A POPULAR VERDICT.
Based on Evidence of Oregon City People.

Grateful thousands tell it—
Of weak back made strong—
Of weak kidneys made well—
Of urinary disorders corrected.
Oregon City people add their testimony.

They praise Doan's Kidney Pills.
Oregon City evidence is now complete.

Oregon City testimony is confirmed; Reports of early relief substantiated. Merit doubly proved by test of time. Let an Oregon City citizen speak.

Thomas Trembath, 310 Sixth street, Oregon City, says: "I have found Doan's Kidney Pills, procured from Huntley Bros. Co's Drug Store, an excellent medicine and they have my endorsement. I used them on two occasions when my back and kidneys bothered me and they certainly made the soreness and lameness in my back disappear in short order." (Statement given April 4, 1913.) On April 17, 1916, Mr. Trembath said: "Doan's Kidney Pills can't be equalled for backache and kidney trouble. Whenever my back gets to hurting or my kidneys are out of fix, a few doses of Doan's Kidney Pills does the work."

Price 50c at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Trembath has twice publicly recommended. Foster - Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y. (Adv.)

Throne Jewels.
In the "gold pantry" at Windsor castle, one of England's chief royal palaces, is the gold tiger's head taken from Tippu Sahib's throne in 1780. It is life size, and the teeth and eyes are of rock crystal. Another relic captured at the same time is the jeweled bird called the umu, shaped like a pigeon, with a peacock tail. The feathers blaze with precious stones, and a great emerald hangs from its breast. According to an old Indian legend, whoever owns this bird will rule India.

COMPANIES WILL GIVE EMPLOYEES XMAS PRESENTS

SEVENTEEN HUNDRED WORKERS IN LOCAL PLANTS TO BENEFIT BY GENEROSITY.

PAYDAY, WHICH COMES DECEMBER 25, IS SET AHEAD ON CALENDAR

Hawley Company Will Give Box Cigars to Single Men and Turkeys to Married Ones—Crown Willamette Makes Plans.

Seventeen hundred employees of three big Oregon City corporations—the Hawley Pulp & Paper company, the Crown Willamette Paper company and the Oregon City Woolen mills—will probably share the present prosperity in the paper and woolen trades at Christmas time with their employers.

The Hawley company will spend $1500 for Christmas presents for its men. Willard P. Hawley, Jr., is acting as Santa Claus' special representative for the pulp and has bought 150 boxes of high grade cigars for the single men. The married men will receive a turkey, weight between 10 and 12 pounds, as a Christmas present from their employers and Mr. Hawley has insisted that only the best in the Portland markets be sent here for the gifts.

The figures, 150 and 350, show the proportion of single to married men in the employ of the Hawley company. Only three or four single men will receive turkeys because they have their mothers dependent upon them. The gifts reflect Mr. Hawley's policy to favor married men, not only in the matter of Christmas presents, but in employing men as well.

Both the Crown Willamette and the Hawley mills will pay their men the Saturday before Christmas, as Christmas day, December 25, comes on the date of the usual payday.

The Crown Willamette company, with 900 men on its payrolls here, is the largest employer of labor in the county. Local officials have not received information concerning the usual Christmas gift of one day's pay given each man, but it is generally understood that this practice will prevail. The average pay at the big plant is $3.10 a day, and the total amount distributed among the 900 men will be, therefore, $2790.

Adolph Jacobs, president of the Oregon City Manufacturing company, said Wednesday night that his company was completing arrangements to follow out its usual custom of giving each of its 300 employees a Christmas present.

Iron in Plants.
Iron is the substance which gives the green appearance to foliage. It forms a constituent part of chlorophyll and is the green coloring matter which stains the bodies inside the cells of leaves, called plastids.

When the first organized food is being formed in the leaves from water and carbonic acid gas a certain amount of energy is required. This is obtained from the sun's rays, but the work of absorbing it is carried out by the chlorophyll. It requires very little iron for the production of all the chlorophyll found in a crop, and nearly all soils contain an abundant supply—London Standard.

Mosquitoes Don't Like Yellow.
People who wish to avoid the bite of the mosquito should wear yellow. Of all colors the mosquito is most partial to red, especially deep blood red, although the fact has nothing to do with its fondness for blood. For yellow it shows the deepest aversion and shuns it on all occasions. It is said that the seeping power of the mosquito is so keen that it is susceptible to color even in the ordinary darkness of night; hence nightdresses or bed coverings of a yellow color will aid in keeping mosquitoes at a respectful distance.

Curious Courtship.
In the strange land of the Tarascan Indians in Mexico the visitor, after attaining something of a friendly footing, may still witness some of the equally strange practices which the first Spaniards observed. In courting the lover goes to the well where his beloved is accustomed to fill her water jar. He holds her shawl until she accepts him, and then with a stick he breaks the jar which she holds on her head and gives her a betrothal baptism of water.

The man who knows how to work his way through college for an education won't have any trouble afterward working his way through the world with an education.

A horse will live twenty-five days without solid food, merely drinking water; seventeen days without either eating or drinking and only five days when partaking of solid food without water.

RISE IN NAVY URGED
WASHINGTON, Dec. 13.—An increase of $5 a month in the pay of every enlisted man in the navy has been recommended by Secretary Daniels to the house naval committee. It would add $3,000,000 a year to the pay roll. The secretary declared that the enlisted men were being called upon constantly to do more and more difficult work. Mr. Daniels disapproved of a plan for a bonus to stimulate the enlistment campaign.

PERMANENT ORGANIZATION OF COUNTY ANGLERS' ASSOCIATION IS COMPLETED

Permanent organization of the Clackamas County Anglers' association was completed at a meeting in the Commercial club parlors Wednesday night, officers were elected and plans for future work were made.

The officers are: President, George Ransom; vice-president, Charles Moulton; secretary-treasurer, H. J. Staats; and executive board, the three officers and O. D. Eby and H. Leighton Kelly. The constitution and bylaws were adopted.

About 50 anglers attended the meeting and 10 new members were secured. Officers of the association believe that within the next few months the total membership will be around 500.

A discussion of county control of fish and game work, as contrasted with the present method of state control, took up a large part of the evening and was generally favored. Judge Grant B. Dimick said that the administration of game and fish laws would be more effective and economical under the county-control plan, and that it would take the enforcement of the laws and the protection of game out of politics.

Bert Greenman, brother of Fred Greenman of this city, discussed the plan in use in Washington. He is in charge of a fish hatchery in Yakima county. With 80 per cent of the money derived from the sale of fishing and hunting licenses the county was able to employ wardens, operate a hatchery and meet other expenses in enforcing the laws, and do the work better than the state.

A special meeting of the association will be held next Tuesday night in the Commercial club parlors when the proposed closing of the Willamette river to net fishing will be debated. Representatives will be present from the Multnomah Anglers' club, an organization which has gone on record in favor of closing the river. Supporters of an open river will also be present. Clackamas county's extension to the 1917 legislature will be invited to attend the meeting.

SELF DECEPTION.
Of all solitary games the soonest learned is self deception. The dullest mind can grasp it. The wisest have ever enjoyed it. We all find escape in its blandishments. No sweeter substitute for courage, conscience and self denial is yet discovered. But the awakening when it comes, if it does come in time, is humiliating.

Don't.
When you feel in a scrappy mood don't try to take a fall out of an airship.—Chicago News.

Not a Born Forger.
The indorsement of checks is a very simple thing; but, as the following story will show, it also has its difficulties.

A woman went into a bank where she had several times presented checks drawn to Mrs. Lucy R. Smith. This time the check was made to the order of Mrs. M. J. Smith. M. J. were her husband's initials. She explained this to the paying teller and asked what she should do.

"Oh, that is all right," he said. "Just indorse it as it is written there." She took the check and after much hesitation said, "I don't think I can make an M like that."

Javanese Music.
The angkwang orchestra is a peculiar Javanese institution. The instrument known as the angkwang is made of a Java bamboo tree. Different instruments have bamboo tubes of different tones, and they are played like the chimes one sees in vaudeville or the musical glasses. The airs are simple, but characteristic. When Dwight Elmendorf was in Java he wrote out the music of an angkwang air and brought a set of the instruments to the United States. This orchestra makes music for the characteristic "hobby-hobby" dance of Java. The dancers beset their paper designs, decorated to represent the head, neck, mane and tail of a horse, and gallop wildly about.

Objected to the Publicity.
Man's instinctive and perfectly reasonable preference for reprimand delivered in private is illustrated by a story told by Lieutenant General Sir William Butler, G. C. B., in his autobiography.

A general commanding at Aldershot had been forcibly reprimanded by a royal commander in chief. He openly rebelled.

"I don't mind being called a fool," he said, "if it pleases your royal highness to call me so, but I do mind being called a fool before your royal highness' other fools," sweeping his hand toward the commander in chief's large and brilliant staff.

Guillermo Snyman, son of the late General W. D. Snyman of Boer war fame; Howard Weeks, or Howard Gray, as he was known in Mexico, and an American named Foster were the names added to the death scroll of Villa's banditry. Although they were believed to have been killed many days ago, the news of their fate reached the border only today, when messages and refugees told of their fate.

Young Snyman was reported to have met his death at San Pablo Meoqui, Chihuahua, near Chihuahua City; Howard Weeks, an employee of an American mining concern, was called to the door of his home near Parral while he was eating supper with his family, was shot through the head, also by Villa bandits, and his body then hanged in the doorway, according to information brought to the border today by Spanish refugees. Weeks, who went by the name of Gray, was married and had five children.

Little have yet been learned of the third victim. A letter from a Spaniard in Torreon to a countryman here said an American named Foster had been horribly maltreated and then burned to death at a stake in the presence of his son.

Villa's bandits also wrecked vengeance on Americans in Chihuahua City by looting American homes, carrying off large quantities of American-owned property and destroying what they were unable to haul away, messages received here late today from the Chihuahua capital say.
