM."

A card bearing the following from the U. S. A. Debarment Hospital No. 3, was received by the parents: "You are informed that Private Thomas Barker, was transferred this date to Camp Lewis, Wash., with gunshot wound in arm."

The letter from Camp Lewis, since the arrival of the young man, is as follows:

Camp Lewis, April 15, 1919. "Dear Mother, Dad and the Girls: "What in the world is the matter with you folks? I sent you a telegram yesterday morning as soon as we got here, and paid to answer it, as I was anxious to know how you were, but so far no answer has been received."

"I am going to put in for a furlough tomorrow, but do not know whether I will be able to get it or not, as I hear they are not giving out many passes now."

"How is everybody? Write soon."

"TOM."

Thomas Barker, Ward 61, Base Hospital, Camp Lewis, Wash.

The following interesting letter has been received by Sheriff and Mrs. W. J. Wilson of this city, from their son, First Sergeant Kent Wilson, who is with the Evacuation Hospital No. 3, in France:

Brest, France, April 1, 1919. "Dearest Folks:

"After one year and four months of wandering in France and Germany I am back at the spot where I first set foot on foreign soil. Little did I know or realize the adventure that lay ahead of me the day the U. S. S. Covington steamed into this harbor with your boy on board, but it has been the 'great adventure,' and I am glad that I am back here again ready to sail for the U. S. A. to tell the story. It's a story that I'll never forget, and the many interesting incidents will keep me supplied with 'talking material' the rest of my life."

"We have quite a trip from Germany in 'old style French box cars,' packed 'a la sardine.'"

"Believe me, when I get back to America I will be able to tell a good box-car when I see one, for that is all we have traveled in for the last year, except when we walked. On our way down we salvaged a stove from an old Frenchman, by whose house we stopped, and we were able to fix up our 'side door pullman' quite comfortably, at least to keep warm."

"It was interesting, after four months in beautiful, unmolested Germany to again return to the war zone of France. We came from Trier down through Luxembourg to Metz and then down Pass, St. Mihiel, Sancy, Nancy to Toul. This whole region of Northern France, now that the soldiers have left, is one of a huge salvage dump. The inhabitants are slowly returning to their homes; that is, what is left of them, and are beginning to start life anew, after five years' absence."

"We heard that the four big German boats that were to be turned over arrived in the harbor yesterday, so they will probably be the ones we will sail on."

"We are quartered three miles from town in tents, and the mud is a foot deep, but nothing depresses us now that we are going home."

"I don't believe we will be here long, as we have gone through about ten inspections already, and have several more scheduled for tomorrow."

"With love, "From your boy, "KENT."

Suit Is Entered To Collect Note

Eva Allen Bean entered suit against Heister and William Rainford, Richard and Stella Mason, J. F. Draper, H. B. and May Spalding and U. S.
