

BETTER ROADS
on this side of the River.

THE OSWEGO RECORD

RAILROAD Connection with County Seat.

DEVOTED TO THE BEST INTERESTS OF OSWEGO AND VICINITY

THE OSWEGO RECORD
PUBLISHED EVERY FRIDAY.

Advertising rates made known upon request.

PUPILS INTERESTED IN OSWEGO SCHOOLS

CHILDREN ATTEND SCHOOL AND
PLACED ON ROLL OF HONOR
BY TEACHERS.

OSWEGO, Ore., Dec. 21.—(Special)—Pupils of the first and second grades who were neither absent nor tardy during the month ending December 1: Earl Hughes, Clarence Hendrick, Ietta Haines, Ruth Costello, Lela Walk, Sybil Rollins, Bernice Schaubel, Ivan Walk, Charles McDonald, Arno Voss, Mary Haines, Agnes Todd, Joe Nixon, Denny McDonald, Christie McDonald, Edna Hill, Russell Hays, Cecil Hallinan, Alice Hendrick, David Handley, Irma Voss, teacher.

Pupils of the 5th and 6th grade, who were neither absent nor tardy: Merle Chuck, Nell Westergard, Ernest Schaubel, Gordon Clinfelter, Dustin Brumbaugh, Laurence Erwin, Frank Schaubel, Earl Schaubel, Harry Johnson, Lyle Baker, Clarence Taylor, Doris Niebusch, Julia Wilson, Ione King, Leola Todd, Alta Wirtz, Edith Becker, Dorothy Baker, Mary Becker, teacher.

Pupils of the seventh and eighth grades: Martha Smoke, Erna Schaubel, Mary Wilson, Edith Meyers, Goldie Neal, Clark Neal, B. A. Voss, principal. Third and fourth grades: Gladys McDonald, Grace Cooper, Dagman Westergard, Alice Zellar, Flossie Risor, Willie Risor, Fay Erwin, Oren Primm, Virle Hays, Wallace Worthington, Martin Johnson, Mason Worthington, William Brumbaugh, Lucille Duncan, teacher.

MRS. GEORGE SCHNELLER
CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY

MRS. JOHN CONWAY ENTERTAINS
IN DELIGHTFUL MANNER AT HER HOME.

OSWEGO, Ore., Dec. 21.—(Special)—Mrs. John Conway invited a few friends, as a surprise party to her mother, Mrs. Geo. Schneller, December 15th. Mrs. Schneller was seventy-one years young and hale and hearty.

Mrs. Ed. Sinclair played a number of selections upon the piano. Cards were the program for the evening. A dainty lunch, consisting of sandwiches, cake and coffee, were served.

Those present were: Miss Edna Elston, Mrs. Douglas Gilles, Mrs. Otto Johnson, Mrs. Ed. Sinclair, Mr. and Mrs. Metzger and children, Mr. and Mrs. H. Schaubel, Mrs. Stachman, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Clay, Mrs. Hill, Mr. and Mrs. August Kempin, Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Haines, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Leslie, Mr. and Mrs. Stiermeyer, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Conway, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Rosentreter and son, J. Conway and Harold Conway and Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Schneller.

Mr. and Mrs. Schneller are Oregon pioneers and lived at Sherwood many years before coming to Oswego. Mrs. Schneller's many friends all join in wishing her many more happy birthday. One grand grandson was present, the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Rosentreter.

RESOLUTIONS OF CONDOLENCE.

Whereas, It has pleased Almighty God in his divine wisdom to remove from our midst and from those he loved, Brother Carl Anderson, and Whereas, In the death of Brother Anderson, Oswego Lodge No. 93, I. O. O. F., and the community in which he resided has lost one of its best members, one who was always kind, generous, and practiced the principles of true Odd Fellowship, ever ready to help those in need and distress.

Therefore be it Resolved, That we, the members of Oswego Lodge No. 93, I. O. O. F., tender our heartfelt sympathy to the relatives and to the friends of the deceased in this their sad hour and bereavement.

Be it Resolved, That in his death this lodge loses a faithful and loving member, loved and respected by all, and no words or eulogy spoken by us can add to the manly worth of the life he lived.

Be it Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the minutes, and the charter of this lodge be draped in mourning, in memory of our deceased brother, also copies sent to the son, daughter, and other relatives

OSWEGO LOCALS

OSWEGO, Ore., Dec. 21.—(Special)

—Mrs. J. C. Haines, Sr., and Mrs. Rosetta Hendrick were called to Portland Friday evening because of the serious illness of Mrs. Haines' granddaughter, little Pearl Coon, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arch Coon.

Mrs. Raser, of Lake Grove, was an Oswego caller Friday.

Mrs. C. Conant and daughter, Kathryn, of Portland, and Mrs. Robert Call, of Los Angeles, were the guests Friday of Mrs. Conant's mother, Mrs. Bertha Anderson.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Fitzgerald, of Roseburg, were luncheon guests of Mr. and Mrs. Perry Mosier Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Burghoist entertained them at dinner Friday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Fitzgerald were married at Vancouver, Wash., Wednesday. Mr. Fitzgerald is foreman of the Portland Cement Co. quarries at Roseburg.

J. W. King, of Portland, and his wife, Mrs. A. King, of North Yakima, Wash., are the guests of the former's sister, Mrs. A. King.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Clyde Bonden visited the former's mother, Mrs. Arnbright, of Portland, Sunday.

Mrs. Carson, of Bryans, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Meagher, Sunday.

E. V. Cooper, attended a meeting of the Live Wires at Oregon City Tuesday. Mr. Cooper is very much opposed to the annexation to Multnomah county movement, and thinks that a mass meeting should be called to discuss the pros and cons of the subject, before bringing it before the legislative body, and to find out the real sentiments of the voters and also to discuss the different problems that may arise from such annexation as better roads, taxation, etc.

Geo. Morgan was an Oswego visitor Sunday. He is connected with the Home Telephone company.

The Woman's club held an interesting meeting at the club room Wednesday. Mrs. Brooks, of Corvallis, talked upon "Domestic Art." As this was a semi-public affair the club furnished the lunch, which was served by the program committee.

Mrs. B. A. Bliss entertained at luncheon Wednesday Mrs. L. Talbot, Mrs. E. P. Day, Mrs. Gus Smith and Mrs. F. Schawper.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Bothke attended the hockey game at the Ice Hippodrome Friday evening.

Mrs. Grant White and Mrs. Prouty, of Canby, were Oswego visitors Tuesday.

The Dorcas society of the Congregational church, held a very interesting meeting at the home of Mrs. E. P. Clay last Friday afternoon. About twenty-five ladies were present. A "silver tea" was served which netted quite a neat little sum for the society.

Miss Lucille Duncan, the third and fourth grade teacher, has been ill the past two weeks. Miss Dora Pennevis has charge of her pupils during her absence.

Misses Elizabeth Puymbroeck and Marion Eastman, two Oswego girls from the High School of Commerce, Portland, sold Bank of Sympathy stock for charity Saturday.

L. A. Evans celebrated his birthday Sunday at the home of his mother, Mrs. August Kempin, at dinner he entertained little Ietta Haines, whose birthday was the same day. In the evening his mother invited a few friends in to spend the evening and lunch was served. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. August Kempin, Mrs. Hughes, Misses Annie Meyers, Annie Hill, Sadie Hill, Chas. Hill and L. A. Evans.

Mrs. Laurence Stafford, of Salt Lake City, arrived Thursday evening to spend the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Niebusch.

The many friends of Mr. Geo. Prosser will be sorry to learn that he is seriously ill again.

Mrs. Martha Hayes, of Portland, was a weekend guest of her niece, Mrs. T. R. Clinfelter.

Mrs. Leona Thomas was called to Portland because of the serious illness of her mother, Mrs. Patterson.

E. V. Cooke has returned from a business trip through Washington.

C. H. Rosentreter was an Oregon City visitor Tuesday.

Mrs. Blanche Jones, of Highland is visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Dyer.

Miss Veri Todd is spending the holidays with her sister, Mrs. Clyde Churchill, of Estacada.

Mr. Al Remers and M. C. McAllister, of Yamhill, visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Remers, Friday.

Frank Lemery, of Alberta, Canada, is visiting his sisters, Mrs. Geo. Thomas and Mrs. J. Hill.

Clyde Churchill, of Estacada, was an Oswego visitor Friday.

Little Marion Emmett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emmett, is very ill, suffering with grippe of the bowels.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Remers, of Mid-deton, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Remers, and Mr. and Mrs. A. Turnbull, Sunday.

The school children are each donating some one thing in the way of food or clothing for charitable purposes this week as a Christmas gift to the poor. This donation will be given to various institutions.

A Christmas program will be rendered at both the Methodist and Congregational churches. This year there will be Christmas trees for the little folks.

Lloyd Todd spent a few days the past week with his sister, Mrs. Clyde Churchill, at Estacada.

Neel Matheson, a former resident of Oswego, was an Oswego caller Friday.

Mr. Matheson has been away from Oswego for twenty-five years. He is now a resident of Portland, but expects to go to California the first of the year.

Mrs. Wm. Murray, and daughter, Miss Muriel Julian, of Portland, were guests of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Fox, Sunday.

Mr. Geo. Morgan of Portland was an Oswego visitor Sunday.

Gordon Stratton, of St. Johns, was a guest of C. N. Haines, Sunday.

Jack VanHorn visited his uncle, Thos. Fox Sunday. Mr. VanHorn recently returned from the east, where he visited his mother, Mrs. Anna VanHorn, formerly of Oswego, and Mrs. Geo. Conser, of Thurmond, West Virginia, and a sister, Mrs. Geo. Wance, at Jefferson, Ohio, and other relatives at Ironton, Ohio. He also visited near Miami, Florida, where he has twenty acres planted in grape fruit. Mr. VanHorn is connected with the O. R. & N. Co.

Mr. Geo. Morgan of Portland was an Oswego visitor Sunday.

Gordon Stratton, of St. Johns, was a guest of C. N. Haines, Sunday.

Jack VanHorn visited his uncle, Thos. Fox Sunday. Mr. VanHorn recently returned from the east, where he visited his mother, Mrs. Anna VanHorn, formerly of Oswego, and Mrs. Geo. Conser, of Thurmond, West Virginia, and a sister, Mrs. Geo. Wance, at Jefferson, Ohio, and other relatives at Ironton, Ohio. He also visited near Miami, Florida, where he has twenty acres planted in grape fruit. Mr. VanHorn is connected with the O. R. & N. Co.

Mr. Geo. Morgan of Portland was an Oswego visitor Sunday.

Gordon Stratton, of St. Johns, was a guest of C. N. Haines, Sunday.

Jack VanHorn visited his uncle, Thos. Fox Sunday. Mr. VanHorn recently returned from the east, where he visited his mother, Mrs. Anna VanHorn, formerly of Oswego, and Mrs. Geo. Conser, of Thurmond, West Virginia, and a sister, Mrs. Geo. Wance, at Jefferson, Ohio, and other relatives at Ironton, Ohio. He also visited near Miami, Florida, where he has twenty acres planted in grape fruit. Mr. VanHorn is connected with the O. R. & N. Co.

Mr. Geo. Morgan of Portland was an Oswego visitor Sunday.

Gordon Stratton, of St. Johns, was a guest of C. N. Haines, Sunday.

Jack VanHorn visited his uncle, Thos. Fox Sunday. Mr. VanHorn recently returned from the east, where he visited his mother, Mrs. Anna VanHorn, formerly of Oswego, and Mrs. Geo. Conser, of Thurmond, West Virginia, and a sister, Mrs. Geo. Wance, at Jefferson, Ohio, and other relatives at Ironton, Ohio. He also visited near Miami, Florida, where he has twenty acres planted in grape fruit. Mr. VanHorn is connected with the O. R. & N. Co.

Mr. Geo. Morgan of Portland was an Oswego visitor Sunday.

Gordon Stratton, of St. Johns, was a guest of C. N. Haines, Sunday.

Jack VanHorn visited his uncle, Thos. Fox Sunday. Mr. VanHorn recently returned from the east, where he visited his mother, Mrs. Anna VanHorn, formerly of Oswego, and Mrs. Geo. Conser, of Thurmond, West Virginia, and a sister, Mrs. Geo. Wance, at Jefferson, Ohio, and other relatives at Ironton, Ohio. He also visited near Miami, Florida, where he has twenty acres planted in grape fruit. Mr. VanHorn is connected with the O. R. & N. Co.

Mr. Geo. Morgan of Portland was an Oswego visitor Sunday.

Gordon Stratton, of St. Johns, was a guest of C. N. Haines, Sunday.

Jack VanHorn visited his uncle, Thos. Fox Sunday. Mr. VanHorn recently returned from the east, where he visited his mother, Mrs. Anna VanHorn, formerly of Oswego, and Mrs. Geo. Conser, of Thurmond, West Virginia, and a sister, Mrs. Geo. Wance, at Jefferson, Ohio, and other relatives at Ironton, Ohio. He also visited near Miami, Florida, where he has twenty acres planted in grape fruit. Mr. VanHorn is connected with the O. R. & N. Co.

Mr. Geo. Morgan of Portland was an Oswego visitor Sunday.

Gordon Stratton, of St. Johns, was a guest of C. N. Haines, Sunday.

Jack VanHorn visited his uncle, Thos. Fox Sunday. Mr. VanHorn recently returned from the east, where he visited his mother, Mrs. Anna VanHorn, formerly of Oswego, and Mrs. Geo. Conser, of Thurmond, West Virginia, and a sister, Mrs. Geo. Wance, at Jefferson, Ohio, and other relatives at Ironton, Ohio. He also visited near Miami, Florida, where he has twenty acres planted in grape fruit. Mr. VanHorn is connected with the O. R. & N. Co.

Mr. Geo. Morgan of Portland was an Oswego visitor Sunday.

Gordon Stratton, of St. Johns, was a guest of C. N. Haines, Sunday.

Jack VanHorn visited his uncle, Thos. Fox Sunday. Mr. VanHorn recently returned from the east, where he visited his mother, Mrs. Anna VanHorn, formerly of Oswego, and Mrs. Geo. Conser, of Thurmond, West Virginia, and a sister, Mrs. Geo. Wance, at Jefferson, Ohio, and other relatives at Ironton, Ohio. He also visited near Miami, Florida, where he has twenty acres planted in grape fruit. Mr. VanHorn is connected with the O. R. & N. Co.

Mr. Geo. Morgan of Portland was an Oswego visitor Sunday.

Gordon Stratton, of St. Johns, was a guest of C. N. Haines, Sunday.

Jack VanHorn visited his uncle, Thos. Fox Sunday. Mr. VanHorn recently returned from the east, where he visited his mother, Mrs. Anna VanHorn, formerly of Oswego, and Mrs. Geo. Conser, of Thurmond, West Virginia, and a sister, Mrs. Geo. Wance, at Jefferson, Ohio, and other relatives at Ironton, Ohio. He also visited near Miami, Florida, where he has twenty acres planted in grape fruit. Mr. VanHorn is connected with the O. R. & N. Co.

Mr. Geo. Morgan of Portland was an Oswego visitor Sunday.

Gordon Stratton, of St. Johns, was a guest of C. N. Haines, Sunday.

Jack VanHorn visited his uncle, Thos. Fox Sunday. Mr. VanHorn recently returned from the east, where he visited his mother, Mrs. Anna VanHorn, formerly of Oswego, and Mrs. Geo. Conser, of Thurmond, West Virginia, and a sister, Mrs. Geo. Wance, at Jefferson, Ohio, and other relatives at Ironton, Ohio. He also visited near Miami, Florida, where he has twenty acres planted in grape fruit. Mr. VanHorn is connected with the O. R. & N. Co.

Mr. Geo. Morgan of Portland was an Oswego visitor Sunday.

Gordon Stratton, of St. Johns, was a guest of C. N. Haines, Sunday.

Jack VanHorn visited his uncle, Thos. Fox Sunday. Mr. VanHorn recently returned from the east, where he visited his mother, Mrs. Anna VanHorn, formerly of Oswego, and Mrs. Geo. Conser, of Thurmond, West Virginia, and a sister, Mrs. Geo. Wance, at Jefferson, Ohio, and other relatives at Ironton, Ohio. He also visited near Miami, Florida, where he has twenty acres planted in grape fruit. Mr. VanHorn is connected with the O. R. & N. Co.

Mr. Geo. Morgan of Portland was an Oswego visitor Sunday.

Gordon Stratton, of St. Johns, was a guest of C. N. Haines, Sunday.

Jack VanHorn visited his uncle, Thos. Fox Sunday. Mr. VanHorn recently returned from the east, where he visited his mother, Mrs. Anna VanHorn, formerly of Oswego, and Mrs. Geo. Conser, of Thurmond, West Virginia, and a sister, Mrs. Geo. Wance, at Jefferson, Ohio, and other relatives at Ironton, Ohio. He also visited near Miami, Florida, where he has twenty acres planted in grape fruit. Mr. VanHorn is connected with the O. R. & N. Co.

Mr. Geo. Morgan of Portland was an Oswego visitor Sunday.

Gordon Stratton, of St. Johns, was a guest of C. N. Haines, Sunday.

Jack VanHorn visited his uncle, Thos. Fox Sunday. Mr. VanHorn recently returned from the east, where he visited his mother, Mrs. Anna VanHorn, formerly of Oswego, and Mrs. Geo. Conser, of Thurmond, West Virginia, and a sister, Mrs. Geo. Wance, at Jefferson, Ohio, and other relatives at Ironton, Ohio. He also visited near Miami, Florida, where he has twenty acres planted in grape fruit. Mr. VanHorn is connected with the O. R. & N. Co.

Mr. Geo. Morgan of Portland was an Oswego visitor Sunday.

Gordon Stratton, of St. Johns, was a guest of C. N. Haines, Sunday.

Jack VanHorn visited his uncle, Thos. Fox Sunday. Mr. VanHorn recently returned from the east, where he visited his mother, Mrs. Anna VanHorn, formerly of Oswego, and Mrs. Geo. Conser, of Thurmond, West Virginia, and a sister, Mrs. Geo. Wance, at Jefferson, Ohio, and other relatives at Ironton, Ohio. He also visited near Miami, Florida, where he has twenty acres planted in grape fruit. Mr. VanHorn is connected with the O. R. & N. Co.

Mr. Geo. Morgan of Portland was an Oswego visitor Sunday.

morning, accompanied by Mrs. A. C. Brown and Mrs. Oscar Skoug.

The funeral services of A. C. Brown were held Friday, at the home on the Otfield road at the head of Courtney road. Rev. Daw DeLong conducted the service. Charles Hart sang a solo, accompanied by the guitar. The pallbearers were Grand Army veterans and friends of the departed. Interment was in River View cemetery.

Mrs. Thad Moore and daughter, Ina, left Wednesday morning for Des Moines, Iowa.

Mrs. L. P. Bushnell was a Portland visitor Monday.

M. D. Howard is loading a car of household furniture, 200 sacks of potatoes and some livestock to ship east. F. H. Harris is doing the hauling.

Miss Myrtle Williams was a Portland visitor Monday afternoon.

 STAFFORD. *****

STAFFORD, Ore., Dec. 21.—(Special)—We are sorry to hear the rumor that Mr. VanNortwick, of the corner store, has sold out, although he may stay on the place until spring.

Mrs. VanNortwick has gone to spend a week with her husband's parents near Forest Grove.

It is said upon good authority that the school boys have given up playing marbles for keeps and find they have just as much fun.

Mrs. Nemes had hogs killed last week.

Mr. Fay is busy putting in grain on the fields he rented of Mrs. Nemes.

Mrs. Gage visited at Mrs. Nemes's one day last week.

Mrs. Nussbaum will have the children and their mothers at her house one evening this week to prepare ornaments for the Christmas tree at the chapel on Christmas eve.

Christmas shopping is the favorite pastime these days.

The slogan, "Come early and avoid the rush," has no particular meaning to the Christmas shopper.

Roy Gage spent the afternoon Sunday with George Rabbe.

 HAZELIA. *****

HAZELIA, Ore., Dec. 21.—(Special)—There were no preaching services at Hazelia Saturday evening. A crowd with the Rev. Coleman arrived and waited outside until the door key arrived and as it was so late by that time, a few songs were sung and then home hoping the door would be unlocked by 7:30 Saturday evening.

December 30, the date Mr. Coleman will be with us again.

Henry and Emil Zivney were pleasant callers of C. Antone and Shirley Bouts Thursday morning.

Miss Mabel Dunn was an Oswego visitor Monday.

Jerry Flala, one of the good solid dairy farmers of this section, was a visitor in Tualatin Meadows Wednesday.

Henry Zivney called on A. E. Thomas Wednesday.

Roy Foster was a Portland visitor Saturday.

S. S. and Albert Bouts were visitors in Alto Park Tuesday.

Henry and Emil Zivney called on their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Zivney Thursday.

Shirley O. Bouts spent a pleasant afternoon at the Hazelia school Thursday.

Richard J. Zivney loaded a car in Oswego with first class hay last week.

Miss Edna Porter, of Oswego, was a visitor in this burg last week.

Jerry Flala was busy hunting straw Monday.

Miss Dorothy Zivney spent Saturday in Oregon City visiting friends. Miss Zivney formerly lived in Oregon City.

Miss Lucille Duncan is ill at this writing and is unable to teach school. Miss Duncan is teacher in the Oswego school.

Theodore Steinhilber was a visitor in Portland Saturday.

C. C. Borland and H. M. Borland bailed hay for A. S. Thomas Monday.

Mr. Baldis and family of Portland, spent the week end at their country home at Hazelia.

C. C. Borland was a visitor in Oswego Saturday.

J. S. Bouts was a business visitor in Oregon City Monday.

Mrs. Joseph Zivney has returned to her home at this place after visiting for some time in Oregon City with her daughter.

Remember the Xmas tree Saturday evening to be given by the Hazelia Literary and Debating society.

Mrs. Fred Lehman sang the "Holy City" very impressively at the Hazelia Sunday school last Sunday.

 WILSONVILLE. *****

WILSONVILLE, Ore., Dec. 21.—(Special)—Clyde Baker visited his parents on Tuesday, returning Wednesday to Portland.

The Hood View basketball team was defeated at Mulloy on Saturday evening by a small margin, the score being 22 to 26 in favor of the Mulloy team.

N. O. Say attended a Masonic installation and banquet at Sherwood on Saturday evening.

Ira Seely and family spent Saturday in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Aden were in Portland some time last week, buying Christmas goods.

The Commercial club will have election of officers on Friday evening, December 22nd, and a banquet will be had at the close of the business meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Chalapsky and Mrs. Andy Hasselbrink went to Portland on Saturday.

Margaret Batalgia has been on the sick list for the past week.

Wilsonville school will have a Christmas tree and program on Friday afternoon, December 22nd.

Jennie Krump, state president, will be in attendance and deliver an address.

Mrs. L. F. Andrews, of Oregon City, will also be one of the speakers and there will be special music. A basket dinner will be served at noon in the basement of the church. The residents of our village and vicinity are not only cordially invited but are urged to attend.

Mrs. Ed. Baker and son, Orvid, went to Portland on Sunday.

The Christmas number of the "Morning Enterprise" has arrived and is a splendid edition, of which every county resident may feel justly proud. The paper is also a birthday number, the Enterprise having been giving out news for our county for half a century.

 STAFFORD. *****

STAFFORD, Ore., Dec. 21.—(Special)—We are sorry to hear the rumor that Mr. VanNortwick, of the corner store, has sold out, although he may stay on the place until spring.

Mrs. VanNortwick has gone to spend a week with her husband's parents near Forest Grove.

It is said upon good authority that the school boys have given up playing marbles for keeps and find they have just as much fun.

Mrs. Nemes had hogs killed last week.

Mr. Fay is busy putting in grain on the fields he rented of Mrs. Nemes.

Mrs. Gage visited at Mrs. Nemes's one day last week.

Mrs. Nussbaum will have the children and their mothers at her house one evening this week to prepare ornaments for the Christmas tree at the chapel on Christmas eve.

Christmas shopping is the favorite pastime these days.

The slogan, "Come early and avoid the rush," has no particular meaning to the Christmas shopper.

Roy Gage spent the afternoon Sunday with George Rabbe.

 HAZELIA. *****

HAZELIA, Ore., Dec. 21.—(Special)—There were no preaching services at Hazelia Saturday evening. A crowd with the Rev. Coleman arrived and waited outside until the door key arrived and as it was so late by that time, a few songs were sung and then home hoping the door would be unlocked by 7:30 Saturday evening.