WAR RELICS BOOTH AT FAIR ATTRACTED INTERESTED CROWDS

Among the most attractive and novel displays at the fair grounds during the Clackamas county fair held last week was the relic booth presided over by Paul Schaubel, who has been in service in France, and recently returned from overseas. Mr. Schaubel devoted a great amount of effort to secure the relics for the fair, and all are property of Canby young men who have been in France, some of whom have been in some of the most heavily fought battles. Those donating these relics for the four days were Paul Schaubel, Eddie Huiras, Horace Patch, Let Hardisty, James Kaupisch, Glen Coleman and Joseph Schaubel.

Joe Roberts has the distinction of being the youngest conductor of the Southern Pacific Company with headquarters in Red Bluff, and is one of the most popular men of the company. Since taking up his duties with the Southern Pacific Company he has performed a number of heroic acts. One of these was when he saved a train from being wrecked by running into a landslide. An old cow owned by the Roberts family also played a prominent part in this, when Roberts, who had retired for the night, heard the cow making an unusual noise near the railroad track near the Roberts home. Dashing hurriedly, he made an investigation and found where there was a landslide, and the cow was thrusting her horns into the soil and bellowing at the same time, seemingly knowing something was wrong. Mr. Roberts rushed to the house and secured a lantern and succeeded in reaching the spot and jacking a passenger train, as it was bearing the slide, thus possibly saving the lives of passengers. He was highly commended by the company for the act. He is now enjoying a vacation of several weeks.

Fifty Years Ago

Fifty Years Ago Taken From Oregon City Enterprise, October 3, 1919.

The Misses Dorothy and Mary Ray, of Washington, D. C., who have been in Canby where they have been visiting their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Dick, left for their home in the east last Friday. They accompanied their father, W. S. Dick, a prominent retired railroad man, to Oregon about six weeks ago, and their brother, William Stanley, the latter having returned to their home several weeks.

The girls were promoted by their father when they had completed their high school studies they could visit their grandparents in the West. Both entered their lessons at the high school in Washington with vim and went out and made the desired trip, and are now anxiously awaiting for another trip to the West. Their mother was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dick, who died several years ago. While in this city the accomplished young ladies were guests of honor at several social functions, and made a host of friends while here.

A. T. Dix is grading at his own expense the hill on the north side of the river at the Grade bridge. Such enterprise is commendable.

Mr. Keith, who recently moved from Clackamas into this vicinity, died last Thursday, and was buried in the Canby cemetery last Saturday.

There is now dust flying now. George Knight has received a lot of arithmetics recently adopted for the use of the schools.

Mrs. Mary Howell of Canemah, was the guest of Mrs. W. O. Mack last week.

Herman Vorpahl has recalled his well.

Oregon City Tuesday, where they transacted business.

Earl Johnson, Ray Peterson, Miss Ethel Peterson and Miss Violette Evans were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Bair during the fair.

Miss Lorraine Lee, one of the popular girls of Canby, has opened a studio at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Lee, both in voice and piano. Miss Lee is one of the accomplished young ladies of this city, and has been heard in concerts on many occasions. She was a pupil in voice of Mrs. Nieta Barlow Lawrence, of Oregon City, and on the piano of Miss Dorothea Nash, Pearl Smith Bergman and Mary S. Soule.

Mrs. William Cantwell went to Oregon City on business Tuesday.

J. J. Sandness visited friends at Willamette Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Marrs, of Mount Pleasant, were in Canby on business Tuesday. They were among those making a large number of entries at the Clackamas county fair, and winning prizes on articles entered. Among these were prizes on their poultry.

Mr. and Mrs. William DuBois, of Portland, were guests of Dr. and Mrs. J. Fuller Sunday.

R. A. McCully of Eugene, was among the Canby visitors Friday and Saturday.

C. C. Cooley, of Eugene, has been in Canby for a few days.

N. Lenfield, of Molalla, was in Canby on Saturday.

Franklin Launer, formerly of Canby and now of Salem, was among the Canby visitors Sunday and Monday.

LATE CROP OF STRAW BERRIES IN CANBY REPORTED BOUNTIFUL

That the soil of Canby is well adapted for growing late strawberries as well as the early varieties, is proven by visiting a number of the strawberry patches in that city, where the vines are laden with ripe and green berries with many blossoms peeping from beneath the leaves.

Among those having strawberry short cake these days are Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Bair, whose strawberry vines are still bearing large crops of the Everbearing variety. Large, luscious berries are daily gathered from these vines, and from the indications they will be having strawberry short cake for Thanksgiving. From the twelve rows of berry plants they are able to supply their own tables and also to see that their friends have berries on their tables occasionally.

CROWDS AT FAIR ON CANBY DAY SET RECORD

The third day of the Clackamas County fair at Canby opened Friday to one of the largest crowds ever recorded in the history of the fair association, the fair grounds being crowded with great throngs of visitors from early forenoon until late in the evening.

Although slightly cool weather conditions prevailed during the greater part of the day, the temperature apparently had no dampening effect on the holiday spirit that prevailed.

Friday was Canby Day at the fair, and the work of judging the many exhibits and awarding prizes was completed late in the afternoon. The following are the results and prize-winners in the various departments:

General Grange Exhibit—Oswego, 1st, 81 points.

Warner Grange, 2nd, 71 points.

Best One-Man Farm Exhibit—J. C. Kaupisch, Canby.

Improvement Clubs—Hazelia.

Commercial Exhibits—Hogg Bros., 1st.

Carlton & Rosenkranz, 2nd.

Price Bros., 3rd.

Best General Stock Exhibit—Gus Jaeger, Milwaukee.

Most Unique Booth—Mrs. Grant Dimick and Miss Nan Cochran.

Best Floral Exhibit—H. J. Bigger, 1st and 10 second prizes.

One of the features of the Hazelia exhibit was a home-made drier shown by Miss Baker, of Hazelia. The drier was constructed by Miss Baker following instructions she received at the Gladstone Chataqua last summer from Miss Anthony, who conducted a demonstration class in Home Economics. The drier was reported to be one of the most efficient ever shown at the County Fair exhibits, and a number of samples of the work done by Miss Baker with the drier, displayed in the Hazelia booth, received high praise for their quality and appearance.

Considerable trouble was experienced in preparing a landing field for the aviator who arrived during the forenoon for an exhibition flight, but suitable space was arranged and the visitors were given a number of thrills during the afternoon witnessing the stunts staged by the intrepid flyer.

Among the big attractions at the fair today was the eugenics test, in charge of Drs. H. S. and Frank Mount. Many babies came in for their scoring, and were brought by their proud mothers. A large percent made a record of 100 per cent.

The race program for Friday proved unusually attractive and the grandstand was filled to overflowing with race-lovers during the time the events were being run off. In the first race, the 2:22 trot, Andy Peter took the 1st and 2nd heats, his time being 2:27 1/2 and 2:24 1/2. George Seattle took the 2nd heat with a mark of 2:26 1/2. In the second race, a special pace, Royal Express took all three heats in 2:24 1/2, 2:24 1/2 and 2:22 1/2. The third race, one heat at one-half mile, went to Dr. C. P. Fryer at 0:52.
