

KEEP YOUR KODAK BUSY

"The Army lives on letters" is the way the boys at the front put it. And when those longed-for envelopes with the home town post mark contain pictures of the home folks and home doings, they go far toward making lighter hearts and happier faces.

Keep your Kodak busy for the sake of the lads in the trenches, the boys in camp and on shipboard. Help keep tight the bonds between the home and those who are fighting for that home.

Catarrh of Stomach Did Not Know It

Mrs. Selena Tanner, Athens, Ohio, writes: "I cannot find words to express my thanks for your kind advice. I never once thought I had catarrh of the stomach. I commenced taking Peruna, as you directed. My stomach continued to hurt me for about two weeks after I began the medicine, and then it stopped. I now have a good appetite, while before I was nearly starved."

COUNTY AND CITY LOCALS

Portland visitors in The Courier office yesterday were R. A. Blanchard agriculturist of the Livestock State Bank of North Portland and C. M. McAllister of the Union stock yards. Both gentlemen were here in the interest of livestock production. Speaking of the bankers' interest in agriculture, Mr. Blanchard said: "The banks of Oregon City are a public spirited crowd. The recent encouragement of livestock matters means real rural improvement of vital importance and value."

Mrs. Edward Van Wey and her brother, E. H. Cooper. Mrs. Willets spent some time with relatives at Molalla.

Parker E. Phelps of Aguascalientes, Mexico, was a guest of E. C. Brownlee in Oregon City late last week. Mr. Phelps contemplates locating in Clackamas county and has given up hope of seeing things peacefully settled in Mexico in time to permit him to enjoy life there very soon again. He and Mr. Brownlee lived together in Mexico for several years.

Miss Satie Sullivan is at Ocean Falls, B. C., where she is visiting with a brother, Frank Sullivan. She expects to remain in the north for several weeks.

A baby girl was born on Wednesday to Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Eggiman of Beaver Creek.

Miss Carrie Bailey has gone to Corvallis, where she has taken up a course of study at the Oregon Agricultural college.

Roy B. Cox, superintendent of the Methodist Sunday school and a steward in the church, late last week attended the meeting of Salem district stewards at Salem.

Mrs. George A. Harding has returned from Baker, where she was with her daughter, Mrs. Henry McKinney during the past month.

Roy Hammond, wearing the uniform of the U. S. Navy, has been visiting in Oregon City from his station at Goat Island, in San Francisco bay.

Mrs. Lena Charman and her daughter, June, left on Monday evening for California. They expect to spend the winter at Los Angeles.

Charles R. Deake of Eugene, was a week-end visitor in Oregon City.

Calvin Price departed on Saturday evening for San Francisco where he has entered the naval training station.

Dr. and Mrs. A. McDonald have returned home after visiting their son at Victoria, British Columbia. The son is a member of the medical corps of the Canadian army.

Mrs. John R. Gladden has returned to her home at Seaside after a pleasant visit in this city with her mother, Mrs. R. M. C. Brown.

FIVE DIVORCE CASES FILED IN SINGLE DAY

Five divorce complaints, and every one of them made by the wife in the case, were filed in the circuit court here Monday. Marie C. Gelinsky charges that her husband was cruel, and recites as proof the statement he is said to have made when he found her injured and suffering from an attack made upon her by a tramp while they lived at Lakewood station in 1913. "I wish he had killed you," Mrs. Gelinsky says her husband told her. On another occasion he held their little son on the car track and told the mother that he would keep the child there until the car came, the complaint says. The couple was married at Portland on January 3, 1908, and the wife left home on August 1, 1914, because of the treatment she had received. Mr. Gelinsky immediately stopped supporting her and stopped her credit at the stores. She asks custody of the boy and $125 a month as alimony.

Katherine F. Nelsen, married to Jens H. Nelsen at Portland on September 6 last, charges her husband with cruelty, and says that two days after the wedding the husband came home grossly intoxicated and mistreated her.

Matilda E. Kelley finds life with Otis A. Kelley unbearable after 23 years of married joy. They were married at Vancouver, Wash., on November 12, 1894, and she says her husband has been cruel and has failed to properly provide for her and a 17-year-old son. When she complained about her husband's treatment, Mrs. Kelley says, he told her that if she didn't like it she could go to work for herself. She asks the custody of the boy.

Dessa M. and Joseph S. Wilcoxon were married at Mount Cello, Ind., on September 26, 1907, and have two children. In the divorce complaint which the wife filed she charges cruelty, and says that strong drink is the cause of her husband's downfall. She wants $100 attorney's fees, $25 a month alimony and custody of the children.

Carl A. Johnson deserted his wife on Christmas day, 1913, according to a complaint filed by Winnie Johnson. The couple was married at Portland on May 5, 1906, and the wife asks alimony at the rate of $15 a month since the date of his desertion. She also wants to recover the money she paid on taxes for his property.

UNION BUYS BOND

Local No. 166 Puts Liberty Bond in its Treasury Fund

By vote of local union No. 166 of the Brotherhood of Paper Makers, it was decided to purchase a Liberty bond to be placed in the treasury of the local. A committee was appointed to solicit subscriptions among the members and they are meeting with splendid success.

G. B. Phillips, chairman, G. DeVenish and Carl Green make up the committee and are ready at any and all times to accept any amount you may have to give for this cause. This is the first instance of the kind of which we have heard and the boys are to be congratulated upon originating the idea. This shows that the papermakers of Oregon City are loyal to the country and are willing to do what they can to win this war.

NERVOUSNESS AND BLUES

Symptoms of More Serious Sickness.

Washington Park, Ill.—"I am the mother of four children and have suffered with female trouble, backache, nervous spells and the blues. My children's loud talking and romping would make me so nervous I could just tear everything to pieces and I would ache all over and feel so sick that I would not want anyone to talk to me at times. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Liver Pills restored me to health and I want to thank you for the good they have done me. I have had quite a bit of trouble and worry but it does not affect my youthful looks. My friends say 'Why do you look so young and well?' I owe it all to the Lydia E. Pinkham remedies."

—Mrs. ROBT. STOFFEL, Sage Avenue, Washington Park, Illinois.

If you have any symptom about which you would like to know write to the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass., for helpful advice given free of charge.

CLOSING OUT SALE

WONDERFUL BARGAINS AWAITING YOU

Long before we contemplated putting on this quit business sale and before we had made up our minds to go out of business in Oregon City, we had placed numerous orders for merchandise in various lines in all departments throughout the store. These orders were placed with Eastern manufacturers and in a great many instances this merchandise had to be made up for us especially. After we had decided to discontinue business and close out our stock for good, we were unable to countermand a large portion of this merchandise. We have been receiving from time to time shipments from these Eastern firms of these different kinds of goods. We wish to impress on you fully that these lines consist mostly of clothing, furnishing goods, women's coats, suits and piece goods, and it is our intention as soon as these goods arrive and are opened up and put on display, we will put the same low prices on all of this merchandise the same as we are offering on our regular stock. It will pay you to visit our store today and make it a point to look through all departments as you will find wonderful bargains all over this store. It is our firm determination to close out our business as fast as we can possibly do so. We have shut our eyes to the costs and there will be no let up to the cutting and slashing of prices until every article of merchandise in our store has been closed out.
