Lovable Child Is Called By Death

MILWAUKIE, Feb. 3.—(Special).—The sympathy of the entire community went out this week to Rev. and Mrs. H. H. Gell, of the Evangelical church, up on the loss of their little daughter, Marion Margaret, who passed away yesterday morning after only two days of sickness. The little child, who had been in almost perfect health, was not considered grave at the time, although the attack developed quickly and by Monday morning when Dr. W. H. Taylor was called, she was serious. Every medical aid and attention was given the little sufferer, but all to no avail, and the Angel of Death called her home at 7:50 yesterday morning.

Marion Margaret Gell was born in Albany, Oregon, in May, 1912, and would have been four years old this coming May. She was a bright, lovable little maiden, of a sunny disposition and a general favorite of all who knew her, and while she leaves five little brothers and sisters, her place in the home will be sadly missed.

Former Milwaukie Couple Celebrate

MILWAUKIE, Feb. 3.—(Special).—Friends and acquaintances in Milwaukie, of Mr. and Mrs. John Pitts, former residents, will learn with pleasure of the celebration of the couple's golden wedding anniversary at their home in Newberg, where they have resided for the past ten years. The happy event was celebrated January 25, 1916, at their home, and was attended by a large gathering of friends and neighbors. Mr. Pitts was born in Bath county, Kentucky, August 27, 1837, and his wife, Mary Means, in Saybrook, Ill., in 1845. They were married in Saybrook January 25, 1866. They moved to Missouri in 1881, and gradually moving westward, came to Creswell, Oregon, in 1888. After living there six years they moved to Milwaukie, then to Oswego and later to Newberg in 1906. Mr. Pitts, though 78, still takes care of his five-acre tract and enjoys his berry and fruit raising. He enlisted in the 37th Illinois infantry, known as the "Fremont Rifles," in 1861, and his regiment was active in many engagements, notably at Pea Ridge, Cape Girardeau, the siege of Vicksburg, and the siege of Mobile. The regiment was later known as the "Illinois Greyhounds," from the fact that it traveled 17,846 miles while in service. He was honorably discharged in Chicago in 1864.

Silver Thaw Hits But Mills Continue

MILWAUKIE, Feb. 3.—(Special).—This town and locality got a genuine touch along with Portland of the celebrated silver thaw, starting on Tuesday night and reaching the climax yesterday. Telephone wires of both companies, as well as those of the S. P., and trains on the latter and Portland Railway, Light and Power company were running irregularly. The weather, however, seemed to have but little, if any, effect upon the Menefee Shingle mill and the sawmill of the Hawley Pulp & Paper company, for they were running full blast all day and have been for some days past.

School Play Makes Hit at Clackamas

MILWAUKIE, Feb. 3.—(Special).—"Mr. Bob," the four-act playlet first presented in Milwaukie last December by the students of the Milwaukie High school under the direction of Miss Campbell, won new friends when it was produced at Clackamas last Saturday night under the auspices of the school of that place. While the weather was such as to seriously interfere with the attendance, still the students did themselves proud, and received merited applause and many comments at the close of the entertainment. The local artists were accompanied by Clackamas by Professor Robert Goetz and Miss Campbell.

Harry Masfey Has Leg Broken by Cars

MILWAUKIE, Feb. 3.—(Special).—Harry Masfey, a resident of Milwaukie, met with a painful and serious accident Tuesday when he was caught between two cars at the Center street shops of the Portland Railway, Light & Power company, suffering a fracture of the right leg. The injured man was taken to the Good Samaritan hospital, in Portland, where he will be confined for several weeks.

Mintthorne Water Case Up Saturday

MILWAUKIE, Feb. 3.—(Special).—Considerable interest is being evinced in the trial of the case of the Mintthorne Springs Water company vs. the City of Milwaukie, which is to be heard in the circuit court of Clackamas county, before Judge Campbell, next Saturday. The case is one wherein the water company secured a temporary injunction against the city supplying residents of East Milwaukie with water, the former alleging that it had a franchise from the city for this particular purpose. The city contends that the Mintthorne company does not have a franchise, and this phase of the matter will doubtless be decided Saturday by Judge Campbell. The outcome of the case has considerable bearing upon the future course of the city of Milwaukie relative to the proposition presented to it of buying the two or three companies. Some few weeks ago Judge Campbell decided that the Milwaukie Water company, owned by R. F. Fitch and associates, did not have a franchise, and an appeal on the part of the water company is now pending in the state supreme court. W. H. U'ren is attorney for the Mintthorne Springs Water company while B. G. Skulason is counsel for the city of Milwaukie.

New Professor Is On Milwaukie Job

MILWAUKIE, Feb. 3.—(Special).—The new member of the staff of the Milwaukie High school, G. Chester Higgins, arrived here and entered upon his new duties last Monday. Mr. Higgins is taking work in the University of Oregon, has been placed in charge of two classes in English, two in bookkeeping and the civics and botany classes. The new instructor has made a favorable impression upon his students and it is believed that he will prove a valuable acquisition to the staff of the Milwaukie schools.

Contempt Hearing On For Saturday

MILWAUKIE, Feb. 3.—(Special).—Next Saturday will be "contempt" day in Justice Kello's court, for at that time the judge will hear the plea of J. Oermatt, Mrs. A. Helman, Mrs. Nelson, and their attorneys, Daniels & Jensen, of Portland, whom he charged several weeks ago with contempt in that they advertised for sale certain chattels that had been attached on order of the court and the same advertised for sale by the court itself, according to law.

Community Club to Initiate Officers

JENNINGS LODGE, Feb. 3.—(Special).—Although the night was very stormy a fair audience greeted Mr. Lyons when he gave his stereoscopic lecture at the school house on Tuesday evening of last week.

Colored slides were shown of the Yellowstone Park. Mr. Lyons is interested in the welfare of boys of the ages of twelve to fifteen and his farm near Lebanon is where happy vacations are given to boys who have no parents. The work time and play time was told of in his address and at the close a free-will offering was taken up.

A deer was seen in the school yard at this place early Friday morning and the foot tracks in the new fallen snow verified the fact of its having been there.

Mrs. Ella Eades entertained, Lee Phillips, of Medford, and Mrs. Frank Wait and Mrs. Julius Matzel, of Portland, on Friday in honor of her sister, Mrs. G. E. Fox, of Central Point, Ore. Mesdames Wait and Matzel being old friends of Mrs. Eades.

A number of the Jennings Lodge members are taking up the study of psychology under the efficient leadership of Mrs. Fanny Perry. At the Tuesday forenoon meeting of last week Mesdames Bruchert, Jacobs, Morse and McFarlane and Dill attended.

Mr. Ingalls and family arrived from Minnesota the latter part of last year, have leased a farm in the Redland district and will take possession as soon as the weather permits.

Miss LeClair Ostrom attended the graduation exercises at the Lincoln high school on Thursday evening of last week. Miss Ostrom taking part in the girls' chorus.

Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Deter entertained a dozen friends on Thursday evening of last week. Those enjoying the same, music and refreshments were: Mr. and Mrs. Sanders, Mr. and Mrs. Jacobs, Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Madison, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Roberts, Mrs. Hart and Miss Ethel Hart and the hostesses.

The coasting continues to be the favorite pastime of the young people and on Saturday evening a jolly party gathered on the Vandermeer hill. About 30 enjoyed the sport and beside a large bonfire a wondrous roast was enjoyed.

Mr. and Mrs. Langdon Spooner and Mrs. R. F. Deter and Mr. and Mrs. Gies Caldwell chaperoned the young people.

Mrs. Moriarity entertained friends from Chicago and Seattle during the week.

Mr. Miller, who had his foot broken while doing work on a large building in Portland is still confined to the Good

California Weather Worse Than Oregon

STAFFORD, Feb. 3.—(Special).—No one saying anything about the weather, as all agree it is pleasant to snow covered Oregon than in rainy California. John Q. Gage, from St. Helena, who walked from Williams to his mother's, Mrs. M. A. Gage, on Monday evening, said Mr. Mulkey had a letter from his brother's who had gone down to Los Angeles to spend a comfortable winter in a sunny climate, far from the gentle rains of Oregon. They said they never saw it rain until they were in California. It came in blinding sheets almost impossible to stand against, and cold. The party took advantage of a day of a joy ride, but the cold wind nearly froze them, and they had begun to sigh for Oregon, beautiful Oregon.

Arden Gage, Mrs. Gage's eldest son, whose home is at Napa, California, county, arrived at the old home on Saturday evening, having come over the Tillamook division of the S. P. They had two engines working for all they were worth, and only one passenger car, the express and a smoker. The cars jumped and trembled like a bumpy

On Wednesday evening a supper will be served to the men of the community, given by the guild. It is a get-together meeting for fellowship, a good time and a serious discussion of the community church plans for 1916. The board of management will be named. Serving the supper which will be held at the church are the Mesdames H. N. Smith, D. P. Deter and Will Jacobs.

The regular meeting of the Community club will be on next Monday evening at the Blue Front hall. The new officers are to be initiated and business which is of interest to all will come up. Let all residents come out to this meeting on the evening of Feb. 7th.

Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Dill will return to Delphi this week after a pleasant visit with their daughter, Mrs. Morse

Nearly all Oak Grove paid its respects to Rev. and Mrs. W. R. Allen in commemoration of the latter's 56th or golden wedding anniversary last Friday night at the Methodist Episcopal church, when a reception with tendered the aged and beloved couple.

The affair was planned by the ladies of the church, of which Rev. Mr. Allen was pastor for a time, but it was open to the general public, for here all are one big family. The church was prettily decorated for the occasion with cedar bows and artificial crysanthemums, and the scene as well as the entertainment was long to be remembered by the honored guests, as well as all those attending.

A pleasing program was rendered as follows: Instrumental piano selections, Miss Penwell; vocal solos, baritone, Mr. Gus Smith; vocal trio, Lester Cook, James Spidel and Miss Edith Griffith; wedding march, Mrs. R. E. Webb; vocal solo, Miss Lillian Philmore.

Among the invited guests were Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Moore, whose 25th wedding anniversary occurred the same day, and to whom Rev. Dow DeLong presented a set of silver spoons, engraved, on behalf of the friends. Mr. Moore responded. They were married in Portland in 1891.

A beautiful golden loving cup, filled with flowers, was presented to Rev. and Mrs. Allen, by Rev. Dow DeLong, a gift of the people of Oak Grove, who have grown to love and honor them. Mr. Allen responded to the presentation with a resume of his experiences as a minister of the gospel of the M. E. church.

Refreshments were served and two bride's cakes adorned the tables, and were cut by Mrs. Allen and Mrs. Moore.

Rev. and Mrs. W. R. Allen were born in Iowa, the former in 1842 and the latter in 1843. Mr. Allen, who was the oldest son of his family, was left almost the sole support and he took to teaching school, in which work he was engaged when the Civil war broke out. A year later he enlisted, joining the 34th Iowa Infantry, in which he served until the close of the war. Returning to Indiana, Iowa, at the close of the war, he was married in January 28, 1866. Five years later himself and wife and their two children emigrated to Kansas, where they had many interesting and thrilling experiences in that then newly settled country. They took up a homestead and resided there the greater part of their lives. Mr. Allen was licensed as a Methodist minister, to preach, in 1874 and in 1879 was admitted to the Northwest Kansas conference. He gives as one of the harrowing experiences of his ministry that he received but $145 in actual money for three years work, and had it not been for money derived from selling buffalo bones off the prairie, he hardly knows where he might be today. The bones after being gathered, had to be taken to town and sold to dealers who shipped them to markets. Mr. Allen became a supernumerary minister of his church in 1904.

Since coming to Oak Grove some nine years ago, Rev. Mr. Allen has occupied the local church pulpit at different times, one of which was for a period of ten months.

Rev. and Mrs. Allen have 25 children and grandchildren, among the former being a son, E. O. Allen, professor in the Portland schools, and two daughters residing at Melalla, one of whom is Mrs. Ballantine. The Allen family had a reunion here last fall when nearly all the children were present.

To Build Sidewalk Up to M. E. Church

OAK GROVE, Feb. 3.—(Special).—Those who have been prevented from attending the services at the Methodist Episcopal church next Sunday as usual with Sunday school at 10 a. m., conducted by C. N. Smith, superintendent. Preaching at 11 a. m., and 7:30 p. m., by the pastor, Rev. Dow DeLong. The time for holding the mid-week prayer meeting service has been changed from Thursday evening until Friday evening owing to the change in day of return of the pastor from Salem, and this order will prevail until further notice.

Plans are underway for the organization of an Epworth league society in the church, and the young people are looking forward to the same with considerable interest.

FIRM TO MOVE LOCATION.

OAK GROVE, Feb. 3.—(Special).—Another of the vacant store rooms in the fine concrete building erected a year ago by Mr. Green is to be occupied by Thompson & Webb, hardware and plumbing, who will remove there to in about two weeks. It is the purpose of the company to enlarge its stock until they will be able to care for all the demands of the people of this section.

RETURNS HOME DAY LATER.

OAK GROVE, Feb. 3.—(Special).—Owing to a change in the arrangement of his work in the Willamette university at Salem during the second half of the semester, Rev. Dow DeLong, pastor of this place, will not return to Oak Grove until Friday afternoon of each week instead of Thursday as has been the custom for several months past. Mr. DeLong, who makes his home here, will then remain in Oak Grove until Monday morning.

Misery in Back, Headache and Pain in Limbs.

Dear Mr. Editor—For more than a year I suffered with misery in the back, dull headache, pain in the limbs, was somewhat constipated and slept poorly at night until I was about ready to collapse. Seeing an account of the wonderful qualities of "Annie's" prepared by Doctor Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., I sent for a box, and before using the whole box I felt and still feel improved. My sleep is refreshing, misery reduced, and life is not the drag it was before. I most cheerfully recommend this remedy to sufferers from like ailments.

Yours truly, W. A. ROBERTS.

Note: You've all undoubtedly heard of the famous Dr. Pierce and his well-known medicines. Well, this prescription is one that has been successfully used for many years by the physicians and specialists of Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel and Hospital, of Buffalo, N. Y., for kidney complaints, and diseases arising from disorders of the kidneys and bladder, such as backache, weak back, rheumatism, dropsy, congestion of the kidneys, inflammation of the bladder, scalding urine, and urinary troubles.

Up to this time, "Annie's" has not been on sale to the public, but by the persuasion of many patients and the increased demand for this wonderful healing tablet, Dr. Pierce has finally decided to put it into the drug stores of this country within immediate reach of all sufferers.

I know of one or two leading drug stores in town who have managed to procure a supply of "Annie's" for their anxious customers in and around this locality. If not obtainable send one dime by mail to Dr. Pierce for trial package or 50 cents for full treatment.

Editor—Please insert this letter in some conspicuous place in your paper.

automobile, but like a little Ford they carried them safely over.

Mr. Nurbahn and family took a sleigh ride to Oswego Saturday evening and visited at Jim Tidman's.

Geo. VanNortwick and Lyle Tidman left last week to seek their fortunes. Word received says they had secured a good job up in Washington driving teams.

It began to rain quietly on Monday night and of course the weather is a little warmer—mercury at 25 above.

SANDY COUNCIL ORGANIZES.

SANDY, Ore., Jan. 27.—Bonds of the treasurer and recorder were accepted at a meeting of the city council which was held the first part of the week. The council also voted to purchase a safe in which to keep the records and books pertaining to the city business.

The following committees were appointed for the different departments which were organized at the meeting: Ways and means, Casper C. Junker, A. W. Bell, L. E. Hoffman; health and police, Fred Proctor, Otto Meinig, B. F. Bauer; streets and public highways, L. E. Hoffman, C. Junker, A. W. Bell; fire and water, Otto Meinig, C. Junker, Fred Proctor; public property, Otto Meinig, L. E. Hoffman and B. F. Bauer.

OSWEGO PIONEER PASSES.

EAGLE CREEK, Ore., Jan. 31.—Isaac Foster, 67, a native son, died at the home of his brother, Egbert N. Foster, on January 13, a lingering illness. He was born February 9, 1849, the son of Philip and Mary C. Foster, pioneers of 1842. He is survived by two sons—Gurt and Edward—and brothers, Geo. of Portland, and Egbert, of Eagle Creek, and one sister, Mary A. Young, of Condon, Ore. Isaac Foster had passed nearly his entire life on the original homestead taken up by his father in 1843.

BOB SLED COASTER HURT.

OAK GROVE, Ore., Jan. 29.—Fred Marquart, eight years old and a pupil of the Concord school was seriously injured Friday afternoon on his way home from school. Along with other boys he was riding on a sled being pulled by another pupil who was riding a horse. Fred was thrown off the sled. He sustained a broken leg. Dr. Day of Oregon City was called.

MILWAUKIE GIRL DIES.

Marion Margaret Gell, the four-year-old daughter of Rev. and Mrs. H. H. Gell, of Milwaukie, who was ill since Sunday with pneumonia, died Wednesday morning at 7:50 o'clock. She was born May, 1911, in Albany and was one of six children. The funeral will be held Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Evangelical church at Milwaukie. Rev. H. Schucknecht, of Portland, presiding elder of the Oregon conference of Evangelical churches will officiate.

OAK GROVE PUPILS MEET.

There was a surprise party given in honor of Miss Naomi Kinder at her home in Oak Grove Saturday, January 29. It was given by the fifth and sixth grade scholars of the Oak Grove school. After LaGrippe—What.

Coughs that "hang on" after la grippe exhaust the strength and lower the vital resistance. F. G. Prevo, Bedford, Ind., writes: "An attack of la grippe left me with a severe cough. I tried everything. I lost in weight and got so thin it looked as if I would never get well. I tried Foley's Honey and Tar and two bottles cured me. I am now well and back to my normal weight." Foley's Honey and Tar gets right at the trouble. It is safe, reliable remedy. Jones Drug Co. (Adv.)

OSWEGO, Feb. 3.—(Special).—Those who attended the entertainment at Oswego Commercial club rooms last Saturday night were privileged to hear a musical program of more than ordinary merit. The artists performing were Charles South, violinist; Dr. Emil Enna, pianist, and Miss Ruth Arnew, soprano. Various numbers of skill and sweetness were rendered and encores heartily responded to. The artists were all from Portland, and while the night was a stormy one there was a very good attendance. Following the musical, the club gave a dance, with music furnished by a piano-player.

Many Attend Last Rites of P. Keyzer

OSWEGO, Feb. 3.—(Special).—Attending the funeral of the late Peter Keyzer, held from the Catholic church in Oswego last Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Death came to the relief of Mr. Keyzer last Friday after an illness from general debility. Rev. Father Fritz was in charge of the service and preached an impressive sermon, touching upon the life and character of deceased, whom one of his friends speaks of as "a good square all-round honest fellow." The remains were interred in the Catholic cemetery near Oswego. The pallbearers were H. W. Koehler, Charles Pauling, Joseph Morris, Jerry O'Brien, Thomas McManus, and Joseph Woelke.

Peter Keyzer was one of the best-known men of this town and locality. Coming here about thirty years ago as a charcoal burner for the Oregon Iron & Steel company, when the plant was running full tilt, he became known to everyone around here. He had full charge of the 65 or 70 kilns that the company maintained, having between 40 and 50 men under his direction. After the plant was shut down Mr. Keyzer and wife continued to make their home in Oswego, and the Koehler blacksmith shop became a familiar and popular haunt for the former.

Hardly a day passed in a great many years that he did not come down to the shop and spend several hours there chatting with the smithy and those who came in from time to time. He had a chair, with big arms, that was a favorite resting place, and G. H. Miller, the blacksmith, has arranged to preserve this seat. Since the old gentleman's death he has been greatly missed by the different ones around the shop and on the street, and they can hardly realize that they are no more to see the familiar figure in this life.

Mr. Keyzer is survived by a wife, a daughter, Mrs. Mamie White of Oswego, and Louis D. Keyzer, a conductor on the Southern Pacific electric road, who resides in Portland.

OSWEGO, Feb. 3.—(Special).—G. W. Prosser, who has been confined to his home for some time with illness, is still a very sick man. Some days he has shown a slight improvement, but this week he has not been quite so well. His friends are hoping that when the weather moderates he will continue to improve so that he can get out of the house from time to time, and think he will then soon be able to get his strength back.

MRS. KOEHLER QUITE ILL.

OSWEGO, Feb. 3.—(Special).—City Recorder W. H. Koehler was at his office Tuesday for the first time in almost a week, having been at home where he looked after the comfort and welfare of Mrs. Koehler, who has been quite ill for some time past. At this writing Mrs. Koehler is better, but still far from being well.

NAGEL FIRE CAUSES REGRET.

OSWEGO, Feb. 3.—(Special).—The people of Oswego heard with regret Tuesday of the big loss sustained by George Nagel of Hazella, when his fine barn and several head of stock were destroyed by fire Monday night from an unknown cause. Mr. Nagel, accompanied by his neighbor, James Cook, passed through Oswego early Tuesday morning on their way to Portland to report the fire to the insurance company so that the loss might be adjusted as speedily as possible. The barn was considered one of the finest in this section of the county.

NEWSPAPER ASSURED.

OSWEGO, Feb. 3.—(Special).—There is every reason to believe that it won't be long now before Oswego will have a newspaper of its own, the committee from the Oswego Commercial club, in whose hands this matter was placed some weeks ago, reporting that it had secured the required number of cash subscriptions to make the establishment of the paper possible.

NOTICE TO SUBSCRIBERS.

The Enterprise desires to advise all subscribers who have subscribed for the paper and are entitled to receive the premium of four magazines, that their names have been forwarded to the eastern publishers and the subscribers should either have received the first copies or be this or within a very short time.
