Local and County Items of Interest to Courier Readers

VIOLA

Miss Mary Rorick, teacher of the Viola school, visited at her home in Corvallis during the Thanksgiving holidays.

Mrs. J. F. Cummins of Portland, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Cummins a few days this week.

Regular preaching services are held in the Viola church at 11 a. m. the first and third Sunday in each month.

A mission study class meets at the parsonage each Friday evening. A fire was discovered on the roof of J. F. Cummins' house Saturday, November 24. A general alarm was turned in to the neighbors. Several were soon on the ground, but they were not needed as the fire was put out with a few pails of water. It was a narrow escape from serious loss.

WILHOIT

A road tax of six mills was voted at the road meeting, only two voting "no." If the autocratic authority, with its iron hand rule will cease annexing more territory to district number 28, regardless of the people's consent, we would soon have some roads.

Since old Jupe has got back on his job the tourist travel to Wilhoit has subsided.

LOGAN

Harding Grange election of officers for 1918 has passed into history with the following result: Master, Timm Pahl; overseer, E. T. Bateson; lecturer, Mahala Babel; steward, S. G. Kirch; assistant steward, G. A. Kohl; chaplain, E. E. Thorpe; treasurer, O. D. Robbins; lecturer, L. Kohl; gate-keeper, L. Funk; Ceres, Alice Funk; Pomona, June Kirch; Flora, Irene Kirch.

The committee for the Red Cross benefit entertainment reported that the net proceeds and the Grange contribution amounted to $100.75, which was ordered turned over to the county officers. There was a short but interesting program of readings and a general discussion on rural improvements and good of the order, after which came the close, and all went home determined to make a general drive for improvement the coming year. A venerable patron from Marion county was a visitor and he said he had been a member for nearly half a century. We are sorry to have lost his name. Lone Pine Lodge Number 53, A. F. and A. M., has invested $300 in Liberty bonds, which was a patriotic thing to do.

Will McCubbin writes that he is now at Camp Mills, N. Y., and that airplanes are the most common sight and sound.

Carl A. Kirchm intends to join the colors in the spring.

The roof is completed on the new hall building at the Lower Logan school.

J. C. Young has a new large truck and can take two tons or more at a load.

The Mumpower dogs chased a coyote through Logan one night last week and finished the night in Mr. Cromer's barn. A drive next day failed to get Mister Coyote.

That extra one cent postage is a little thing individually, but big in the total returns.

Frank Kohl is "Somewhere in France," presumably where he can best "serve" the German people.

Mrs. Maude Gould, our former central operator, is ill at her home in Portland, but was some better at last reports.

George A. Kohl has a man at work clearing his stump corner.

CORRESPONDENTS

The Courier's Christmas edition, 20 pages of interest, is to be published next week. We ask our staff to get their letters into the office as early as possible for this edition, by December 10 if at all possible. Give us all the news and give it to us soon.
