

SCHUEBEL AND PAVING MEN STILL DEADLOCKED

CONTRACT WITHOUT 10-YEAR
BOND MIGHT BE ILLEGAL,
HINT CITY OFFICIALS.

The prospect of referring to the council the differences between Joseph Penso, representative of W. H. Worswick, and City Attorney Schuebel concerning the contract for the improvement of Main street was considered much more likely yesterday when neither side receded from the original stand.

Mr. Penso contends that Mr. Schuebel's demand for a 10-year bond is not possible but last night just before leaving for Portland agreed to telegraph to the eastern offices of the bonding company in an effort to appeal from the decision of the Portland office of the company. Mr. Schuebel asks that the city be allowed to hold back for 10 years 15 per cent. of the cost of the improvement and to cover the Worswick guarantee with a bond for 10 years. Mr. Penso said yesterday that he was willing to furnish a five year bond.

The situation took a new turn yesterday when city officials confessed that in case the Worswick company did not furnish a 10 year bond to cover the guarantee, it may be necessary to go through the entire legal procedure which has been covered during the last two months. In all ordinances and notices for bids a 10-year bond has been one of the provisions and a contract without this condition might make the entire procedure illegal.

GIRL, 17, IS GRANTED DIVORCE FROM BOY, 20

Nellie Ruth Smith, 17, and Robert Guy Smith, 20, were granted a divorce Friday by Circuit Judge Campbell, each appearing in court through a guardian. Mrs. Smith was allowed to take her maiden name, Nellie Ruth Bolton.

The two ran away from their homes early last year and were brought here January 11, 1914. It was brought out at the trial that the young couple found a friend who was willing to declare that both were of age.

Soon after their marriage, the two became estranged and W. E. Bolton, appointed guardian for the girl, filed a suit to set aside the marriage several weeks ago.

NEBRASKA DAY IS PLANNED IN JULY

Plans are now under way for a big Nebraska day celebration in honor of Senator E. J. Burkett, the noted Nebraska statesman and orator, who is to appear at chautauqua for two lectures, July 10 and 11. In all probability a big basket dinner given one of these two days at which the Nebraska State society of Portland, will turn out, as well as all other former citizens of that state who know the famous senator. Secretary Cross stated Friday that arrangements were now pending between the chautauqua directors and the officers of the Nebraska Society of Portland to provide for "Nebraska day" at chautauqua.

COURT RETURNS TO MOTHER BOY OF 6

The fight of Mrs. Josephine Walsh, of Evergreen, to retain the custody of her son, Victor Shaw, age six years, ended in a partial victory Saturday, when County Judge Anderson left the boy with his mother, at least for the time being. The court, however, reserved the right to change its decision at any time. T. C. Shaw, of Portland, petitioned the court to declare the child a dependent child.

In the hearing in the juvenile department of the county court, many charges were made against the husband of Mrs. Walsh, who was recently arrested in Portland on a charge of non-support. Mrs. P. L. Cox, of Portland, mother of Mrs. Walsh, went on the stand and urged the court to take the child from her own daughter.

Detective Called Lying Charlatan By J. E. Hedges

ATTORNEY FOR LEE PONG AGAIN
ASKS THAT $25 FINE BE REMITTED.

In a letter which denounces Clark Wilson, one of the two detectives employed by the council last month, as a "lying charlatan," J. E. Hedges, attorney for Lee Pong, has for the second time asked the city to refund the $25 fine collected from the Chinaman following his conviction of a liquor charge. The first letter, which was prepared after the Myers trial when the testimony of Wilson was severely shaken, was laid on the table by the council Wednesday night.

The petition, which was prepared by Mr. Hedges Friday, and is addressed to the council, follows:

On the tenth instant in seriousness I submitted to you a letter concluding with a petition to return to Lee Pong, a Chinaman, the fine which he paid after having been gone upon by two strange-faced, strange-acting strangers to such extent as to persuade the court that he was guilty. On Wednesday night, I find, the communication was laid on the table, and, as this motion is usually made for only temporary disposal of a matter which at the earliest convenient time will be again considered, let me suggest further that it be not forgotten. I know how easy it is for any of us to feel that serious consideration of a matter relating to a mere Chinaman is not necessary. I know how easy it is to forget that the matter was ever considered or placed on the table.

I ask, therefore, that at your earliest convenience you take the petition in behalf of this friendless man, who was convicted by the swearing of a lying charlatan and another who did not testify the same in two cases, from the table and return to him at least his money. Do not fail in freeing Lee Pong from his false position; and let it be known that an uncontrollable boy, who became a dissembling impostor on this job which was taken up because he "needed the money," cannot put this job over on the man, the city, the council, and the community.

GENEVIEVE CLARK — JAMES M. THOMPSON

BOWLING GREEN, Mo., June 30.—This place was ready to accommodate a great throng today for the wedding of Genevieve Clark, the only daughter of Speaker and Mrs. Champ Clark, and James M. Thompson, the owner of the New Orleans item. Mr. Thompson was one of the principal boosters of Champ Clark when he was a candidate for the Democratic nomination at the last Baltimore convention. His cordial support of her father won Miss Clark's heart. The following is the text of the general invitation to Miss Clark's wedding, sent by Wallace Haasford, secretary to Speaker Clark: "The speaker and Mrs. Champ Clark wish all Missourians to understand that each and every one of them will be welcome at Honey Shuck, Bowling Green, Mo., June 30, at the wedding of their only daughter, Genevieve. MRS. ROSINA EVANS WOMAN'S CLUB HEAD

At the last meeting of the season of the Woman's club, Mrs. Rosina Evans was chosen president for the remainder of the year, to succeed Mrs. H. F. Pfingsten, who leaves shortly for the Dallas, where Mr. Pfingsten has been elected principal of the high school. Mrs. J. W. Norris is first vice president.

Mrs. Pfingsten, who has been president of the club for almost two years, gave a report on the work of last year and the various activities undertaken by the club. Following her report a vote of thanks was extended by the club members for the efficient work under her administration.

No formal program was arranged for the afternoon but a good impromptu program was given. Mrs. D. C. Latourrette and Mrs. J. W. Norris told of their recent visit to California. Mrs. Pfingsten and Mrs. Norris then gave a detailed report of the Woman's council of the Women's club of Oregon, which was recently held in Portland. Mrs. Toose's talk on "Everywoman's Road," as given at the Helbig by the young ladies of Reed's college in Portland, was interesting.

It was voted by the club members to maintain headquarters at chautauqua to be held in Gladstone park during the first two weeks of July. Mrs. J. W. Norris is president of this committee.

The little granddaughter of Mrs. J. E. Downey was present with her grandmother at the meeting and was adopted as a "Club Baby." She is two months old and her name is Virginia Louise.

The club made further plans for a picnic to be given in the near future. The meeting of Thursday closed the year's work until October.

$30,000 SOUGHT BY WOMAN HURT IN WRECK

MRS. SARAH DILLOW, OF BOLTON,
CLAIMS INJURIES RECEIVED
APRIL 18 PERMANENT.

A suit for $30,000 against the Portland, Eugene & Eastern railroad was filed in the circuit court Friday by Mrs. Sarah Elizabeth Dillow, of Bolton, who was seriously injured April 15 when a car in which she was riding collided with a log train. George C. Brownell, Charles T. Stevers and William M. Stone are appearing as attorneys for Mrs. Dillow.

The complaint merely recites the facts that Mrs. Dillow was riding alone in the car when, without warning, it was struck by a log train. She was thrown from her seat and through a trap in the floor of the car to the ground. The motorman jumped from the car when the approaching train came in sight.

Mrs. Dillow alleges that her injury is permanent.

SCHOOL ADDITION LOST BY MARGIN OF ONLY 9 VOTES

VOTERS TURN DOWN $20,000 BOND ISSUE WITH 76 AGAINST,
67 FOR PLAN.

SCHOOL BOARD MAKES PLANS TO HANDLE INCREASED ENROLLMENT

Provision Must Be Made to Accommodate More Students in Building Already Crowded to Full Capacity.

By a vote of 76 to 67, the $20,000 bond issue to build an addition to the high school building was defeated at the special school election Thursday.

The vote came as a complete surprise to the school board and others in favor of constructing the addition. In fact, those in favor of the plan say that one of the principal reasons why the issue lost was the confidence felt by those who favored it. A quietly organized opposition to the bond issue developed during the week, immediately preceding the election which was successful in defeating the measure by the small margin of nine votes.

Counting of votes began at 7 o'clock when the polls closed and by 7:30 the result was known. For a time the votes were almost evenly divided between yes and no, but toward the end the opponents of the issue gained.

The school board now has a problem on its hands which is recognized as a difficult one. With a graduating class of 165 from the grammar schools, with the closing of the smaller county high schools and the enforcement of the county high school tuition fund law, a great increase in number of students at the beginning of the fall term is assured. Even during the year just closed, the school was crowded to twice its original capacity.

The school board held a meeting Thursday night and canvassed the vote of the election, but has not yet made any definite plans. They have determined, however, to make some provision for the reception of the students that desire to attend high school in Oregon City, even if it becomes necessary to erect temporary structures to accommodate them. It has been suggested that the school board construct some portable buildings on the high school grounds until such time as a permanent addition may be authorized. Under the new tuition law, the Oregon City district will receive about $70 for each non-resident pupil attending and the members of the board feel that it would be poor business to refuse to admit them into the local high school.

It appears to be very evident that the people who favored the natural expansion of the educational facilities offered here were altogether too sanguine of the results of the bond election, and if given another opportunity to vote the bonds, would conduct a very active campaign.

Miss Carrie Stevens, a teacher in the high school, has resigned, and with the withdrawal of Mr. Pfingsten, principal of the high school, who goes to The Dalles, there are two vacancies in the faculty to be filled.

Traveling Man's Experience.

"In the summer of 1888 I had a very severe attack of cholera morbus. Two physicians worked over me for four a. m. to six p. m. without giving me any relief and then told me they did not expect me to live; that I had best telegraph for my family. Instead of doing so, I gave the hotel porter fifty cents and told him to buy me a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and take no substitute. I took a double dose according to the directions and went to sleep after the second dose. At five o'clock the next morning I was called by my order and took a train for my next stopping point, a well man but feeling rather shaky from the severity of the attack," writes H. W. Ireland, Louisville, Ky. Obtainable everywhere.

SECOND SPECIAL SCHOOL ELECTION SOUGHT BY CLUB

PETITIONS ARE PUT IN CIRCULATION ASKING ISSUE BE REFERRED TO VOTERS.

DEFEAT OF ADDITION TO HIGH SCHOOL TRACED TO FOUR CAUSES

Every Speaker at Saturday Night Meeting Voices Surprise and Disappointment—T. W. Sullivan Acts as Chairman.

PETITION FOR SPECIAL ELEC- TION ADDRESSED TO SCHOOL BOARD.

We, the undersigned citizens and taxpayers of this school district view with deep regret the recent defeat of the bond issue for the proposed addition to the high school building of this city. Among the reasons assigned for the defeat are:

1. Objection to bonding further for public improvements without taking into account that the tuition from non-resident students will in all probability exceed in three years the amount of the bonds.
 2. The necessity for additional room was not thoroughly understood.
 3. The polls were open too short a space of time to accommodate all those who desired to vote.
 4. That the election itself was not well advertised and consequently many who were legally qualified did not vote.
- The small vote cast does not, we believe, represent truly the feeling of the majority of the voters of this district on this important subject. That this is an emergency matter is recognized by those who have given it due attention. Increased numbers of pupils will soon demand entrance when the present building has been for some time crowded far beyond its normal capacity. In view of these facts, enumerated above, the general desire for another privilege of expression at the polls of their feelings on this important issue has been expressed by a large number of citizens and taxpayers of this city. Therefore, we the undersigned do hereby respectfully petition the board of school directors of school district No. 63, Clackamas county, to cause the call of another election for the purpose of voting on a bond issue for the purpose of erecting said addition to said high school building.

The first definite step toward a second special school election on the $20,000 bond issue was taken Saturday night when the Commercial club, at a special meeting, authorized the sending out of a petition to the board of school directors, asking that the issue be put before the voters again.

The petition, which had been prepared by T. W. Sullivan, president of the club, was unanimously adopted. It assigns the defeat of the bond issue last Thursday to four reasons: The general objection of the public to bonds; the fact that the necessity of additional room was not thoroughly understood; the hours of voting being too short, and the lack of publicity given the election.

Speaker after speaker arose and declared that he was surprised at the result of the election. All said that they were sorry that the issue lost, yet several confessed that they, themselves, did not vote, taking victory for granted. T. W. Sullivan, president of the club acted as chairman of the meeting and outlined the purpose of the session.

City School Superintendent Toose thoroughly covered the subject. He showed that with the high school tuition fund law in effect next fall, a great increase in the attendance of the high school was certain, yet the present building and equipment was too small to properly accommodate the present enrollment. The new school law would give the district in three years enough to cover the cost of the new building in tuition, he declared. C. Schuebel, state representative, showed the purpose and effect of the tuition law which will give to every high school district tuition to cover the complete cost of educating every outside student. Others who spoke are T. B. Ford, George Randall, E. H. Cooper, R. B. Cox, L. Riches and George Harding.

O. D. Eby, a member of the school board, was present at the meeting and at its close that he felt sure that if the board was shown the people wanted a second election, the directors would not be slow in calling one. J. E. Hedges, chairman of the board, expressed the same views and added that in case a well signed petition was presented to the school directors, the board would hold a special meeting the first of this week to consider another election.

Mr. Hedges said that in case of a special election, every day would count. Twenty-one days are required to post the notices of a special election so that the matter could not be referred to the voters before the middle of next month. Even if the issue had carried last Thursday, Mr. Hedges said, speedy work would have been required to complete the building by the time the school opens in the fall.
