REFERS TO RILEY POEM

Inspiring Lines to Old Glory Mentioned at Flag Raising

In his speech at the flag-raising exercises last Wednesday, Comrade W. R. Moores referred to a poem he had recently heard, and which impressed him deeply, entitled "Old Glory." The verses which answer the question: "Who gave you the name, 'Old Glory,'" are given below, and we submit that Comrade Moore's feeling reference to the poem and its inspiring sentiment was warranted. The poem was written by James Whitcomb Riley in 1898, in which the following lines occur:

"Who gave you, Old Glory, the name that you bear
With such pride everywhere,
Who gave you the name of Old Glory?"
Then occur the following lines (stanzas 3 and 4).
"Then the old banner leapt, like a sail in the blast,
And fluttered an audible answer at last—
And it spoke, with a shake of the voice, and it said—
By the driven snow-white and the living blood-red
Of my bars, and their heaven of stars overhead—
By the symbol conjoined of them all, skyward cast,
As I float from the steeple, or flap at the mast,
Or drop o'er the sod where the long grasses nod—
My name is as old as the glory of God.
So I came by the name of Old Glory."
—Literary Digest.

He Almost Fell Down
A. M. Hunsacker, Bogue Chitto, Miss., felt so grateful because of being freed from pain and distress that he wrote the following letter: "I was suffering from rheumatism, kidney and bladder trouble, also dizziness; would almost fall down at times. I started taking Foley Kidney Pills and two boxes gave me entire relief." Disordered kidneys give warning by pains in side and back, rheumatic aches, sore muscles, swollen joints, puffiness under eyes, tired and languid feeling.—Jones Drug Co.

Sheriff's Sale
In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon, for the County of Clackamas.
Anson E. Curtis, Plaintiff, vs.
Clarkie A. Wells, Meier & Frank Company, a corporation, and The Holding Company, a corporation, Defendants.

State of Oregon, County of Clackamas, ss.
By virtue of a judgment order, decree and an execution, duly issued out of and under the seal of the above entitled court, in the above entitled cause, to me duly directed and dated the 1st day of May, 1917, upon a judgment rendered and entered in said court on the 1st day of May, 1917, in favor of Anson E. Curtis, Plaintiff, and against Clarkie A. Wells, Meier & Frank Company, a corporation, and The Holding Company, a corporation, Defendants, for the sum of $1878.00, with interest thereon at the rate of 8 per cent per annum from the 20th day of March, 1917, and the further sum of $146.00, as attorney's fee, and the costs of and upon this writ, commanding me to make sale of the following described real property, situate in the county of Clackamas, state of Oregon, to-wit:

Commencing at a point 80 rods North of the Southeast corner of the Northwest quarter of Section 26 in Township 1 South Range 2 East of the Willamette Meridian, thence running North 20 rods along the East line of said Northwest quarter; thence running West 80 rods; thence South 20 rods; thence East 80 rods to the East line of said Northwest quarter, to the place of beginning, containing ten (10) acres; except thirty feet of the West end of said land for a public road.

Now Therefore, by virtue of said execution, judgment order and decree, and in compliance with the commands of said writ, I will, on Saturday, the 9th day of June, 1917, at the hour of 10 o'clock, A. M., at the front door of the County Court House in the City of Oregon City, in said County and State, sell at public auction, subject to redemption, to the highest bidder, for U. S. gold coin cash in hand, all the right, title and interest which the within named defendants or either of them had on the date of the mortgage herein or since had in or to the above described real property or any part thereof, to satisfy said execution, judgment order, decree, interest, costs and all accruing costs.
