Flower Show Held Yesterday

A flower showing drawing many people and entrants was held yesterday in the McKinley Grange hall.

There were many prizes for the best flower display, potted plants, single blossoms, and arrangements.

The show was put on by the Jolly Gardeners club. Announcement was made by Mildred King.

Relief Corps Has Meeting June 3

Catherine Mason, president of Douglas MacArthur Woman's Relief Corps 56, presided at a meeting of the group June 3 at the Labor Temple.

Relief reports were given regarding the cards and flowers sent to the sick as well as calls made. It was announced that 81 flags were placed on graves Memorial Day. It is requested that if any were missed that the Corps be notified. The members were also told that a doll has been sent to Aimee Freitag at Florence.

A Cooked Food Sale will be held Friday, June 12 at Stevens Hardware and special orders will be filled if the requests are phoned to 3483 or 6289.

It was reported that $86.30 is now in the Delegates fund and that a flag will be presented to the Cub Scouts at a pack meeting in the Arago school house gymnasium Friday. The presentation will be made at 8 p. m.

The Theta Rho girls will be given a flag at their June 18 meeting.

The charter was draped during the memorial service for veteran James A. Hard who died recently at the age of 111; Myrtle R. James, past department president; and Margaret J. Lewis Bennett, past national president.

The Corps voted to give a quilt to a family who recently lost everything in a fire at their home.

Members of the calling committee for the next two months are Catherine Terrio and Eula McIntee.

Students Picnic

A weiner-marshmallow roast was held Tuesday, June 2 by the eighth grade students of Lincoln Junior high school. The party was held at the home of Jane Sanford and George Johnson, class instructor, was also present.

The students financed their picnic with dues they collected during the past school year. Games were played during the evening and candid flash pictures taken.

Chaperones were Mrs. W. P. Barger, Mrs. Jim Gillock and Mrs. Ray Sanford.

HAPPY TIMES—Even the kiddies at McKinley have a good time when a party is put on in the Grange hall, and this Sentinel photo shows how the parents get square dancing in. Here they put the "audience"—the youngsters of the family—on the stage, and the dancers have an appreciative audience. (Sentinel Photo)

Loggers And Wives Guests

Banquet At Myrtle Lodge Honors Dave Douglass' League-Leaders

A banquet and dance was given the league-leading Coquille Loggers Sunday night, May 31 at the Myrtle Lodge.

Hosts were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Elkins and Mr. and Mrs. Floyd LaFayette, the Dalrymple Bros. of G.I. Mobile and their wives; Doc and Barney of the Coquille Food Center, and George F. Burr of Burr Motors.

The dinner featured a full course of cocktail, salad, choice steak, and Idaho baked potatoes followed by dessert.

Master of Ceremonies was Ralph Stuller who thanked the hosts on behalf of the ball team and their wives and who introduced Dave Douglass, Logger coach-manager, who introduced each player and his wife.

Dancing followed the dinner.

Mrs. Arthur Lilly of Corvallis arrived last Thursday to spend the weekend with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Kenton Thompson.

Delta Kappa Gamma Members Have Founder's Day Ceremonies At Coos Bay

Founder's Day on the national, state and local levels was observed by members of Rho chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma when they met May 23 at the home of Miss Marion Horsfall in Coos Bay. Hostesses with Miss Horsfall were Miss Alice Holmback, Mrs. Otto Davis, Miss Alberta Wilson and Mrs. William Josephson. The organization is the national women's educational honorary society.

An impressive candlelight service was conducted by Miss Gladys Durrand, president. She was assisted by Mrs. Bruce Purdy, who honored Dr. Annie Webb Blanton, national founder; Mrs. Otto Davis, honoring Miss Emma Henkle, first state president in Oregon; and Mrs. Minnie Marcy, local member who was one of the original state charter members.

Also participating in the ceremony was Mrs. George Churchill who honored Miss Ina Freeman, organizing president of Rho chapter. Miss Holmback played background music during the service. A corsage was presented to Mrs. Marcy, one of the original chapter members of Oregon.

During the business session, committee reports for the year were heard as well as reports of various local school budgets. Mrs. Lex Fromm invited the members to hold their September luncheon meeting at the Fromm's new restaurant, Rogue Woods, near Gold Beach. Assisting with hostess duties at that meeting will be Mrs. George Churchill and Mrs. Bernadine Steele.

In honor of Founder's day, a cake was served, which was beautifully decorated with roses and lighted candles. Ice cream in the shape of roses was also served.

Committee members in charge of the afternoon's program were Mrs. Holmback, chairman, Miss Horsfall and Mrs. Kathleen Nelson.

Attending the meeting were Mrs. George Churchill and Mrs. A. E. Volek of Langlois; Mrs. Arthur Jacobs of Bandon; Miss Lillian Farley of Myrtle Point; Mrs. Hazel Hanna, Mrs. Minnie Marcy, Mrs. Bruce Purdy and Mrs. Ruth Neil of Coquille; Mrs. Matilda Eneen, Mrs. Fred Schepman and Miss Maybelle Velde of North Bend.

Others present were Mrs. Otto Davis, Miss Gladys Durrand, Miss Alice Holmback, Miss Marjorie Tedrow, Miss Hannah Sandquist, Miss Marion Horsfall and Mrs. William Josephson of Coos Bay.

WCS Members Served Dessert

W. S. C. S. members of Pioneer Methodist church were served a one o'clock dessert Thursday afternoon in the church parlors. Circle 3 served and the rooms were attractively decorated with calla lilies, roses and rhododendrons. Lilies, roses and rhododendrons. Mrs. Hazel Jacobson led the devotion and Mrs. Esther Campbell had charge of the day's program. An interesting talk was given on "Youth and the Church" followed by a review of the Methodist Youth Fellowship's program for the year.

Mrs. Blanche Slater presided at the business meeting held following the program. A letter was read giving a detailed schedule of Camp Magruder's summer school session and Mrs. Helen Peterson reported on Pioneer's summer school program. Mrs. Esther Taylor told the members about the Officer's training meeting held last month at Coos Bay at which Mrs. Bestul, district president from Grants Pass presided. Several officers of the local group attended the meeting.

At the conclusion of the business session, names were drawn for new circles and the members voted to discontinue circle meetings until Fall. However, the regular business meetings will be held monthly with the next one scheduled for July 9. Preceding that meeting, a potluck dinner will be served at the home of Mrs. Fern Peterson.

Doug Sapp, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Sapp, is in the Shrine hospital in Portland where he is undergoing surgery. He will spend three months there. He is a fourth grade student.

LEAVE FOR SAN DIEGO

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Wardrip left for San Diego on May 26 where Mr. Wardrip will work. Mrs. Grace Stone, mother of Mrs. Wardrip, left with them to visit. They spent three weeks visiting here with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Wardrip and other relatives and friends. It was a Mothers Day present for Mrs. Wardrip.

Jack Greenlund visited his home in McMinnville over the Memorial day holiday.
