

MILWAUKIE & NORTHERN CLACKAMAS

COMMENCEMENT OF MILWAUKIE SCHOOL IS GREAT SUCCESS

The fifth annual commencement of Milwaukie high school was held at the city hall June 11 at 3:30 o'clock.

The class motto was, "Find a way, or make one." class flower, White Rosebud; class colors, Olive Drab and blue.

The following were the graduating class: Eva Adelaide Birkmeier, Hans Albert Bumgarner, Maxine Elliott Foulter, Ernest Edward Fischer, Herman George Fischer, Priscilla Katherine Fisch, Florence Elizabeth Grasse, Bina M. Krough, Martin Katsko, Levena Vivienne Kerr, Homer B. Klippel, Gilbert Davis Morgan, Alice Livday Trotter, August E. F. Oetkin, Laura Louise Spring, Rolfe W. Skulason, Alice Sophia Newkirk, Glenn W. Ward.

A splendid program was given. The address to the class was delivered by Prof. John Straub, of the U. of O. T. M. Fisch presented the diplomas to the high school class and also diplomas to 25 members of the 8th grade, who passed the final examinations in that grade. The hall was beautifully decorated and a large attendance was present.

The class received a wonderful lot of beautiful flowers.

The largest crowd that ever assembled at the city hall gathered to hear the musical given by Milwaukie Grammar School, Friday, June 6, under the supervision of the teachers, directed by Miss Blanche Cohen, the music instructor.

The years work in music was plainly shown in the efficient manner in which each pupil rendered his or her part.

Many, even those who on account of the large crowd were obliged to stand through the entire program, complimented the teachers, expressing themselves as never having witnessed the equal of the evening's entertainment by any school.

The teachers through this medium extended their thanks to the pupils for their part, to the mothers for their able assistance in helping to costume the children, and to the general public for patronage and hearty support in all grammar school affairs.

Following is the program as rendered:

1. Singing Game by 1st Grade—"Ma's Little Pigs."
2. Singing Game by 2nd Grade—"I See You."
3. Singing Game by 3rd Grade—"Washing Clothes."
4. May Pole Song and Dance—4th Grade.
5. Sir Roger de Coverly—6th Grade.
6. Twentieth Century Indian Maidens—7th & 8th Grade Girls.

West Point Honor Man Who Will Go to France to Study Under Marshal Foch

George L. Horowitz thrived on the intensive training given to cadets at the West Point Military Academy while the war was on. The course was shortened. This meant much harder work than usual. Lieutenant Horowitz was the honor man in a class of 277. This photograph was taken just before he received his diploma. He will leave for France on July 10 to study the strategy of war under Marshal Foch.

7. Operetta—"Gipsy Festival"—5th Grade, assisted by Eileen Coleen of 7th Grade in fancy dancing.

NEW RAIL EQUIPMENT
A fine new oil burning locomotive and train of freight cars have been placed on the Carver road and it is reported that a new gas car is on the way from the East and will be placed on the way to Baker's bridge as soon as it arrives.

LEONARD WARREN RETURNS.
Mrs. Toates received a telegram that he had arrived at Newport News June 4 and would come to Camp Lewis at once, so he is expected there the last of the week. Mr. Warren left Portland with Battery A, 147th Regt., but after the armistice was signed he was transferred to the Military Police.

SURFACING MAIN STREET.
The work of hard surfacing Main street of Milwaukie is half done and makes a big improvement. The work is being done by the county paving plant and is being paid for by the town of Milwaukie.

SPECIAL ELECTION IS AUTHORIZED FOR SALARY QUESTION

At the annual school meeting held Monday evening, H. M. Fisch was re-elected director and A. H. Zanders was re-elected clerk. A special election was authorized for 30 days from date to vote on an increase of salary to the teachers.

MILWAUKIE LOSES FACTORY.

The California Barrel factory closed here last evening and will transfer their men to Vancouver, where the company plans to build a mill on a them some time ago. The people of Milwaukie are sorry to see this industry go as the management by their cooperation and good business methods won the approval of every one here.

The company could not purchase a large enough tract on the river front here to build the plant so they secured a large tract on the river front near Vancouver.

MILWAUKIE LOCALS.
A little girl arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Wasman on Quincy Addition.

J. W. Ray was a Milwaukie visitor Sunday.

J. W. Frutcher supervised the erection of the flag pole at the service board Monday.

Mr. Gell and family are visiting Rev. Mr. Gell and may decide to remain in Milwaukie if they can find a house.

Mr. and Mrs. George Dooley have returned to Albany, Mr. Dooley having exchanged sections for the one at Albany. The many friends regret their leaving as they will be missed.

MISS ADAH H. MASS BECOMES BRIDE OF CLARENCE LANDSVERK
A very pretty, but simple, home wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Mass in this city Wednesday afternoon, when their only daughter, Miss Adah Helene, became the bride of Clarence I. Landsverk, of Barlow. The marriage ceremony, which was witnessed only by relatives of the contracting parties, was performed by Rev. W. T. Milliken.

The bride was becomingly gowned in a navy blue traveling suit, with taupe hat, and the bridegroom and bride were unattended.

Following the ceremony a dinner was served, after which Mr. and Mrs. Landsverk left for Portland, where they will be at home to their friends after July 1 at 1135 1/2 Albina Avenue.

The bride is one of Oregon City's popular young women. She attended and graduated from the local high school and later took a course at the Oregon State Normal at Monmouth, graduating from that institution with honors. For two years she taught at Barlow, where the romance commenced. She also taught for several years the Oregon City schools, having received a year's leave of absence and taught in the public schools at Grand Island, Nebraska, from which city she arrived last Wednesday. She was re-elected to teach in the schools in that city and also to teach in the Oregon City schools, but resigned the former offer.

The bride was becomingly gowned in blue silk, and carried a shower bouquet of Bride's roses. Her maid of honor and bridesmaid were Miss Effie Newman and Miss Ethel Judd, who wore white and carried white roses.

The bridegroom was unattended. Following the marriage ceremony a wedding breakfast was served, after which Mr. and Mrs. Loquet left for their home in Portland.

The bride is a most estimable young woman, and the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Judd who has made her home in this city for the past eight years.

main in Milwaukie if they can find a house.

Mr. and Mrs. George Dooley have returned to Albany, Mr. Dooley having exchanged sections for the one at Albany. The many friends regret their leaving as they will be missed.

Mr. Loquet recently received his discharge from the army and was stationed at Vancouver Barracks, and was with the Spruce Division, having served as an acetylene welder.

Mr. and Mrs. David Humphrey Thomas, whose marriage was solemnized last Saturday afternoon, were tendered a miscellaneous shower at the Mount Pleasant Community hall last Thursday evening upon their return from their honeymoon.

Mrs. W. B. Lawton and Mrs. Arthur Smith planned and carried out the affair, which was a surprise to the newly weds. This proved to be a most enjoyable event, and the evening was spent in dancing and games. Refreshments were served.

The interior of the hall was artistically decorated with California poppies, roses, sweet briar and ferns.

During the evening Mr. and Mrs. Thomas were presented with many useful and pretty gifts for their little home they have here. There were about 60 friends of the young couple attending.

The marriage of Miss Zoe Brown and Edward Volstrom, of Portland, was solemnized in that city Tuesday evening. The affair was very quiet and was attended only by intimate friends and relatives of the contracting parties. Among those from this city extended an invitation were Miss Rose Price, Miss Evelyn Todd and Miss Lewis.

After spending their honeymoon at Seaside, Mr. and Mrs. Volstrom will take up their residence in Portland.

The bride has many friends in this city, where she has taught for several years, having been instructor in the domestic science department of the high school for about three years.
