WOULD MAKE WATERLOO LION TURN ABOUT-FACE.

It's a nice bit of sentiment aroused by a thoughtful and observant American soldier who has suggested turning around the famous Belgian lion which surmounts the great mound on the battle of Waterloo so that it will face toward Germany instead of France.

The mound, which is 200 feet high, overlooks a level field, and the lion on its summit is represented as defying France. Each day large parties of American soldiers take the Y. M. C. A. sightseeing trip from Brussels to Waterloo, and on one of these occasions a doughboy envolved the idea, which spread so rapidly that the Belgians are considering it.

REPLICA OF CHICAGO RACE RIOTS NEARLY STAGED HERE TODAY

A replica of the race riots of Chicago was in process of fulfillment on Main street Tuesday afternoon through the color line established by a local restaurant insofar as the personnel of its kitchen help is concerned.

The party at the other end of the wire appeared to have the qualifications necessary to perform the duties of the position in question and he was instructed to report for duty. In some manner the question of color was not brought up by either the prospective cook or the restaurant man.

Upon his arrival in the city Tuesday forenoon and making application as directed he was told that that particular restaurant drew the line at employing colored help. He therefore asked that the expenses of the trip from Portland be refunded to him, and upon his request being refused he gave vent to his feelings in a volume of guttural grumblings that presaged ill for the restaurant proprietor.

Mr. Blackman remained in town several hours in an effort to secure legal aid to extract his carfare from Mr. Restaurant Man and even went so far as to ask the Sheriff's office to send their busiest minion of the law down to the eating place and arrest the proprietor.
