

The new home of the Pacific International Livestock Exposition, to be held November 15-22, at Portland, is to be one of the largest and most complete institutions of its kind in the world. The plans contemplate a stadium, judging rings and sections for all kinds of stock, covering in all seven and one-half acres. Stockmen throughout the Northwest are now raising $250,000 for the erection of this structure.

The Oregon Legislature has appropriated $25,000 for the annual premium list of this show. The livestock exhibition is now in its ninth year and draws the breeders and dairymen from California, Oregon, Montana, Idaho, Washington, and British Columbia. The housing of the show in adequate quarters means the recognition of the value of the livestock industry of the Northwest.

About the State

Resume of the News of the Week from All Parts of Oregon

A local corporation, capitalized at from $50,000 to $100,000, to construct houses in Pendleton and thereby alleviate the great house shortage, is being strongly advocated. Preliminary plans for such an organization have been worked out by W. L. Thompson, president of the American National Bank, whose idea has been concurred in by a number of Pendleton's business men. Mr. Thompson suggests that the business men of the city and enterprising citizens organize a substantial corporation for the purpose of building homes in Pendleton for sale on easy terms. The homes are to be reasonably priced dwellings built without the primary idea of profit. A special plea will be made to the business men now renting homes to become purchasers of homes easy terms and upon the completion of the homes built to vacate the rented houses, thereby releasing them for rental by those who stay in the city temporarily or whose plans do not permit them to become owners.—Portland Record-Abstract.

The sawmill in Woodburn is not running and there is a report out that the company has gone into bankruptcy. The men failed to get their pay last week and have fled from the mill. It is reported that Lively & Sons, who sold out to the Woodburn Lumber & Logging Co., have not been paid for balance due and for logs furnished in December. Lively & Sons brought suit and secured judgment by default. It is possible that they will take charge and keep the work going. The plant is worth $17,000.—Woodburn Independent.

The Phillips gravel plant will be ready to take gravel from the Pudding river this week. The first gravel taken out will be used to gravel a road from the bunkers on the river bank to the mixing plant on the Dick farm beside the Pacific Highway, where the paving contractor will screen and crush the gravel which will be hauled in trucks. Part of the distance is a county road, the rest is across the Krieger farm.—Aurora Observer.

MARKETS

Cattle receipts for the week to date total approximately 1800 head with quality generally speaking good cows were particularly good and of good weight. Top steers sold up to $14.50 and top cows $11.50.

Cattle quotations are: Best steers $13.50-$14.00; good to choice steers, $11.75-$12.75; medium to good steers, $10.75-$11.75; fair to good steers $9.50-$10.75; common to fair steers, $8.50-$9.50; choice cows and heifers, $10.50-$11.00; good to choice cows and heifers, $8.75-$9.75; medium to good cows and heifers, $7.75-$8.75; fair to medium cows and heifers, $6.00-$7.00; canners $3.50-$5.00;

bulls, $6.00-$9.50; calves, $9.00-$14.00; stockers and feeders, $7.00-$10.00.

Receipts of hogs to date this week 2700 head. The packers were well represented in the hog alleys and prices are showing an advance of 25 to 50 cents, making a $17.50 top.

Hog quotations: Prime mixed, $17.25-$17.50; medium mixed $17.00-$17.25; rough heavies, $15.25-$15.50; pigs, $13.00-$15.00; bulk, $17.25.

Receipts of sheep for the week to date approximately 1000 head. The sheep market is in a steady healthy condition and all offerings are readily taken at following quotations.

Prime lambs, $14.00-$14.50; fair to medium lambs, $12.00-$13.00; yearlings, $10.00-$11.00; wethers, $9.00-$10.00; ewes, $6.50-$8.75.

AGENT WINS OVER AUTHORITIES TO WORK IN LOUISIANA

When the agricultural agent in Bienville Parish, La., took up his duties in the fall of 1917, he found that the farmers were unorganized and were not in favor of farm-demonstration work. His first task was to establish some organization through which he could work. He decided this could be done most readily through cooperative buying and selling agencies.

The farmers needed corn, and the agent succeeded in interesting a sufficient number to buy one carload cooperatively. This purchase was so successful that later 21 cars of corn, 10 cars of oats, and 3 of hay were purchased under the same plan.

The agent also interested hog raisers in cooperative selling. He collected a carload of hogs from a number of farmers and sold them at a net gain of more than 6 cents a pound over the local market price. This was followed by another carload shipment.

Farmers then began to see the value of cooperation, and the agent was successful in establishing organizations in 14 communities. Through these he is holding demonstrations and teaching better methods of farming. He has held 10 terracing demonstrations, as a result of which 20,540 yards of hitherto untillable soil have been terraced; 10 orchard demonstrations, where proper orchard inspection and spraying were recommended; and demonstrations on 50 herds of hogs, containing 1,000 head, where the methods of vaccination against hog cholera were shown.

Evidence that the agent's work is being appreciated is shown by the fact that when he took his place the parish police jury refused to make an appropriation for demonstration work, but last March reversed this action and assigned $600 to help pay his salary.

BARONESS HAS A KISS FOR HOBNAILED AMERICANS

Hobnailed shoes are wearing the polish off the beautiful hardwood floors of "Bassa Motte," the chateau of Baroness de Charlotte in Brittany for every Friday from one to two hundred soldiers of the American army are entertained under that hospitable roof in typical "down south" fashion, according to stories which have come back to America.

The baroness, before her marriage years ago, was Miss Antionette Polk, of Nashville, Tenn., a grandniece of President Polk and a beauty and belle of ante-bellum days. Although 76 years of age she has lent a helping hand in the work of entertaining the war worn doughboys who throng the Y. M. C. A. quarters at Dinard and St. Malo. Her Friday afternoons at the Chateau near St. Malo are a regular feature of the Red Triangle program.

Recently she received a delegation of 150 rosy-cheeked fellows whose soft southern drawl announced at once they were Tennesseans. Although 76 years of age the baroness received each boy with a kiss and gave him a card bearing timely greetings on which she wrote her signature.

OREGON FARM RECORDS MEET BANKERS' APPROVAL

The Oregon system of farm records as prepared by the farm management demonstrator of the agricultural college, R. V. Gunn, has the endorsement of the State Bankers' association, and also the approval of the federal treasury department, which will accept income tax returns based on it.

The first edition is just off the press. It has six pages for farm expenses, six for receipts, one for inventory of farm and buildings, one for inventory of feed and supplies, three for livestock inventory, one for inventory of machinery, one for summary of year's business, one for farm products used by family, one for plat of farm, one for crop acreage and yields, one for breeding table, one for gestation table, one for memoranda, and one for farm tables and measurements.

Farmers may base their income tax returns on records kept in this book.

Not only are ample forms provided in which the different accounts can be entered, but simple explanations head each page, giving directions how to enter the accounts. Cash paid for feed, labor, equipment, repairs, supplies, rent, interest and farm insurance are entered.

The new books are distributed mostly through farm bureaus, but some bankers are assisting their patrons to get copies. Persons unable to obtain copies through organizations may get them by sending the price, 25 cents each, to the college.

INDUSTRIAL CLUB WORK ACTIVITIES IN COUNTY

Industrial club work, conforming to the plans made for such work by the Oregon Agricultural College, was started this week in the Mount Pleasant school. Three standard clubs have been organized among the pupils, and these will deal with baking, canning, and chicken raising. The plan of the clubs is to encourage work by competition, and meetings will be held throughout the school year to show progress made. The clubs have elected the following officers: Baking Club—Miss Anna L. Erickson, local leader; Germania King, president; Elsie Bierstecker, vice-president; Lucille Wilson, secretary. Poultry Club—Miss Margaret H. Thompson, local leader; Virgil Webb, president; Lee Barnum, vice-president; Forrest Yexley, secretary. Canning Club—Mrs. W. A. Barnum, local leader; Edna Jubb, president; Alice Hultenberg, vice-president; Helen Erickson, secretary. The general club has the following officers: Cecil Wilson, president; Gladys Thomas, vice-president; Alice Hultenberg, secretary.

O. A. C. Alumni Asked Back Graduates of O. A. C. are invited to return to college for junior prom day this spring. Social and athletic events will be put on for their special benefit. L. C. Carter of Portland is manager and Lee L. M. Durham, of Hemet, Cal., publicity agent.

The Many Mysteries of Nature

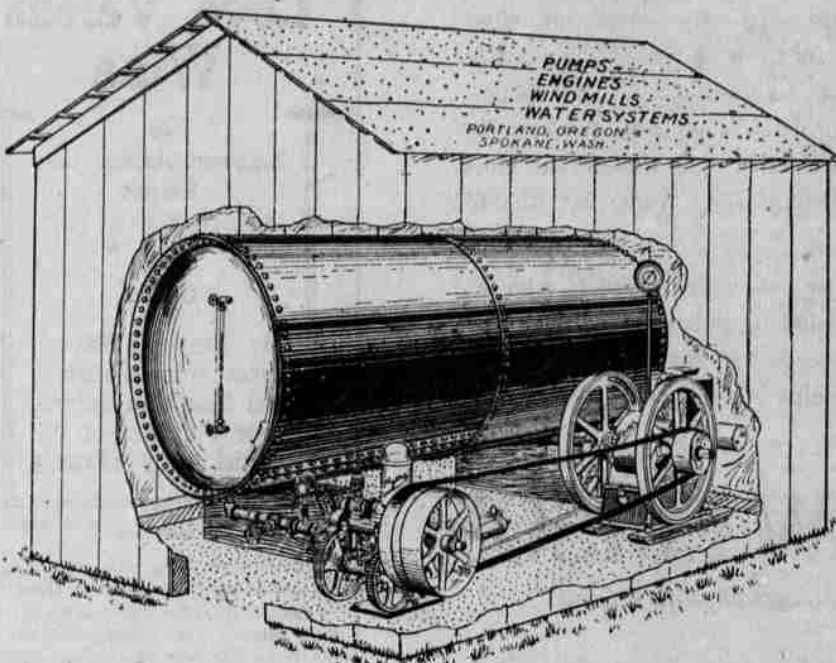

BY L. W. BOWER, M. D.

You can take an onion seed and a pansy seed, and plant them side by side in the same spot of ground. In one case, you get an onion, with its peculiarly strong odor, and in the other you get a flower of rare beauty. You can plant a poppy seed and get opium (a dangerous, habit-forming drug), or you can plant a rhubarb seed and get something that helps constipation. No scientist, living or dead, can explain these mysteries of Nature. Behind the invisible life germ in each seed is hidden the deep secret that nobody understands. Everything growing out of the ground seems intended for some use in establishing natural conditions. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is made of lady's slipper root, black cohosh root, unicorn root, blue cohosh root and Oregon grape root. Women who take this standard remedy know that in Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription they are getting a safe woman's tonic so good that druggists everywhere sell it.

Favorite Prescription should have the full confidence of every woman in America because it contains no alcohol and no narcotic. Dr. Pierce knew, when he first made this standard medicine, that whiskey and morphine are injurious, and so he has always kept them out of his remedies. Send 10c to Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y. for trial pkg. Tablets.

Water Systems

will be found on hundreds of farms and suburban places in Oregon and the Northwest. They have been sold here by us for years. They give satisfaction. WHY? Because they are made up of good units such as

Stover
Gasoline Engines

Myers
Pumps and Cylinders and Tanks that are made right and
tested

and we make proper installation, using men for this purpose who have had years of experience. Besides all this, if anything isn't right we try to make it right. When you install a water system you put in something that is to serve you for many years. Better get a good system made up of good units, put in by a responsible concern with experienced men and in the right way.
