BUDGET OF EXPENSES OF COUNTY GIVEN OUT

At the regular meeting of the county court held on Wednesday, the budget of expenses for the county for the ensuing year was made known. The estimated expenditures from the general fund reach a total of $120,161.

From this amount is subtracted $24,738, the estimated receipts from fees interest, fines and other sources than direct taxation. In the department devoted to roads and bridges an amount of $291,250 is set aside.

The school fund amounts to $116,150. The state tax is estimated at $134,000. Interest on outstanding warrants is estimated at $12,000; another item is the interest on bonds, $10,000.

From this last item it is taken that the county will issue and sell $200,000 of the 5 per cent bonds voted at the special election held on November 24.

The net amount to be raised by taxation for all purposes for 1920 is estimated at $658,823. The budget also includes a special high school fund to be levied on all property in Clackamas county not included in high school districts amounting to $34,837.21.

BAGLEY CLEARS WAY FOR TRIAL IN HAWLEY CASE

Circuit Judge Bagley, at Hillsboro, today, cleared the decks for the trial of the divorce action of Marjorie Hawley vs. Willard P. Hawley, Jr., by giving the defendant 10 days in which to file an answer to the original complaint. With the presentation of the answer, the case will speedily be set down for trial.

By order of the court Wednesday, Mr. Hawley is required to pay the plaintiff $350 a month alimony while the suit is pending, and is further directed to pay $500 attorney fee and $500 suit money. The court fixed the fee for the plaintiff's attorney at a maximum of $10,000.

All previous orders and motions in the case are practically thrown into the junk heap by Judge Bagley's ruling. The motion of the defense to make the complaint more definite and certain was disallowed., and the various motions filed by both parties, with their supporting affidavits will not be pressed. Previous orders in the case are set aside.
