The home of Mr. and Mrs. Rush was very beautiful with its decorations of lavender and yellow, ivy and golden glow used in the living room where the marriage nuptials were solemnized at 8 o'clock.

The Rev. Gilbert of the M. E. Church, read the ceremony, the impressive ring service being used. The dining room was effectively decorated with baskets of lavender asters and larkspur and yellow zinnias. The bride was a picture of loveliness in her gown of white and carried a shower bouquet of sweet peas. Mary Kessi, Adah and Mary Grace Rush were becomingly gowned in white with yellow sashes and carried baskets of golden glow and ferns and acted as flower girls for the occasion. Miss Della Rush, aunt of the bride, was maid of honor and Mr. James Benoit of Portland, was best man. The bridal party marched down the stairs as Miss Harriet Benjamin played the Mendelssohn wedding march on the piano and Miss Francis Benjamin on the violin. During the service "Oh Promise Me" was played and lent impressiveness to the affair. The guests were immediate friends of the family and partook of a delicious wedding supper. The happy couple left amid a shower of rice for a trip to the Sound and through British Columbia and will be at home Sept. 29 at Eugene. The groom has recently returned from overseas where he was in the army of occupation and will resume his studies at the University of Oregon.
