

NEWS OF THE COUNTY AND SUBURBS

Local and County Items of Interest to Courier Readers

CARUS

Otis Howard, who has been in the navy for over a year, has received an honorable discharge and is at home with his parents.

Lake Casto received a bad bruise on his shoulder and was at home until able to return to work.

Miss Lena Schmeiser was home over Sunday.

Mrs. John Calverley is just recovering from the "flu."

A surprise party was given for Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stewart last Thursday evening. Everyone had a good time.

Mrs. Ed Brown has been quite ill for several days.

ALBERTA

"Welcome, sweet Springtime," is the general sentiment the good people of Alberta would fain express these beautiful days. Here's hoping "Sweet Springtime" is here in truth.

Miss Gorrell called on Mrs. Scribner Friday evening.

Lela Traylor, who is teaching school near Molalla, spent the weekend at home.

Mr. Connor and Mr. Rogers hauled two hogs to Beaver Creek Thursday.

Mr. Scribner and family spent Saturday evening at the Rogers home.

Mr. Mayfield was in town on business Monday.

Olga Scribner returned to Oregon City after spending the weekend with her parents.

Miss Gorrell was a guest in Lower Highland Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Mayfield called on Mrs. Traylor Tuesday.

LOWER HIGHLAND

Services were conducted in the Lower Highland Baptist church last Sunday but, owing to the inclemency of the weather, there was not a very large attendance.

Miss Ruth Carlisle spent the weekend in Oregon City as the guest of Miss Fern Wirtz.

The telephone line has been out of commission since Friday night. We have been unable to ring central.

Ed Vols, who enlisted in the navy, is at home, having received an honorable discharge.

Mrs. Amanda Creason called on Mrs. Holmes one day last week.

Mr. Stone and Walter were Oregon City visitors last Monday.

Herbert Vols is cutting wood for C. G. Stone.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Fellows and Ruth Carlisle were Oregon City visitors last Friday.

David Rutherford has moved into his new house.

Mrs. Meeker was an Oregon City visitor last week.

CHERRYVILLE

The Spring-time has apparently arrived.

This Spring-like weather, according to all accounts, extends all over the country.

Peach buds are very near the point of bursting and all other early foliage is coming out.

Over $1400 has been raised in Portland by the auto people and over $100 in Sandy for planking the vacant places in the road from Sandy to Salmon River.

The last lot of ties to be driven down to the dam by the river route, will be through this week and after that they will be flumed.

The program for the League of Nations marks a new era in the history of nations. This is the greatest and grandest step in human progress since the beginning of the Christian era. The part, and the prominent part, that President Wilson took in this measure, insures him a great place in history.

One of the most comical incidents in the history of the great World War is related by an American soldier who, after a weary march with his comrades to the river Rhine, was given a rest in a German city and, falling out with the rest of his battalion near a big equestrian statue of the ex-kaiser's grandfather, looked up and exclaimed, "Well, Old-timer, you certainly played hell when you raised your boy to be a soldier!"

Imagine a German soldier making such a remark. They don't say anything only what they have been told to say, or believe anything only a lot of absurd dope that has been fed to them by the higher-ups, who use them and send them out to bloody battle fields where they get shot up and now are living in a ruined and utterly defeated country.

Ex-President Taft certainly made a hit in Portland and has risen 50 per cent in the estimation of the people. He handed a hot dose to Lodge, Poin-dexter and Borah and their criticism of the League of Nations program. The people quite generally are with him and our great president. We are approaching a new age wherein peace and righteousness dwell.

"Night's candles are burned out and jound day stands tip-toe on the mountain tops."

O. Daily has rented a farm five miles from Oregon City and will move about the first of March. He has been on the Prof. Couper ranch north of town.

Elmer Johnson, after 18 months service in the U. S. army, has returned to his old job at the mill five miles east of the post office. He has a service stripe for six months "overseas." He saw action on the battle line, but escaped without injury.

Eagle Creek Grange held its regular session on Saturday with 21 patrons, eleven children and two visitors present. Quite an interesting meeting was held, and a fine dinner was served.

Mrs. Viola Douglass has been the guest of relatives out this way for the past week.

E. Naylor was an Estacada visitor the other day.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Douglass entertained an old-time friend of theirs, Andrew Key, of Portland, at dinner on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hoffmeister visited with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Douglass, on Sunday.

Mrs. Viola Douglass and Mrs. R. B. Gibson were the dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Udell, of Dover, Sunday.

Several of the men gathered to gether recently and cleared up the cemetery some and finished fencing it.

Mrs. George Judd visited with Mrs. Will Douglass Monday afternoon.

Miss Frances Degerstedt spent the week-end with her parents, Capt. and Mrs. Victor Degerstedt, of Portland.

There are no new cases of influenza in Stafford and all who have been afflicted are getting better, except some members of Sam Moser's family, but they are now considered out of danger, except a young son who was taken to the Oregon City hospital for a minor operation and is not yet out of danger.

Albert Elligsen's infant son, about three months old, died of influenza last week and was buried in the Stafford cemetery on last Saturday. The rest of the family are not strong yet.

The Tigardville Telephone company is putting a new line into Frog Pond.

Lyle Teideman, one of our soldier boys, has returned home with his honorable discharge, and young Elise is home from Bremerton on a furlough.

Three truck loads of friends, about 40 in all, appeared at Mr. Oldham's home last Sunday, laden with baskets containing all the good things of the season, and had a picnic dinner and grand old visit in spite of the all-day downpour.

Mrs. Holton accidentally jammed the thumb on her right hand and wrenched her arm, from which she has been suffering for about two weeks.

Mr. Weddle has plowed a part of his lawn preparatory to altering the landscape somewhat.

ed up and exclaimed, "Well, Old-timer, you certainly played hell when you raised your boy to be a soldier!"

Imagine a German soldier making such a remark. They don't say anything only what they have been told to say, or believe anything only a lot of absurd dope that has been fed to them by the higher-ups, who use them and send them out to bloody battle fields where they get shot up and now are living in a ruined and utterly defeated country.

Ex-President Taft certainly made a hit in Portland and has risen 50 per cent in the estimation of the people. He handed a hot dose to Lodge, Poin-dexter and Borah and their criticism of the League of Nations program. The people quite generally are with him and our great president. We are approaching a new age wherein peace and righteousness dwell.

"Night's candles are burned out and jound day stands tip-toe on the mountain tops."

O. Daily has rented a farm five miles from Oregon City and will move about the first of March. He has been on the Prof. Couper ranch north of town.

Elmer Johnson, after 18 months service in the U. S. army, has returned to his old job at the mill five miles east of the post office. He has a service stripe for six months "overseas." He saw action on the battle line, but escaped without injury.

Eagle Creek Grange held its regular session on Saturday with 21 patrons, eleven children and two visitors present. Quite an interesting meeting was held, and a fine dinner was served.

Mrs. Viola Douglass has been the guest of relatives out this way for the past week.

E. Naylor was an Estacada visitor the other day.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Douglass entertained an old-time friend of theirs, Andrew Key, of Portland, at dinner on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hoffmeister visited with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Douglass, on Sunday.

Mrs. Viola Douglass and Mrs. R. B. Gibson were the dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Udell, of Dover, Sunday.

Several of the men gathered to gether recently and cleared up the cemetery some and finished fencing it.

Mrs. George Judd visited with Mrs. Will Douglass Monday afternoon.

Miss Frances Degerstedt spent the week-end with her parents, Capt. and Mrs. Victor Degerstedt, of Portland.

There are no new cases of influenza in Stafford and all who have been afflicted are getting better, except some members of Sam Moser's family, but they are now considered out of danger, except a young son who was taken to the Oregon City hospital for a minor operation and is not yet out of danger.

Albert Elligsen's infant son, about three months old, died of influenza last week and was buried in the Stafford cemetery on last Saturday. The rest of the family are not strong yet.

The Tigardville Telephone company is putting a new line into Frog Pond.

Lyle Teideman, one of our soldier boys, has returned home with his honorable discharge, and young Elise is home from Bremerton on a furlough.

Three truck loads of friends, about 40 in all, appeared at Mr. Oldham's home last Sunday, laden with baskets containing all the good things of the season, and had a picnic dinner and grand old visit in spite of the all-day downpour.

Mrs. Holton accidentally jammed the thumb on her right hand and wrenched her arm, from which she has been suffering for about two weeks.

Mr. Weddle has plowed a part of his lawn preparatory to altering the landscape somewhat.

There are no new cases of influenza in Stafford and all who have been afflicted are getting better, except some members of Sam Moser's family, but they are now considered out of danger, except a young son who was taken to the Oregon City hospital for a minor operation and is not yet out of danger.

Albert Elligsen's infant son, about three months old, died of influenza last week and was buried in the Stafford cemetery on last Saturday. The rest of the family are not strong yet.

The Tigardville Telephone company is putting a new line into Frog Pond.

Lyle Teideman, one of our soldier boys, has returned home with his honorable discharge, and young Elise is home from Bremerton on a furlough.

Three truck loads of friends, about 40 in all, appeared at Mr. Oldham's home last Sunday, laden with baskets containing all the good things of the season, and had a picnic dinner and grand old visit in spite of the all-day downpour.

Mrs. Holton accidentally jammed the thumb on her right hand and wrenched her arm, from which she has been suffering for about two weeks.

Mr. Weddle has plowed a part of his lawn preparatory to altering the landscape somewhat.

There are no new cases of influenza in Stafford and all who have been afflicted are getting better, except some members of Sam Moser's family, but they are now considered out of danger, except a young son who was taken to the Oregon City hospital for a minor operation and is not yet out of danger.

Albert Elligsen's infant son, about three months old, died of influenza last week and was buried in the Stafford cemetery on last Saturday. The rest of the family are not strong yet.

The Tigardville Telephone company is putting a new line into Frog Pond.

Lyle Teideman, one of our soldier boys, has returned home with his honorable discharge, and young Elise is home from Bremerton on a furlough.

Three truck loads of friends, about 40 in all, appeared at Mr. Oldham's home last Sunday, laden with baskets containing all the good things of the season, and had a picnic dinner and grand old visit in spite of the all-day downpour.

Mrs. Holton accidentally jammed the thumb on her right hand and wrenched her arm, from which she has been suffering for about two weeks.

Mr. Weddle has plowed a part of his lawn preparatory to altering the landscape somewhat.

There are no new cases of influenza in Stafford and all who have been afflicted are getting better, except some members of Sam Moser's family, but they are now considered out of danger, except a young son who was taken to the Oregon City hospital for a minor operation and is not yet out of danger.

Albert Elligsen's infant son, about three months old, died of influenza last week and was buried in the Stafford cemetery on last Saturday. The rest of the family are not strong yet.

The Tigardville Telephone company is putting a new line into Frog Pond.

Lyle Teideman, one of our soldier boys, has returned home with his honorable discharge, and young Elise is home from Bremerton on a furlough.

Three truck loads of friends, about 40 in all, appeared at Mr. Oldham's home last Sunday, laden with baskets containing all the good things of the season, and had a picnic dinner and grand old visit in spite of the all-day downpour.

Mrs. Holton accidentally jammed the thumb on her right hand and wrenched her arm, from which she has been suffering for about two weeks.

Mr. Weddle has plowed a part of his lawn preparatory to altering the landscape somewhat.

There are no new cases of influenza in Stafford and all who have been afflicted are getting better, except some members of Sam Moser's family, but they are now considered out of danger, except a young son who was taken to the Oregon City hospital for a minor operation and is not yet out of danger.

Albert Elligsen's infant son, about three months old, died of influenza last week and was buried in the Stafford cemetery on last Saturday. The rest of the family are not strong yet.

The Tigardville Telephone company is putting a new line into Frog Pond.

Lyle Teideman, one of our soldier boys, has returned home with his honorable discharge, and young Elise is home from Bremerton on a furlough.

Three truck loads of friends, about 40 in all, appeared at Mr. Oldham's home last Sunday, laden with baskets containing all the good things of the season, and had a picnic dinner and grand old visit in spite of the all-day downpour.

Mrs. Holton accidentally jammed the thumb on her right hand and wrenched her arm, from which she has been suffering for about two weeks.

Mr. Weddle has plowed a part of his lawn preparatory to altering the landscape somewhat.

There are no new cases of influenza in Stafford and all who have been afflicted are getting better, except some members of Sam Moser's family, but they are now considered out of danger, except a young son who was taken to the Oregon City hospital for a minor operation and is not yet out of danger.

Albert Elligsen's infant son, about three months old, died of influenza last week and was buried in the Stafford cemetery on last Saturday. The rest of the family are not strong yet.

The Tigardville Telephone company is putting a new line into Frog Pond.

Lyle Teideman, one of our soldier boys, has returned home with his honorable discharge, and young Elise is home from Bremerton on a furlough.

Three truck loads of friends, about 40 in all, appeared at Mr. Oldham's home last Sunday, laden with baskets containing all the good things of the season, and had a picnic dinner and grand old visit in spite of the all-day downpour.

MACKSBURG

Martin Krause and son, Benjamin, were visiting with old friends in Portland this week-end, and while down there they purchased a Chevrolet automobile.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Scheer and sons visited with Mr. and Mrs. Will Heinz on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Stevens have received word, through the Red Cross, that their son, Clarence L. Stevens, is now at Camp Sheridan, Alabama, in a hospital. His left thumb was slightly injured while fighting in France, but is improving rapidly and expects to be transferred to Camp Lewis in the near future.

We are sorry to mention that Franz Kraxberger is quite ill with the hiccough. He was taken to a Portland hospital on Monday.

George Zinnerling, of Timber, Ore., is visiting with old friends here. The many friends of George Zinnerling, Jr., will be glad to hear of his safe arrival in Portland with the famous 65th Artillery, which has just arrived from overseas.

Henry Herkamps is on the sick list.

George Krause was visiting with former school mates in Portland on Saturday and Sunday.

Adam Kahl had the misfortune of getting his shoulder thrown out of place while playing basketball at the Macksburg-Aurora game recently.

G. W. Scramlin made a business trip to Portland on Tuesday.

Rev. Lucas delivered a lecture on Sunday at 2:30 p. m. in regard to raising a fund of $500,000 for reconstruction work to help the destitute Lutherans in the war-stricken countries of Europe.

George Sutherland was transacting business in Canby on Saturday.

Mrs. Abraham Heple has received a telegram from her husband, who is "with the colors," that he has arrived safely in New York from France.

Cut This Out—It Is Worth Money. DON'T MISS THIS. Cut out this slip, enclose with 5c and mail it to Foley & Co., 2835 Sheffield Ave., Chicago, Ill., writing your name and address clearly. You will receive in return a trial package containing Foley's Honey and Tar Compound, for coughs, cold and croup; Foley Kidney Pills for pain in sides and back; rheumatism, backache, kidney and bladder ailments; Foley Cathartic Tablets, a wholesome and thoroughly cleansing cathartic, for constipation, biliousness, headache, and sluggish bowels.—Jones Drug Co.

A. U. Bogden, solicitor for the Armenian-Syrian Relief fund, handed in the following report to the correspondent, the following contributors each doing their "little bit":

O. M. Scheistrom, $2.00; T. Munson, $1.00; Lilly Park, 50c; Mr. and Mrs. John Park, $2.00; Mr. and Mrs. A. Miller, $5.00; Wm. Mau, $1.00; Fred Moehke, $1.00; Louisa Repke, $2.00; Mr. and Mrs. Joe Powers, $2.00; Mr. and Mrs. Geo. A. Harris, $2.00; S. M. Grammatzki, $3.00; Geo. Devore, $1.50; Ellie Brown, $1.00; A. Vallen, $1.00; Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Elliott, $3.00; A. S. Freeman, $1.00; Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Freeman, $2.00; M. Rydzewski, $1.50; Mr. and Mrs. A. U. Bogden, $4.00; Louis Bogden, $1.00; Julius Bogden, $1.00; Montie Cox, $1.00; Nellie Vallen, $1.00; Dan Stahlacker, $1.00; W. T. Henderson, $2.00; L. N. Vallen, $1.00.

Mrs. Hazel Vallen is with her sister, Emily Rowan, at Colton, caring for her new niece, who took up her abode in the Rowan home February 7th.

Pupils of the Elwood school district have bought 3 croquet sets and volley ball to be used on the school grounds. They raised the money for them last year by means of a social.

Walter Cox and George Brown butchered hogs one day last week, taking one to Oregon City.

Some friends of Mr. Munson's were out from Portland last week viewing some land, but as yet haven't heard of any sales.

Stanley Turel and Mr. Mueller are each making preparations to build on their homesteads.

John Putz and a gang of men are doing some much-needed road work in this vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. Rotter, of Portland, were guests of Mrs. Rotter's parents Saturday and Sunday. Mrs. Rotter remained for a short visit.

Walter Cox sold seven head of beef cattle to Beattie Bros., of Beaver Creek, which he delivered Monday.

MOUNTAIN VIEW

Violets are blooming and agents are calling every day and so it is an omen of Spring.

Mrs. E. D. Van Aiken, who fell some time ago and received severe bruises, is slowly recovering. She has been under a doctor's care for most of the time.

Mrs. Harris, who left here for Seattle several weeks ago to care for her parents who were sick, had the misfortune to lose her little son, Harold Harris, aged five years, who died while there from diphtheria. The friends extend sympathy to the family.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin have moved into the house on the corner of Garfield street and Pleasant avenue.

There are scarcely no vacant houses to be found.

Mrs. Ed May and daughter, Bessie, who have been quite ill with influenza, are slowly getting better.

Madison Brown, of Embar, Wyo., came to Oregon City last Saturday and surprised his mother, Mrs. R. M. C. Brown, who lives on Molalla avenue.

Mr. Brown has lived in Wyoming for 15 years and was a large stock owner there, but decided he would quit and sold out and will perhaps locate in Oregon. After spending a couple of days here he left for Klamath county to visit his sister, Mrs. G. W. Offield at Morrill.

Several people from here went to Portland last Monday to greet the soldier boys.

James Smith, of Vancouver, Wash., was here last Sunday to visit his daughter, Mrs. Edgar Terry, on Myrtle street.

Mr. Scott and family left for Seattle last Friday but may return here later on.

Mrs. Duvall, of Sellwood, visited friends in this city last Sunday and Monday.

Mrs. Ray Welsh and daughter, Evelyn, are at Highland visiting Mrs. Welsh's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Shute.

JENNINGS LODGE

The Cushing home at this place was the scene of a very pretty gathering on Tuesday afternoon, February 18th, the occasion being the 20th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Losey. Mesdames Clemens and McHargue assisted in receiving the guests. Pink potted primroses were used about the rooms effectively and centering the dining table, which was spread with dainty and delicious refreshments.

A beautiful Bible was given to Mrs. Losey, being presented by Mrs. Hugh Roberts. An original poem by Mrs. Kelly was much enjoyed and Mrs. Losey responded in a charming manner. The invitation list included Rev. Hotchkiss and wife; Mesdames Tucker, Germain, Rush, Lambert, Card, J. Roberts, Eades, Hopson, Covert, Elwell, Blinestone, Allen, Emmons, Kelly, Truscott, Laws, Crawford, McHargue, H. Roberts, Clemens; Mr. and Mrs. Losey and Mrs. Cushing.

The regular Parent-Teachers' meeting was held on Friday of last week. The rooms of the school house were most beautiful in their garlands of red and white and hearts and shells of red, white and blue. The walls were suggestive of the birthday anniversaries of noted men such as Longfellow, Lowell, Edison, Lincoln and Washington. The essays of the lives of these men were given by the pupils and were of high merit.

Mrs. Carl Smith spoke on "Emotional Outbursts," or where does a mother's influence begin. A discussion followed. A good attendance of the patrons greatly encouraged the association.

The Guild gave one of their noted suppers and Valentine party on the evening of February 14th at the church. Hearts were in much evidence everywhere.

The tables were very attractive with potted ferns and hearts, and were presided over by the Misses Margaret Tucker, Bessie Roberts, Elva Eades, Ruth Cook, Ruth Truscott, Nettie Geymer and Gertrude Kennedy. A splendid program was rendered, including an instrumental duet by Mrs. Elwell and daughter, Miss Veva. Carl Starker favored with a vocal solo, accompanied by Miss Anna Russell on the piano. Mr. Starker responded with an encore. Miss Elva Eades recited "Towser Must Be Tied Tonight," and was heartily applauded. Ruth Truscott gave a recitation which was well received. The men's quartette rendered two of their splendid numbers. The supper netted over $30. Mesdames A. B. Hotchkiss, A. B. Smith, Wm. Jacobs, R. F. Deter, Ella Eades and L. D. Miller, were in charge of the affair.

Mrs. Wm. Gardner was a charming hostess of the Guild on February 14th. The members responding to roll-call by quotations from Lincoln and sketches of his life, rounded out the program for the afternoon. A silver offering was taken. Twenty-four ladies were served tea by the hostess.

Mr. L. Wilcox, a well known former resident, met with a painful accident on Tuesday while pruning his orchard at this place. He fell and broke his hip. He was removed to the Oregon City hospital. Mr. Wilcox is 76 years of age and his many friends were sorry to hear of the accident.

Stone Gables, the home of H. H. Emmons, was thrown open for a jolly dancing party the first of the week. Twenty-two persons attended.

CORRESPONDENCE

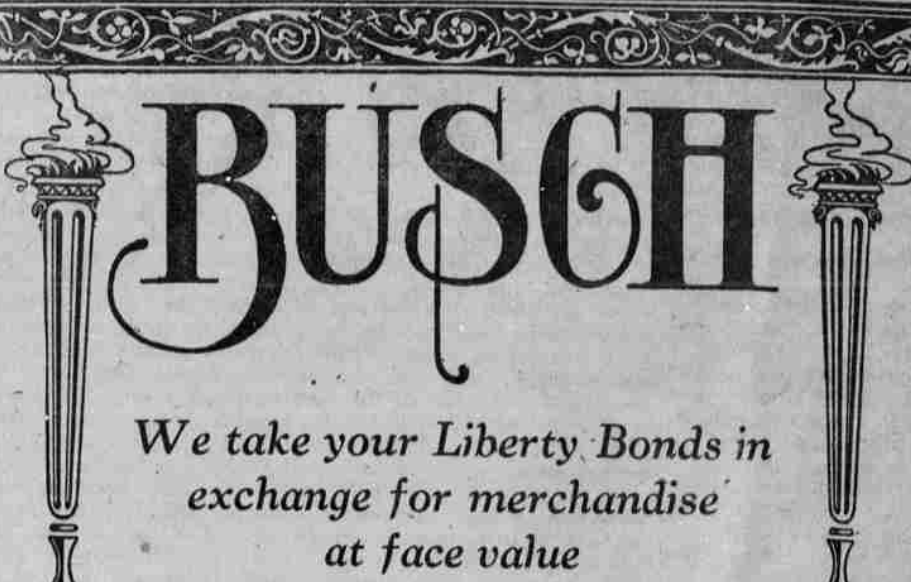

(Continued on Page 6)

MARKETS

Monday's run of livestock was light in all departments. Fewer cars of cattle, hogs and sheep were in the yards than have been on a Monday for some time. However, this is the time of year that receipts begin to drop off and lighter runs should be expected for a few weeks.

Cattle arrivals were around a thousand head. Choice steers are at a premium, very few being shown, receipts are running largely to fair and medium and common steers. Cow stuff is also of the common, ordinary variety. In the face of the ordinary quality of receipts the market is strong and snappy and cows are selling a strong twenty-five cents higher. Best steers sold up to $14.00.

Quotations are: Best steers, $13.00-$14.00; good to choice steers, $11.75-$12.75; medium to good steers, $10.75-$11.75; fair to good steers, $9.50-$10.75; common to fair steers, $8.50-$9.50; choice cows and heifers, $10.00-$11.00; good to choice cows & heifers, $8.75-$9.75; medium to good cows & heifers, $7.75-$8.75; fair to medium cows & heifers, $6.00-$7.00; canners, $5.50-$6.50; bulls, $6.00-

BUSCH

We take your Liberty Bonds in exchange for merchandise at face value

Look the price matter square in the eye. Don't try to dodge the inevitable. We manufacture our own furniture. We sell direct to the consumer at wholesale prices.

Why Pay More?

Here is a proof of our leadership. This utility gate-leg English breakfast table, made of select douglas fir, top 42 by 36 inches, when closed requires but twelve inches of space. These tables are indispensable in a small kitchen and with ordinary care will last a life time.

Our price is only

$2.75

We reserve the right to sell but one to a customer and will not sell dealers at this price.

FRANK BUSCH

MANUFACTURERS AND DEALERS IN HIGH GRADE FURN