Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Dallas, of Damascus, accompanied by Mrs. Dallas' sister, Mrs. M. A. Williams, returned to Oregon City Wednesday. Mrs. Williams arrived in Clackamas county in the early spring, and was accompanied here by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Harvey, coming from Meadowgrove, Nebraska. They have decided to make their future home at Carver, and Mrs. Williams has purchased the 10-acre farm of Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Crader, near the Clear Creek Creamery. Mrs. Williams is engaged in farming on a small scale, having purchased a cow and poultry, and is much taken up with that section of the county. Her parents are to make their home with her. Mrs. Williams sold her farm in Nebraska before leaving for Clackamas county, and has also recently disposed of her city property there.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Alldredge, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Alldredge and daughter, Quivine, who have been spending the past two weeks at Newport, returned to Oregon City the first of the week. While at the resort they occupied one of the Seacrest cottages overlooking the ocean. Many trips were made by the party, among these being a hike to the Punch Bowl, leaving Newport at 7 in the morning and returning at 5:30 in the afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Alldredge and Joseph Alldredge took this trip and were successful in finding a large number of handsome agates as souvenirs of the trip. They also visited the oyster beds and secured a supply ample for their needs. They are already making plans for a similar outing next summer.

Mrs. L. D. Williams, nee Miss Elaine King, formerly of Mount Pleasant but whose home is now at Astoria, received a cablegram from her husband, Major L. D. Williams, from France on Friday morning saying he would arrive in the United States August 27. When Major Williams left here about two years ago he was commissioned lieutenant of an engineer corps, and received the promotion to major last March. Mrs. Williams has been making her home during her husband's absence at the residence of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. King of Mount Pleasant, except for the time she spent with her husband in the South before he sailed for France.

The Nazarene church service will be made up of special subjects for Sunday, accompanied with special music. Morning Service, 11:00 a. m.; subject, "Second Advent of Our Lord." Evening Service, 8:00 p. m.; subject, "Dispensational Truth," using large colored chart. You are welcome.

IN SOCIETY CIRCLES BEAUTIFUL WEDDING CEREMONY IS HELD AT CLYDE MOUNT HOME

A beautiful home wedding took place at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Clyde Mount at Thirteenth and Water streets Friday evening at 8 o'clock, when Miss Lorene Augusta Parker, sister of Mrs. Mount, and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Parker of Independence, was united in marriage to Mr. Pascal Whelpton of Lincoln, Neb.

The impressive ring ceremony was used in the presence of a few of the intimate friends and the relatives of the contracting parties. Rev. Dunsmore of the Presbyterian church of Independence, officiating.

The rooms of the Mount home were artistically decorated with palms, roses, sweet peas and other cut flowers. A beautiful altar, formed of cut flowers and graceful palms was arranged for the ceremony. As the bridal party entered the living room from the reception hall they were welcomed by the beautiful strains of Lohengrin's wedding march beautifully played by Miss Lydia Doolittle of Corvallis.

The bride, escorted by her father and preceded by the bridesmaids, Miss Jean Ketchum of Independence and Miss Jessie Harriet of Salem, and by the maid of honor, Miss Kathryn McDermott, took her place at the altar, where the bridegroom and his best man, Ralph Parker of this city, were awaiting them. The impressive ring ceremony was used, and after the holy rite was performed Miss Marie Churchill of Salem rendered a beautiful solo.

The bride was a vision of beauty in her exquisite gown of white charmeuse with embellishments of silver lace. Her long veil, which was held in place with a tiny wreath of orange blossoms, fell in graceful folds to the length of her gown. Her shower bouquet was of Cecili Brunner roses and white sweet peas.

The maid of honor, Miss Kathryn McDermott of Oakland, Cal., was becomingly gowned in cream colored net, and carried white sweet peas.

Following the marriage ceremony refreshments were served. Among those assisting in serving were Mrs. Charles Parker of this city; Miss Flizman, Miss Alberta Karinger, of Portland, and Mrs. C. H. Marsh, of Pendleton.

Among those in attendance from out of the city were Judge and Mrs. C. H. Marsh, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Bishop, C. M. Bishop, Miss Elsie Fitzmaurice, and Miss Clara Raley, all of Pendleton, Oregon. Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Parker of Independence, parents of the bride.

The bride is well known in Oregon City, as well as at Corvallis and Pendleton, where she has carried on the home demonstrating work for several years under the direction of the Oregon Agricultural college, and working for the United States government during the war, being Home Demonstrating agent for the government. She is a graduate of the Oregon Agricultural college, and also had charge of the domestic science department of the Oregon City high school three years ago. She is a member of the Gamma Phi Beta sorority.

Mr. Whelpton is a native of New York, and recently arrived in Nebraska from Washington, D. C., where he had been working for the government. He is a graduate of Cornell, and has accepted a position as assistant professor of agriculture at the Nebraska Agricultural college, his headquarters to be at Lincoln.

After a tour through the Yellowstone Park, Mr. and Mrs. Whelpton will take up their residence at Lincoln, Neb.

MANY FRIENDS PAY LAST RESPECTS TO LATE JOHN MELDRUM

The funeral services of the late J. R. Meldrum, of Portland, familiarly known by his many friends as "Jack," were held from the Holman & Pace funeral parlors in this city, Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Many friends of the young man from this city and Portland attended the services. Rev. C. H. L. Chandler, rector of St. Paul's Episcopal church of this city, officiated. During the services a quartet composed of Mrs. V. Harris, Mrs. J. J. Tobin, Mrs. L. A. Morris and James Chinn, sang "Nearer My God to Thee" and "Abide With Me."

The floral tributes were magnificent and in great profusion. One of these, from Portland, was from the Diamond Tire company. This place was in the form of a tire about five feet in diameter, formed of exquisite flowers, and through the center was a large "T" formed of red flowers.

The pallbearers were from this city, and were C. C. Spencer, D. M. Shanks, John R. Humphreys, Elton Long, George Swafford and Emery J. Noble.

The interment was in the family lot in the Mountain View cemetery, and the remains were laid to rest beside those of his mother, the late Mrs. Henry Meldrum, who died in this city a number of years ago. Many friends of this city and Portland followed the remains to their last resting place, where a brief service was held.

Mr. Meldrum was found dead beneath the Ford street bridge in Portland Thursday morning. His death, according to an autopsy held, was due to heart failure.

FATHER OF ACCIDENT VICTIM ARRIVES TO TAKE CHARGE OF BODY

Larry Rivers, father of Edgar Rivers, who died in the Oregon City hospital early Friday morning as the result of injuries received from a fall off the Clackamas river bridge Thursday evening, arrived in this city Saturday to take charge of his son's body.

The young man had been in the army for two years, serving the greater part of that time in France, and had but recently returned to the United States, and at the time of the fatal accident was on his way to visit relatives living in Parkplace when the fatal accident occurred.

OREGON CITY MAN IS DEAD AT HOME HERE AFTER LONG ILLNESS

Byrd Bevens, of Portland, but who has been visiting his mother, Mrs. Kate Bevens, of this city for the past three weeks, died at the latter's home Thursday evening about 7 o'clock, after an illness of several years, suffering from Bright's disease.

Mr. Bevens was born at Buena Vista, Oregon, September 3, 1877, and came to Oregon City with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Bevens, about 25 years ago, settling at Willamette, where he married and later moved to Hood River, his wife dying in 1905. He then took up his residence again in Willamette, and five years ago moved to Portland, where he has resided until three weeks ago, when he came here.

Mr. Bevens was well and favorably known in Willamette and in this city. He is survived by his son, Rutherford Bevens, of this city, who is making his home with his grandmother. He is survived by his mother and the following sisters: Mrs. E. T. Mass, of this city; Mrs. Josephine Brown, of Portland; Mrs. Herman Plotts, of Eugene; Mrs. W. K. Beagle, of Oakland, Calif. He also leaves three nephews, Ernest Mass, Jr., Wallace Mass and Howard Mass, of this city; and his nieces are Mrs. C. I. Landsverk, of Oregon City; Nola Berdine, of Eugene; Harriet and Jane Plotts, of Eugene; Eleanor Brown, of Portland; Irene Beagle, of Oakland, Calif.

ACCIDENT VICTIM IS DEAD FROM INJURIES

Archie Sherman, whose home is in Milwaukie, died at the Oregon City hospital Saturday night as the result of a fractured skull sustained several days ago when he was struck by a milk truck owned by the Sunset Creamery Co. of Portland while on a visit to Portland with his mother.

The accident occurred at Fourth and Alder streets as the little fellow and his mother were crossing the street. The truck driver took the boy to St. Vincent's hospital and he was discharged from there after an examination.

After arriving at his home he complained of trouble with his head and he was brought to the Oregon City hospital and operated on Saturday morning at ten o'clock when it was discovered that he was suffering from a fractured skull. He died at 10 o'clock Saturday night. He was eight years of age.

FALL OFF CLACKAMAS BRIDGE RESULTS IN INJURIES TO E. RIVERS

Edgar Rivers, who is visiting relatives at Parkplace, was seriously injured in a fall from the Clackamas river bridge at that place Thursday evening, sustaining injuries that may prove serious.

He was crossing the bridge on foot and crowded to one side of the bridge to permit a large truck and an automobile to pass each other, and in so doing was evidently crowded off, falling forty feet onto the rocks in the river.

Fred Hogg, who lives nearby, assisted in getting the injured man up out of the river and rushed him to the Oregon City hospital. Reports from the hospital at a late hour Thursday night stated that Mr. Rivers was seriously injured, although the full extent of his injuries is not known. It is thought that he has sustained a fractured skull, besides internal injuries.

OREGON CITY YOUTH SPRINGS SURPRISE; RETURN UNEXPECTED

Milton Nobel, who left Oregon City about two years ago to enter the naval service, and who has been on the U. S. S. Ryndam, making 26 round trips to France, surprised his father, Louis Nobel, and brother, Louis Nobel, Jr., Thursday by returning home unannounced. He received his discharge from the service at Bremerton, Wash., recently. Mrs. Nobel and daughter, Clara, are at Bar View, Oregon, and are still ignorant of the fact that the son and brother has returned. Mr. Nobel and Milton leave this morning to spend several weeks at Bar View, with the mother and sister.

Milton Nobel when entering the service was connected with the Bank of Commerce. He has visited Paris a number of times, but was not favorably impressed. New York looked better to the young man, and he said the boys in the service arriving in the city were given every consideration to make their lives happy while in the big city. Many other Eastern cities extended the boys hospitality, but the southern cities he did not care for.

In speaking of the Red Cross and the Salvation Army, Nobel said "I will certainly take off my hat to both of those organizations for what they have done for the boys. At Spokane, after arriving in the West, the Red Cross even gave us meals. Nothing too good can be said about those organizations, and the boys certainly appreciate what they have done."

The U. S. S. Ryndam had some exciting experiences with the submarines, but the old boat came through all right.
