Coquille Travels To Bandon's Camp In Non-District Grid Encounter

Top high school grid encounter of the Coquille valley Friday night will be the Coquille Red Devil-Bandon Tiger tilt at the new Bandon stadium. Game time is 8 p. m.

This is a non-district tilt with the Red Devils highly favored to win; however, anything can happen in a Coquille-Bandon tussle as old timers in the valley will recall.

Bandon has won two and dropped two in season's play. Wins have been from Oakland and Pleasant Hill while Myrtle Creek and Myrtle Point have run over the smaller Tigers.

Bandon is playing the majority of District 7 A-2 schools in the area as next year it plans to lose its B standing and advance another notch.

PREP GAMES FRIDAY

Coquille at Bandon
Myrtle Point at Myrtle Creek
Marshfield at Reedsport
North Bend at Tillamook

Cofch Spike Leslie's squad is now leading the small A school loop and only has the early North Bend 13-0 defeat to show on the left side of the ledger.

The Red Devils may be without the services of veteran fullback Ed Howe again this week. Howe is suffering from a leg injury and will not see service unless needed, Leslie said.

Probable starters in the Coquille backfield will be Alan Duney at quarterback; Gerald Danielson and Ed Atkinson at half back posts, and Bob Rowland at full-back.

Len Scolari and Bill Willard will see service as ends, Don Laird and Jerry Miller as tackles; Jim Hollenback and Bob Groves will be at guard and Jess Thurman will play center.

Bandon has only two vets from last year's state championship B squad of last year. These vet, Art Dornath at halfback and Ed Wehner at left end, form the backbone of Bandon's strategy.

Emmett Devereaux will assist Wehner at end, Bob Armstrong and Bill Hall at tackle, Gerry Foster and Doug Fisher at guards.

Golf Tournament Championship Set

Championship and second flights in the Coquille Valley County Club golf tournament must be played this week. Matches not completed by Sunday will be forfeited.

In championship competition, matches are to be played by Al Petrie and Cecil Patrick; Chet Noyes and Austin Dodge; Clayton Mast and Ery Detman. Lou Holimon defeated Hank Burr 2 and 1 on Sunday and will meet the winner of the Petrie-Patrick contest. Second flight contestants are Floyd Hall and John Arnold; Bill Dayton and John Lauterback; Joe Marchand and Bill Downing; Andy Richardson and Spenny Ross.

Coquille Jayvees Slate North Bend

Coquille high school jayvees will entertain the North Bend jayvees Thursday night at 7:30 at the Coquille high school field.

North Bend and Coquille are evenly matched and Coach Bert Burr said today that the little Red Devils will put up a strong fight against the Bullpups.

Scholastic ineligibility hit a few of his boys this week, but Burr expects they will get to work and be back on the squad as soon as their work is made up.

Harry Oerding Tops In Coos Bowling

Harry Oerding led the Harold's club keglers to a 4-0 win over Hoffman's Jewelers in an inter-city contest this week. Oerding had a total of 660 and beat all competitors.

Red Devils Wallop Grizzlies 27-0; Take Lead In District Grid Picture

Coquille's victory riding Red Devils racked up their fourth consecutive district 7 A-2 victory Friday night when they outsmarted a cocky Ashland eleven, 27-0, at Coquille.

Ashland was heavily favored to win the encounter, but heavy penalties, plus a fired Coquille team that took advantage of the breaks threw a curve at the dopesters.

Coquille started their touchdown parade early in the first canto as Ashland was penalized 15 yards and the referee placed the ball on the Grizzlies thirty yard line.

Bob Rowland received the hand-off from Alan Duney and raced to the ten yard stripe where Gene Moltu carried the mail into paydirt.

Late in the same period Bill fumble on their own fifteen yard line. As the quarter ended the ball was in Coquille's possession on the Ashland two yard marker, but the Red Devils lost the ball on downs.

Ashland decided to run with the ball instead of punting and on the first play Jesse Thurman recovered a fumble and on the next play Bob Rowland bucked the line for Coquille's second touchdown. Scolari's kick was no good.

Ashland threatened once in the second period as Ted Tenney romped to the Coquille thirty from midfield. On the next play Dietz hit Tenny with a pass that put the Grizzlies within the ten yard line. Here the Coquille line held and Ashland was forced to punt with less than five yards to go for a touchdown.

The half ended with Coquille in possession of the ball and charging for paydirt. This threat was jans by scoring twice in a period of 53 seconds near the end of the first quarter but couldn't withstand a Trojan rally in the second half.

OSC Homcoming Game With Washington State May Be Top Game Of Conference

OREGON STATE COLLEGE—One of the top football battles of the season in the Pacific northwest looms here Saturday when Oregon State entertains traditional rival Washington State in the feature event of homecoming on the Beaver campus.

Both clubs will be attempting strong comebacks after dropping heart-breakers last weekend to a pair of the strongest grid powers west of the Rockies. While the Beavers were dropping a 16-14 thriller to Southern California at Los Angeles, the amazing WSC Cougars astounded the grid world by holding mighty California to a narrow 42-35 decision at Pullman.

In the long series dating back to 1903, the Cougars hold a one-game edge over the Orange, 19-18, with only two ties on record. The Beavers are eager to gain revenge for last year's 21-7 licking administered to them by the Palouse eleven at Pullman.

With both teams employing the Michigan version of the single wing, a wide-open thriller is in prospect. In four games Washington State has racked up 117 points while the Beavers have only 8 less. Like the Orange, the Cougars have broken even in four starts, whipping Santa Clara, 34-20 and Oklahoma A. and M., 27-13; and losing to USC, 31-21 and the 42-35 decision to California.

Oregon State came out of the rugged USC contest without serious injuries and should be at full strength for the Cougar Invasion. Kip Taylor's men grabbed an early 14-0 lead against the Trojans by scoring twice in a period of 53 seconds near the end of the first quarter but couldn't withstand a Trojan rally in the second half.

On the Spot

WITH JIM McMAHON

High school football talk is taking on major proportions in the valley this week even with major teams taking a holiday from district play.

Top topic at the Taylor street institution is the Red Devil-Bobcat game at Coquille one week from Friday night. Coquille is an odds on favorite to win the fray, but Spike Leslie is making no promises on the outcome.

If Coquille wins, and that is a mighty big "if," the Red Devils will be district champs. That means they will be entered in post season games in inter-district play. Probably the first district to compete against the winner of 7 A-2 will be the conference north of the valley which Reedsport is now leading.

If Myrtle Point trips the Red Devils it will throw this district into a three way tie with Ashland, Myrtle Point and Coquille each having lost one district game. Play-offs will then be the order of the day and a time consuming muddle will ensue.

At Marshfield, Pete Susick is grilling his lads in what may be another trip to the state grid finals. Watching the Pirates work against Roseburg Saturday night was like seeing a wonder of efficiency. Marshfield couldn't do anything wrong.

According to reports from the Bay the squad really has Susick worried. "They are not supposed to be that good," he has remarked to a few service clubs.

College football is a sore spot with Oregonians this week. Len Casanova's Oregon Ducks went down to ignominy against Washington and the Beavers were robbed of a victory at Trojan land.

Casanova is building his freshmen for varsity play which is costly to Duck pride this year. Let's hope it pays off for a better Duck team next year. The Beavers evidently are the victims of blind officials who let the Trojans throw a forward pass while past the line of scrimmage.

Two freshmen seeing a little action for Casanova are Harold Reeve, North Bend and Dean Van Leuven, Bandon.

The Red Devils are already worrying about the subject at hand ... California dead clinch for Rose Bowl now ... Best game of week California vs. USC ... See you Saturday night at the Myrtle Bowl.

Pledges Needed For Bleachers

Pledges have reached the 65 per cent mark in the campaign to raise $4500 for new bleachers for the high school athletic field, according to Dick Maeyer, drive chairman. The drive is sponsored by the Active club.

A pledge of $25 entitles the donor to reserved seats plus season's pass for the next five years. Active club members are working to get all collections in at the present time.

North Bend Ties Lincoln In Fall Festival Classic

Lincoln junior high school's Wildcats were frothing in their lair Saturday night when they entertained North Bend, but they couldn't do more than allow the Bull pups a 12-12 tie.

The game was sparked with all the trimmings of big time football as the school's bugle and drum corps performed at half time and souvenir programs were presented to those in attendance.

North Bend received first blood as they ran the ball all the way back from the Coquille kick off. Not to be out done Lincoln's Art Mandvill received a North Bend punt on his own thirty yard line and eluded three tacklers as he romped the seventy yards to pay dirt.

North Bend came back in the third period to go out front 12-6.

After an exchange of punts in the final canto Tom Creager unleashed a short pass to Allan Drews who raced into the end zone to tie the match. The try for point failed.

Coquille ended the game on the offensive as Creager tossed another pass to Mandvill which just missed connecting. As the play ended the final horn sounded putting North Bend out in front in Coos County standings.

County standing give North Bend two wins with one tie, Coos Bay with two wins and one loss, Coquille one of each, and Myrtle Point three losses. This week Lincoln plays Myrtle Point Friday at 7:30 at Coquille. Last time Coquille won 26-0.
