

FIRST GRANT LANDS TO BE OPENED IN SPRING

The first block of Oregon & California grant lands will be opened to settlement early next spring, announced Clay Tallman, commissioner of the general United States land office of Washington, D. C., who was in Portland Monday.

The lands first to be offered comprise a block in the southern part of the state. Only the lands classified as agricultural will be offered. Timber lands (having 300,000 feet or more on each 40 acres) will be classified separately and ultimately offered in larger units for cutting operations.

"As fast as possible other blocks of land will be classified and the agricultural portions will be opened to entry," said Commissioner Tallman.

For the purposes of entry, O. & C. grant lands probably will be divided into four blocks which will be successively opened according to Commissioner Tallman's present plans. The immediate purpose of his visit was to see about the classification of the northern portion of the grant lands. Cruising parties working southward have reached a point south of Eugene. Classification was accomplished last year from the southern border of Oregon to a point north of Roseburg. The strip that lies between these two points will have to wait until next year for classification, he said.

"We will publish a booklet containing the reports on each section of the land classified," said Commissioner Tallman. "We will prepare a map large enough to show the 40-acre tracts, yet small enough to go into an envelope for mailing. The booklet and the map should provide information necessary to any person."

"Those expecting to locate on the lands should again be warned not to be deceived or defrauded by so-called locators. All that an honest locator can do is to take a person out to look at the lands and give that person the benefit of his familiarity with the country. The lands will not be opened until the secretary of the interior has issued formal notice and there will be no preference rights or special privileges."

While it is not the intention to sell larger blocks of timber lands at this time, Commissioner Tallman said he is selling several small isolated tracts of timber that can be cut in connection with present private cutting operations. The usual method of selling at public auction will be followed in these instances. The commissioner of the general land office announced that litigation will be started soon to adjust final tax and other matters with the railroads.

B. F. SWOPE COMES TO OREGON CITY AS LAWYER

B. F. Swope made the announcement this morning that he intends to leave Independence about October 15, and go to Oregon City, where he will continue the practice of law, having formed a desirable law association there. His office here will be in charge of his son, Cecil, and Edward Dwyer.

During his residence here, Mr. Swope has enjoyed an extensive practice, but feels that the opportunity at Oregon City is so much better as to justify the change.

At present he is city recorder and attorney of this city and Mrs. Swope is secretary of the school board, places which will become vacant by the change of residence of Mr. and Mrs. Swope. Their departure from Independence will be greatly regretted.—Independence Monitor, Sept. 21.

It may be added that Mr. Swope was county judge of Lincoln county, Oregon, and served seven years as a deputy district attorney under the Hon. Geo. M. Brown.

HIGH SCHOOL WINS

Football Team Ramps on Hopes of McMinnville School

Oregon City high school's football team returned from McMinnville Saturday evening in fine spirits after passing out defeat to the team of that city's high school with a score of 31 to 0. The game proved to those interested that the local school, in spite of the inroads made by the war, has one of the strongest teams it has had in years and its members are especially delighted at defeating McMinnville's team because of the fact that it was considered state champion in 1916. The next game for the Oregon City team will be played at Canemah field next Friday against the Vancouver high school eleven.

KANE SURRENDERS

Arrested in Connection with Liquor Law. Man Denied Guilt

H. C. Kane, convicted by a jury in Justice of the Peace Sievers' court some time ago for transporting intoxicants, Friday surrendered and after releasing his bondsmen, he announced his readiness to serve a sentence of 25 days in jail. Kane, together with Jack Ohlert and Paul Lendenhanzen, of Dayton, were arrested a month ago by Motorcycle Patrolman Meads and achieved notoriety when they attempted to resist the officer. The jury in the justice court heard the case and fined each man $50. Ohlert and Lendenhanzen, after joining Kane in an intention to appeal the case, decided to pay their fine and were dismissed. Kane did not follow suit until Friday, when he released bondsmen and decided to serve his sentence.

RED CROSS XMAS

Boxes for Soldiers at the Front Will Be Prepared Here

A committee of local Red Cross workers has been appointed to have charge of the preparation of Christmas boxes for Oregon soldiers at the front, which will have to be sent out within the next fortnight in order to fulfill their missions. The committee appointed comprises A. R. Jacobs, chairman; Mrs. C. G. Miller, Mrs. L. L. Pickens, James Cary and Mrs. Smith, of Gladstone. The committee's work will include the task of enlisting those interested in preparing edibles and articles of wear and in providing tobacco for the Christmas boxes. Public donations will be taken to purchase some of the necessary articles.

SUFFERING FROM COLD
If you shiver in frosty weather, if you have cold hands and feet, if colds are stubborn and frequent, then your blood may be thin and impoverished.

has been correcting this condition for nearly fifty years. It possesses rare powers for creating natural body warmth, for charging summer blood with winter richness and strengthening both throat and lungs.

The Norwegian cod liver oil in Scott's Emulsion is now refined in our own American laboratories which makes it pure and palatable. Scott & Bowne, Bloomfield, N.J. 17-12

PORTLANDERS HELD

Charged with Larceny Men Post Bond and Wait for Grand Jury

On charges of larceny, C. E. Clark and Harry Holland, of Portland, were held before Justice of the Peace John N. Sievers late last Thursday evening and, after posting bonds, were held for grand jury investigation. Clark, who is said to be a realty operator in Portland, and Holland are said to have been identified as the two who robbed the home of Edward Bowles, on the Tualatin, early this month. It is said that they backed a motor truck up to the Bowles summer home and loaded in household goods, including musical instruments, jewelry and some rifles.

The theft was reported to the Clackamas county officials from Portland, where the stolen goods were discovered in pawnshops, and, with the Portland department co-operating with Sheriff Wilson, of this county, the arrest of Clark and Holland was made Friday. They are charged with larceny in a dwelling in a complaint filed by District Attorney Gilbert L. Hedges.

The Whole Neighborhood Knows

Mrs. Anna Pelzer, 2526 Jefferson St., So. Omaha, Neb., writes: "I can recommend Foley's Honey and Tar as a sure cure for coughs and colds. It cured my daughter of a bad cold. My neighbor, Mrs. Benson, cured herself and her whole family with Foley's Honey and Tar, and everyone in our neighborhood speaks highly of it." This reliable family remedy masters croup, it clears the air passages and eases the gasping, strangling fight for breath.—Jones Drug Co.

DIED

Died, at her home at New Era on Friday, October 19, at the age of six years, nine months and three days, Ruth Alberta Mead, daughter of Walter L. and Ruth Mead. The little sufferer was ill less than a week with brain fever. She has not gone to some distant clime but remains with us in unseen conditions, but with the same love of all and interest in our happiness. Our two worlds are so near, yet so far, and as time goes on in its flight, we may all understand, as we march on our individual paths through eternity. We grieve for our loss, but we might also rejoice in the worthy promotion of our loved ones. We feel that in all kinds of earthly weather our spirits shall always be together.—(P. W. Meredith.)

FIRE CLAY PLANT RISES

Will Produce Stoneware from Large Deposits at Molalla

Great possibilities are in store for the Molalla country as a result of the establishment there of the Molalla Fire Clay Co., which is preparing to manufacture in large quantities a fine variety of stoneware for household and other uses. Gordon J. Taylor, indirectly interested in the company, in that he wants to see the city and country thereabout prosper, Tuesday brought into the Courier office a sample of the product of the plant and from an unprofessional viewpoint it appears to be the equal, if not superior, to anything on the market. The plant will market its ware under the name of "Specialty Stoneware" and a large sale is anticipated by the authorities who have tested the materials from which it is made.

It is said that the fire clay deposit at Molalla is the only one of its kind this side of the Mississippi river and would supply that entire field if the plant can produce large enough outputs. The materials and the products have been tested here and in the east by experts, who say it is perfect for that class of clay and goods.

BUSCH BUILDS PLANT

Addition to Recently Purchased Mill Being Erected Here

Frank Busch, Sr., who, with his sons, recently returned to the furniture manufacturing business after many years, during which they have confined themselves strictly to the retail end of the business, has started the construction of a furniture factory on his property at Twelfth and Water streets. Mr. Busch recently purchased a large mill in this county for the manufacture of furniture, which he proposes to sell only through his large local store. The factory in this city will be an addition to the mill property and plant. The new factory is to be located at the end of the Willamette Valley Southern tracks, affording excellent rail transportation from the mill. A wharf may also be built to afford water transportation, and with this in view Mr. Busch has applied to the proper department at Washington for permission to use the river bank at low water stages.

SWISS WANTS A WIFE

Jennings Lodge Man Married Wife, Home and Five Children
Extracts from a letter which Bro. M. L. Boyd, editor of the Polk County Itemizer, Dallas, received from Jennings Lodge, this county, are interesting. The writer saw a picture of Editor Boyd's little daughter, a purchaser of Liberty bonds, in a Portland paper, and the picture inspired the following English:

Dear Sir,

When I seen your little girl buying Liberty Bond to trash the Kaiser it tickled me to Dead. I am a Swiss, I never had no use for the Kaiser the way he been doing sinking every Schipp he can, I don't call that fighting he is a coward that is all. 8 years ago I put an ad in the Evening Telegram, I would like to get married to a middle aged widow with a home I am a middle aged man no children, and I got 8 answers and I married one from Oregon City and I couldn't got a better woman if I wanted to, but she only lived 5 years after we where married and she died with cancer. I was in the Milk Business in Oregon City I started in with 1 cow and in a years time we was milking 19 cows. I and my wife, I worked myself up. My wife had a home and 5 children so when she died I had to divide up withem, and I felt so lonesome and sold out my business and bought out a restaurant in Oregon City and that Swindler Swindled me out of everything, now if I could a marrie one with a home again I could worke myself up again and so I thot advertize in a other News Papper in another Town. I always wanted to go up to the Dallas so if I had any luck advertizing I may be able to live up there, to tell the truth I had a Ad in the Portland News, and he acted smart and answered me him self I didnt think that was smart for I hurt him more than he hurt me. I am a Man well known and well liked if I do say so, but now I wouldnt read the News any more it is no News Papper any how, for I see he talks every thing out a the other News Papper and so I thot Ill ask you wheter you print a Daly Papper or Monthley and I would trust in you to be earnest with me for I had had lucke, loosing my wife and every thing.

Mr. and Mrs. Hawley Tour

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Hawley Sr., have gone to California to spend several weeks on a pleasure trip, one of the first of such a nature that the owner of the big Hawley mills here has taken in many years. Mr. and Mrs. Hawley will stop first at San Francisco, and will then go to southern California, where they expect to tour extensively by automobile. W. P. Hawley Jr., is in full charge of the business of the Hawley Pulp & Paper company during his father's absence.

Commission Gets Judgment

The state industrial accident commission Friday was awarded a judgment in the sum of $161.62 against W. N. Chilcote for failure to pay his contribution to the accident fund. The case went by default.
