OREGON CITY, OREGON, THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 27, 1919

Number 50

FARMERS-"WIRES" TO GATHER TUES.

LIVE WIRE LUNCHEON TO BE TURNED OVER TO STOCKMEN

GENERAL INVITATION IS GIVEN

O. M. Plummer to Speak; Livestock Exposition to be Discussed—Big Benefit

Are you interested in stockraising? Are you willing to see one of the largest and best stock exhibits next year in the world? Will you be proud of one of the finest livestock buildings in the world, situated in Portland? Then come to the Live Wire Luncheon next Tuesday noon in the Commercial club parlors and hear the plan explained by one of the originators of the movement.

At the last meeting of the Live Wires, it was voted to have Mr. Plummer, of Portland, come to this city and explain to the farmers, bankers and stock raisers how this exposition building and exposition will help Clackamas county as well as the state of Oregon. A fine "feed" will be served to all who attend at the noon hour on the above date, and many farmers all over the county have already signified their willingness to attend the meeting. Everyone interested is cordially invited to attend. If you will be there, phone the publicity department of the Commercial club—Home, C259, Pacific, 382—or better yet, phone or write Grant B. Dimick, who has charge of the meeting.

The State Legislature has already appropriated $25,000 toward the annual premium list of the show. The exposition will draw breeders and dairymen from California, Oregon, Montana, Washington and British Columbia. The present housing of the exposition is inadequate for the purpose, and thousands of dollars will be spent to make the show next year the biggest thing in the Northwest. Stockmen throughout the Northwest are now raising $250,000 for the building—it will be the largest and most complete institution of its kind in the world.

Better come in next Tuesday noon and "set on the band wagon," as the project is bound to go through, and county and state fairs will not be in it when the exposition opens November 15-22, 1920.

Remember, phone Mr. Dimick or Publicity Department of the Commercial club by Monday noon sure. Your plate will be reserved at the luncheon.

KING OF ENGLAND WRITES TO LOCAL BOY

A letter from King George of England, highly prized by the recipient, Albert Scripture, has been sent to S. F. Scripture, of this city, father of the young man. The letter is with the 642nd Aero Squadron, stationed in France. The letter follows:

Windsor Castle, England, April, 1918. Albert M. Scripture, 642 Aero Squadron, France, A. E. F. Soldiers of the United States, the people of the British Isles welcome you on your way to take your stand beside the armies of many nations now fighting in the old world the great battle for human freedom. The Allies will gain new heart and spirit in your company. I wish that I could shake the hand of each one of you and bid you God-speed on your mission.

GEORGE, R. I.

GET YOUR TACKLE IN READINESS FOR SALMON

The salmon run will soon be on in the Willamette river at this point, according to local fishermen. Last week one of the residents of Oregon City caught a large Chinook salmon with a hook and line, and it is thought that some of the early running fish are now in the stream. Local sportsmen are getting out their tackle in preparation for the run, and it is expected that this year will be the greatest fishing year for the anglers in the history of the sport.

Probate
Aml Oldenburg filed a petition Thursday for the probate of the will of his father, the late Gustavus Oldenburg. The estate, consisting of real estate in Clackamas county, is valued at $1500. Several heirs are named to the estate. A petition asking for letters of administration was filed Thursday by Effingham B. Sutton in the estate of Allen McKenzie Sutton. Real property in Clackamas county forms the estate, which is $1500. There are several heirs.

Judge Anderson Ill
Judge H. S. Anderson is now confined to his home on Center street with the grippe. The Judge had not been feeling well for several days past, and Tuesday was compelled to take to his bed with a high fever.

COURIER NAMED ONE OF OFFICIAL PAPERS

COUNTY COURT RULES AS TO OFFICIAL COUNTY ORGAN FOR YEAR 1919

THE COURIER has been declared one of the official county papers of Clackamas county, according to the decision of the county court last week. Upon demand of the Clackamas County Banner, the court called for all papers in this county to submit an affidavit as to the number of its subscribers in the county, to determine which two papers, should be the official organs for the year 1919. According to the law, the two papers which have the largest circulation in the county shall be declared the official county papers, and therefore entitled to print the proceedings of the county court each month. After the court had investigated the matter, and having gone over the subscription list of THE COURIER, and satisfied itself as to the bona fides of this paper's list, the court designated this paper one of the official organs for 1919.

According to the affidavits of the three Oregon City papers, the number of subscribers in the county of each paper was as follows: Enterprise—1583; Oregon City Courier—1420; Clackamas County Banner—1074.

The court, after full investigation, awarded the title of official papers of the county to THE COURIER and the Weekly Enterprise.

FARM BUREAU MEETS AT CONCORD STATION

COUNTY AGRICULTURAL LEADERS ORGANIZE DISTRICT FOR PROGRESSIVE WORK

The Clackamas County Farm Bureau held a meeting in the Concord school house Thursday evening to organize members of the district into clubs to carry on the work planned by the Bureau. Miss Marie Anthony, home demonstration agent, R. G. Scott, county agricultural agent, and A. L. Olmsted, leader of the boys' and girls' club work in the county, explained the work they hope to accomplish in the county, and the plans for organization.

Project leaders appointed under the department of Mr. Scott are: T. P. Worthington, fertilizer demonstration; C. P. Andrews, seed improvement; John Baumgarten, drainage; Mrs. C. P. Laudman, poultry; J. J. Gross, extermination of rodents; and John Risley, extermination of Canadian thistle.

The women of the community will organize under Miss Anthony at a Parent-Teacher meeting to be held soon. As club leader for the boys and girls of the district who are interested in gardening, Mrs. O'Connor was appointed by Mr. Olmsted. John Baumgarten was named chairman of the executive committee to supervise the work of the young people's club. The meeting was presided over by H. G. Starkweather.

STATE S. S. OFFICERS TO HOLD MEETING HERE

A school of methods is to be conducted by the officers of the State Sunday School Association at the Methodist church in this city on Thursday and Friday, March 6 and 7. An interesting, helpful program has been planned, and a feature of the work will be a demonstration of a model boys' Sunday school class in operation. The programs will start both days at 8 o'clock, and on Friday evening a basket luncheon will be given in the church parlors.

Among the speakers are Harold Humbert, secretary of the association; Dr. J. D. Springston, Rev. F. B. Short, Rev. H. B. Mathews, Rev. Ewing, Mrs. Meechem, and Miss Parker, who has charge of the children's division of the association work.

ELLISON, NOTED BARITONE, ATTRACTS LARGE AUDIENCE

Glen Ellison, celebrated Scotch baritone, who appeared in recital at the Moose hall Friday night, brought out one of the largest audiences of music lovers in the history of the city. Mr. Ellison came to this city under the auspices of Burneister & Andersen, local jewelers, and demonstrated the recreation of his own voice in connection with the Edison phonograph. The entertainment was free.

Suit to Collect on Note
J. S. Edwards started suit Monday against Stephen Lewaski to collect on a $100 note, which he claims was given April 6, 1915, at four per cent. A mortgage on Clackamas county property was given to secure the note, and the plaintiff, alleging that the note has not been paid, asks that the property be sold to satisfy his claim. He asks also for $80 attorney's fees.

LOCAL DOCTORS WIN HIGH RANK

DR. FRANK MOUNT BECOMES LT.-COLONEL; HEMPSTEAD IS MADE MAJOR

DR. MOUNT STILL IN FRANCE

Advance Is Rapid for Both Doctors; Mount to Return and Resume Practice Here

Oregon City seems to be getting her share of the honors in the United States army lately, and men of high rank will live in our midst. Drs. Guy and Hugh Mount of this city are in receipt of word from the wife of Dr. Frank Mount, who is now in New York city, to the effect that her husband, Dr. Frank Mount, has been promoted to lieutenant-colonel in the United States army. He was formerly a major. Dr. Frank is a former Oregon City man, and before the war was practicing with his uncle here in this city. He is well known and liked here, and enlisted in the service at the beginning of the war. Later he married, his wife making her home in New York city, while he was transferred to France.

Dr. Frank Mount was stationed at Camp Lewis at first with the rank of lieutenant, and shortly after being at Camp Lewis was promoted to that of captain. Just before sailing he was promoted to the rank of major. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Judge Mount of Olympia, Wash., and is a graduate of the College of Physicians and Surgeons of New York. Dr. Frank Mount is a nephew of the well known physician, Dr. Hugh and Dr. Guy Mount, here, and will resume his practice with them when he returns to this city. He is very anxious to return to this country, and has a baby daughter, four months old, whom he has not seen.

Dr. W. E. Hempstead, of this city, received word Wednesday, that he has been advanced to the rank of major in the medical corps. Dr. Hempstead received his honorable discharge from the army on January 10, this year, and since that time has been practicing in this city. At the time of being mustered out of the service, he had the rank of captain. When first joining the service he was transferred to Vancouver, Wash., with the rank of lieutenant in the medical corps. Later, he was transferred to Fort Stevens, and promoted to a captain. Two transfers since that time took the doctor to Fort Columbia, and then to Camp Merritt, New Jersey.

Dr. Hempstead is a graduate of Vanderbilt Medical College, Nashville, Tenn. He came to this city about eight years ago, and since that time has built up an extensive practice over Clackamas county.

FLAG DONATED BY BANKS AS SCHOOL CONTEST PRIZE

Although the big drive for funds for the relief of the suffering people of the Near East ended Monday night in the county, an additional drive among the schools of the county will continue until February 28. The banks of this city have donated a beautiful American flag, 7x11 feet, to be given to the school in this county which donates the most money per capita for suffering children in Armenia and Syria. The contest has already stirred up interest among the school children, and it is thought by those in charge of the work that considerable money will be realized from this source. At present, as near as Chairman Prudden can estimate, about $3000 has been turned in, with the several precincts in the county yet to be heard from.

Mr. Prudden claimed Tuesday morning that he thought the quota would be reached, although he has no way of getting the exact amount raised until the county districts have been heard from. According to the money now in the hands of the committee, the county districts will have to bring in about $2500 in order to bring the amount up to the allotted quota—that of $5,500.

MISSIONARY SOCIETY MEETS AT PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

The missionary society of the Presbyterian church of this city met in the church parlors Tuesday afternoon to transact the regular business and enjoy an interesting program. The general work of the society was the subject of a talk by Dr. S. W. Seeman, pastor of the church. Mrs. J. R. Landsborough, of Portland, wife of a former pastor of the church, spoke on "Giving." The annual thanks offering of the society was taken at the meeting, and $35 was the sum collected. Mrs. W. C. Green and Mrs. N. R. Cooper sang during the afternoon.

Courier and Farmer for $1.15.

McLOUGHLIN GRAVES ARE BADLY DEFACED

CATHOLIC CHURCH OFFERS $50 REWARD FOR CONVICTION OF GUILTY PARTIES

LAW SEPARATES TWO FUNDS

Some City Streets Are County Roads; Lower Washington Street in Bad Condition

A reward of $50 has been offered by Father Hillebrand and members of the St. John's Catholic church of this city, for the arrest and conviction of a person, or persons, who recently defaced the graves of the late John and Margaret McLoughlin, early Oregon pioneers, who are buried near the entrance of the Catholic church.

Dr. John McLoughlin is held by the people of this city to be the father of Oregon, and his home to-day stands as it did in the early days, taken care of by this municipality. Citizens of this city and county are angry over the defacing of the McLoughlin graves, and are resolved to find the guilty party.

Mud, stones, and other rubbish were thrown by the guilty parties on the graves, and a large stick was found near the resting places of the pioneers, which was used in smearing mud upon the crosses at the head of the graves. Not only the members of the St. John's Catholic church will aid in the running down of the guilty ones, but the entire population of this city will do all in their power to help apprehend them. Dr. McLoughlin's name stands today for all that is good in government and early pioneer hardships.

TWO BOOTLEGGERS CAUGHT AT NEW ERA

WEIRD STORY TOLD TO JUDGE AND MAGISTRATE FINES ONE $300

Another batch of bootleg whisky was captured early Tuesday morning by Sheriff Wilson and Deputy Meads, when a Studebaker auto attempted to make their "get-away" near the New Era bridge. The sheriff and deputy were waiting on the New Era road, near the South End road, when a car approached the junction. Deputy Meads stepped in front of the car and flashed his light. The auto stopped, and upon investigation the officers found four suit cases of bootlegging whisky in the car. The driver, who gave his name as John Andree, and a man by the name of E. Lefebvre, were brought to this city and appeared before Judge Seivers about 10 o'clock the same morning. The judge found Lefebvre guilty, and fined him $300, and he is now in the county jail unable to pay the fine. The driver, Andree, proved his innocence and was discharged.

Lefebvre told a weird yarn to the judge in effect that a party called him up at Portland where he was working at a pool hall there, and asked that a car be hired to come and get a young lady and gentleman who wanted to elope. He claimed that he did not know who it was, but hired Andree to go to Canby and pick the couple up, for a charge of $15. When they neared Canby, a man stepped into the road and held up his hand and he, Lefebvre, ordered the driver to stop, saying that this was the man they were looking for. The driver stopped, but no woman made her appearance, and when he asked the man where the woman was, the man replied "never mind, step on her." When Deputy Meads flashed the light in front of the car, Lefebvre claims that the third party jumped from the car and escaped. Lefebvre claimed that he accompanied the car from Portland to Canby just for the ride.

The judge, after patiently listening to the "yarn" said it was "some story" and fined Lefebvre $300.

The trunk taken in charge by Sheriff Wilson Thursday night at New Era, and which contained a large keg of whiskey, was called for by the owner Friday morning, who presented the check at the depot for the trunk. Officer Bell, of New Era, was on hand at the time, and placed the man under arrest. He was brought to this city, and gave his name as Charles Sterling. He was given a trial in Justice Seiver's court and fined $50 and released.

IMPORTANT!

Under some difficulty, this paper has secured the essence of the new income tax law, and our readers will appreciate information on this timely subject, we feel sure. On another page of this issue you will find all the information you need concerning this new law. Read it—post yourself concerning the income tax law—it will save you annoyance and trouble in the future!

Judgment for the amount of $182.50 was granted M. F. Phillips Thursday against Victoria E. Young. This amount was claimed due on goods purchased by the defendant.

ROAD MATTERS UP BEFORE "WIRES"

ROADMASTER ROOTS THINKS COUNTY FUNDS SHOULD HELP FIX CITY STS.

LAW SEPARATES TWO FUNDS

Some City Streets Are County Roads; Lower Washington Street in Bad Condition

At the regular meeting of the Live Wires Tuesday noon, most of the hour was taken up with road matters. Roadmaster Roots called the attention of the Wires to the present state law which does not allow the county court to fix roads which are city streets. Mr. Roots said that in many cases streets in some towns were county roads, and that the county court should be allowed to fix these roads, irrespective of city governments. The present law does not allow county funds to be spent on city streets, or city funds on county roads. As it was too late to introduce a bill in the state legislature, nothing could be done in the matter of a year.

The attention of the organization was directed toward the terrible condition of Washington street between 14th and 17th streets in this city. It was brought out that this stretch was in bad condition, and was the most traveled road in the county. The matter was referred to the "Twelve Disciples of Road Efficiency" of the club. They will take the matter up with the city council, and see what can be done. A plausible proposition was introduced at the meeting, whereby the city allow the county to fix the street at cost, and charge it back to the city government, to be paid for next year.

Dr. Roy A. Prudden addressed the Wires and reported the activities of the Armenian committee. Dr. Prudden claimed that the fund at present lacked about $2,000 of the quota—that of $5,500—and claimed that the committee was not receiving the proper support from the organization. Dr. Prudden was allowed to name an additional committee, whose duty was to help solicit funds to make the quota.

BIG CONCERT TO BE GIVEN ON MARCH 12

A benefit concert for the Armenian-Syrian relief fund is to be given in this city March 12, under the direction of the local Armenian committee. Jasper D. McFall, choir director and vocalist of the Sunnyside Methodist church of Portland; Mrs. McFall, and Miss Christine Brake, also of Portland, will be the soloists of the evening. Complete arrangements have not been made as yet, but the concert will probably be given in one of the local churches. Preliminary arrangements were made Wednesday when the three musicians gave a pleasing program at the Oregon City high school. The concert will consist of vocal and violin solos, and the musicians will donate their services. No admission will be charged, but a collection to augment the relief fund will be taken during the evening. Mr. McFall's work as a choir director is well-known in Portland. He has under his charge one of the largest boys' choirs in that city.

ANOTHER ATTEMPT TO BREAK FROM BASTILE

Just as Sheriff Wilson arrived in the city Tuesday morning about 2 o'clock from New Era, where he had captured another batch of bootlegging whiskey, his attention was called to the county jail window. After investigating the bars at the window, he found that one of the steel rods which covered the opening had been filed partly in two. It was the same window from which "Slim" Brown made his sensational escape a few weeks ago, after filing one of the bars in two.

The sheriff kept watch on the window until he was relieved Tuesday morning, in hopes that he could apprehend the jail breaker, and if possible find out where the file or saw came from. Nothing developed, however, although the sheriff thinks that he would have had one prisoner less in the county jail if he had not noticed the condition of the window Tuesday morning.

SCHOOL DIST. NO. 21 TO BE STANDARDIZED

The smallest school district in Clackamas county is to be standardized soon. The district, No. 21, has its school at Linn's Old Mill, and is about four miles from this city. Men of the community worked all day Saturday getting the school grounds into shape and re-arranging the desks and blackboards inside the building. An entertainment to get money for the purchase of playground apparatus will be given in the school house the second Saturday in March.

COUNTY FAIR DATES TO BE SEPT. 24-27

FORMER DATES CONFLICTED WITH STATE FAIR WEEK—MANY IMPROVEMENTS

SULLIVAN COMPLETES WORK

Gain of More Than 2240 Members Over Membership of Last Year; Report Delayed by "Flu"

The dates of the Clackamas county fair for this year have been changed from October 1, 2, 3, 4, to September 24, 25, 26, 27. This was decided upon at a meeting held last Sunday by the directors of the fair association at Canby. The reason given was that the former dates conflicted with those of the state fair at Salem. Buildings and grounds were gone over by the directors, and many improvements were decided upon to make the fair more attractive. Horse racing, which was eliminated last year on account of the war, will again be on the program this year. Every effort will be put forth by those in charge to make the fair one of the best held for many years. Many additional features are contemplated for this year, and keen interest in the stock exhibits will be awakened throughout the county among the farmers. With an agricultural agent in the field this year for the county, an additional help will be derived from him in interesting the farming communities to compete for the blue ribbons.

TEACHERS' INSTITUTE AT CANBY MARCH 1

INTERESTING LECTURES AND MUSIC TO MAKE UP FINE PROGRAM

Announcement of the program for the Teachers' Local Institute convention to be held at Canby next Saturday, March 1, has been given out, and it is expected that a large delegation of teachers over Clackamas county will attend. The program follows:

10:00—Discussion: Correlation of U. S. History and Civics; led by Principal N. W. Bowland, H. H. Booles and Mrs. Minnie B. Aldman.
11:00—Red Cross and Health Crusade: Mrs. Blanche Blumauer, president of the Junior Red Cross.
12:00—Lunch served at the church.
1:00—Special music.
1:30—Club work: L. P. Harrington, field worker state department of education.
2:15—Importance of Cooperation: Superintendent R. W. Kirk, Oregon City schools.

RECEPTION TO TEACHERS GIVEN BY LOCAL W. C. T. U.

A reception for all teachers and parents of students in the public schools of Oregon City was given by the W. C. T. U. Wednesday afternoon from 3:30 to 5 o'clock in the Presbyterian church parlors. "Cooperation" was the theme of discussion for the afternoon, and a number of speakers talked on the subject. Among the speakers were Rev. S. W. Seeman, Rev. W. T. Milliken, Rev. H. G. Crocker, Rev. C. H. L. Chandler, Rev. E. E. Gilbert, Prof. R. W. Kirk, W. L. Grant, N. W. Bowland, and John R. Bowland. Mrs. Frank Schoenborn and Miss Naomi Armstrong sang during the afternoon.

WALTER KELLY, HERO, BURIED HERE SUNDAY

Funeral services for Walter Kelly, of Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Kelly, of this city, who died February 14, at Camp McHenry, Maryland, from influenza, were held Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the St. John's Catholic church. Rev. A. Hillebrand, pastor of the church, officiated, and interment was in the Catholic cemetery. The body arrived in this city Friday evening from Maryland. Corporal Lemler, a member of the company that Kelly was in, attended the body to Oregon City.

MRS. AXFORD HEADS PARENT-TEACHER ASSN.

Mrs. C. Axford, of Mount Pleasant, was elected president of the Parent-Teacher association of that place, at their meeting held in the Mount Pleasant school house Thursday afternoon. The former president, Mrs. L. O. Ledger, is moving from the community. She had served in that capacity for the last two years. The organization decided to turn all money on hand over to the Red Cross. A number of new members were taken into the association.

Spence Returns

C. E. Spence, state grange master, has returned from Salem, where he has been during the past session of the state legislature. Mr. Spence claims that good work has been accomplished by the legislature this year, although at times Mr. Spence claims that some of the sessions were "stormy."

A marriage license was granted Monday to Lucy Peylart, of this county, and Edmond J. Gonty, legal, of Portland.

J. R. TREMBATH DIES SUDDENLY WEDNESDAY

John R. Trembath, of this city, died suddenly at the family home at Fourth and Adams streets, Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Heart failure was the cause of his death. He had been failing in health for some time, but death came as a shock to his family and friends in this city. Mr. Trembath was born at Cornwall, England, October 10, 1840. Before coming to the United States in the early 60's, he married Miss Martha Wells. Their first home in this country was in California, but in 1869 they moved to Oregon City, where they had lived since then. Mrs. Trembath died in 1905. Mr. Trembath was employed on the locks at West Linn when they were being constructed, and was one of the men to get the first boat through the locks when they were completed. He engaged in business in Oregon City for 30 years, but retired several years ago.

He leaves three daughters, Mrs. Charles Murray, Mrs. Joseph Beaulieu, and Miss Lillie Trembath, of this city; three sons, Harry, Thomas, and Frank Trembath, also of Oregon City; a sister, Mrs. Jonathan Humphreys, of this city; and a brother, Humphrey Trembath, of Milwaukie. Several sisters in England also survive him.

The funeral will be held Friday at 2 o'clock from the Holman & Pace funeral parlors, with Rev. C. H. L. Chandler, pastor of the St. Paul's Episcopal church, officiating. Interment will be in Mountain View cemetery.

Shots Alarm Citizens

A number of shots were heard by the citizens of Parkplace last night about 10 o'clock, but this morning no evidence of anything having gone wrong was reported. Officer Meades was called up on the phone by one citizen to investigate, but found nothing to warrant the call.
