Band of Goats Is Taken to Prairie

ELK PRAIRIE, Oct. 13.—William Kruger, assisted by Ed Wheeler, brought a large band of goats to the Kruger homestead. A part of the flock had been upon the place before, and nearly 100 were brought recently. A fresh milch cow was brought at the same time, but as she refused to be either lead or driven at the close of the journey, the problem was solved by one of the vaqueros riding her.

Joseph Kolshinski, who spent Sunday with his family upon his homestead, later returned to work in the sawmill near Scotts Mills. Mrs. Kolshinski, with little Miss Clara, Frank and Joseph, Jr., spent an afternoon at the Badger home.

Mrs. Badger called at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher a few days ago.

Mrs. Lamb made a business trip to Molalla for the week end. Mrs. Lamb's father has returned to Forest Grove. While here he finished a barn on the Lamb ranch. D. B. Gray assisted him with the shingling.

Mr. Hagenson of this place is working in the Scotts Mills sawmill.

Mrs. Hysel, Miss Hysel and Mrs. Buell were sightseers from the valley a short time ago. Mrs. Charles Tidd took the party to view the Colonnade, thence to the Badger homestead to demonstrate that things will grow in these hills, in spite of the prevalent notion to the contrary. It will be only a short time, by the present indications, before Elk Prairie, the neighborhood of homesteaders, will be entertaining many auto parties from the valley. The gentlemen of the party spent their day hunting.

Mrs. Fletcher, Battle and Tidd spent a day berrying at Swope's Mill. Messrs. Kruger and Wheeler, while upon a hunting trip, called at the Fletcher, Tidd, Battles and Badger homesteads.

Cecil Fletcher, who has been working in the prune harvest in Scotts Mills, has gone to Eastern Oregon with a government survey party. This seventeen-year-old son of homesteaders was in his third year in Portland high school, when he decided to study surveying by correspondence. Last year he was with a government survey party who urged the young man to return with them this fall.

Miss Kellogg, of Scotts Mills, is now teaching the Coal Creek school. Although the young lady but recently graduated from the Scotts Mills school, she comes very highly recommended.

Miss Lulu Dale, who taught here last year, has been called back to teach in Scotts Mills, where she graduated just before coming to this place. Miss Dale was well liked here.

Chas. Tidd, who is working in Oregon City for the Hawley Pulp and Paper Co., returned to spend the week-end with his family upon his homestead.

The little Kolshinski boys went to the Kruger orchard for a load of apples. Mr. Kruger has invited all in the neighborhood to enjoy this luscious fruit. Mr. Ed Wheeler is in charge of the place at present, while Mr. Kruger is working in Scotts Mills.

Mrs. Frank Kokel is improving in health. Mr. and Mrs. Kokel's family have the sympathy of the entire neighborhood in the loss of their infant, which died when but a few hours old.

C. K. Thomas, who recently returned to his home from prune drying in Scotts Mills, is reported as being seriously ill. At the present writing the doctor had not arrived.

Mr. Kitz came from Scotts Mills to the Thomas homestead Sunday. Mr. Kitz took a cow, which he had bought of Mr. Thomas, down the Elk Prairie trail to Scotts Mills.

Quite a few of our people visited the county fair and reported a very good time.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Hughes have returned with their cattle after capturing their share of ribbons.

With every concern striking and wanting more wages and shorter hours the more wonder is where the farmers come in on this deal. When we hear of the women in Portland investigating the high cost of living it is amusing how quick they jump on the farmer. Let them come out and get a few figures from the farmer as he gets them, and they will soon get wise where the trouble is.

Mrs. Altman, Mrs. C. F. Harbaugh, Miss Clara Fullam, George Reynolds, and Andy Junior motored out from Portland Sunday.

H. H. Coop's father and brother from Portland were out one day last week.

T. J. Riply and wife were out looking over their ranch Sunday.

BARLOW, Oct. 10.—Robert Tremayne has enlisted in the navy. Robert left last Tuesday for Portland and passed thru here Tuesday night for California. We wish Robert a safe journey thru his experiences and hope for his safe return home when his three years have expired.

Mrs. Irwin and son, Elmer, returned home Monday of last week from their extended trip thru California and Oregon. Mr. Irwin returned home the 17th of September. The Irwins toured California on the western, or coast route to San Diego then to the Tierras, Mexico, and back by the Eastern route. They crossed the Mojave desert, visited the Mariposa Redwood trees, then to Glacier Point, over the Yosemite valley; then into the valley, back to Sacramento, on to Klamath Falls to Rocky Point where they camped a month, and near where Elmer shot a large black bear. Then to Crater Lake where Mr. Irwin returned home, while Mrs. Irwin and Elmer went across to Eastern Oregon visiting relatives at Antone, Oregon.

Many beautiful things and much grand country was seen in California but Oregon is preferred as it is much cooler here and nothing can be grown in California except by irrigation. The water is taken from the rivers and creeks and nearly all of the streams are nothing but a dry sand or gravel bed. Their Grant Six gave excellent satisfaction as the actual expense on the car for the 5981 mile run for returning and filling of silos are keeping the farmers busy now. Both are a very poor crop.

"Don't Cheat Yourself" says the Good Judge

There's nothing saved by chewing ordinary tobacco. A little chew of that good rich-tasting tobacco goes a lot farther, and its good taste lasts all the way through.

Little chew—lasting—satisfying. That's why it's a real saving to buy this class of tobacco.
