WHO IS TO BLAME?

The race riots in East St. Louis, in which 30 or more negroes and one white man were killed, can be laid to the doors of corrupt politics as much as to any other cause.

By some it is suspected that the Kaiser's agents had a hand in the game and that may be possible. But, if German agents are mixed in the affair, they are only taking advantage of a rotten political and economic condition that can only be corrected by cleaning East St. Louis of a gang of political vermin that has preyed on that city for a good many years.

The negro vote in the city is a potent factor in the elections of city officials and persons familiar with the situation know that favor has always been shown negro "social" clubs and like organizations where crap shooting, Sunday liquor drinking and all-night carousals are permitted by the police, who know that their jobs will be put in jeopardy if they molest the blacks.

Among the "sporting" fraternity the city has always been known as a "wide open" town; perhaps not in the sense that Nevada or Alaska towns were wide open in the days of gambling but, for practical purposes, as wide open as one needs desire.

Anything from petty larceny to murder has been "fixed" either through political pull or the judicious spread of money. Police reporters in St. Louis have known the condition existed for years although proof has sometimes been lacking to the extent that the officials could be convicted of the nefarious practices.

In order to remain in power and thus in charge of the machinery of government, and, especially, the executive branch, the negroes have been given a wide latitude of license by the politicians, who in return receive the votes of the blacks.

Perhaps the riots may have the effect of driving out some of the leaders who have organized the negroes and the decent element of the city may come into their own as a result. It is lamentable that murder should have to be committed to bring this about but a measure of satisfaction may be felt if the rotten politicians are ousted.

BEWARE PEDDLER'S PLASTER

A German peddler has been arrested in Nebraska, charged with selling court plaster inoculated with germs of leprosy.

Mrs. C. W. Sly, 245 Thirteenth avenue west, has received a copy of the Mitchell (S. D.) Gazette, bringing word of the arrest of a one-armed peddler, for annoying people who refused to buy of him. He was apparently a German. Immediately following this the Sioux City (Iowa) Journal published an interview with F. H. Forest, deputy sheriff of Dakota county, Nebraska, telling of the arrest of a man there who was peddling court plaster. Forest is quoted as follows:

"The German, in the guise of a peddler, has been detected selling court plaster inoculated heavily with deadly leprosy germs, said to be the most malignant and incurable disease in the world."

"The man, when arrested, assumed an indifferent attitude. He had $1000 in money on his person. No disposition has been made of his case. "Burning at the stake or hanging would be too good for this man. His detection simply goes to show the seriousness of war conditions, even in our own homes, and should be a grave warning to all housewives to beware of peddlers and transients."

—Eugene Guard.

IT IS THE PEOPLE'S WAR

"The great fact that stands out above all the rest is that this is a people's war, a war for freedom and justice and self-government among all the nations of the world, a war to make the world safe for the peoples who live upon it and have made it their own."—Woodrow Wilson, president of the United States.

LIBERTY LOAN BUYERS

The oldest purchaser of a Liberty Loan bond is Mrs. Louisa K. Thiers, of Milwaukee, Wis., who is 102 years of age and a real daughter of the Revolution, her father having served in the Continental army which won our independence.

The youngest subscriber to a Liberty Loan bond is Miss Florence Estelle Rogers, of Medford, Mass., whose father purchased her a bond when she was 8 hours old.

The purchaser of a Liberty Loan bond with the longest name was Mr. Gust J. Panathodorokoumoundurgistomichalakopoulos, of Chicago.

A 100 PER CENT PEOPLE

It is a pleasing coincidence that the Red Cross campaign for $100,000,000 which immediately followed the conclusion of the Liberty Loan campaign, resulted in an oversubscription of practically the same percentage as the oversubscription to the loan.

The American people are well over 100 per cent patriotic and well over 100 per cent generous.
