Local and County Items of Interest to Courier Readers

ALBERTA

Olga Scribner, who has been a student in the Oregon City high school the past year, spent the week-end with her parents.

Mr. Guard and Mr. Mayfield were in Oregon City Saturday.

Mrs. Connor was in town Thursday.

Claribel Hardanbrook, who is attending high school in Oregon City, has returned to Alberta again.

Mr. Taylor and family were guests at the Mayfield home Sunday evening.

Dorothy Mayfield and Claribel Hardanbrook called on Helen Beeson Sunday afternoon.

Miss Gorrell spent Sunday afternoon in Lower Highland.

Mr. Brown has asked the young people of Alberta to give their support in helping raise a fund for the suffering Armenians. Here's hoping February 17th will see Alberta go "over the top" for her quota.

Mr. and Mrs. Scribner were Oregon City visitors Tuesday.

Claribel Hardanbrook visited the school Monday.

ALBERTA

(Too Late for Last Week)

School was discontinued in Alberta last week owing to the absence of the teacher, Miss Gorrell, who was in Portland to attend her grandmother's funeral.

Mrs. Rogers and daughters, Blanche and Mae, were Oregon City visitors Tuesday.

Mr. Guard and Mr. Mayfield were in Beaver Creek on business Thursday.

Most of the men in Alberta were busy Wednesday repairing the school house.

Mr. Rogers and daughter, Blanche, were on the sick list.

Mr. Brown was in Oregon City Tuesday.

Sam Martin, Mr. Rogers and son, Joe, are building fence on Mr. Rogers' farm at Scholls, Oregon.

Mrs. Scribner is on the sick list.

EAGLE CREEK

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Woodie spent the week-end at the home of their son, Malcolm Woodie, of Troutdale. Their granddaughters, June and Hazel Woodie, were ill with the mumps.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Sersanous, of Sellwood, motored out to Eagle Creek Sunday, and visited with Mr. and Mrs. Naylor.

H. S. Gibson was the dinner-guest of Mr. and Mrs. Will Douglas Sunday. It was the birthday of Mr. Gibson and Mrs. Douglas.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Woodie entertained Mr. and Mrs. Murphy, Perry Murphy, Mrs. R. B. Gibson and Joe Woodie at dinner Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Douglas visited with Mr. and Mrs. Guy Wilcox Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Douglas and daughters, Mildred and Florice, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Dunst, Sunday.

Dick Gibson was a Springwater visitor Monday.

Mr. Bravender is on the sick list.

Mrs. Geo. White, of Portland, was the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Tracy Clester, recently.

MOUNT PLEASANT

Well, the ground hog saw his shadow. According to old traditions we will have a very backward Spring. We will wait and see.

We have been watching the court, and have been pretty well pleased to think it has been using some good judgment. Well, good men always use good judgment.

Our school is all that could be desired. The parents and teachers met on Monday with the pupils and they formed the Junior Canning club. Miss Harmonia King was elected president. They will meet every two weeks and will also take up domestic science and other work along their line.

Mrs. W. B. Lawton had an old fashioned quilting bee and a good social time last Wednesday.

Mrs. Ethel Johnson, formerly Miss Ethel Holmes, who has been very ill, became worse and was taken to the hospital in Portland Monday, in an ambulance.

Mrs. Albina Olds, who has been spending some time in California, has returned to Mt. Pleasant.

Will Wheatley is building a new incubating house for his already commodious poultry business.

A. A. Reese has gotten his plans ready for a good poultry season. We have several poultry farms.

EAST PARADISE

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Hardesty were callers at Frank Oglesby's Sunday.

Several friends of Mr. and Mrs. Avon Jesse were visitors at their home Saturday evening.

Geo. W. N. Taylor, one of our oldest settlers, is residing at Barlow. His age is 90 years and he bids fair to live several years yet.

Chicken thieves are abroad in the land—better keep a look on your hen house and a shot gun handy.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Oglesby were visiting relatives at Sellwood Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. Lofgren has finished delivering his potato crop to Canby buyers. Ben R. Wolfer has about recovered from his sickness.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick, of Sellwood, will soon move back to their farm near Aurora.

Several of our farmers attended the road meeting at Macksburg and report a hot time, as all wanted a paved road in front of their residence.

The Goetz family were Canby visitors on business Friday.

Several weddings are on the docket here in the near future—as soon as the boys get back from France.

Henry Kraus will put in a large acreage of corn this spring.

Owing to the poor outlook for beans, the Oglesby Bros. will not plant a large acreage this spring.

Andrew Bachert has sold his interest in the Bachert farm, near the Meridian schoolhouse.

D. B. Yoder is saving some wood for his summer use. He is using an "arm-strong" outfit.

The first snow of the season fell here on January 31st.

STAFFORD

The "Flu" seems to have come to a stand-still, and the school opened again on Monday morning. All at Mr. Schatz's are up again but Walter, and at Sam Moser's all are doing as well, and other families are convalescent but not quite well enough to be trusted to attend school, therefore the rooms are poorly filled as yet.

Mrs. A. N. Gage was quite ill the past week, but better at the present writing. Walter Gage, a newly discharged soldier, came to visit relatives the first of the week.

As Mr. Oldham and son, Roscoe, were returning home Friday night with their two machines the father signaled for the son to stop as he wished to speak to a man, but the son failed to notice and ran into the forward machine with disastrous results, putting the machine out of commission at once. No one was hurt. They realized they were lucky. They have been quite a convenience for the surrounding country, their two trucks having hauled to market nearly everything there was to haul, thereby saving the wear and tear of horse-shoes and wagons.

Adolph Deklar has put a woven wire fence around his door yard.

In one of the recent storms Mr. Schatz's windmill fell down.

There are some bad places between here and Tualatin. On Sunday an auto with three men got stuck and were looking for a team to pull them out.

The Oregon bear could not have seen his shadow in Stafford on Candlemas day and the ground hog did not surely, as there are none in this part of the world, therefore those short of feed look hopefully to the future. The grass looks green as

REDLAND

Frank Sprague and his hounds captured another coyote last week. Since Frank has got Splinter back, he has the best pair of hounds that has ever been in this country. A coyote has absolutely no chance to get away.

Outside of inconveniencing travel, the recent high water did but little damage, except washing out some roads where there were not ditches, of which there are quite a few yet.

Mrs. Warren has been in attendance at the sick bed of her daughter at Carver. The daughter died of the "Flu" Sunday morning.

Babe White has rented the Cross place and moved onto the same.

The U. S. Livestock Report for January would seem to indicate that there were 3000 more horses in Oregon January 1st, 1919, than for the same period in 1918; 5000 less milch cows; 20,000 more of other cattle; 50,000 more of sheep; 25,000 more swine. There seems to be an increase of 160,000 milch cows in the U. S. and 280,000 other cattle; 260,000 sheep; 4,500,000 swine, covering the same period. The farmer surely has not been a slacker to keep up his end of production, but how many readers can take up almost any paper or magazine and see a full page ad of the Swift Packing Co., as to what a boon they are to the farmer. To hear them tell it, one would think they were in the business for the mere pleasure of doing business. Take the stock yards in North Portland for instance. In September hogs were selling around 20c per cwt. and bacon varied 1/2 cent, the cheapest kind was 50c per lb. Then as soon as hogs came in they dropped to $16.50 to $17.00, but did the finished market drop? Well, we guess not. Take this drop on an average day's run would amount to about $5,000 out of the producer's pocket, with no gain to the consumer. This is only a sample on a small scale of what is being done. No wonder the government is investigating the meat packers. We believe government control is the only solution for the consumer as well as to the producer.

TWILIGHT

Gratitude should have been added to the three graces, and ingratitude made a crime.

We favor the bill now before Congress restricting immigration until such a time when our internal affairs are so adjusted as to insure every man a job.

Mr. and Mrs. Bolton, of Beaverton, were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McCord.

Mr. and Mrs. P. S. King entertained Portland friends over the Sabbath.

Bert L. Harvey, in the U. S. navy, sailed January 20th from New York for Gibraltar for orders, evidently destined to sail to some Mediterranean port.

Living off the Pacific and Columbia highways, and not being a tourist, we can't give rise to much enthusiasm over the present outlook for good roads legislation thus far developed at Salem.

"Flinch" and "Fan Tan" are markedly similar. The former is a parlor amusement now much enjoyed by our younger set, while the latter is a favorite game with the Chinese gambler.

Mrs. Albert Ansvie, nee Burgess, of Canby, was a mid-week guest of Gwendolyn Evans, our school teacher.

National prohibition has been announced. Now let some one agitate a tobaccoecious nation, not so vicious, but a filthy habit.

To the Peace parley I say, deprive Germany of all her colonies, extend France's control to, and include the river Rhine, adding an indemnity that will not be commensurate with damage done by the Kaiser's troops to life and property in France and Belgium.

L. E. Bentley and family passed the Sabbath with a brother in Portland.

"Grandma" Scheer, mother of Henry and Herman, has taken up a homestead in Wyoming.

J. F. Spiger, a former resident of this district, now residing in Oregon City, was a recent caller. His daughter, Rose, now in Washington, is expected home shortly to keep house for him.

P. S. King was a Portland visitor Friday of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Wessell, from Idaho, now residing in Portland, and old neighbors of Hugh Moynach and wife, are authority for the statement that both potatoes and apples are now being fed hogs in that state on account of no market. Something is radically wrong, judging from present Portland quotations. Transportation facilities must be out of line.

President Wilson favors reparation but not indemnity, now that France is the victor. In 1870, after a victory over France, Germany not only deprived France of Alsace-Lorraine, a most valuable prize, but enforced an indemnity of a billion dollars, which the latter paid. In justice to France, in lieu of an indemnity, compel the Germans to refund this billion dollars with interest. Then they are getting off easy.

Married

License to wed was granted by the county clerk Saturday to Delia Katherine Schultz, 20, and Walter J. Olson, 21, of Aurora, R. F. D.

Starts Much Sickness

A clogging mass of undigested food that remains fermenting in the stomach or intestines sends the poison it develops through the entire human body. "Keep the bowels open" is one rule of health recognized by all schools of medicine. Foley Cathartic Tablets cleanse the bowels, sweeten the stomach and benefit the liver. For indigestion, biliousness, bad breath, bloating, gas or constipation, no remedy is more highly recommended. No griping or nausea. —Jones Drug Co.

CHERRYVILLE

Are we going to have any winter this summer?

Frogs croaking, birds singing, and buds bursting! How is that for gentle Spring?

One rancher drove his cattle down from the mountain to make them eat. He had some high-priced straw that he got last Fall to carry them through a hard winter, but they wouldn't touch it.

Another big saw mill is likely to start on the Salmon river on the Harry Noble section, by Spring. Also another one is talked of on Alder Creek, two miles east of the postoffice. The flume will be done by the first of May and this makes an easy way to get the lumber and ties to Bull Run.

Several of our railroad land squatters will prove up next week, and make more permanent settlers.

A sum of $400 was raised in Portland last week to lay plank on this road to Mt. Hood. Active work will soon begin to make all solid plank road to Sandy from Salmon River.

The road meeting called for Saturday of this week in Portland to make arrangements for building the road around the Mt. Hood circle and connecting it with the Toll road, will be well attended by county judges and county commissioners from all parts of the state. Dr. Botkins, an old pioneer, as well as J. T. McIntyre, our road boss, will likely be present. Mr. McIntyre, who has lived in this part of the state for more than 30 years, says there is no likelihood of building the road on the other side of the Sandy river, as the road is too rough and mountainous.

The debate was well attended last Saturday night, and the question decided in the affirmative, that the provident should own and operate all the railroads, telegraph and telephone lines, and all other public utilities. Attention was called to New Zealand and Australia, where the state controls and owns all the public utilities to the general satisfaction of all the people, for a period of 20 years. The question for discussion next week is "Resolved, That Farming in the Most Important Industry in which Our People are Engaged, and Should Receive the Greatest Care and Encouragement of the Government."

The big city papers make but slight mention of the overwhelming gains of the Non-Partisan League in North Dakota at the last election. All offices are held by farmers, and no lawyer is sent either to Congress or to the Legislature. They now control and own the banks, the grain elevators, warehouses and co-operative stores, and are reaching out after other public utilities. Isn't that awful? Some fine-haired and finely-dressed fellows will have to go to work.

Wm. Willy, a Pittsburgh, Pa., steel magnate, who abandoned his former faithful wife, who started life with him when he was earning only $40 a month, and who finally induced a renegade preacher for a fee of $10,000, to marry him to a Marybelle Gilman, a chorus girl, recently presented his newly-wed wife with a cloak costing $75,000. In the meantime, thousands of poor women and children go shivering and hungry to their miserable beds. It is a shame, and disgrace that in a country as rich as this there should be so much poverty. Nero fiddled while Rome was burning and many of our Right Reverends spend their time splitting straws about some misty and misty dogma while misery exists all around them.

The English capitalists do not seem to want to do the right thing by their returning soldiers and that nation is now in the midst of a great strike. One thing can be depended upon, and that is that the working class will not be driven to hard work and long hours at insignificant and insufficient wages, either in England or this country or any other part of the civilized world.

Pinchot, a prominent Republican leader in Pennsylvania, warns his party that if they permit Senator Penrose to become the chairman of the most important committee in the U. S. Senate, they will split the party in two and go down to defeat in 1920. That is just what they will do. However, Penrose has a stranglehold on his party and has unlimited money at his back.

About the State

Resume of the News of the Week from All Parts of Oregon

With the paving of the Pacific highway, the expense of maintaining it will be greatly reduced to the county and the road districts in this district, this will allow the improvement of the other roads of the district to a greater extent than ever before as it will be a long time before the lateral roads will be anything but graveled roads.—Aurora Observer.

That Oregon citizens should at once advise their representatives in the legislature to fight for the passage of the $10,000,000 road bill, with an emergency clause attached, is the opinion of W. L. Thompson, acting chairman of the State Highway commission, who returned recently from Salem.

Interests are at work, in the opinion of Mr. Thompson, to defeat the emergency clause, postpone the road program and the work needed so vitally in the reconstruction plan, and probably to urge a referendum on the measure.

"The possibility that the same interests which opposed the last bond issue will attempt a referendum and the putting of the state to $100,000 expense for another special election, if this bonding bill is passed without the emergency clause, should be taken into serious consideration," said Mr. Thompson.—Daily Record Abstract.

N. O. Rosebaugh has filed for letters of administration in the estate of his late wife, Maggie M. Rosebaugh. The estate, which is valued at $3,000, consists of property in the West Portland Park and five acres of land. There are several heirs to the estate.

License to wed was granted Monday to Theresa Goble, 50, and William Eckert, 50, both of Canby.

Keeps PERUNA In the House All the time

Breaks up a Cold. Good for Bronchial Inflammations.

Mr. Robert McDougall, R. R. No. 6, Liberty, Indiana, writes: "I wish to state that I always keep Peruna in the house. I think it is a good medicine to have on hand. If I commence taking a cold, I take Peruna and it breaks it up for me. It is also good for the Bronchial Tubes." Peruna has served the American people for more than forty years. Those who know its value always have it at hand. Why not you?
