

Goes to Asylum
Benjamin Klein, 19-year-old Oswego youth, yesterday was committed to the state insane asylum on order of County Judge H. S. Anderson. The youth believes that his mother and sister, with whom he lived near Oswego, were trying to poison him. He has other mental delusions.

Both the Oregon City Courier and