May from the rank of unassigned officers to commander of the regiment. Colonel William C. North, until yesterday in charge of the regiment has been placed on the retired list by the war department rather than accept his resignation submitted several weeks ago.

WILSONVILLE GRANGE HOLDS ENTHUSIASTIC WELCOME RECEPTION

One of the most enthusiastic gatherings ever held at Wilsonville occurred Wednesday evening, when the boys returned from the service were given a welcoming home. The affair, which was in the form of an entertainment and ball, was held in the Wilsonville grange hall, and was attended by over 400 people.

There were over 35 automobiles bringing friends and relatives of the young men to the reception, and they were glad evidence of prosperity in that section, makes of many of the best automobiles on the market being represented, with only one Ford in evidence. Wilsonville is one of the richest sections of the county of Clackamas, and the refreshments that were served were of the best. There were cakes galore and many left over, even after the 400 people were given all they desired, and ice-cream in large quantities.

District Attorney Gilbert L. Hedges and Attorney O. D. Eby made eloquent addresses, and were received with a great ovation.

During the evening selections were rendered by the Sherwood orchestra of five pieces, which were highly appreciated, and several vocal numbers were given.

Following the entertainment refreshments were served. In the center of the hall was arranged a long table around which were seated the returned soldiers, sailors and marines with their mother, wife, sister or sweetheart, with the center appropriately decorated. Chairs were arranged in other parts of the buildings for relatives and friends of the young men.

The interior of the building was decorated with flags, bunting and flowers.

Mr. Seeley, cashier of the Wilsonville Bank, presided over the affair, which was given under the auspices of the Community Club.

Many enjoyed the dancing that followed the refreshments, and there were many who have not tripped the light fantastic for years who took advantage of this occasion and joined in the festivities until a late hour.

Wilsonville had a large representation in the war, many of the young men having seen active service overseas, and it has long been planned to give the boys a welcome when they returned to their homes. The affair was well planned and carried out by the people of that thriving section of the county.

PLANES FOR FIGHTING FOREST FIRES ASKED BY OREGON EXECUTIVE

Salem, July 30.—Indications that two or more airplanes are immediately available for forest patrol service in Oregon are contained in a telegram received by Governor Olcott Friday afternoon from Colonel H. H. Arnold of San Francisco, in command of the air service in the western department.

Prompt acceptance of the proffered assistance in securing these planes is made in a telegram sent in reply to Colonel Arnold by Governor Olcott and F. A. Elliott, state forester.

George H. Cecil of Portland, district forester in the United States forest service, has also added his plea for federal aid in combating forest fires by air patrols, it is understood here.

Lawrence approached the auto driven by Mr. Carr from the rear and signalled to Carr to let him pass. Carr drew to one side of the road and as the Lawrence car passed him turned back into the road too quickly, the rear of the Lawrence machine colliding with the smaller machine with damaging results.

Mr. Hughes Reservations

"There is a plain need for a league of nations," declares Charles E. Hughes, Republican candidate for president of the United States in 1916.

In a public statement issued to the people of this country, Mr. Hughes presents suggestions that, if adopted, will clarify the senatorial and administration atmosphere at Washington. He refers to Article X of the covenant as a "trouble breeder and not a peace-maker" and he says:

"It is idle to attempt to commit free peoples to the making of war in an unknown contingency when such a war may be found to be clearly opposed to the dictates of justice."

As Mr. Hughes so clearly points out, the prudent course would be to enter the proposed league with reservations of a reasonable character, and there is no need to assume that a reservation would lead to a complete failure of the treaty to compel a resumption of the peace conference, when the reservation leaves unimpaired the main provisions of the covenant.

We like Mr. Hughes' suggestion reservations much better than we do those of Mr. Taft. The reservations of Hughes provide that a nation may withdraw from the league upon two years' notice; that questions of domestic policy, such as immigration and import duties that do not arise from an international engagement, are not to be submitted for the consideration of the league; that the United States does not relinquish its traditional attitude toward purely American questions, and that the United States assumes no obligation to undertake any military expedition unless such action is authorized by congress.

Mr. Hughes made a lucid statement that will attract world-wide attention. His well balanced judicial mind has been brought into play to the benefit of a situation that has been badly muddled through the tactlessness of Mr. Wilson, Mr. Borah, Mr. Poindexter and others.

CLACKAMAS FARMERS FORM ASSOCIATION TO RAISE BETTER CATTLE

The southern part of Clackamas county, in which is some of the best land anywhere in the state, has become Jersey territory, by the formation on June 24 of the Southern Clackamas Jersey Bull association.

Nine progressive farmers residing near Monitor, with the assistance of the county agent, drew up articles of association and by-laws under the provisions of which they agree to use only the bulls of the association. Extreme care will be used in keeping the herds free from disease.

Three directors were elected, John Lohmhart being president, Emil Anderson vice president, and Martin Rost-voled secretary-treasurer.

One bull has already been purchased, being Minetta's Butter Boy, out of Minetta of Ashwood, belonging to N. H. Smith of Oregon City. This cow was state champion as Junior 3-year-old last year with 710 pounds of butterfat. She is now on test again this year and promises to go considerably higher.

Another bull will be purchased as soon as one can be found which comes up to the high standard set by these dairymen. Each of these bulls will be placed at the head of a block of about 50 cows, and at the end of two years they will be exchanged. This gives each dairymen the use of strictly high grade bulls for four years, with an investment of about $7.50 per cow. The bulls are owned by the association.

AUTO THEIR IS ARRESTED FOR BORROWING CAR

Alfred R. Zachary, 19, recently discharged from the military service at Camp Lewis was arrested in Portland Wednesday afternoon on a complaint of L. H. Cochran, of Molalla, charging him with the theft of the latter's automobile last Sunday night.

Zachary rented an Overland at the Sullivan Garage in Portland Friday night. The Overland car was found wrecked south of Canby Saturday morning. Zachary stayed in the vicinity of the wrecked car Saturday and early Sunday morning stole Mr. Cochran's car and went to Salem. In the latter place he was accosted by the authorities and fled in the direction of Portland.

He was apprehended in Portland when he attempted to have repairs made to the stolen car. His actions aroused the suspicions of the garage manager and investigation proved the car to be stolen.

Mr. Cochran went to Portland Wednesday morning and identified his car, although the license number was from a different machine.

Young Zachary was brought to Oregon City late Tuesday night by Sheriff W. J. Wilson and will be returned to the reform school.

JURY SAYS DEATH DUE TO COLLISION OF AUTO AND TRAIN

As the result of the inquest held Friday afternoon over the body of Mrs. Kandy H. Kylo at Hitchman station on the Willamette Valley Southern railway, the coroner's jury late Friday evening returned a verdict in which the cause of her death was given as being due to a collision between an automobile in which she was riding and a train on the Willamette Valley Southern tracks.

Mrs. Kylo was killed on July 14 at Hitchman station while riding with Haakon Kylo and the latter was seriously injured when the machine he was driving crashed into a Willamette Valley Southern train at the railroad crossing at Hitchman station. Witnesses stated that the machine appeared to speed up as it approached the crossing and it is presumed that Mr. Kylo became confused when he first saw the train and speeded his machine up instead of applying the brakes.

Mr. Kylo, whose condition as a result of the accident has been such as to make an earlier investigation of the affair impossible, is still far from being out of danger, and at the time of the inquest Friday was unable to recall any of the events connected with the accident. The last lucid recollection he has is the loading of a load of hay which he performed just before starting out in the machine with Mrs. Kylo, and he apparently has no recollection of the trip nor the fatal crash.

The coroner's jury was made up of the following, all well known residents of Molalla: O. W. Robbins, O. K. Cole, Louis Bergstrom, Roy Sullivan, J. F. Sherman and John Stubbs.

WAITING STATION AT PARKPLACE BADLY DAMAGED BY FIRE

A blaze which destroyed the flooring and floor timbers of the P. R. L. & P. waiting station at Parkplace Monday afternoon, was successfully extinguished by residents of the immediate vicinity before it had gained any considerable headway, although it promised for a short time to spread to a field of hay nearby and might have caused a great deal of damage had it not been checked.

No cause for the blaze could be discovered and it is thought that a cigarette stub or match, carelessly thrown, was responsible.

WEST LINN MATRON HELPS IN HARVESTING BUMPER GRAIN CROP

The hay crop of Clackamas county for this year has been the largest in many years. Even the women have again resumed the task this year of assisting in getting in the hay crop. With the lack of male help during war times the women of Clackamas county came to the rescue and helped to harvest crops in various sections, and this year they are doing similar work. Among the women of Clackamas county deserving much credit in assisting with the farm work is Mrs. J. W. Armstrong, of West Linn. Mrs. Armstrong, during the war times, did much Red Cross work, for her two sons were in the service, and her assistance was also needed on the farm. She was one of the women who performed manual labor by assisting her husband in harvesting and performing other farm duties.

Mrs. Armstrong has just assisted her husband in harvesting their hay crop, which has amounted to 25 tons, from eight acres of land. She is also planning now to assist in getting in the grain crop for this year's crop will be the largest they have harvested. The wheat averages in the three acres 5 1/2 feet in height. Mrs. Armstrong has the wheat shocking completed, and it will soon be ready for threshing. The sons have returned from the service and are employed elsewhere.

The Armstrong farm is located about three miles from this city in the West Linn district.

TRAINS ARE FIRED ON BY BLACKS IN CHICAGO

CHICAGO, July 30.—Officials of the New York Central railroad reported to the police tonight that in the negro district the blacks were firing on all passenger trains. About the same time the police received word that rioting was in progress at Thirty-first and Dearborn streets, near the heart of the black belt.

State troops were ordered from the armory tonight to various points, regarded as danger centers in the race riots. Request for the troops was made to Adjutant-General Dickson by Mayor Thompson.

The decision to use troops to patrol the dangerous parts of the trouble zone was taken tonight as a precautionary measure, after Adjutant-General Dickson had made a round of the south side negro district and its environs. He said the situation was more serious than 24 hours before.

LOCAL CONTRACTOR TO CONSTRUCT BUILDINGS FOR NEW PAPER MILL

Harry Jones, the contractor, has been awarded the contract to erect the two large buildings for the new paper company at Salem. These buildings, which are to be 50 x 75 feet and 80 x 150 feet, will be for the Oregon Pulp & Paper Company.

Mr. Jones will leave here August 1st to commence his construction work, and his wife and son will spend a few weeks at Newport, and later take up their residence in Salem, where they are to remain during Mr. Jones' employment, but expect to return to Oregon City when the mill buildings are completed.

Mr. Jones was the contractor for the Crown Willamette Inn, of West Linn, one of the best constructed hostleries in the state. Mr. Jones has had much experience as a contractor since taking up his home in this city.

WORK ON NEW FISH LADDER OVER FALLS IS BEING STARTED

Under the supervision of Captain Thomas Sweeney work on the construction of the fish ladder over the falls in this city was started this week. At the last session of the legislature $5,000 was appropriated for this purpose.

Superintendent Clanton has just returned from a tour of the coast and Willamette Valley sections of Oregon where he inspected state hatcheries and arranged for the location of new hatchery buildings.

At Oak Ridge, the site selected by the state fish and game commission for a new hatchery, conditions were found favorable by Mr. Clanton. A great number of salmon are reported to be invading the headwaters of the McKenzie river. On the McKenzie Mr. Clanton reports that the few barriers placed to stop the fish will fail to do so in any large degree this year on account of the unusually high water, but that the yield of eggs from the McKenzie hatchery will be unusually good this season.

HOUSE VOTE FAVORABLE FOR REPEAL LUXURY TAX

WASHINGTON, July 28.—After nearly two hours' debate and while the temperature in the chamber was hovering around the 100 mark, the house today voted to repeal the 10 per cent tax on soda water and ice cream. The house also passed, without a record vote, the bill for reduction of the war tax on fruit juices, as urged by western producers.

The second death from the outbreak occurred tonight. A negro, attacked by a crowd of whites, died after reaching a hospital.

Streetcar conductors in many instances refused to carry negro passengers because of threats against the blacks. Several hundred white laborers who were forced to pass through the negro district to reach
